Dear Mrs. De Haven:

My Biggs line is WAY, WAY back —Elizabeth b. 1590, Married
John Stowe, Jr., in England, came to America before 1634.

I have xeroxed a couple of pages and am sending to you.
This is all I know about the Biggs line, since it was SO early and it was the girls name, so carried on her husbands name, Stowe.

Sorry I could not help you any, but some day you might get back to this same John.

Cordially yours,

Martha Fuller

Dear Madam,

I have been doing my family tree on Biggs. I know John Biggs came from England around 1782, but only have history of John Biggs death in 1829 in Va. + his wife Sarah Ann Wright's journey to Ohio with 6 children + Sarah's 3 brothers + 3 sisters + a family named Stewart + John's brother Wm. I suppose to have come from England but I believe they were married in 1812 in Va. in Aquid Dup, Fauquier Co Va. + had 8 children 2 dying in Va. + after John's death his wife took her 6 children + the Wrights + Stewarts went toward Ohio, one child was ran over by a stage coach at age 9 yrs, Wm they buried him + continued their journey in 1838 + settled in Fairfield Co Ohio. In 1841 moved to Delaware Co. Ohio.

I have to check further but I believe Zachariah Biggs + some others are connected as they settled + seemed to have wealth + land as did our John Biggs as he gave land to each of his 11 children + bought burial land for Bross.

So much to check out yet. I have my gt gt grandfather John Biggs + families but want to check back farther on his brothers + sisters + gts father + mother + on back if possible through history.

I thought perhaps my John Biggie father John Biggs who died in Va in 1829 had brothers + sisters + parents that could be checked on.

Found your Inf in Index at Mansfield Gen Society in Ohio. Are you tracing Biggs? or a Researcher? Thanks for your Inf. It might help me. Hope to hear from you.
