IMEL, IMMEL FAMILIES

In a German publication, Hessian Troops in the American War of Independence, Vol. III, there is a reference to:

No. 8388 _____ Immel, b 1758/59 Erksdorf, Federal Republic of Germany - Private in the Regiment V. Knyphonsen ab 1784 V. Donsp. He was listed as on leave. There were three Emmels in the listings.

According to family stories, two brothers, Thomas and Peter Imel of Hesse Cassel, Germany, were among the Hessian soldiers who came to this country in 1776? to fight for the British against the Colonial army, but they deserted and joined up with the American army. No official record of this has been found but it is believed they were with Gen. Morgan's Virginia Regiment which demobilized at Winchester, VA 1782. Peter settled in Shenandoah Co., VA, but Thomas settled near Harrisburg, PA, and reared a large family, moving later to Chillicothe, Ross Co. OH, where he died. Of his fifteen children, one son, David, settled in or near Huntington (Huntington Co.), IN. Descendants of both Peter and Thomas recently lived near Crawfordsville (Montgomery Co.) IN, and in eastern KS.

Peter married Susan Kirkwood in Shenandoah Co., VA. She owned, either at the time of the marriage or soon after, a plantation and slaves. Peter and Susan sold their VA possessions and moved to Wayne Co., IN in 1810. The 1820 census shows Peter living in Wayne Co., with his wife and six children (this is assumed as only the head of the household is named along with the number of males and females) - these ranged down to five years old. There is no further information on Peter until just before 1849. He was living in Johnson Co., IN, with his son George where he died and was buried on the farm. In 1940 Geo. J. Imel and two brothers, great grandsons of Peter, removed his remains to Rockland Cemetery, Rockland (Johnson or Shelby Co.?) about 15 miles southeast of Indianapolis. No record of Susan's death has been found.

Note: In 1900, Huntington Co., IN, Charles H. Immell, b May 1855 OH and M. J. Immell, b Dec. 1856, IN, were each living alone on W. Market St.

Note: In the 1810 VA census index, Rockingham Co., a Peter Immal had the following:

No. of males under 10	3	No. of females under 10	2
between 10 and 16	2	between 10 and 16	2
" 16 and 26	3	" 16 and 26	0
" 26 and 45	0	" 26 and 45	1
over 45	1	over 45	0

There were no Imels in the 1820 VA census index, This Peter Immal may or may not be the Peter Imel who moved to IN in 1810

Note: There were Immels in this country prior to the Revolution - a John Michael Immell lived in Lancaster, PA, and some of his descendants moved to Ross Co., OH. There is also a land patent for a Michael Immel in Lancaster, PA, but the dates in the landrecords do not seem to agree with the John Michael Immell family records - a nice puzzle for someone to solve!

The speaker will be a man who attended the Cuban Revolution and who is now a member of the Coast Federal Savings and Loan Association's Free Enterprise Speakers Bureau, when he speaks at the Irvine Coast Club, Newport Beach, on Thursday, July 8, 1971, at 7:00 p.m., according to [redacted] CPS, President of the group.

Norman's topic will be "Castro's Hand in the U. S. Tarnoff."

Mr. Norman, an Englishman by birth, operated his own ranch in Cuba for many years prior to the Castro take-over. A private contact plane, Norman fled to the United States after the fall of his property to the Cuban Communist regime.

His experiences in the Cuban revolution have received world-wide coverage in the press, and on radio and TV.

A recipient of the American Legion Citation for Meritorious Service for his "devoted, truthful, and dramatic fight against Communism," Norman and his family now live in Los Angeles.
