GENEALOGY OF THE RICHARD DART FAMILY OF
NEW LONDON.

First Generation. Richard I.

1. Richard Dart was born in 1635 and died Sept. 24, 1724. [Old Goodman Darte died today. Hemps. Diary.] He married Bethia — in 1664. According to the town records quoted by Miss Calkins in her History of New London, Richard Dart with a number of companions appeared in New London in 1662. After remaining there for some time he with his companions were ordered by vote of the town council either to become citizens or to make their departure. Richard chose to become a citizen. He bought a house Sept. 12, 1664. He was one of the grantees for the town of Waterford to receive additional lands from the King. The house he built is still standing and it is a good example of early colonial architecture; it is located within the town of Waterford. Apparently Richard became a man of influence for his name appears frequently in the town records and his will would indicate that he accumulated considerable property. His will, dated Apr. 4, 1711, refers to his oldest son, Daniel, as having been "ungrateful and treacherous to me" and accordingly his property is left mostly to his second son, Richard. It appears that Bethia, his wife, died, perhaps near the year 1705 and Richard married Mary (Rog) Dudley. The date is not known. She was the widow of William Dudley. Upon the death of her father and mother she became Lady Dudley of England. (Col. Records.) Her will is dated June 15, 1726 and the settlement of the estate was made May 7, 1728. In the will she mentions her own sons, William and Daniel, a grandson and a daughter, Elizabeth, married to Joseph Remington. She mentions her 'son-in-law,' Roger—we should now say 'step-son.' The children of Richard Dart were:

2. Dinah Dart¹ born Jan. 12, 1664. Mar. Mr. Hatch.
3. Daniel Dart¹ born May 3, 1666.
4. Richard Dart¹ born May 7, 1667.
5. Roger Dart¹ born Nov. 22, 1670.
6. Ebenezer Dart¹ born Feb. 18, 1672/3.
7. Ann Dart¹ born Feb. 1674. Mar. John Morgan. Son, John, born Jan. 16, 1711. (Jno Whipple & Ann Dart published Hemps. Diary)
8. Bethia Dart¹ born July 30, 1677. Mar. Joseph Clappell. (Will of Chas. & Bethia Darte, pub. April 2, 1731. Hemps. Diary)
9. Elizabeth Dart¹ born Dec. 15, 1679. Mar. Jonathan Whipple Feb. 24, 1729/7. Son, David Whipple.
10. Sarah Dart¹ born June 10, 1681. Mar. Eleazer Bishop, June 22, 1704.
11. Mary Dart¹ born 1685; died July 19, 1689.

Note—Danson Dunsen's Diary is quoted in several places in parentheses. Even where there are discrepancies between his statements and the Vital Statistics of New London we have refrained from comment.

SECOND GENERATION.

Second Generation. Daniel 1st, 2; Richard 1.

*3. Daniel Darte,² first son of Richard and Bethia Darte, was born May 3, 1666. The date of his death seems not to be known. He married Elizabeth Douglass, Aug. 4, 1686. (Afternoon I went to take my leave of Danl Darte who is moving off with his family to Boulton. Hemps. Diary p. 125. Oct. 8, 1722.) The house which Daniel built at Bolton is still standing and is in a good state of repair. It is owned by Mr. Samuel Alvord, who has remodeled it considerably in the interior. In his will Richard, the first, characterizes his son, Daniel, as being "ungrateful and treacherous," and accordingly he leaves most of the residue of his property to his son, Richard. (Eliz Dart died. Hemps. Diary. Jan. 27, 1714). The children:

- 12. Thomas Darte,² born July 8, 1687.
 - 13. Elizabeth Darte,² born Oct. 14, 1689.
 - *14. Daniel Darte,² born Aug. 31, 1691.
 - 15. John Darte,² born Dec. 2, 1693.
 - 16. Maria Darte,² born Nov. 13, 1695.
 - 17. Ebenezer Darte,² born May 10, 1698.
 - 18. Abiah Darte,² born Dec. 2, 1701. Mar. Joseph Colyer May 19, 1724.
 - 19. Lelia Darte,² born Nov. 4, 1703.
 - 20. Samuel Darte,² born Dec. 12, 1705.
 - 21. Jobaz Darte,² born Mar. 12, 1708.
 - 22. Ruth Darte,² born Aug. 26, 1711. Mar. Joel White Jan. 22, 1736. She died Aug. 29, 1760. He died June 28, 1789.
- [Thos Chapin and (.....) Darte published Hemps. Diary. June 18, 1727.]

Second Generation. Richard 2; Richard 1.

4. Richard Darte, second son of Richard and Bethia Darte, was born May 7, 1667. (Richard Darte aged 70 odd Died. Hemps. Diary. Feb. 20, 1740-41.) He married Elizabeth Strickland June 22, 1699. (She was found Dead ys morn at ye Spring where they fetch water. She was about 70. Hemps. Diary. Feb. 8, 1738-39.) Richard received the major portion of his father's property, because as Richard, the first, says Daniel his first son, had proved "ungrateful and treacherous." However very few references can be found to this family. Deacon Hempstead speaks of holding council with Richard over unjust differences in the division of the property of the first Richard. The oldest son, Peter, seems on the other hand to have risen to a position of some influence for the land records at Waterford show that he bought and sold land several times. It is not improbable that a portion of this family migrated to New Hampshire for a Peter Dart became Justice of the Peace at Gilsun and held office for many years. FIFTH GENERATION

Fifth Generation. Jeremiah 5; Daniel of Bolton 4; Daniel 2nd, 3; Daniel 1st, 2; Richard 1.

108. Jeremiah Dart, parents not definitely known, was born in 1765 and died at Roxbury, N. Y. Sept. 29, 1833. The old family Bible gives this record very clearly and it is confirmed by the record upon his monument in the cemetery. Tradition in the family says that he came from Connecticut. Jeremiah Dart, son of Daniel Dart of Bolton, Conn., was born August 16, 1769. This is the only known person in the family with whom he might be identified. Lands records at Danbury, Conn. seem to point to Roger Dart as his grandfather. A granddaughter states positively that he had lived at Danbury, and came from there to Roxbury. His brothers and sisters were Aaron, Anson, Mercy and Anna. Of these Anson, Mercy and Anna are well known through their descendants. Jeremiah Dart lived upon a farm near Roxbury. One of his neighbors was a Gould, the father of Jay Gould. He was a man of influence as his reputation lives in the traditions of the community. He was twice married. His first wife was Candis Kellogg by whom he had five children and his second wife Margaret Mack. The latter was born Aug. 22, 1779 and died Sept. 26, 1813. Age 64 years. Children by Candis Kellogg:

- 1. Simon Spencer Dart,⁶ born June 1, 1803.
- 2. Daniel Dart,⁶ born; died 1827.
- 3. Candis Dart,⁶ born
- 4. Ferni Dart,⁶ born..... 1795 - m Andrew N. Miner
- 5. Julia Dart,⁶ born

Children by Margaret Mack were:

- 6. George G. Dart,⁶ born Oct. 17, 1812. Died Aug. 15, 1895.
- 6. David Mack Dart,⁶ born in 1816; died June 9, 1883.
- 6. Nelson Kellogg Dart,⁶ born 1818
- 6. Reuben Kellogg Dart,⁶ born Jan. 9, 1821. Died July 25, 1868.

Fifth Generation. Col. Justus 5; Joshua 4; Daniel 2nd, 3; Daniel 1st, 2; Richard 1.

111. Justus Dartt, second son of Joshua and Deborah Spencer Dartt, was born May 28, 1757, and died —, 1838. He married Hannah Gleason Feb. 25, 1779. They lived first in
