In 1862 the Sioux Indians began a war on the white settlers of Minnesota, in which they killed nearly 500, and destroyed nearly a million dollars worth of property. Julius Elizer Barnes joined in the relief expedition. After helping to put down the Indian warfare, he made friends with the peace loving Indians, settling in Wilton, Waseca Co., Minn., where he lived until late in 1875. He lived at Woodruff, Phillips Co., Kansas from 1876 until 1894, when the house burned. As this was in the depression years, he took his wife and smaller children to Scranton, Pa. until 1898, when they returned to Woodruff. He died and was buried in the Woodruff Cemetery. He d. 12-8-1898.

The known descendants of Julius Elizer Barnes and Silvina Harriet VOUGHT b. 7-19-1841 at Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa. (We do not have her parentage at this time. She was Pennsylvania Dutch.) are as follows:

 BARNUM, (Barnes?) Timothy & w., o.c. Apr. 14, 1771

The 1790 census shows the following Barnes names:

Abraham	1 m. over 16,	2 m. under 16,	2 fem. ;	0 other
Isaac	2	3	3	0

An interesting inscription is placed on the headstone of Eunice (Finch) Barnes, wife of Thomas Jr.. It reads "Beneath this stone I rest my head, In slumbers sweet Christ blest the bed, Don't weep for me, my pains are o'er, We hope to meet and part no more."

THOMAS BARNES OF BROOKLYN, McHENRY CO. ILL. (Thomas Barnes Jr. coded 4-D-(1)-5) Very little is known about the journey from N. Granby, Connecticut, or the reasons why the journey was made. This was a line of pioneers, who, it seems, chose to always be on the frontier. It is likely that he was a carpenter, as was many of his descendants, and moved forward with each wave of civilization to build the settlements. It is apparent that the greater portion of the Barnes families of Granby eventually made their way to McHenry Co., Ill. It is known that Gordon and Phebe (Barnes) Beckley stopped in Chenango co., New York, before going to Illinois. Thomas may have done likewise. The children of Thomas Barnes were stated on the previous page, and will not be repeated here.

JULIUS ELIZER BARNES b. 6-28-1822 (Family records state 6-28-1823) in N. Granby, Conn., son of Thomas Barnes Jr. (Thomas of Brooklyn) and Julia (Moore) Barnes; d. 12-8-1898 in Woodruff, Kansas; m. 1st. 2-22-1844, at Lorain Co., Ohio, Sylvia S. Butter (lic); She d. sometime between 1851 and 1857, probably in McHenry Co., Ill., leaving three children: Huron Granville, b. c 1845 in Ohio; Charles E., b. c. 1848 in Ill.; & Emma b. 1850. Emma m. a man named TAYLOR, who moved to Montana. He had a sheep ranch at Saco, Mont.. They had at least 3 children; Cecil, Macie, and Edna. It is thought that many of their descendants may live in and around Missoula, Montana.

Julius m. 2nd, Sylvina Harriet Vought (Some records show Sylviana & Vaught) at Ridgefield, McHenry Co., Ill., on 2-19-1858 (lic). She d. 2-14-1922, at Woodruff, Phillips Co., Kansas. They had 13 children, some of which settled on the west coast. Many of their descendants live in Oregon and California. They will be listed later.

Julius was a farmer and a carpenter. In those days a carpenter was an architect, engineer, mechanic, and builder.

THOMAS BARNES OF GRANBY CONNECTICUT, son of Samuel and Temperance; coded 4-D-(1); b. 2-15-1752, prob at Southington, Conn.; m. c 1790, PHEBE LANGDON b. 7-25-1755, dau of Capt. DANIEL LANGDON b. 1728, and PHEBE (CLARK) Langdon, of Southington, Conn. Captain Langdon served in the Rev. War. It seems likely that Thomas Barnes also served, but since the records show several Thomas Barnes's from Connecticut, most of which cannot be identified, we cannot be certain at this time.

Thomas Barnes and his wife Phebe resided at Newell's Corners, Southington, Conn., until 1814, according to one record; however on May, 16, 1814, and again 5-28-1816 he transferred Granby property to his sons Thomas Jr. and Samuel. Samuel did not take part in the first transaction, having previously obtained property (1-7-1813) from a Timothy Barnes. Timothy Barnes apparently held considerable property in Granby and/or North Granby prior to 7-7-1787, when he began to dispose of it. For further information consult Deeds- Granby, Conn. Vol. #1.

Thomas Barnes and Phebe (Langdon) Barnes died and were buried in the Barnes-Morriam Cemetry, one mile north, on west side of Silver Street, in North Granby, Conn.; he died 2-10-1831, she died 12-5-1836 AE 79. Their Children:

1. Samuel Barnes b. 3-4-1778 m. 1-19-1803, Lydia Curtis, dau of Solomon and Abigail (Gillett) Curtis. she was bp. 1780. They settled in North Granby. (The deed records show that he hold several pieces of property, but I was unable to identify the property in the time I had. Perhaps someone will do this.) (The earliest Granby maps of 1855 show only one Chas Barnes, prob. son of Samuel, on north end & west side of Silver St.)

The Westward Migration of One Line of the Descendants of the THOMAS BARNES of Hartford and Farmington, Connecticut.

On Sept. 2, 1635 at the Port of London, England, 101 passengers, including THOMAS BARNES age 20, boarded a ship. (In 1634 the Archbishop Laud of London began a reign of terror, and Capt. Johnson took 21,200 persons the year following). If this was THOMAS BARNES of Hartford and Farmington, he was b. c. 1615 probably in Essex Co., England. (1)

In 1636 THOMAS BARNES became a Proprietor of Hartford. He was one of the soldiers in the Pequot Battle, and received land grants of the Colony for that service - in 1639 six acres in Hartford, - and later was allotted 50 acres in Farmington, where he settled with the first party in 1646, and there resided, sharing in all the land distributions until his death in 1688. (2)

In 1965 I visited the site of the Thomas Barnes property in the town of Farmington. I was surprised to find the home built in 1680 still standing, and in good repair. It stands just southwest of the old cemetery, back from the street, hidden from view by a "new" house built in 1785. Several fine homes stand on the rest of the property.

THOMAS BARNES m. 1st, Mary, who was convicted of witchcraft Jan. 6, 1662-3. She is variously reported to have been hanged, burned and banished. None of these reports are considered reliable. Children by this marriage include:

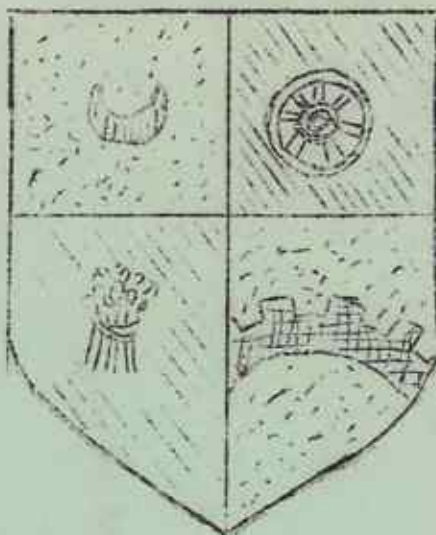

1. Sarah Barnes b. 1650 m. 3-26-1666 John Scoville of Farmington
 2. Benjamin Barnes b. 7-24-1653, m. Sarah _____.
 3. Joseph Barnes b. 1655, m. 7-8-1684, Abigail Gibbs.
- For the descendants of these families see Barnes Family Year-Book by T. C. Barnes.

THOMAS BARNES m. 2nd, MARY ANDREWS b. 1644 dau of John and Mary Andrews who joined the Farmington Church 1654 & 1655. Children:

4. THOMAS BARNES b. 1667, m. June, 1690, Mary Jones, dau of Richard. They settled in Farmington (That part now Southington); he was one of the first deacons of the church in Southington. He d. 3-20-1742, she d. Oct. 6, 1748. Children:
 - A. Elizabeth, b. 6-1-1691; d. young.
 - B. Ruth b. 10-23-1692, m. Stephen Andrews s. of Benjamin.
 - C. Elizabeth, b. 7-21-1695
 - D. SAMUEL BARNES b. 6-4-1700 m. 6-2-1751, TEMPERANCE, wid. of Stephen Bushnell, with four children. This may have been 2nd marriage. They resided in Southington, where he d. 6-2-1772. Children:
 - (1) THOMAS BARNES, b. 2-15-1752, m. PHEBE LANGDON, dau of Capt. DANIEL and PHEBE (CLARK) LANGDON. 8 children; see THOMAS BARNES OF GRANBY CONN.
