contributed by Nita Caldwell

State of North Carolina
Montgomery County,

To whom these presents may come greetings:

Be It Remembered, That on the 16th day of April, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and thirty-nine, in the one hundred and sixty-fourth year of the independence of the United States, during the reign of Adolf Hitler, and F.D.R. in the city of Troy, there was born to Maud a female male colt named Kate. She was born in a manger but lays no claim to divinity. Her sire is supposed to be some Jackass, name unknown and her owner is another, named Dr. W. T. Harris.

Without pride of ancestry, she like the priest, the pope and the eunuch, has little hope of progeny or posterity, however, may the fact of her birth and the date thereof never be questioned or doubted, and now therefore, I, M. A. Nicholson, a notary public in and for the aforementioned county and State, commissioned by his Excellency Hon. Clyde R. Hoey, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby make this certification of the event and date as set forth above, and do herewith and hereon set my hand and official seal, this April, 23rd, A.D., 1939.

Test

J. Ervin, Clerk

It is interesting to note that few, if any, of Thomas' children purchased anything at his estate sale. It seemed to be mostly the widow, Martha or Patsy.

Thomas Cuthbertson was the oldest child of William and Rachel Monteith Cuthbertson. William was a Revolutionary War soldier.

Dear Mrs. Caldwell:

"Knowing your taste for historical things, and remembering how popular the One Minute page is, I am always on the lookout for something interesting to contribute, and on my recent visit to the dear old 'City by the Sea' I came across the enclosed articles which will be read with deep interest I feel sure, and will give others an opportunity to secure a copy.

"Yours Sincerely, C. S. P. Charlotte, March 17

The Lord's Prayer

The following beautiful composition was captured during the War Between the States, in Charleston, SC, by a brother of Mrs. S. B. Helmer, of Kendalville, Ind. It is printed on very heavy satin, and is quite a literary curiosity.

Note: Read this prayer straight across from one side to the other.

Thou, to the mercy seat our souls do gather,
to do our duty unto Thee . . . . .
To whom all praise, all honor, should be given, for Thou art the Great God . .
Thou, by thy wisdom, rul'st the world's whole frame forever, therefore. . . .
Let never more delays divide us from thy glorious grace, but let . . . . .
And let our promptness to obey, be even
the very same . . . . .
Then for our souls, O Lord, we also pray,
Thou would'st be pleased to . . . . .
The food of life, wherewith our souls are fed, sufficient raiment, and . . . . .
With every needful thing do thou relieve,
And of Thy mercy, pity. . . . .
All our misdeeds for Him, Thou didst
please to make an offering for . . . . .
And for as much as we believe that Thou will pardon us . . . . .
Let that love teach wherewith Thou dost acquaint us to pardon all . . . . .
And though, sometimes Thou dost find'st we have forgot this love to Thee, yet help . .
Through soul or body's want to desperation, nor let earth's gain drive us. . . .
Let not the soul of any true believer fall
in the time of trial . . . . .
Yea, save them from the malice of the devil and both in life and death, keep...
Thus pray we Lord, for that of Thee, from Whom this may be had . . . . .
This world is Thy work, its wondrous story to Thee belongs . . . . .
And all Thy wond'rous works have ended never, but will remain forever and . . . .
Thus we poor creatures would confess again and thus say, eternally, Amen . . .

Our Father,
Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day,
Our daily bread.
And forgive us
Our trespasses,
As we forgive
Those who trespass against us.
And lead us not
Into temptation,
But deliver
Us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom
The power and the glory
Forever.
Amen.

INTRODUCTION

The Reformed Presbyterian Church came to America because of persecution in Ireland. Some went to Scotland, which in turn became the center of their movement.

In 1706, Reverend John Mc Millan began to minister to these "reformers" or "covenanters". They were called Covenanters because of their allegiance to two religious documents, called "Covenants" written in 1619 and 1643.

The Reformed Presbyterians formed a "society" in Paxtang, Paxton Township, Dauphin County, Pennsylvania in 1721 with two sons of John Brown, of Preisthill, as elders. A society was a body of believers.

Later, in 1732, another "society" was began in Middle Octarara, Bart Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania by the Reverend Alexander Craighead.

The Reverend John Cuthbertson (1718-1799) was born in Scotland where he was ordained to preach the Gospel in 1746 or 1747. He was a student of the aforementioned Reverend John Mc Millan.

In 1749 or 1750, he began his preaching ministry, ministering to the churches in Scotland. Later he would be sent to the societies in America, landing at New Castle, Delaware on August 5, 1751 with his sister Waddie and brother in law, Archibald Bournes.

Beginning almost from the time he landed, he began ministering to the people. Beginning in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania he began an undaunted ministry.

According to his own record he preached 2452 days, baptized 1806 children, married 240 couples and walked or rode 69,255 miles or approximately three times around the world.

This book contains the genealogical excerpts of his diary. Every name listed in the diary is listed in this book. This book is listed alphabetically and numerically. Each listing is the son, daughter or marital partner as listed in the diary of Reverend John Cuthbertson.

When at all possible, I've included important geographical or possible genealogical notes as indicated by the ( ) marks based upon descriptions or notes written in the diary.

It is tough to best narrow down geographical landmarks. Churches, mountains, rivers, streams, and the houses of people of influence where, in those days used as geographical landmarks.

Alphabetical list of the Parishioners of John Cuthbertson

(H- indicates their home, if location is different than their church. RE- means Ruling Elder, the date that follows indicates when they were elected to that office. The latter date indicates when they show up on church rolls.
