BENJAMIN GRAVES HIGGINBOTHAM

BENJAMIN GRAVES⁴ HIGGINBOTHAM (Benjamin³, Benjamin², John¹) was the son of Benjamin and Mary (Gatewood) Higginbotham. He was born on 17 February 1788 in Wilkes County, Georgia. He died on 23 April 1862 in Noxubee County, Mississippi and is buried in the Lloyd Cemetery [now known as Butler Cemetery]. (Birth date, Graves Bible record. Death date, wife's Pension application. Burial place, letter dated 29 July 1944 from P. G. Whitehead to Mr. E. A. Limmer of Houston, Texas. The Bible record was in possession of P. G. Whitehead in 1944. Photo copy of Bible record and letter in my file.)

Benjamin Graves Higginbotham was married on 2 January 1812, in Elbert County, Georgia, to Mary Foster Lawless, daughter of John and Tabitha (Rowzee) Lawless and granddaughter of Thomas Lawless. (Marriage date, Elbert County, Georgia Will Book and Mixed records, 1809-1812, page 325 and Bible record.)

MARY FOSTER (LAWLESS) HIGGINBOTHAM was born on 24 November 1795, in Elbert County, Georgia. She died between the years 1875 and 1877 either in Kemper, Winston or Noxubee Counties, Mississippi. She is buried in the Lloyd Cemetery. She was listed on the 1870 census for Kemper County, Mississippi but not found in the 1880 census for Kemper, Neshoba, Winston or Noxubee Counties. (Birth date and burial place same reference as above.)

The following items pertaining to Benjamin Graves Higginbotham are found in the Elbert County, Georgia Records and in the states of Alabama and Mississippi.

Benjamin Graves Higginbotham's name is on a list of soldiers for Georgia Militia for the War of 1812. (Historical Collections of Georgia Chapters National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, Volume 3, page 149.)

Benjamin Graves Higginbotham was a First Lieutenant in the Company Commanded by Captain Charles Carter in the Regiment of Volunteers of Georgia Militia commanded by General Floyd in the War of 1812. He volunteered at the Elbert County Courthouse on the 1st day of August 1813 for the term of six months and continued in actual service in the war for the term of three months and was then honorably discharged at Camp Hope on the 1st day of November 1813. He was employed chiefly in the building of forts. (His petition for bounty land and wife's Widow pension application number 11529, both found in the National Archives, Washington, D.C.)

Benjamin Graves Higginbotham was listed on an 1815 tax list of Elbert County, Georgia. He was in Captain Christian's District. (Georgia State Archives.)

1820.

He is not found in the Georgia Census for 1820, but could have been in one of the counties whose records are lost.

1822-1833.

The last child born in Georgia was in 1822. The next three children were born in Alabama in 1825, 1828 and 1833. We know he was living in Green County, Alabama, in 1828 when his son, James Larkin was born. (Bible record of Benjamin Graves Higginbotham and Bible record of his grandson, George Washington Higginbotham.)

Benjamin Graves Higginbotham was living in Dallas County, Alabama, in the year 1830 where he is found listed on the census for that County.

About the year 1835, Benjamin Graves Higginbotham and his family moved from Alabama to Mississippi where they settled in the hill country in the south west part of Noxubee County. This was only a few years after the county had been formed from the Choctaw Purchase. I quote from the unpublished History of Noxubee County, Mississippi, by John Anderson Tyson and published in the Macon Beacon in 1926-1927.

"Mr. Halbert states that Mr. J. L. Higginbotham, who had lived near the treaty ground since 1835, has repeatedly pointed out to him the place described as the spot where the treaty of Dancing Rabbit was made and signed, the information of Mr. Higginbotham resting upon the statements of two pioneer settlers of Noxubee County, both of whom were present during the negotiations at Dancing Rabbit and were eye witnesses to the signing of the treaty, Viz; Mr. Hilcar Burwell, who was one of the first settlers of Mashulaville, and Mr. G. W. Campbell, who died at his residence near Shuqualak in 1888. Mr. Higginbotham stated that these two men had frequently pointed the place out to him. Mr. Higginbotham made the additional statement that his brother-in-law, Lorenzo Thomas, in 1849, built a split log cabin with a chimney to the south on the very spot where the treaty was made. This cabin has long since disappeared, but, if by close search, some traces of the old chimney site could be discovered, it will give almost the exact spot of signing the treaty." (Chapter on Indians, page 26. History found in the Noxubee County Court House and Library, Macon, Mississippi and in the Mississippi State Archives, Jackson, Mississippi.)

Benjamin Graves Higginbotham made his home in the Fleetwood Mountains, where there was an abundance of springs, game and timber supply. It was here his last child was born in 1838.

1840.

He is listed on the 1840 United States Census for Noxubee County, Mississippi.

1850.

On the 1850 census for Noxubee County he gives his occupation as a Planter. His wife, Polly; son John Lawless; daughter, Mary Gatewood Higginbotham; and their youngest ...

JAMES LARKIN HIGGINBOTHAM

JAMES LARKIN⁵ HIGGINBOTHAM (Benjamin Graves⁴, Benjamin³, Benjamin², John¹) sixth child of Benjamin Graves and Mary "Polly" Foster (Lawless) Higginbotham. He was born on 10 October 1828, Green County, Alabama. He died on 31 May 1913, Noxubee Co., Ms. and is buried in the White Cemetery. (Son George Washington's Bible, tombstone inscription and death certificate.)

James Larkin Higginbotham was married on 19 May 1850, Noxubee Co., Ms. to MARGARETT ELIZABETH THOMAS. She was the daughter of Isaac and Elizabeth () Thomas. Both were born in South Carolina. (Noxubee Co. marriage records, Book A, page 283.)

Margarett Elizabeth (Thomas) Higginbotham was born on 14 May 1829, Green County, Georgia. She died on 21 October 1898, Noxubee Co., Ms. and is buried beside her husband in the White Cemetery. (Bible and tombstone inscription.)

James Larkin Higginbotham is found living a short distance from his father and next to his brother, Benjamin Toliver Higginbotham in the 1850 Noxubee Co., Ms. census. His occupation is listed as a Planter.

In the 1860 census for Noxubee County, Larkin's occupation is given as a farmer and his place of residence as Mashulaville. His wife, Margarett, and four children, Benjamin Wiley, Isaac Thomas, Mary Elizabeth and Commodore Columbus are listed in his household.

The 1870 Noxubee census has him living in Shuqualak, Ms. Listed in his household are his wife, Margarett and children, Benjamin, Thomas, Elizabeth, Comodore C., George W., Andrew J. and Joseph E. Higginbotham. His occupation was a farmer.

In the 1880 Noxubee census there is just his wife and sons George and Joseph listed in his household. His residence is given as being in the west half of beat number 4 and his occupation a farmer.

James Larkin Higginbotham lived all his life, except the first seven years and the years he was gone during the War Between the States, in Noxubee Co., Ms. He was considered one of the best marksmen and hunters in that part of the country.

Know all men by these presents that we, ANDREW HIGGINBOTHAM & MOSES HIGGINBOTHAM are bound unto THOMPSON SLOAN, ROBERT HUTCHISON, WILLIAM DUNCAN, & JEREMIAH MORROW in the sum of $3.00, dated this 12 Nov 1825 - Whereas, Andrew has obtained an appeal in favor of the above Thompson, Robert, William and Jeremiah for the sum of $1.25.

A Summons for HENRY SMALL, STEPHEN OWENS, JOHN DECKER AND JOSEPH BAKER to appear and speak the truth in behalf of Andrew Higginbotham in an appeal now pending against Thompson, Sloan and others, this 3 April 1826. (Delivered to all but Owens by order of A. Higginbotham.

ANDREW HIGGINBOTHAM vs EMANUEL HIGGINBOTHAM - filed July Term, 1824 - Andrew states that he borrowed from a certain THOMAS KENNEDY the sum of \$100 and that Emanuel Higginbotham became Security for me to Kennedy; that shortly thereafter, I deposited with Emanuel 110 pounds of Gun Powder at an agreed price of .62 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ per pound and Emanuel was to become responsible to and pay said Kennedy that amount of the aforesaid \$100 that I borrowed from him; and afterwards, I borrowed \$20 from WILLIAM JEFFREYS for which Emanuel also became bound with me as Security and I also paid to Emanuel \$3.00 and also to Jeffrey, \$6.00, making \$68.25 on the first note & \$9 on the latter, making in the whole, \$77.25. I went to Emanuel for the purpose of making some arrangement to settle the balance of the two notes and Emanuel informed me that he had paid off the two notes and that he had given 12 percent thereon & that he had lifted the note from Kennedy & would also lift the note from Jeffres & would deliver them to me and upon those statements being made by Emanuel I confiding in them & trusting to the calculations made by Emanuel, rendered my note to him for the sum of \$80, payable 12 months after date, which sum I was then informed by Emanuel was due from me to him for the two notes & the exorbitant interest he says he had paid on the note and also 12% which he charged me for the time he said he had paid said money, which he illedged was about 18 months, which percent was illegal and contrary to law. Now Emanuel has refused to give me the \$20 note given to Jeffrey which was included in and formed part of the \$80 note, but the same now stands in full force against me. Also, Emanuel is indebted to me in the sum of between \$250 & \$300 in consequence of a tract of land that I sold to him, all of which he ought long since to have paid & which he unjustly with holds. But now, so it is, that in the year 1822, Emanuel commenced Suit against me at the October Term of Court, and obtained Judgment thereon for the full amount and I was compeled to repleve the same for 2 years and the Bond will expire this fall. At that time, I employed James Rapier Esq, an Attorney at Law, who resided at Monticello, and at the time of the trial, Rapier had gone to Frankfort as a member of the Legistature and had omitted to mark himself off to the Suit as Counsel for me and before I was informed, the cause was rendered against me. I have recently applied to Emanuel and offered to settle all accounts and he refused and threatens to cause the amount of the repleven Bond so soon as it becomes due.

BOND - Know all men that we, ANDREW HIGGINBOTHAM & CHARLES HIGGINBOTHAM are bound unto EMANUEL HIGGINBOTHAM in the sum of $300..this 8 Oct 1824.. Whereas Andrew has obtained an Injunction staying all further proceedings on a Replevy Bond of Emanuel against the said Andrew & others, which Bond is for the sum of $92.09 and dated 1 Nov 1822.

The deposition of JOHN L. STEPHENS taken in Garrard Co., Ky on the 9 Sept 1826 in the Caption of Augustin Smith before me, James Henderson, Justice of the Peace:

"I heard Andrew H. ask Emanuel H. whether or not he would credit his $80 Bond, which he contended, grew out of the Kenney & Jeffers Bond with those articles which he stated he had no credit, namely $3.00 paid to Emanuel to be converted to the use of said Jeffers in discharge of said note. Andrew also stated that at sundry times, he had put into the hands of Emanuel, a certain quantity of Gun Powder, something over 100 weight, I think 117 with the deduction of 7 pounds for the sale of the same apart of which he stated he had no credit. Emanuel said he need not keep so much a do about the powder for he did not deny having the powder. Andrew said to Emanuel if he would allow him those credits, he was ready for settlement - if not, he should be forced to take it to Chancery against his will. I also recollect that Moses Higginbotham came to me and presented certain accounts which he desired I would adjust by calculation & which settlement in my opinion included the Jeffers note, Kennedys Bond and the powder.

The deposition of THOMAS KENNEDY ESQ taken at his house in Garrard Co., Ky on 9 Sept 1826: "I recollect that I asked Amanuel if I was to loose my interest on the first note and he said that I must look to HIS BROTHER for it, that he was not authorised to pay it, but whether or not he paid it, I can not positively say. The loss of time has been so great that I may be mistaken, but my impression is that I never received more than lawfull Interest of 6%."

The deposition of JAMES G. WOODS taken at the same time.

Questions by Andrew Higginbotham to James G. Woods:

QUESTION: Do you recollect that at your house, I asked Amanuel Higginbotham to let JAMES HENDERSON, GEORGE DENNEY and yourself to make a calculation of all the systems that should have been settled at the time I executed the note now in controversy?

ANSWER: I recollect that you mentioned that a note then in Suit called the Jeffrey note for about $20, you said was settled in the Bond you had executed to Amanuel and also mentioned some powder and that you made the settlement yourself and if there was any mistake you made it."

The deposition of SAMUEL HIGGINBOTHAM, taken at the house of Thomas Kennedy in Garrard Co., Ky - 9 Sept 1826 - "Andrew Higginbotham went I believe to Mr. Jenkins and returned the next morning to HIS FATHERS and said he had made a Calculation himself and that there was $80 a coming and that he wrote the note himself and I witnessed the note. I do not know what systems that Amanuel and Andrew settled on".

27 Oct 1826 - Andrew Higginbotham states to the Court that WILLIAM JEFFRES of INDIANA is a material witness for him by which he can prove some of the payments made to Mannuel Higginbotham. Jeffres lived in Madison County, Ky until a few months ago, and I went to that County to take depositions and intended among other to have taken Jeffreys, but when I got there, I discovered he had removed to Indiana. I know of no other witness by whom I can prove the same. I took the deposition of Augustus Smith of Garrard County and since that time, he has recollected an important point which can help prove my Suit. My object is not to delay, but that Justice may be done.

Mr Mannuel Higgonbotham - Sir I shall attend at the house of Thomas Kennedy Esq on the 9 day of Sept 1826 in order to take the depositions of EDMOND DANIEL & others to be read as evidence in a Suit in Wayne now pending whare I am Complaint and you are Defendant - Whare you may attend & cross examine if you think proper - I am yours etc

QUESTION (by Andrew to Smith) "Have you not for some time previous to this time of this conversation, which you allowed and from that time on until now been Angry with me?"

ANSWER: In consequence of the improper conduct of you, I have kept my self at a distance for some considerable time, no doubt but what my passions have been raised at times.

HIGGINBOTHAM

MOSES HIGGINBOTHAM & POLLY GODDARD HIGGINBOTHAM, His wife vs JESSE ALCORN & SINA JONES ALLCORN, his wife -

"Case of Slander" - Be it remembered that upon the Trial of this cause, the Plaintiffs, Higginbotham introduced POLLY LORTON a witness for the Higginbotham's, who swore she was at the Defendant Allcorn's house in the fall of 1830 or 31 and heard Allcorn's wife in a conversation with her, Polly Lorton and the family say that they, meaning SALLY R. THOMAS, CATHARINE ALCORN & PRESTON T. ALCORN, or some of them, peeped through the cracks of Higginbotham's house and saw BERRY THOMPSON alone with Polly Higginbotham and at another time in the Spring of 1831, the Plaintiff's wife was not content with that but she went to the barn with Thompson after night and stayed there for some time. Polly Lorton also states that POLLY SERAT lived at Higginbotham's house while Moses was gone away with a Drove of Hogs and that during that time, Polly Higginbotham kept a dog tied day and night, which dog was sharp. EPHRAIM BUNYARD swore he was at the house of Alcorns and heard Alcorn's wife, Sina say her two daughters and LUCINDA McCOWN went to the house of Moses Higginbotham in the night and saw Berry Thompson in the house again with Polly Higginbotham, alone. This conversation took place in the presents of CATHARINE ALCORN & the rest of the family and his son JAMES, (meaning Bunyard's son James). Bunyard also stated he had bought a farm from the Defendants wife (Sina Alcorn) and that it was a good place to raise Geese. Sina said it was a good place also to loose them for her geese often got with the Plaintiffs (Polly Higginbotham's) who lived on the Creek below & that she could not get all her geese. Bunyard asked why she did not mark them and she answered she did and that Polly Higginbotham marked with the same mark of cutting off one toe of the Geese. I (Bunyard) then observed to Sina Alcorn that she could change her mark by cutting some of the head feathers, but Sina said that Polly could do likewise and that Moses Higginbotham's wife, Polly took her geese and claimed them and would not let her have them. The Plaintiff, Moses, here blased his evidence and the Deft. Alcorn then introduced SALLY R. THOMAS who swore that herself and CATHARINE ALCORN & LUCINDA McGOWN was coming towards the Plaintiff Higginbotham's house in the night with a light & that when they came within a few hundred yards of the house, Sally heard hollering some distance on the opposite side of the house and as they came nearer to the house, she heard loud talk in the house and thought her brother PRESTON ALCORN was there. She or one of the company put out the light and advanced nearer to the house and she heard her brother say "Rise up Berry & Polly". They stopped a short time at or near the yard fence and there concluded to take her brother away and I (Sally Thomas) went up to the door and peeped through the crack and saw my brother, & POLLY SERAT & POLLY HIGGINBOTHAM sitting down together. Polly Serat was in the middle and my brother had his arm around Serat and his other hand on Polly's leg and Polly made no resistance, but kindly said "Oh Preston". Berry Thompson was also in the house. I then returned to my company and then we all went near the door and one of them coughed in order to let them in the house, know that we were there. I heard Preston say there was Caty and he opened the door. They all approached the door when Preston said "Girls you have caught me at last". Polly Higginbotham appeared much alarmed and confused. Thompson & Preston invited us to drink some whiskey out of a Jug that they had carried with them. We refused and one of her company poured it out. There was but a very small quantity in the Jug when offered to them. Sally also said that her brother & Thompson & Polly Serat and the Plaintiff's wife, Polly Higginbotham appeared near half drunk and that OLD MRS KIDD was lying in the bed and from the noise she made and her other conduct, we thought her also drunk. We took my brother off and left Thompson there with Polly Serat and Polly Higginbotham and after we got home, my brother, much intoxicated, declared he would go back and in defence of my self and others left home. All of this was at the time that Moses Higginbotham was gone from this country with a Drove of Hogs. Sally also proved her brother frequented the house of the Plaintiff often and that she often remonstrated against his going there. She also stated that no such conversation took place as stated by Bunyard.

Catharine Alcorn proved the same except what Sally saw while peeping through the crack of the house.

PETER TROXALL, a witness for the Defendant Allcorn, swore that at a certain time while Moses was gone with the drove of Hogs, that he, Peter, and his wife and DAVID TROXALL went to the house of Moses Higginbotham. Polly Serat was there, also REBECCA SERAT and OLD MRS KIDD, his MOTHER-IN-LAW. The old woman had got a fall from a horse and badly hurt, so much so, that she was thought dangerous and so much so that it was thought necessary for him and his wife and David to stay all night. When that was concluded on, that some time before night, DULTON LOVEALL and a MR ROBERTS came there. A little after sun down, David, Polly Serat and Loveall went out and brought in some wood. I then saw Polly Serat and Loveall whispering together and a little before dark, Loveall and Roberts went away. Soon after they were gone, the Plaintiff's wife said to Polly Serat that the Gap was down and she and Polly must go and put it up. Some short time after that, Polly Serat observed we had liked to have forgot to put up the Gap. They, that is Polly Higginbotham and Polly Serat, went off as they said, to put up the Gap. They were gone in my opinion, 1½ hours and returned complaining of being cold and said to each other, that there was three gaps down and it took them along time to put them up. Peter Troxell further proved that the lot where the calf was and where they said the gap was down, was around the house and did not contain more than one acre; he also stated his horse was in said lot and he had examined the fence and saw no gap down. Peter also said, while going round the fence he saw two men there which he thought was Loveall & Roberts; he also proved that Polly Serat lived at the Plaintiff Moses Higginbotham's house and was a woman of the most Base Character in the County and that was known too about Polly Higginbotham to be such and that she in her husband, Moses Higginbotham's absence, to keep woman of bad fame about her house.

David Troxell proved in substance, the same that Peter Troxwell did. Mrs Troxwell substantially the same...

HIGGINBOTHAM

The deposition taken 3 October 1831, being the first Monday of October, at the House of John Alcorn in the Town of EATON, FREBLE COUNTY, OHIO, the deposition of FINLEY P. ALCORN was taken - "I was well acquainted with Moses and Polly Higginbotham, being raised from a child near to them where I resided on Sinking Creek in Wayne, during the years 1828 and 1829 and was during that period, well acquainted with said Polly, whose MAIDEN NAME WAS POLLY GODDARD, THE DAUGHTER OF JOHN GODDARD of of Wayne County. Her character during the above period was bad for chastity. She was generally suspected among the young people to be a woman of base conduct. While her husband, Moses Higginbotham was away with a drove of Hogs with JAMES & JESSE DODSON, several men, some of them married, frequently resorting Higginbotham's house during his absence and while his wife was at home. I have seen Berry Thompson and several others, married and single at Polly's in the night time. One particular time while Moses was gone, about an hour after dark, I came to the Higginbotham's house and I heard a man in the house. I looked in and saw a man setting with Polly. When I came in, the man got up and walked into another room. I could not tell who the man was, beings there was no light in the room, but only a candle and nothing but fire light. Berry Thompson was in company with me and we had with us a Jug of Whiskey. The whiskey was handed by Thompson to Polly, who drank out of it and an Old Lady who was in the house, also drank out of it. I rema ined at the house about an hour and left Thompson there in; about an hour, I returned to the house and heard a mans voice in the house distinctly, but do not know who it was as I did not go in, but went home. Before, while I was in the house, Catharine Alcorn, Sarah R. Alcorn and Lucinda McCown came in about an hour after I had arrived. Shortly before the girls came in, I called out several times for Berry and Polly to get up out of bed, as I did not think it was right for a man to be in bed with another mans wife. I have seen Polly's child tied to the bed post in cold weather at night, while Polly was out. I have seen other men hugging Polly Higginbotham since her marriage to Moses, and putting their arms around her, to which she made no resistance. I was frequently at Polly's house, while her husband was away and know that ELIZABETH KIDD was often gone from the house of Higginbotham, sometimes she was during all night gone. The reputation of Polly and a girl call Polly Serat, otherwise called POLLY NIGHT and Becky Serat, otherwise called BECKY WILLIAMS, who resorted to said Polly Higginbothams house was extremely bad for Chastity, among all the people to whom they were known.

After the Defendant had introduced the foregoing witnesses, the plaintiff then introduced Loveall who swore that him and Robert went to Higginbotham's, the plaintiff's house about the time stated by the Defendants witnesses and that they went away about dark and stopped at the Hog Pen; that Roberts went of some short distance and Polly Serat met him at the hog pen and that she had been in the habit of meeting him out and further states that he did not see the Plaintiff's wife, Polly Higginbotham after they left the house and that he never saw any improper conduct in her and believed her to be of good character.

HIGGINBOTHAM

The individual that Sally R. Thomas said was Berry Thompson in the house alone after dark with said Polly Higginbotham, was then introduced, meaning Berry Thompson who swore that he was not on the bed with Polly, nor did he know any harm of her and that he did not hollar for her and that he did not know, nor did he ever see any improper conduct on the part of Polly Higginbotham and believed her to be a woman of good character and that his visits to Higginbotham's house was to see Polly Seratt and that he had not been there for that purpose more than twice. Berry positively contradicted the statement made by Sally R. Thomas as he positively did not have his hand on Polly's leg.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kidd was then introduced who swore she lived at the Higginbotham's and was sick and in bed and that Polly was not out of the house the time spoken of by the Troxwell's and that Polly was kind and attentive to her and that she believed that if Polly had been out of the house a quarter of an hour at the time spoken of by Troxwell, that she would have known and recollected it.

Lucinda McCown swore she was with Mrs. Thomas and Catharine Alcorn at the time they state and heard loud talk in the house and Mrs. Thomas told her she saw Preston Allcorn in with Polly and that she saw nothing improper in Polly or Thompson and she did not discover the embaressment of Polly Higginbotham that was spoken of by the other witness, Sally R. Thomas and Catherine Alcorn.

Miss CORDER swore she asked Mrs. Thomas if she knew any harm of Plaintiff's wife and she said no; no person was present when this conversation took place and that this conversation took place sometime after said Sally Thomas said she had been at the plaintiffs house after dark.

There were many witnesses introduced on the part of the Higginbotham's who proved that Polly had been a woman of good character and was yet as far as they knew; though many of them knew Polly Serat lived with her but did not conceive that injured her character and standing although Pol Serat was a woman of infamous character. It was also proved by many reputable witnesses that Mrs Thomas, Catharine Alcorn were persons of good character as also the Troxwells. It was also proven by 2 witnesses that the witness, Findley P. Alcorn stated to them before he left Kentucky, that he knew no harm of Polly Higginbotham and that his visits to their house was to see Polly Seratt. It was proved by many witnesses who had known Polly Higginbotham from the time she was a small girl and that she was a woman of good character and that POLLY LORTON and MRS. KIDD was of good character and that Findley P. Allcorn, Catherine Allcorn and Sally R. THOMPSON, WAS CHILDREN OF THE DEFENDANT, ALCORN and that Findley P. Allcorn was a man of bad moral character.

The foregoing statements contained herein, are the evidence given on the Trial - and the DECREE of the Court based on the evidence, the Jury found for the Plaintiff, Higginbotham. The Defts., Jesse and Sina Allcorn moved the Court for a new Trial because they say that Polly Higginbotham is Guilty of the Charges before stated.
