William & Anna Fritts (1795)

By Gail Fritts and other family members - December 1980

When writing Volume I in 1979 of The Fritts/Fritz Family Heritage, we (Greg & Patti) did not list William (1795) as a son of George, Sr. even though we had some material on him and had planned to place him at the back of George, Sr.'s line with a question as to where he fit! However, we went to press and overlooked getting it in--our error.

Gail and Paul Steven Fritts with children, Kristi Michelle and Steven Fritts. Picture made 29 Nov. 1981

Gail (Fritts) Fritts, who herself descends from William's brother, George, Jr. (1788) and Phebe Sarah (Byerly) Fritts, page 62, obtained a copy of Volume I, in reading it she and her husband Paul Steven Fritts were looking for HIS line--the only mention they found was the Grist Mill on page 25. We had statistical data for William, however, Gail went to the family for original land deeds and maps; and to the courthouse for additional records to prove William (1795) as a son of George and Mary (Wilson) Fritts (1753). Then she spent many hours recording names, dates and stories of the family lines from William and Anna forward. They are not complete yet but much further because of her. We wish to take this opportunity again to THANK Gail personally for all her work. She has given a gift to today's generations and to those of the future. THANKS Gail!

WILLIAM FRITTS, youngest son and tenth of eleven children born to George (1753) and wife Mary (Wilson) Fritts, was born about 1795, in Rowan (now Davidson) County, NC. He was married around 1824 to Anna (?) when William was about age twenty-nine years. It is interesting to note that all of his children did not marry until they were in their twenties to almost forty. According to census Anna (?) was born about 1805 in North Carolina and died between late 1862 and 1867, according to will and land deeds as did her husband William. Seven children: Eleanor, Mary Ann, Smith, Emsley, Henderson, John H., and Elizabeth Fritts were born to this union all in North Carolina, probably Davidson County.

William was a farmer and invested in land very successfully. The first record of land he bought was on 22 Jan 1834, when he purchased 150 acres from his father George Fritz, Sr., on the waters of Abbotts Creek, bounded by Peter Clodfelter for the amount of $200.00. On 21 May 1836, William bought 124 acres from his father on Abbotts Creek bounded by the Crotts and Black Jack Kinney for the amount of $90.00.

Being the youngest son, he was responsible for the care of his parents until their death. On 17 June 1837, an indenture between "George Fritz, Sen. and his son, William Fritz," selling 103 acres to William for: (1) the amount of $20.00 paid to each of George's five daughters or their heirs within two years after the decease of George Fritz, Sen.; (2) his attending of the Grist and Saw Mills allowing George Fritz and his wife Mary half of the toll from the mills during their natural lives (this 103 acres was part of the original tract bought from Michael Beard and his wife Margaret on 2 Oct 1815, by George Fritz for $1350.00, included 253 acres situated on both sides of Abbotts Creek including the Grist and Saw Mills known at that time as Beard's Mill. The name was changed to Frittz' Mill); and (3) $1.00 paid to George Fritz, Sen. This tract was on the east side of Abbotts Creek and bounded by Philip Leonard, Reuben Fritz, and T. Phillips Allen. With this deed for 103 acres plus the land he bought in 1834, William now owned the complete tract of land of Michael Beard. Because of this large amount of land given and sold to William, it is believed George Fritz, Sen. felt this was William's share of his estate. Therefore, William was not mentioned in his father's last will and testament.

On 21 July 1854, James Perdue paid $5.00 each to William Fritts, George Byerly and wife Katy, John Wilson and wife Mary, and Hannah's heirs (Eliza Sink, Mary Dancy and Onny Dancy). The land James Perdue purchased was 70 acres located on the waters of Flat Swamp adjoining James Elliott, Adam Rider and others--that William and his sister's had a common interest in. This deed mentions only three of the five sisters, Katy, Mary and Hannah, who is dec'd. It is possible Rachel died without heirs, but Sarah was still living until 1856. This land also is not the same land that George Fritz, Sen. sold to William and who was to pay the girls $20.00. Flat Swamp is located in the southern corner of the county down by the Yadkin River near Jackson Hill Township.

On 17 Oct 1857, William bought 70 acres from Alfred Fritts for $1200.00 bounded by Adam Fritts and the Everharts. Also he bought adjoining land of 54 acres bounded by Daniel Leonard and Alfred Nicholson.

At the on set of the War Between the States when in his sixty-seventh year, William wrote his will dated 21 Nov 1862, he states he is sound of mind and memory, but weak in body. He bequested to his wife Anna over 500 acres of land to be divided among his four sons at her death, all his livestock and farm implements, crop stock and growing crop. He left to James Quinn, his son-in-law, 14 acres which he was presently living on. In event of his death, it would go to his grandson John Quinn. William's daughter, Eleanor (Fritts) Quinn, died on 27 Mar 1855, leaving two children: John and Ellen Catherine Quinn. William left 4 rifles/guns to his four sons to choose among themselves. The one taking the George gun to pay $5.00 to him that gets the Shaw gun. The one taking the little gun to pay $3.00 to him who gets the old gun. William was very wise in working out the details to divide everything as equally as possible and also to see that his beloved wife was cared for. In those days it was highly unusual for a man to leave everything to his wife first then to have it divided after her death. It was more common for her to get support for length of time she remained a widow and permission to remain in the homeplace and use a room! He left to his son Smith his mule Jim, to John one mule 2 years old, to Henderson one mule 6 months old and one black horse called Sam, and Emsley one mare called Pigeon and colt and one horse called Ned, to use when his wife Anna may not necessarily want their services and then after Anna's death to be each son's absolute property.

After Anna's death the personal estate was to be equally divided between his two daughters Mary and Elizabeth and his granddaughter Ellen Catherine Quinn. The personal estate was to be divided by the following persons he chose: Mrs. George Kepley, Mrs. Henry Darr, and Mrs. Valentine Leonard. The granddaughter Ellen Catherine Quinn, was born in 1855, at or near the time her mother died. She evidently was raised by her grandparents. Her part was to be divided between Mary and Elizabeth if she left Anna before her death.

Anna and Henderson were appointed executrix and executor. Anna and William both died during the next five years, according to a deed of land dated 12 Sept 1867, when the land was divided between William's three sons: Smith, Henderson, and John. Emsley had died during this five year period and his share was left to his daughter Sarah Letitia Fritts. The land was divided into four lots--lot #1 went to Emsley's daughter Sarah L. it contained 170 acres; lot #2 went to Smith Fritts it contained two parcels one with 84 acres and a house the other with 16½ acres and a mill; lot #3 went to Henderson and contained three parcels one with 22 3/4 acres and a house called Younts tract, another with 46½ acres called the Mill Creek tract, and the third with 42 3/4 acres called the Creek track; lot #4 went to John Fritts it contained 113½ acres and a house, this land was owned by Alfred Fritts at one time and had the railroad on one side and the Greensboro Road going through it.

At the old homeplace, lot #2, there is a marker with Anna Fritts and Wm Fritts listed on it. We have not been able to locate a church cemetery record with their burial dates, and that this time feel they were buried on their own land.

CHILDREN OF WILLIAM AND ANNA (?) FRITTS

1. Eleanor Fritts, b. 27 April 1825; d. 27 March 1855, buried at Pilgrim Reformed Church Cemetery, Lexington, NC. She was married to James Quinn about 26 August 1847. He was born about 1820 in Ireland and was a tailor by trade. They had two children we know of. After Eleanor's death James was married secondly to Elizabeth Hubbard in the 1860's and they had one child. Elizabeth was born ca 1844 and died in 1904 and is buried at Holly Grove Lutheran Church Cemetery, Lexington, NC. We have not found James Quinn's final resting place.

However, in 1870 census she has returned to her maiden name and had two girls in her household, Elizabeth age 15y (who we believe is Ellen Catherine Quinn) and Sarah age 6y, who is Emsley Fritts' daughter.
3. Smith Fritts, b. 20 Dec 1829; d. 17 Feb 1905, buried at Pilgrim Reformed Church Cemetery. When in his thirty-seventh year he gave up bachelorhood and was married to the widow, Mrs. Anna Phebe (Frank) Burkhart on 11 March 1868, by H. Adams in Davidson Co., NC. Anna Phebe was the daughter of Peter and Margaret (?) Frank, born 8 Oct 1839 in NC and died 25 Nov 1908. Anna Phebe's first husband was John Ward Burkhart, son of Solomon and Emily (Whitaker) Burkhart, born 4 Feb 1834 and was killed during the Civil War. John W. and Anna P. were married 29 March 1857. They had three children:

Smith and Phebe Ann Frank Burkhart Fritts. Picture made early 1900's.

After Smith Fritts and Anna Phebe were married they moved to the land that was willed to Smith from his father William (1795) which was the house tract containing 84 acres and the Mill tract containing 16½ acres. They lived in a log house. Part of the rocks that the foundation were on are still visible. In the 1870's, when in his early twenties, Christopher C. Burkhart helped build his mother and stepfather a new five room house. It was completed around 1880. This homeplace is still standing.

As the years went by the Grist and Saw Mill business slowed down. Part of the stone dam to turn water from Abbotts Creek to run the grist and saw mills is still standing. The raceway for the water to return to the creek is still opened. The dam of stones where the mills were are still partially standing. The front and back porches of the house use the mill stones for steps. Also the barn built in 1869 is still in good shape and being used today.

Smith and Anna P. Fritts had five children, all born in the homeplace--log cabin. The youngest son, Robert Lee Fritts, stayed on to care for his mother after his father past away in 1905. His mother died in 1908 and both are buried at Pilgrim Reformed Church Cemetery. Robert Lee was willed the homeplace for taking care of his parents.

John H. and Ida lived in the Holly Grove community and spent many hours in the fields and gardens, planting and raising food for themselves and their eight children. They had many fruit trees and made cider juice and vinegar. They had horses and cows and Ida churned her own butter and sold it as well as the cream to the Lexington Creamery. In 1905, John H. went to work for Southern Railroad, where he helped lay the second set of railroad tracts. Bob as he was called, worked most of his life as a section hand on the railroad and farmed his small tract of land, raising corn, wheat, cotton and a garden. He had cows, hogs and chickens. We used to kill a chicken on Saturday and put it in a concrete box next to the spring. The ice cold spring water ran through the box to keep the meat, butter, and milk cold. We always had fried chicken on Sunday for dinner. We had a wagon or buggy to ride in until cars came out. We carried water from a spring, later getting a pump to furnish water. We used oil lamps until the R.E.A. ran a light line close enough to put up power lines. Bob walked to work until he went to work at Spencer, then he drove a Model A. Ford. He also worked for Hackney Furn. before it was changed to Lexington Chair Factory. When WW II began he had 3 sons in service: Lloyd, Ralph and Fred. They all came back. We knew he looked up the road every time he went outside waiting for his sons to come home. Frances was a housewife helping with the farm as well.

When the children were small, they would take them to the Fair when it came to town. Bob and Frances had nine children, plus they raised a nephew, Jacob Mathias Lopp, after the death of his mother Mary Elizabeth, sister to Bob Fritts.

HARRY FRITTS, descendant from John Henderson (1873-1953) and Ida Catherine (Tysinger) Fritts, is taking a break from his scouting activities, but an active participant in the scouting program for 18 years. Fritts has collected some 100 mugs bearing scouting symbols from scout camps and jamborees since he began to be involved in the program.

Fritts's collection includes mugs from Whitmont, N.M. scout camp, from jamborees in New Mexico and Idaho, and from Woodhedge training camps he has visited.

One particular set of 12 mugs bears the emblems of the 12 scouting regions. This set was sold prior to a reorganization some six years ago which changed the organization to only six regions. (The Times Newspaper, Thomasville, NC, 27 Dec 1982).

Henry Wesley Fritts (1852)

HENRY WESLEY FRITTS, (p. 270), the fifth child of Isham Gordon and Eliza M. (Jordon) Fritts, born 4 Nov 1852, in Roane Co., TN about four miles south of Kingston. He had five brothers: Wiley H., Jacob, John N., Thomas W., and Benjamin F., and twin sisters: Matilda M. and Elizabeth. They were the grandchildren of Jacob and Sarah (Sexton) Fritts (1800) and the great-grandchildren of Henry (1770) and his first wife.

According to census Henry W. (1852) listed his occupation as an engineer and bookkeeper. He also owned his own business the--Henry W. Fritts General Blacksmithing and Heavy Wagon Work--located on the S.E. corner of Fifth and Broad Streets, Chattanooga, TN. He was thirty-five years old before he was married on 13 April 1887, to Mamie Jameson in Chattanooga, Hamilton Co., TN by Dr. Bachman a presbyterian minister. Mamie was born 29 April 1851, in Corington, KY, the daughter of Alexander and Maria (Arthur) Jameson. Mamie had one sister, Hattie who was married to Abner Jackson and one brother, Arthur who never married and died a young man.

During the next eight years this happy family grew with the birth of two sons and one daughter. Then on 1 Feb 1896, in her forty-fourth year Mamie passed away. She was buried in Chattanooga.

Henry W. was married secondly in 1900 to Mrs. Julia Dunn Gordon. Julia had a daughter, Margaret, Gordon by her first husband and two children by Henry W. Fritts. Henry W. loved all his children. He maintained two homes, dividing his time between the families.

Just when he sold his business in Chattanooga and moved to Birmingham, Alabama is not definite--but while in Alabama he had a blacksmith shop in West End and lived nearby. The place was sold in 1921. He then moved to Beaumont, Texas, near his son Henry Wesley Fritts, Jr. Opening a small shoe shop there in 1922. Henry W. Sr., died suddenly, with a heart attack, on 27 June 1926 and was buried in Magnolia Cemetery, Beaumont, Jefferson Co., Texas.

Ellen Fritts Irons Terry - - - daughter of Isaac and Franky (Fortner) FRITTS, was born 13 October 1844 in Knox Co., TN. In the 1860 Roane Co., TN census (4th Lenoir District), she is listed with the Archibald Morton family on page 88, as a boarder. She is also shown on page 90, with her parents but apparently enumerated as an afterthought at the bottom of the list of children.

She was married to Alvin Joseph IRON or IRONS (both forms are known in the records), on 7 March 1863 in Roane Co., TN. One son, Joseph P. Irons was born 28 January 1865. Alvin joined the Union Army in Nashville on 1 February 1865, becoming 2nd Lieutenant, Company I, 5th Tennessee Mounted Infantry. Alvin was born 31 May 1840, Monroe Co., TN. No record of his birth exists and his family is not listed in the 1850 census for Monroe, Roane, nor Polk Counties. In his pension application, Alvin stated his family's records were destroyed with the family home during the war. He gave his parents' names as William and Matilda IRON.

Alvin was discharged at Nashville 14 July 1865; he gave his occupation as artist. He apparently never returned to his family for Ellen divorced him for desertion at the May term, 1867 of the Roane County Court. He was married secondly to Sarah E. Flemons. In the 1880 Monroe Co., TN census, Alvin J. IRONS is listed as married to Elizabeth, age 30, with a five year old child, Minnie J., born 2 March 1875. Sarah died 30 August 1902.

Alvin was married a third time, on 25 February 1905, in Madisonville, TN to Martha J. Hicks by H. T. Franklin. She was born 26 October 1886. Two children were born to this marriage: Emma Leslie Mamie IRONS, on 21 October 1905 in Madisonville, TN and Alvin J. IRONS on 7 November 1910, at Sweetwater, Monroe Co., TN. Martha died 26 January 1912 and Alvin (Senior) died at Madisonville on 8 August 1914. The younger Alvin drew a minors pension until 5 September 1926.

Ellen and Alvin's son Joseph P. IRONS was a river pilot on the Clinch and Tennessee Rivers. Roane Co., TN marriage records note a union of a J. A. IRONS and Nancy J. NEDDGE on 7 October 1883. Joseph P. IRONS died on 6 July 1918 and was buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Knoxville, Knox Co., TN.

Ellen FRITTS IRONS was married secondly to Jesse TERRY, on 18 April 1869 at Kingston, Roane Co., TN. Jesse TERRY was born in 1822 in Roane Co., TN. The TERRYs owned a farm on a bend in the Clinch River on Buttermilk Road near Paw Paw Creek about a mile from the Poplar Springs Church. A decess date and burial place for Jesse has not yet been found and help is solicited from Fritts Cousins in Roane Co., TN.

Ellen lived on Cornel Avenue, Knoxville, with her son William Isaac TERRY's family from shortly after stroke until her death on 17 July 1919. She is buried next to her son Joseph IRONS in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Ellen and Jesse TERRY had four children, all born in Kingston, Roane Co., TN.

1. Lillie TERRY, b. 20 Sep 1870; d. 13 Feb 1947, buried at Woodlawn Cemetery; m. Fred Spangler.
2. William Isaac TERRY, b. 28 Jan 1874; d. 11 Feb 1949, buried New Gray Cemetery, Knoxville, TN; m. Minnie Ann Courtney on 23 Dec 1896. William Isaac, who was named for his grandfather Isaac FRITTS, worked on the river steamboats, also.
3. Rose Ellen TERRY, b. 29 Aug 1875; d. 30 Dec 1930, Jellico, Campbell Co., TN is buried there at City Cemetery; m. Leondadus "Lee" CLARK on 26 Oct 1898 in Knoxville. Lee CLARK was a tinsmith. They lived in LaFollette until about 1904 when they moved to Jellico. Lee died 23 Apr 1923. They had eight children.
4. Albert TERRY, b. Kingston, TN; m. 1st Birdie ?; m. 2nd Jessie ?.

This family line is incomplete, it would be greatly appreciated if the names and dates of Ellen's descendents could be completed to present. If anyone is interested in providing a story or sketch of these descendents for Volume II of The Fritts/Fritz Family Heritage it is a treasured gift to leave for the future generations--a heritage to be PROUD of. (Gene Frick, 26 Windmill Drive, Clementon, NJ 08021, Aug, 1983).

We can not identify everyone in the picture! The Kingston Ferry photo has been the object of a minor controversy since a Roane County authority on local ferries is not certain that the pilot is Joe IRONS. If anyone can help to identify those in the picture it will be greatly appreciated, by all. (Picture rec. from Gene Fricks, Nov-1980, pp. 437-438).

REUNION 1984

Dear Cousins:

This year has gone by so fast! We were late in getting the June, 1983, Newsletter mailed--like August 11th--but it was worth it. BIG QUESTION--WHERE ARE THE QUESTIONNAIRES?? We must have the responses back by January 5, 1984, if at all possible.

We will be in Lexington, North Carolina at the Holiday Inn, Room 130, on December 27 & 28, 1983, to help co-ordinate the Reunion Committees, committee members are still needed so let us hear from you. For those who can not be in Lexington get us your input by December 20th. Otherwise, we hope to see you in Lexington in December.

We got the brochures on the Guilford Courthouse Park, Greensboro, NC - its beautiful! There is a twenty minute film on the Southern Campaign during the Revolutionary War and they will have a guide available to answer questions on the North Carolina Militia that Wooldrich and son, John Fritz served with at the Battle of Guilford Courthouse on 15 March 1781. The tour itself is a self-guiding one either by car or walking. We will need to know how many want to take this tour and will plan it for Saturday, June 30th.

"TAKE A LEISURELY WALK THROUGH THE STREETS OF THE PAST" -- OLD SALEM AND HISTORIC BETHABARA, both of these attractions are in Winston-Salem, NC, 22 miles from Lexington. Historic Bethabara was founded in 1753 by the Moravian's in the wilderness of NC. Within a few years the community was a frontier center for trade, crafts, and medical care. Old Salem recreates the resourceful spirit of the 18th century, founded by the Moravians in 1766. We will plan these tours for Monday, July 2nd.

There will be a short June, 1984, Newsletter sent out with all the needed reunion time schedules. Since last Christmas' newsletter we have received contributions to help us with the mailing and other reunion expenses. We wish to thank everyone for their generous support this past year, it is greatly appreciated. God bless you all.

THE FRITTS (FRITZ) FAMILY HERITAGE, VOLUME II's

has been STARTED -----

It will be a continuation of Volume I, pictures and stories are needed for all families. How long it will take us to complete the draft for printing will depend in great part on the completeness of the material sent in. The more complete the stories from the families the more time Greg and Patti will have to work on the DRAFTING OF THE BOOK. We will not be surpris to see the book or books cover 500 pages or more.

The format for those of you who can do so, please use the one used here in the newsletter, be sure to list your sources of information. If you do not feel comfortable with this format use your own. All corrections and updates from Volume I will be in Volume II. Those wishing pictures in Volume II will be asked to cover this cost, depending on size, they will cost $7 to $25 each. We are taking orders for those wishing to buy Volume II, but cannot give a price until we go to press--when we go to press--depends on how much HELP we get. We are also taking orders for Volume I now and as soon as we have about 25 more orders will run off a printing. You will need a copy of Volume I along with Volume II for a COMPLETE HISTORY.

God Bless you all -- The Fritts Family
