Dear Mr. Bush,

I have received your request of August 14, 1988 for a copy of the inscriptions of the Chappell Bible that I have. Let me describe the Bible and give you some background on it first.

This Bible was printed by "Parsons for the American Bible Society in New York in 1838. It has a dark brown leather cover. It is 7 1/4 inches long, 4 1/2 inches wide, and 1 3/4 inches thick. There are no inscriptions or other indications as to ownership on the front inside cover or flyleaf.

Tucked between the pages I found the following items: In the Book of Joshua, Chapter 6; two small leaves that appear to have come from the stem of a rose. In the First Book of Samuel, Chapter 27; a newspaper clipping describing a home made dressing table (photocopy enclosed). In the Second Book of Kings, Chapter 19; a small piece of what appears to be Christmas wrapping paper with the notation of "19th chapter of 2 Kings 37th Isaiah" written on the back. In the Book of Psalm, Psalm 68; a single page from a smaller (4 1/2 x 2 3/4) Bible containing portions of Genesis, Chapters 16, 18, and 17. In the Book of Isaiah, Chapter 44; a lock of light red or blonde hair. In the book of Isaiah, Chapter 51; a Christmas gift name tag with the inscription "D A C 1898 to C L C". I hope I have deciphered the lettering correctly. In the Book of Isaiah, Chapter 62; a small piece of bright red cloth used like a bookmark. In the Book of Matthew, Chapter 5; a small piece of paper used as a bookmark. In the Book of Mark, Chapter 6; a small piece of pink cloth used as a bookmark.

In the rear of the Bible is a letter written by "Marion" to "Aunt Carrie" on Dec. 9, 1884 from Cairo, New York. The letter mentions "Mollie" and "Ben Rex" as stamp collectors. Marion then listed eleven Chappell births that she said came from "Aunt Jorie". She also indicates that there is more information that she will get from Aunt Josie and send to Aunt Carrie at a later date. The names and births listed in the letter are as follows:

Clark B. Chappell - Nov. 18 - 1832
Eliam C. Chappell - July 15 - 1843
John Tremaine Chappell - Aug. 9 - 1866
Ida May Chappell - March 2 - 1870
Cora Ann Chappell - April 7 - 1871
Carrie Louella Chappell - Jan. 17 - 1874
Daisy Jane Chappell - April 12 - 1876
Sylvia Catherine Chappell - Jan. 4 - 1878
Rutherford C. Chappell - Dec. 19 - 1879
Dora Bell Chappell - Dec. 19 - 1879
Josie Ethel Chappell - Dec. 13 - 1884

The following notes are written in pencil on the blank pages at the rear of the Bible.

- " Asa Chappel was born in the town of Cairo Greene Co N Y the 28 day of Nov 1797 "
- " Jane Chappel was born July the 5 1807 in the town of Catskill Greene Co N Y "
- " Clark Chappel was born Nov 18 1832 in the town of Cairo Greene Co N Y "
- " Deborahann Chapel was born in the town of Windham Greene Co N Y Oct 18 1834 "
- " Lewis Chappel was born in the town of Cairo May 20-1839 Greene Co N Y "
- " Jane Chappel died April 29 1899 age 85 9 19 "
- " Clark Chappel died April 30, 1912 age 79 years 5 mo 12 "
- " Deborah Ann Chappel died April 28, 1917 age 82 yrs 6 months 15 days Windham N Y "

I have copied the entries from the letter and from the Bible exactly as they appear with the variations in spelling, punctuation, and dating intact. A photocopy of the letter is enclosed.

I included the list of items and their locations in the Bible as a " human interest " point. I think that it gives you some insight as to the original owner's outlook on day to day life.

If I can be of further assistance, let me know.

Sincerely ;

A Novel Dressing Table

Once, when wishing a dressing table to place under a long mirror in a bedroom, I made one from two egg cases. I set these on end and probably as far apart as the width of a third egg case and then connected the two by nailing a cover over the space between them and also across the end of each. This made a smooth top. As you know, egg cases have two compartments and by using them this way, there was a shelf on each side making four roomy places in which to stow things, besides a nice roomy place in between. The ends and front were covered with a bouncing Egg Case cost about twenty or twenty-five cents here so that I had a useful, presentable dressing table at small cost and which answered the purpose as well as a more expensive one.

Dear Aunt Carrie,

Mother got your letter several days ago & he doesn't like to write, so I am writing for her. There are a few stamps, does Marilla want two of the same kind. I am sending all I can find. We have gave Ben Roe a lot of stamps he saves them to. We could just as well send them for Marilla. I am sending the births that I copied from Aunt Joice once when I was up there. We are going up Sunday or a week from Sunday and I will get the rest of it and send it to you. We all had a good time at the party. They got 5.45 in money and a berry spoon and dish. So sorry you couldn't of come. 32 came I would 42 people. Annie P. Hinna made the wedding cake she had the bride and groom on it. I was lonely.

I want mother to get a set of silver with the money she got for she needs
it. It sure is cold here today.

I don't know whether I am going to get any vacation or not. I haven't heard of any. But I sure would be glad to get a couple of weeks off.
these are the births

James (?) Wm Taylor D.G C, C, C,

Both my wife, Clarine Smith TUCKER, and I have roots in Coinjock. She descends from the SIMMONS family with connections with MERCER, NICHOLSON and TAYLOR families. I descend from Joseph TAYLOR, Jr. and his wife Anna, who migrated to Wilkes Co., GA ca 1800. There were at least to marriages between Joseph TAYLOR'S grandchildren and the PORTWOODS in GA. One of the PORTWOODS, Howard, is known to have come from Coinjock. In Coinjock, Joseph TAYLOR, Jr. was closely associated with Edward TAYLOR as was Joseph TAYLOR, Sen. and Benjamin TAYLOR, Sen. However, Benjamin TAYLOR, Jr. was the son of Edward, so no conclusions as to relationships can be drawn from the Senior and Junior designations. If anyone is interested in the above named families, please contact us. We will be happy to share information with family members. I also descend from the WOOD and SAWYER families of Pasquotank and Camden Counties with connections to SPENCE, HALSTEAD and WEST families.

My father was Alfred Lorey CHAPLIN, his father was Lorey Roger CHAPLIN, his father was Spencer Roger CHAPLIN and his father was James CHAPLIN. The first three are believed to have been born in Tyrrell County, NC. I believe James CHAPLIN to have been born in Currituck County, NC. From 1771 to 1823 there are so many references to James CHAPLIN, at least two different ones, that I need to know which James CHAPLIN is my direct ancestor. Was he the son of James or the son of Caleb? Can anyone help me sort out this? I would like to know how William, John, James and Caleb were related. Although CHAPLIN has been my main quest, I'm also interested in JONES, SWINDELL, SMITHWICK, SWAIN and DAVENPORT. Contact: Jean Chaplin Davis, 317 E. James St., Mount Olive, NC 28365.

DONATIONS

Joan & Jim Dunton gave a microfilm of the 1900 Pasquotank County, NC Census to the Albemarle Genealogical Society in memory of Hubert L. "Buddy" Miller who died 3 Jan. 1996. His wife Ray Basnight Miller is a former member of this society.

Jack R. Hutchins, 23 Orchard Way South, Rockville, MD 20854 has donated a book to the Albemarle Genealogical Society. WILLIAM HUTCHINS OF CAROLINA is a hard cover, cloth bound, every name index, 752 pages. This new 1995 volume of genealogy completes the six histories of most of the early Hutchins / Hutchings / Hutchens families of America. Information is presented on thousands of families as well as hundreds of "missing links" to tie families to the early generations. Almost all present Hutchins / Hutchings / Hutchens of America go back to the families presented in these six genealogies. WILLIAM HUTCHINS OF CAROLINA gives detailed information on the early families in the Old Carolina Colony, and many are documented as they later moved into GA, MS, LA, TX, AR, TN, KY, MO, IL, etc. Outside of New England, the Carolina area has the largest concentration of the Hutchins families in the U. S. This book also includes a supplement to the book ROBERT HUTCHINS OF COLONIAL AMERICA, 1992 giving additional branches to many families. Contact Mr. Hutchins for a brochure on his books, which gives more detail than space available here. All are hard cover; reasonably priced. WILLIAM HUTCHINS OF CAROLINA, $30; ROBERT HUTCHINS OF COLONIAL AMERICA, 1350 p, 1992, $30; HUGH HUTCHINS OF OLD ENGLAND 904p, 1984, $20; JOHN HUTCHINS OF HAVERHILL (only a few copies left), 563 p, 1975, $60; THOMAS HUTCHINS OF SALEM, 801 p, 1972, $20; JACOB HUTCHINS OF ATHOL, 384 p, 1976, $ 15.
