1986 SUPPLEMENT

The Thomas Fair Carhart genealogy was published in 1880 and, in order to update the "Robert" branch of the New Jersey Carharts, various family members have been asked in 1986 for "their" names and dates; also it was thought interesting to generations-to-come to indicate, where possible, geographical origins and subsequent moves. Omissions and errors are regretted.

Marie Louise Castera was born in 1839 in New Orleans, her family of French origin from the Bordeaux area. She married Thomas Fair Carhart in New Orleans on December 18, 1859, and they lived in New York City and later in White Plains. After his death in 1882 Mrs. Carhart took the children to France where they lived for two years in Paris and Cannes. In the spring of 1891 she moved the family "bag and baggage" from White Plains to Burbank, California, where she had purchased sight-unseen a ranch on the site of the present Universal City and a 52-room "boom hotel," where the family lived. Later they moved into Los Angeles to a home on Figueroa Street, and after her daughters married she lived in Fullerton with her son Ralph.

The surviving Carhart sons, Warren and Ralph, remained in Southern California with their families. Ralph married Helen Benchley and they had a daughter and two sons. The youngest, Thomas Fair Carhart III, with his wife Evelyn Hall raised three children in Glendale. Daughter Suzanne now lives in Mission Viejo with sons Garren and Robert and daughter Stephanie. Tom's youngest son, Robert Royall, carries on the Carhart name with a daughter Robin Ann and a son Ryan James. Thomas Fair Carhart III now lives in Vista.

The oldest Carhart daughter, Marie Louise, married Dana Herring Burks whose family had come from Bedford County, Virginia, and had moved to Southern California after the Civil War. The couple lived in the Los Angeles area and raised a family of seven children. Descendants of Marie Louise and Dana who had children are: Jesse, married a Los Angeles girl, Helen Wells, remained in Southern California until after his retirement, then moved to Los Altos in Northern California. Their daughter Virginia Helen married John Watkins and now lives in San Juan Capistrano. Their daughter Lisa married William Kosta Lilles and they are raising their family in Eugene, Oregon. Both of Jesse's sons now live in Fallbrook but their children have gone further afield. Robert's Karen now lives in Berkeley with her husband Marc Shofer Toma and their two sons. Curtis's daughter Rebecca and her husband, both in the forestry service, are now stationed in Kentucky. Curt's son Dana lives in Los Angeles.

Daughter Aileene and Patrick Lynch lived in Mexico City for several years, finally returning to La Jolla with their son Michael, who now lives in Redlands with his wife and three sons, Christian, Patrick and John, and daughter Erin.

Another daughter Andrea married John Mulford from Grosse Point, Michigan, raising three daughters, Joan, Mary Andrea, and Susan. That line of the family has basically remained in the Detroit area and the East.

Thomas Fair's youngest daughter Helen Rebecca, born in 1878, grew up in Los Angeles, married a native son, Bertram Williams, and they raised their family of five in Los Angeles, Ontario, and Pasadena. These children all remained in the Los Angeles area. Mr. Williams' parents came from Otsego County, New York, moved to Humboldt County, California, in 1854, finally settling in Los Angeles in 1873 where Bertram was born in 1875.

Robert Eldred Williams, son of Bertram and Helen Rebecca, married a Los Angeles girl, Patricia Carey, and they live in San Gabriel. Their daughter Linda married a Californian, Donald F. Harris, and they have raised their three girls within a twenty-mile radius of where their parents were born. Their oldest, Lesley, has married Mark Hullery and they have just had a son, Peter, and live in Pasadena. Robert's sons have gone farther afield--Carey and Julie and sons Mitchell and Craig make their home in Fremont, California, while Dan and Mary, Catey and Ben, live in San Diego.
