NOTE.

John Cary, or Carew as it was once spelled, the immigrant, came to New England from Somersetshire, England, and settled in Duxbury, Mass., in 1639, being then 25 years old. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Francis Godfrey, in 1644 and by her had in Duxbury, John, 1645; Francis, 1647; Elizabeth, 1649.

He then removed to Braintree, and had James, 1652, and finally settled in Bridgewater where his remaining eight children were born. He was one of the fifty four original proprietors of the town of Bridgewater. He removed from Braintree to Bridgewater in 1654. In 1656 he was chosen Constable, being the first town officer and only one elected that year.

He was the first town clerk, serving until 1681. He lived in what is now West Bridgewater, and about one fourth of a mile west of the old church. He died in 1681. His wife died in 1680.

1662, and is living 1700.

(Issue given.)

[This pedigree (which shows a tricking of the arms of the family on the margin) was evidently furnished to the College of Arms, in the year 1700, by Richard Cary of London, whom I suppose to be the second son of Shershaw Cary of Bristol by his first wife Mary Scrope. The names and ages of the children of John, Richard and Thomas I have not taken off. Of the wills which I have given, those which directly bear on this pedigree are the wills of Robert (1628) and Walter (1638), brothers of our James Cary of New England, and of Henry Hobson (1636) and his great-granddaughter Alice Cary (1660), referring to the Virginian line. The other wills, however, seem to me to refer to the same stock, and from them I venture to construct the following tentative pedigree:

Besides the Cary pedigree from the Stowe MSS. already given, I found another in the same volume (Stowe MS. 870, fo. 229), evidently relating to the same stock and also of interest through their connection with Virginia. It was constructed the very same year (A.D. 1700), as the other. I transcribed the most important portion of it, as follows:

John Cary of the city of Bristol—Elizabeth, dau. of Hereford.

John Cary of Hackney in Com. Midd. eldest son, marr'd and left issue. He died ab't the year 1636.

Thomas Cary—2d son; bapt. 27 Dec., 1618.

Susanna, dau. of Philip Limbery of Dartmouth in Com. Devon.

Philip Cary, 3d son of John Cary and Ellis: Hereford.

Prudence Cary, eldest daughter.

Elizabeth Cary, 2d daughter.

Jane, dau. of John Flood, of Virginia, gent. 1st wife. Married 15 June, 1666.

John Cary of the City of London, merch't, one of the directors of the English Co. trading to the East Indies, and in the Commission of the Office of London; born 1 Feb. 1644; living anno 1700.

Mary, dau. of Robert Cox of the City of London, 2d wife. Married 30 April, 1672. Living anno 1700.

Timothy Cary, 2d son, died beyond sea, unmarried.

Mary Cary, died unmarried, aged about 36 years.

Thomas Cary of—London, merch't eldest son, born in Virginia 22 m. Feb. 1667, living. 16

—Hudson of London, merch't son, gent.; died 5 May, 16

Callow Cary 2d son, b. 18 Jan'y, 1677; living 1700.

John Cary 3d son, b. 3 Nov. 1677; living 1700.

Richard Cary 4th son, b. 13 Oct. 1681; living 1700.

Will'm Cary 5th son, b. 6 Aug. 1689; living 1700.

Robert Cary 6th son, b. 8 Aug. 1693; living 1700.

Mary Cary, b. — Dec. 1678. Elizabeth, b. 20 Aug. 1680. Anna, b. 26 Sept. 1686.

Peter Cary, 7th son, b. 28 Sept. 1694.

Jane, b. 31 March, 1696.

Susanna, b. — Aug. 1698.

"Anno 1700

I do Certifie this Account of My Descent to be true and desire itt may be registred in the Colledge of Armes. Witness my hand 24th day of August Anno Dⁿl 1700.

JOHN CARY."

I have note of the will of his son Richard, made 7 June, and proved 18 June, 1707 (Poley 137). He calls himself son of John Cary late of London, merchant, deceased, and names brothers Thomas, Callow, William, Robert and Peter and all his sisters, of whom Elizabeth was now Lady Eyre, and Anna was wife of Mr. Richard Mounteney. Callow Cary (executor) dying before completing his trust, admn. de bonis non was granted to Mary Cary, widow, mother of Callow, and admx. of his goods. Elizabeth seems to have married Sir Charles Eyre, and Jane was the wife of John Higden.—H. F. WATERS.]

WILLIAM NICHOLSON of Anne Arundle County (Maryland) merchant 25 September 1711 sworn to (in Maryland) 19 October 1719, certified by Notary Public at Annapolis 28 November 1719, proved, at London, 5 February 1719 by William Hunt, one of the executors (power reserved to grant probate to Eleanor Foster, Ann Nicholson and Elizabeth Nicholson, the other executors). Another probate granted to Eleanor Foster 8 July 1720. To my son William one thousand acres in Baltimore Co. called Poplar Neck and two lots in London town Ann Arundell Co., which I purchased from Thomas Holland and Memittable Parepoint. To my son Joseph three tracts of land, viz' Batchellor's Delight (about two hundred and ninety eight acres), Clark's Directions (about seven hundred and two acres), both in Ann Arundell Co., and Lockwood's Adventure (four hundred acres) in Baltimore Co., as also one lot in London town (Ann Arundell Co.) taken up by Capt Richard Jones deceased. I give my part of a tract of land called Nicholson's manor, in Baltimore Co., containing about four thousand two hundred acres, to my sons Benjamin, Samuel and Edward
