OBITUARY
MRS. ELIZA J. BRACE

At her home in Roseville, at 9 p.m. January 7, 1926, occurred the death of Mrs. Eliza Brace, aged 74 years, after a prolonged illness. Born on Van Ness Hill in Rutland, on August 5, 1851, she was the only daughter of George and Jane Tanner. Two brothers, Joseph and Hannibal, and her parents have long since preceded her to the glorious home above. After short periods of living at Chandlersburg and Roseville, the family moved to the home of her grandfather, Rev. Amos Mansfield, near the old Rutland Hill Church, which she joined at the age of 12. She passed a happy year at her aunt's in Syracuse, NY and on her return completed her education and taught several successful terms of school until on October 23, 1873, she became the wife of Lewis E. Watkins of Burton Hill. To this union was born a son Ross, who with a adopted sister, (now Mrs. Maud Stevens, of Jackson) survives her. Each of her brothers had a child - Joseph's daughter being now Mrs. Harry Brace, and Hannibal's son, Mr. Welland J. Tanner of Blossburg. Ten years of a happy married life was saddened at its close by the long illness and death of her husband.
