Structure awaits demolition

Old Emden hotel to be torn down

EMDEN — One of the oldest structures in town, a former hotel, is scheduled to be razed due to the construction of Route 121.

The building was a farm house before the village of Emden was established, about 117 years ago. When the Illinois Central railroad came through the village, the house was converted into a hotel.

The proprietor was a Snyder and the inn was called Snyder Hotel. Mary Ann Snyder, a widow, married William T. Carnahan July 24, 1881, and the place later became known as the Carnahan Hotel.

A plate reading "Carnahan House" was on the cap worn by the man from the hotel when he met the trains.

There are no known dates or names of owners of the structure until it was sold in the early 1900s to John H. and

Hotel's logo

Johanna Ringering Rademaker. They moved from the house in about 1920.

It is believed that the property was purchased about 1944 by William and Katherine Komnick, both deceased. The property remained in the Komnick family until about two years ago when it was bought by Gene and Wanda Cross, whose farm home is located just southwest of the junction of highways 136 and 121.

It is with a great deal of sadness, I report the death of Wilson Vernon Skelton (Bill) on December 27, 1989, at Ashland, Ohio. Bill and I had corresponded for over 10 years, and he was always a source of inspiration. He will be missed not only as a wonderful correspondent, but as a good friend.

Bill Skelton's Carnahan line was that of Robert Carnahan b. ca 1760 PA, & Margaret _____ b. 1784, d. 24 Apr 1843, Monroe tp, Carroll co., Ohio, thru his son, William Carnahan b. 1821 Allegheny co., Pa, d. 1864, Monroe tp, Carroll co., Ohio & Johanna Mc Hugh.

Bill's brother, Rex Skelton, may be contacted at 290 S. Countryside Dr., Ashland, Ohio, 44805.

WANTED " SUGGESTIONS or SOLUTIONS".....

Recently, the editor has had several letters from other Carnahan researchers trying to solve the problem of what to do with correspondents that "ask for everything" they have on a certain surname, and never inclose a SASE, or any mention of paying for copying costs, etc.. (not to mention the time involved !!) All and any suggestions are welcome, and I will inclose these in the June 90 Newsletter Issue.

Pioneer Business Man In Blanchester Taken
At 90

HAD SUFFERED FALL

Which Hastened Death—
Services Thursday
At 11 A. M.

William H. Carnahan, 90, one of Blanchester's early business leaders, died at the Deaconess Hospital, Cincinnati, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 from complications which followed a fall and injuries almost seven months ago at the Hotel Bindley, where he has resided for a number of years.

Funeral services are to be held at the Hannah Funeral Home here Thursday morning at 11 o'clock in charge of Rev. R. S. Kellerman, with interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Surviving is a daughter, Mrs. Theodore Bange, of Cincinnati, and a granddaughter, Jean Bange. Several nieces and nephews also survive, including Harley and Mart Carnahan, of this place. A brother, James Carnahan, of Washington C. H., now an invalid, is the sole survivor of a family of eight children of Mr. and Mrs. David Carnahan. The Carnahans were descendants of a pioneer family which originally settled in Clinton county from Kentucky in 1811.

The Carnahan family lived near Cuba when William H. was born, and later moved to the place on Route 28 now occupied by L. Wigginton. He engaged in farming during his younger days, coming then to Blanchester where he engaged for many years in the buggy and implement business. He also owned a blacksmith shop on the present site of the Blanchester Motor Co.

Mr. Carnahan was an officer and director in the old Merchant & Farmers Bank, it having at one time been in his building on South Broadway. The brick Carnahan Block, now owned by William Rogers, and erected by Mr. Carnahan in 1895-6, was one of the few business structures to survive the Blanchester fire. He also built the imposing home on West Main street now the property of Dr. H. E. Gibson, in which he lived for a number of years.

Mr. Carnahan's wife preceded him in death two decades ago.

WILLIAM CARNAHAN FAMILY

The first ancestor known to us at this time was Thomas Carnahan. He was born about 1780 in Pa. He and his wife Hannah, lived in Clarion Co. Thomas died between 1847 and 1850, leaving his widow and the following children: James, William, Betsy, Mary, John, Margaret, Polly, and Jane.

My great grandfather was James, who was born in Clarion, Co. about 1806 and died Dec. 15, 1883, buried at Munderf, Jeff Co. He married Mary Randolph in 1823. They were the parents of eleven children. When James and Mary moved to Polk Twp. between 1850 and 1860, they brought their two youngest sons, Hugh and Benjamin. By 1870 their two oldest sons, William and Thomas had moved to Polk Twp. As far as we know their other children, David, Taylor, James, Phoebe, Isabel, Lucinda, and Eliza remained in Clarion Co.

My grandfather Thomas, was born Oct. 20, 1829, in Clarion Co. He was a boat builder there, and a carpenter when he lived in Munderf, served in Civil War, married Mary Taylor in 1864, had five children, of whom my father James, was the oldest, born June 25, 1865. James made his first voyage rafting down the Clarion River at age of 15, was farmer and lumberman, married Bertha Ecklund in 1900. Bertha born in Sweden in 1881, died 1923. Both buried in Munderf. They had ten children, I being number eight.

CARNAHAN

A wholesome, interesting life came to a close at noon time, Monday, May 12, when J. W. Carnahan laid down his earthly burdens after nearly 89 years of living. Through all these years he had maintained an optimistic outlook and friendly spirit toward all. Of the old school, kindly and courteous at all times, and considerate of others, he made and held friends, who with his family, will miss his cheery presence.

A man of sterling integrity, Mr. Carnahan had a diversified knowledge of current issues of the day, and never lost his zest for living.

Mr. Carnahan was intensely practical, and he had decided viewpoints on public affairs, but they were logical and fair to all sides. He disliked wrong doing and lived in accordance with the golden rule, being honest and square in all his dealings.

With a well developed sense of humor and a store of information from reading and personal experiences, Mr. Carnahan was welcomed in any group he chose to join, and many relied upon his judgment in various problems. With his passing the community has lost a good citizen.

Joseph Wilson Carnahan was born in Youngstown, Pennsylvania, July 31, 1858. He grew to young manhood there, and while quite young remembered his father's return from the Civil War.

At age of 20 he started west arriving in Kansas in 1878. He worked as a farm hand for a short time, then taught school for 15 years in Brown, Marshall and Washington counties, afterwards farming in Washington.

In September, 1885, he married Alberta Pearl Lynch who passed away in November 1945. In 1902 Mr. and Mrs. Carnahan moved to a farm east of Clay Center, and in 1925 they came to Clay Center.

Since the death of his companion, Mr. Carnahan had made his home most of the time with his son Jim and wife, on the old home place east of Clay Center.

A few weeks ago Mr. Carnahan was taken to the Clay Center Municipal hospital for an operation, from which he seemed to recover quite well, but suddenly took worse and passed away on May 12th 1947 at the age of 88 years, 9 months and 12 days.

J. W. Carnahan was active in both the political and farm organizations of the community. He served two terms as state representative and received recognition for his constituents.

He is survived by three sons, Joe, James and Don Carnahan of Clay Center, and one daughter, Mary Chayer of Topeka; ten grandchildren and four great grandchildren, also three brothers, and a host of friends who cherish his memory.

CARNAHAN

Mrs. J. W. Carnahan, whose death occurred Saturday, November 10, at her home, 1223 Third street, had lived a good life, a life filled with kindness to others, and loving service to her family. She read a great deal and was well informed on many subjects.

Mrs. Carnahan had been unable to carry on her household duties after ill health overtook her, but it was home to her husband and her children because mother was there. They were all very thoughtful of her and she will be missed from the family circle more than words can tell.

Her life story follows:

Alberta Pearl Lynch was born in a log cabin on a farm near Fairview, Brown County, Kansas, June 2, 1869. Her parents, Albert and Esther Lynch were early day pioneers, settling in Kansas soon after the Civil War in which her father served. Here she spent her early years, experiencing the privations of early Kansas days when Indians were frequent callers at the white settlers' homes.

It was here that she met and married J. W. Carnahan in September, 1885. They spent their early married life in Brown County, later moving to a farm in Washington County, Kansas, and in 1902 to a farm east of Clay Center. The Carnahans took up their residence in Clay Center in 1925, where they have spent the succeeding years.

To this union seven children were born, three of whom preceded their mother in death.

Mrs. Carnahan is remembered as a faithful wife and loving mother by her husband, J. W. Carnahan, three sons, Joe, James and Don, and one daughter Mrs. Mary Chayer of Topeka; ten grandchildren and four great grandchildren, as well as other relatives and a host of friends mourn her departure.

Mrs. Carnahan became a member of the First Methodist Church of this city in 1914.

For the past two years she has been ill, but failed rapidly the last two weeks, passing quietly away in her sleep at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, November 10, 1945 at the age of 76 years, 5 months and 8 days.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon, November 13, at the Peterson-Neill Chapel, with the Rev. Ernest A. Hull of the First Methodist church in charge.

Mrs. Bert Sorem and Mrs. Walter Obenland, with Mrs. Andrew Carlson as accompanist, sang "Sweet Hour of Prayer," "Jesus Saviour, Pilot Me" and "My Jesus as Thou Wilt."

Burial was made in Greenwood cemetery. The body bearers were Roy Eib, Clarence Neill, G. A. Vasey, Frank Kennedy, Dexter Weir and Elmer Rose.

The presence of relatives and long-time friends and the beautiful flowers betokened respect and sympathy.

SUICIDE -
THE COURSE OF TRUE LOVE, ETC....

William CARNAHAN whose parents reside near the Wabash freight depot in this city, committed suicide at the residence of Daniel H. Williams, in Shiloh township, on last Saturday morning by taking strychnine. We give the following facts furnished us by Mr. Williams:

Mr. Carnahan, who was about 22 years of age had been working as a farm hand for James Burgett (whose farm adjoins that of Mr. Williams) during the spring and up to harvest. It appears that the young man and Miss. Matilda Burgett, daughter of the farmer, became very much attached to each other. Early last week the young man made a visit to Mr. Burgett's and it seems that a disagreement occurred between Miss. Matilda and her parents concerning Carnahan, and on Tuesday evening about 10 o'clock, the young people went to the house of James North, a brother-in-law of the young lady, and staid until the next morning. On Wednesday morning they came to the house of Mr. Williams, where young Carnahan engaged boarding for the young lady until Saturday, when it was understood he would return and take her to Paris township, and there they would be married. Early on Saturday morning, Mr. Carnahan hired a spring wagon and 2 horses at Mr. Hannasy's livery stable and with his sister started after the young lady, and reached the house of Mr. Williams about 8 a.m.

Mr. Carnahan took with him half a bottle of whiskey and also a quantity of strychnine. It is believed by his sister that he put a portion of the poison in the bottle. He took an occasional drink on his way out, and when within about a quarter of a mile of Mr. Williams residence, he drank the remainder of the whiskey, after shaking the bottle thoroughly. On arriving at the house, he appeared in good health, and after remaining seated in a chair some ten minutes, he fell prostrate to the floor, apparently in a fit. Dr. Roberts of Redmon, was immediately sent for and was with the sick man about an hour and a half before he died. He was beyond medical skill when the doctor arrived. Carnahan admitted that he had poisoned himself, and told the parties present to examine his pocket, where a portion of the poison was still in a package. He refused to give any reason for his rash act. He died about 30 minutes before 12 o'clock, on Saturday morning. An inquest was held by coroner, J.W. Garner over the body, and a verdict rendered to the effect that "he took his own life, of his own free will and accord."

His remains were interred in Edgar cemetery on last Sunday afternoon. The report that Miss. Burgett had taken poison is without foundation.

CARNAHAN IS BURIED HERE - OLD RESIDENT

Funeral services for PORTER M. CARNAHAN, 82 years old, of Monmouth, native and former prominent resident of Mercer county, were held at 2 p.m. yesterday at the United Presbyterian church in Aledo. Burial was in the Aledo cemetery. Mr. Carnahan died Friday, Jan 22, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Morrison, 5 Washington Place, Meriden, Conn. He went to Meriden to visit about a month ago and was taken ill with pleurisy on Jan 5. He was much improved and resting comfortably but suffered three severe heart attacks which caused his death. Porter Montgomery Carnahan was born of pioneer parents on Jan 2, 1850, in Mercer county, the community being known as Nigger Ridge in derision of its anti-slavery sentiments. Among his earliest recollections was the passing through of fugitive slaves who were hidden in his father's home. In 1855 his father showed him the site of the future county seat of Mercer county. In 1856, the first railroad came through. Then came the Civil War when his father and brother marched away and he was left at home to run the farm. He was 15 when peace was declared. After finishing his education, he taught school for four years.

THREE CHILDREN SURVIVE- He was married Feb 12, 1873 to Jennie Lind McCrory, and for 58 years they traveled life's journey together. Three children survive: Herschel L. of Los Angeles, Calif; Frank M. of Tacoma, Wash., and Eva Carnahan Morrison of Meriden, Conn; also one grand-child Vera Jean Morrison.

HINTS ABOUT DEEDS

In the Lower left hand corner of most deeds you will find the signatures of from 2 to 4 witnesses. The first one is always from the husband's side. The next is always from the wife's side. That is to protect her 1/3 dower right under the law. This can be a great clue to the wife's maiden name.

DEATHS.

Died, July 18, 1900, Rebecca Carnahan, aged 42 years. Death has made its inroad into our midst and taken my dear niece away to a brighter and better world. The portals of the tomb have been closed upon her but her familiar voice and kind words and many good qualities will always be fresh in the memory of her husband, children and friends.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord,
When love has bound the heart;
'Tis hard, so hard to speak the words,
Must we forever part?

Call not back the dear departed,
Anchored safe where storms are o'er;
On the border land we left her,
Soon to meet and part no more.

One by one our hopes grow brighter,
As we near the shining shore,
For we know across the river
Wait the loved ones gone before.

Jesus, while our hearts are bleeding,
O'er the spoils that death has won,
We would at this solemn meeting
Calmly say, "Thy will be done."

Though cast down, we're not forsaken;
Though afflicted, not alone.
Thou didst give and Thou has taken.
Blessed Lord, "Thy will be done."

1897 — 1992

Bertha Mary Carnahan, age 94, former longtime Manhattan area resident, died early Saturday morning, January 25, 1992 at the Mercy Nursing Home in Grayling, Michigan.

She was born on October 17, 1897 at the Twin Oak Farm in the McIntire Creek area of Pottawatomie County, Kansas the daughter of Shaffer A. and Mary Elizabeth Dial Carnahan. The Carnahan name is well known in this area, as there were several Carnahan families who had settled here. The Carnahan Creek was named after some of the Carnahan families and the family cemetery is located in Carnahan Park.

Miss Carnahan grew up on the family farm, and later along with her parents moved to Manhattan in 1922. MRS. CLARA PARKER CARNAHAN

The community was grieved when it became known that Mrs. O. N. Carnahan had passed away quite suddenly at her home in the west part of town Thursday evening. She had been an invalid for many years with rheumatism and had been gradually failing in health all winter. She was confined to her bed for one week and was taken with a heart attack Thursday evening and passed away in a very brief time. Her obituary follows:

Clara A. Parker, a daughter of Wilder and Mary Parker was born March 9, 1847, in Erie county, New York.

When but a girl of nine years of age, her parents moved from New York to Adams county, Wisconsin. God called the father of the family unto Himself in 1865 and shortly after this the family moved to Palmyra, Wisconsin. About the year 1868 she was converted and later united with the Wesleyan Methodist church of which church she remained a member until God called her home. At the time of her death her membership was in the West Bureau Wesleyan Methodist church near Princeton, Ill.

On February 18, 1875, she was united in marriage to Oscar N. Carnahan at Palmyra, Wisconsin. God blessed this union by the giving of six children, two of whom died in infancy. Jesus Christ was the head of this newly made home and His richest blessings were poured out upon it. After their marriage the young couple made their home on a farm west of Viola, and remained there for 45 years, coming to Viola in the year of 1920. For many years Mrs. Carnahan had been afflicted but the presence of the Master in her life brought great joy and she soon learned that the cross was not greater than His grace. Her life was an example for all and a living testimony of the saving power of our Christ.

Despite her affliction she had been a faithful attendant of the church services being present at both the morning and evening services two weeks ago. On Monday, March 26, she was taken ill but continued to bear testimony. On Sunday afternoon, April 1, she was served communion by Rev. Fleming. God called her from us on Thursday evening, April 5, 1928, at the age of 81 years and 27 days. She leaves to mourn her going, her husband, two sons Clyde of Preemption and Ernest of Newfane, N. Y.; one brother James W. Parker of Bradley, and six grandchildren. Added to these are many other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by two daughters, Mrs. Nora Ramsden in 1915 and Mrs. Blanche Richardson in 1924.

A fitting memorial for our sister would be: "He that doeth the will of God abideth forever."

Funeral services from United Presbyterian church Monday, 2 p. m. Rev. B. J. Hoover of Wyandot preached the sermon, assisted by Rev. J. M. Fleming and Rev. E. Hardy. Quartet consisted of Mrs. Lena McAtee, Miss Laura Stewart, Rev. Hardy and Mr. Vic Terrey. Organist, Mrs. Margaret Terrey.

Pall bearers: Cliff Kennedy, H. E. Wood, John Pinkerton, Samuel Collins, Frank Bollman, Fred Hawton.

LIFE'S LABOR ENDED.

Death Tuesday of a Pioneer Citizen. Judge
Archibald A. Carnahan.

Hon. A. A. Carnahan died at his home in this city at 9:10 o'clock Tuesday evening, after an illness of but four days. The news of his death came as a sudden and sorrowful shock to the hundreds of his friends who had but so recently met him in his walks about town, and the very general expression of regret proved the high esteem in which he was held by all. Death was due primarily to an attack of pneumonia with which he was taken down on the evening of February 28 and was directly due to heart failure, that organ, for some time weak, failing under repeated violent spasms of coughing. On Tuesday afternoon and evening he was bright, hopeful and apparently on the high road to recovery, but as his son Harry sat reading to him about the hour named above, he suddenly collapsed and was dead in a moment.

The funeral occurred this afternoon from the Methodist church, under the auspices of the Masons. Rev. H. G. Amhyrst officiating, and was very largely attended.

Archibald A. Carnahan was one of the oldest, best known and most highly respected citizens of Cloud county, having been identified prominently with its history for thirty-five years, coming here at a day when it was yet a comparative wilderness, the home of the buffalo and the haunt of marauding bands of red men, and living to see it one of the most peaceful, prosperous and populous of Kansas communities. He was of Scotch-Irish descent, born at Loudonville, O., December 2, 1837. His father was a successful tanner, an original anti-slavery man and one of the founders of the liberty party in Ohio, doing much for fugitive slaves in the days of the "underground railway."

Judge Carnahan was educated at Northwood and at the Miami university. He studied law two years at Bucyrus and then left his native state to become a Kansan, locating at Olathe in 1860, in June of that year being admitted to the bar by Judge John Pettit at Wyandotte. He practiced law and taught school in Missouri until the war began, when he enlisted in Co. C., 2nd Kansas infantry, and served until the regiment was mustered out, when he re-enlisted in the 1st Kansas cavalry from which he was given an honorable discharge in February 1863 on account of a wound received in an engagement at Blue Springs, Mo., with Quantrell's band, on January 8, 1862, he having been in the hospital nearly a year. He also participated in the battle of Wilson's creek one of the earliest and most sanguinary battles of the war.

He spent about a year in New Mexico in 1864, returning to aid, in 1865-6, in the construction of the Kansas Pacific railroad from Lawrence to Abilene. In 1867 he located in this county at Lake Sibley, and in 1868 was elected to the state senate from this district, then the Seventh, composed of the counties of Cloud, Marshall, Republic, Riley, Washington and the unorganized counties to the west. He served two years, during which time he took part in much valuable legislation and did much to aid the famine stricken settlers who suffered alike from grasshopper and Indian raids. It was while serving as senator that he met the lady who afterward became his wife—Miss Ollie Sheldon, to whom he was married at her home in Topeka on April 23, 1873, and who has been the richest blessing of his life. Mrs. Carnahan, with two sons, William E. and Harry T., survive and mourn him.

CONCORDIA BLADE NEWSPAPER, CONCORDIA, CLOUD COUNTY, KANSAS

In the strenuous times of the county's early settlement Judge Carnahan was a valuable citizen, advising, helping and fighting as a volunteer soldier in the days of Indian raids and massacres. Through his long residence and the prominent part he took in local affairs he became probably as well known in county and state as any of our citizens.

During the administration of Gov. Glick Mr. Carnahan was appointed judge of the district court and from this came his title. He was receiver of the land office under Cleveland's first administration and once or twice was the Democratic nominee for congress, but failed of election. Of recent years he left the Democracy, was for a time identified with the People's party, but later took up socialism and was that party's candidate for associate justice in 1900.

Of genial nature and sunny disposition Judge Carnahan made his every acquaintance his friend. Prominent in Masonry, a Knight Templar and Shriner and one of the stays of the Eastern Star, his lodge affiliations were of the strongest. He was also a Workman and a Woodman.

To our acquaintance with him we never recall an instance in which he spoke unkindly of another and it was this kindness of heart and sunniness of disposition which drew men to him and will make his presence in the community missed more, perhaps, than the loss of any other man in it.

Obituary.

William W. Carnahan was born at Sandy Lake, Mercer County, Pa., April 22nd, 1823; was married to Mary L. Dille May 15th, 1845. To them were born six children, three of whom are still living. L. K., J. M. and Myrtle.

He was converted and united with the M. E. Church at Hartford, Trumbull County, Ohio, in 1858. He enlisted on the side of the Union at the breaking out of the Rebellion, and served until after the battle of Pittsburg Landing, when he was taken sick and was discharged from the service. He removed from Ohio to Grant County, Wisconsin, in 1867 and from there to Long Island, Kansas, in 1872, which has been his home until his death, which occurred May 23d, 1894, aged 71 years, 1 month and 1 day.

The surviving relatives of the late W. W. Carnahan desire to express their heartfelt thanks to the kind friends and neighbors for the assistance and many kindnesses rendered during the last sickness and death of our departed father.

An Old Timer Gone

Lafayette K. Carnahan was born in Mercer county, Pennsylvania, April 5, 1846, and died at Long Island, Kans., May 17, 1924, aged 78 years, 1 month, 12 days. He moved with his parents to Ohio when a small child, and from which state he enlisted in the civil war on June 16, 1862, serving three years, being discharged July 1, 1865. After living a year in Ohio, move was made to Wisconsin, in which state he resided four years and was married to Cynthia A. Borah on January 5, 1871 at Lancaster.

In the spring of 1872 they settled on a homestead in Phillips county and when the town of Long Island was laid out they built their present home. He leaves to mourn his loss a devoted wife, one sister, one brother and a host of kind neighbors and friends. His jovial disposition and sunny smile made friends everywhere, and Uncle Lafe, as he was familiarly called, will be sadly missed in Long Island.

Card of Thanks: We wish to thank all our kind friends and neighbors for their assistance during the illness and death of our beloved husband and brother.—Mrs. C. A. Carnahan, J. M. Carnahan and family, Mrs. Myrtle Ross and family.

KANSAS RESEARCH

Mary L. Carnahan departed this life Nov. 20th 1883 aged sixty one years eleven months and five days. Mary L. Dilley was born in the county of Mercer in the state of Pennsylvania December 15th 1826, and at the age of eighteen was married to William W. Carnahan who, after a companionship with deceased of more than forty-three years is now left to finish the journey of life alone. Deceased and her husband established their early home in the state of her birth, whence after a period of about ten years they moved to the state of Ohio. Twelve years of toil in this state inspired them to go farther westward which they did first stopping in the state of Wisconsin for four years and then coming to Long Island Kansas in the year of 1878, where deceased with her family has ever since resided.

To deceased were born three sons and and three daughters of whom Lafayette, John and Myrtle survive deceased and who this day, have one less tie on earth, one more in heaven. Deceased was converted and joined the church in the year 1857 and for thirty-one years has experienced the joy of religion.

Religion was not to her a sentiment it was a principal.

It was not to her a theory, it was a living reality.

Her savior was her confidential friend to whom she told her trials and troubles with the simplicity of faith long tested.

She had no doubt respecting the efficacy of prayer. Heaven was to her a reality which was merely hid by a very thin veil, and although while in life she looked "through a glass darkly" yet the object of her gaze was plainly outlined and it needed but the removing of the "glass" to enable her to see in detail.

Although mother Carnahan had been suffering for several years with paralysis, during which time she was an invalid and had several strokes, and her death was expected at any time, the news of her death cast a deep gloom over the entire neighborhood.

By request it was arranged that six of the old settlers, who have been neighbors and friends to the deceased from the early settlement of Long Island, be pall bearers. They were I. W. Nettleship, P. J. Carl, E. M. Wood, M. W. Watson, E. Jessup and J. N. Carl. The large procession of sympathetic friends and neighbors, bore evidence of the high esteem in which mother Carnahan was held by those who knew her.

GOT SHOT.

Little Robert Carnahan, 14 years of age, but of small stature, adopted son of L. K. Carnahan of this city, met with a very serious accident on Saturday, by being shot in the leg while out hunting along the banks of the river, in company with Al Skelton, a boy of about his own age. Each of the boys were carrying a shot gun, and through their anxiety to get a squirrel, or perhaps carelessness, Bob received a full charge of shot in the leg, just under the knee. The boys were alone at the time and the Skelton boy had to go for help, so he ran to the road, a distance of a quarter of a mile, to where folks were passing, leaving Bob alone in the woods and a messenger was sent to town; Mr. Carnahan and Dr. Bennie hastened to the unfortunate boy, on the Johnson farm one mile west of town and brought him home. The wound was probed but the shot could not be found and still remains, perhaps in and around the bone and knee joint. It is a bad wound and may prove very serious for Bob. It is not known how the accident occurred. Bob says he did it with his own gun, but from the nature of the wound the charge entered the leg straight from the rear. The supposition is, that he was trailing the gun, holding it by the muzzle.

LATER:—It now comes out that Bob was in the act of shooting a squirrel that was up in a tree and Al's gun was discharged by accident, the charge striking Bob with the above result.

As we go to press—Wednesday three o'clock—Drs. Bennie and Wolcott are holding a consultation as to the propriety of amputating Bob's leg. Blood poisoning of the very worst form has set in and already spread to his body and they have decided that amputation will not save his life.

OBITUARY

Cynthia A. Borah was born in Green River, in Butler county, Kentucky, October 18, 1847, and died December 10th, 1927, at the age of 79 years, 1 month and 22 days.

She was the oldest of three little one left motherless January 22, 1852. In April her father moved to Grant county, Wisconsin, to make a new home for his loved ones.

Early in life she united with the Baptist church.

On January 5, 1871, she was united in marriage to Lafayette K. Carnahan, and in the fall of that year they started by wagon to Kansas, arriving at what is now called Long Island, on May 18, 1872, where they settled on a homestead. The town of Long Island was built on this homestead. They spent over fifty years on this homestead. She made her home there until the summons came.

The Methodist church was organized the year after she came and she became a member of the first class and remained a member until her departure.

Pioneer Stories

Reminiscences Told by Pupils in Carson School, Mrs. Mary Sailor, Teacher, and Juanita McFadden, Chairman of Project.

May 18th of each year is a day of celebration of note. The character and purpose of the celebration are unique and unusual. Relatives, friends, and well-wishers set aside this day to make a pilgrimage of homage and respect to "Grandma" Carnahan at Carson.

In a comfortable rocking chair but in a most regal manner Grandma welcomes her guests at the club house. After a sumptuous pot-luck dinner Grandma asks the guests to sing some one of her favorite hymns. This is followed by a short select program given by neighbors.

Grandma was born 87 years May 18, 1842, in Adair County, Kentucky.

It is my privilege as a pupil of the Carson school to write down the following incidents of her life in a charming manner in which she told me these incidents and the laughter we shared as she told them will be a cherished memory of my Carson schoolhood days. —Cleo Pritchard.

Outwitting the Confederates and Other Incidents

Grandma was born in Adair County, Ky., on a plantation owned by her father and on which the main crops were cotton, grain and tobacco. They had many negro slaves to help on this 200-acre plantation. Since she was a small girl she has been opposed to slavery. When she was nine years old her parents moved to Macon County, Mo.

The Civil war broke out when she was at the age of 20. Three brothers were in the Union army, being with Sherman on his March to the Sea. The younger and oldest brothers were in the Second Missouri cavalry company F, and one was the lieutenant.

During the war Grandma had many daring experiences, one of which I will relate here.

They learned of a certain rebel detachment, which were pilfering the neighborhood for cattle, horses, and food. Grandma's father had many fine horses which he didn't wish to be stolen. As there was an absence of men to take them to safety, Grandma and her girl cousin undertook the task to take them to the county seat, where there were soldiers stationed, as the horses would be in safe keeping if taken there. As the county seat was 12 miles away, they started with the horses in the early morning, arriving in the mid-afternoon.

They turned the horses over to the soldiers. They went out into the country and stayed all night with one of Grandma's cousins. In order to get home quicker they took a short cut through the woods and crossed Salt river swollen by heavy rains. The horses had to swim across. The water was up to the girls' riding skirts.

After the Civil war Grandma was married to William M. Carnahan, who had been a private in the Union army. Their children were reared in Missouri. When Grandma came to Oregon she was 45.

She came by Immigrant Train, really the Union Pacific R. R. The tickets were $300 for 8 people. They left Missouri March 21, 1888, and arrived in Eagle Valley March 26, 1888. They laid over one day in Green River, Wyo. There were Grandma and her eight children, her cousin and family, and four young men. They had the control of entire car. They bought their lunch, and made coffee on a stove in the car and recall it as a very enjoyable time.

There were many reasons for coming to Oregon, but the chief reason was on account of Grandma's health.

Pine Valley was very sparsely settled when she came. There were the Demick and the Pancake log cabins standing when Grandma came. They homesteaded the farm west of Langrell, which now goes by the name of the Valley View farm. Ben Ashley now lives there.

After selling the farm the Carnahans returned to Missouri for a visit. On returning here they bought property in Carson and ran a hotel for nine years between 1901 to 1910.

After 1910 they moved to Baker where they had property and lived there for two years. Mr. Carnahan's health was poor, so they again moved to Carson where Grandma now lives.

TWO DEATHS AT LARRABEE.

Postmaster Carnahan and Wm. Jordan
Have Solved the Great Problem.

H. H. CARNAHAN.

Mr. H. H. Carnahan died at his home in Larrabee Saturday afternoon, after an illness of several months duration. The funeral was held at the M. E. church at Larrabee Tuesday morning.

Deceased was a well known resident of Cedar where he had resided since 1882. He was born in Columbia county, Pa. in 1834. In 1850 he removed with his parents to Lee Co., Ill., where in 1850 he was united in marriage to Miss Matilda Berringer who survives him. Mr. Carnahan and family came to Iowa in 1882, locating in Cedar township where the family has since resided. Deceased was a respected member of the community in which he lived, having held positions of trust in the township for many years, and was postmaster of Larrabee at time of his death. Members of the Cherokee lodges of Masons and Odd-Fellows of which orders deceased was a member, attended the funeral from this place.

H.H. Carnahan, dealer in general merchandise at Larrabee, Iowa, is one of the enterprising and energetic men of the village. He was born in Columbia County, Pennsylvania, in 1834, and is a son of Charles Stuart and Elizabeth (Wolf) Carnahan. The parents, full of courage and bravery to encounter the dangers and hardships of pioneer life, removed to Lee County, Illinois, in 1850, and settled at Malugin's Grove. There H.H. grew to manhood, receiving his education in the common schools. In 1865 he engaged in the mercantile business at Malugin's Grove, which business he followed for fifteen years. In 1882 he decided to make a change in his place of residence, and located in Cedar Township, Cherokee County; he has a farm in an advanced state of cultivation, well improved with good buildings. All the surroundings bespeak thrift and wise management on the part of the owner. Mr. Carnahan was married in 1859, in Lee County, Illinois to Miss Matilda Berringer. By this union twelve children have been born, six sons and six daughters: Elsie I., Mary E., Margaret I., Edwin, Eliza, Charlotte, Wilbert, Minnie, Harry, Clyde, Walter and Herbert. Politically Mr. Carnahan affiliates with the Republican party. The people of his township have attested their confidence in him by calling him to fill the offices of township treasurer, clerk and justice of the peace, acquitting himself with much credit, and to the entire satisfaction of the public. He was made a Mason in Illinois in 1859 by Brooklin Lodge, No. 282. He is also a member of the I.O.O.F. Mr. Carnahan is a worthy and respected member of the Methodist Episcopal Church; he is a man strong in his convictions of right and wrong, and lives a life accordingly. He represents the Phoenix Insurance Company of Brooklyn, and the Aetna of Hartford.

ALEDO DEMOCRAT, ALEDO, MERCER COUNTY, ILLINOIS - TUESDAY, AUG 17, 1897

WILLIAM F. CARNAHAN

Was born January 15th, 1862. His parents, the late William M. and Sarah Ann Carnahan, lived four miles east of Aledo, where he grew to manhood. In 1880 he was married to Miss Adda Wing. Three children were born to them, the youngest of whom died in infancy last June. The other two, with his sorrowing companion, have been with him during his long and painful illness, and truly mourn his loss. In the year 1887 he removed from Illinois to Kansas, and after spending two years there he went to California, remaining there until some time after his final sickness began, which was in December last. There being no medical skill that could give him relief there, he and his family, casting themselves upon the mercies of God with an earnest desire to be submissive to His will, came back to Illinois. Much as it was desired on his part and on the part of his friends that he should recover, yet God, who doeth all things well, saw fit to take him to Himself and gradually he grew worse until the fatal disease of cancer finished its work and death came to his relief at 1:30 o'clock Friday morning, August 13, 1897. But death did not find him unprepared.

Some ten years ago or more he experienced the power of God's redeeming and regenerating power and grace in his heart, and was led to tell what God had done for his soul by publicly professing his faith in Him and uniting with the Wesleyan Methodist church. His Christian warfare was not always victorious, for even after he had professed his faith he was left to wander, to becalm; but he was not forsaken; God still had a claim upon him. He always claims His own, and "although they fall yet shall they not be cast down entirely." Over two years ago he was led by the spirit of God to see the folly of doubt and disobedience, and enlisted again with renewed energy in the Master's service. He united with the Congregational church in California. He was superintendent of the Sabbath school of the congregation of which he was a member, and was thus enjoying the Master's service when the summons came for him to go up higher. His sufferings were intense, his patience, his faith, his hope, in fact every grace of the spirit was tried, but he proved faithful unto the end. He died in the faith. He longed to depart and be with Christ which was far better. "It was through much tribulation he entered the kingdom of heaven. And while the mother, the wife, the children, the brothers and sisters mourn to-day, they do not mourn as those who have no hope. The life was short, but it was long enough to accomplish the end for which it was given. The family is left without an earthly father, but our Heavenly Father has promised to be a husband to the widow and a father to the fatherless.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. W. M. Story in the United Presbyterian church on Sabbath morning at 10:30 o'clock. The church was filled with sympathetic friends, many of whom accompanied the mourners to the cemetery, five miles east of Aledo, where his body was interred in the family burying ground.

She was the daughter of Noah and Prudence Dearth, who moved to Ada from Bluffton when the deceased was 12 years old. She grew up and lived near Ada until she died.
