

Hampton Ball, one of the best known of Missouri stage drivers, recalled that James Huntington, a wealthy contractor, put $6,000 in an open drawer of the public room of a Missouri tavern and left it there until morning.

"I told him," said Ball, "that it would be dangerous; that there might be some stranger, not a Missourian, of course, who would steal the money."

"You don't think any of the guests of this hotel, would be mean enough to steal do you?" Huntington said, incredulously.

Stagestand keepers, the tavern men were called where the stages made their regular stops. Hampton Ball said that "Kenner, of Paudingville, was one of the most famous. He could play a fiddle that would almost make the trees dance. He was jovial and generous and one of the most profane men I ever knew. He did not mean to be profane but he swore almost as readily as some people whistle. Although he ran a public house there was never any meal served at his table on which he did not ask the blessing. The great pioneer Methodist, Rev. Andrew Monroe, stopped at Kenner's house. The stagecoach driver suggested that Kenner ask Parson Monroe to say the blessing.

"No," said Kenner, "I ask my own blessings at my own table." And he did. On another occasion, in a single breath, Kenner concluded the blessing thus, "And for all these blessings we thank Thee, O Lord, amen; kick that blamed dog out from under the table."

Tavern keeping was honorable and tavernkeepers were honest in Missouri, as a rule. The exceptions were so notable as to be long remembered. On the old Boone's Lick road where it ran through the northern part of Callaway, a man named Watson kept tavern. He made a great deal of money for a few years. Travelers could not understand why their horses seemed to fail in appetite when they put up at that tavern. After a long time it was discovered that the tavernkeeper rubbed grease in between the rows of kernels on the corn cobs to such an extent that the horses left much of the corn untouched.

A fine representative of the type of Missouri landlords was "Weed" Marshall who furnished "entertainment" at Mayview for twenty-nine years. "Weed" was the familiar name by which the traveling public knew him. The proper initials were "J. W." Marshall was courteous to a punctilious degree, but it did not do to presume upon his good nature. A young traveling man left a call for three o'clock in the morning and in a rather unpleasant manner impressed the importance of it. Marshall had no night clerk and sat up to make sure that the guest did not miss the train. At three o'clock to the minute he pounded on the door. A grunt was the response.

"Get up;" shouted Marshall. "It's three o'clock."

"I've changed my mind," growled the traveling man. "I'm going to stay and take a later train."

"No, you're not," said Marshall. "Confound you. You get up and get out this minute. You can't fool me." And the young man left on his early train.

Marshall had been in the Confederate army. He was "with Shelby" and proud of it. When he retired from the Mayview tavern, the Kansas City Star told this: Traveling men found it entertaining to start a controversy as to the war record of Shelby's brigade just to arouse the ire of "Weed." One night a burly drummer, new in that territory, and under the prompting of other traveling men, started something. He began with a reference to the Civil War and his own alleged part in it. He said his command had met a body of Missouri Confederates under Shelby.

"We not only made them run," he said, "but we captured a lot of them. I captured one myself. And I made that fellow do all sorts of stunts. He was so scared he would do anything I told him. I made him roll on his back like a dog and bark when he wanted food; and lick the mud off my boots. Funny thing about it, Mr. Marshall, you somehow remind me of that man. You weren't ever with Shelby, were you?"

accommodated the young family. The third room was set apart for the traveling public. The next year General Gentry added a fourth room. His neighbors thought he was becoming extravagant. When General Gentry led his thousand mounted Missourians out of Columbia for the long journey to subdue the Seminoles, the march began from in front of the Gentry tavern where the farewell ceremony took place. The command was drawn up and the flag made by the young ladies of Miss Wales' academy was presented with its stirring inscription:

"Gird, gird for the conflict,
Our banner wave high;
For our country we live,
For our country we die."

Tavern keepers, with foresight as to coming settlement and as to prospective main traveled roads, located their houses of entertainment. When the Daughters of the American Revolution entered upon their patriotic work of placing monuments to mark the Boone's Lick road from St. Louis, they found that many of the points of most historic interest were the sites of the pioneer taverns. In St. Charles county, Kenner's tavern shared with Daniel Boone's judgment tree the honor of a marker. In Warren county Rodger Taylor's tavern was one of the spots chosen. Saunder's tavern was another. In Montgomery county monuments were placed where stood Cross Keys tavern, Devault tavern and Van Bibber's tavern. Callaway county's section of the Boone's Lick road was marked at Drover's inn, and Grant stagestand. Among the Boone county sites selected were Vivion's stagestand and Van Horn's tavern. In Howard county Arnold's inn was commemorated.

On the Grand Pass, in the thirties, when the stream of migration and commerce flowed strong along the Santa Fe trail, John and William Early, cousins of Bishop Early, of Kentucky, kept tavern. Grand Pass was a strip of high land between Salt Fork and the Missouri bottoms. Two bodies of water in the bottoms were known as Davis and Grand Pass lakes.

"The Washington Lewis Place," in Saline county, served as a tavern fifteen or twenty years. The tradition that a considerable quantity of whiskey was buried there is still current. Washington Lewis was one of three brothers who came out from Virginia about 1830, with a retinue of slaves and an abundance of household goods. The tavern was built of brick. A crack in one of the walls was said to have been caused by an earthquake in 1846. One of the first post offices in Central Missouri was in this tavern. In an upper room the pioneer Dr. Yancey had his office.

Social standing of the tavernkeeper in Missouri was of the best. So it was in many other places. It is an historic fact that the first tavern in Cambridge, Massachusetts, was kept by a deacon of the church, who afterwards became the steward of Harvard college. Religious services were held in Missouri taverns before churches were built and when bad weather interfered with the campmeeting custom. Not infrequently the Missouri tavern was conducted by a woman, usually a widow, and it was well kept. When John Smith T added another notch to his record of straight shootings, he surrendered his deadly weapon to a woman who kept a tavern. The affair had taken place in the living room of the tavern. Coming into the room at the sound of the firing, this intrepid Missouri woman did not faint because of the prostrate figure on the floor, or of the pool of blood, or at the acrid smell of the powder smoke. She went up to John Smith T and coolly demanded the pistol. "Take it, my daughter," said Smith.

An historic hotel in Kansas City was known variously as the Western, the American and the Gillis. It was built by Benoit Troost in 1849, and was on the river front, between Delaware and Wyandotte streets. In two years, 1856 and 1857, there were 27,000 arrivals at the hotel, which was enlarged by additions until it was an architectural curiosity. In May, 1856, this hotel was the hiding place of Governor A. H. Reeder, of Kansas, when he was a fugitive, trying to escape from the Missourians. Friends disguised the governor as a laborer and gave him an ax to carry. In this

The following obituary notice is copied from the Utica Observer of 10th August, 1896:

"Another of the bright and gifted women whose social charm made our city attractive a generation ago has just gone from us.

"Mrs. Louisa Adams Beardsley was one of that group of cultivated and delightful women, who once gave to Utica socially its well-known high repute.

"Born of honored Virginia ancestry, Louisa Adams was no unworthy daughter of that proud old State.

"Endowed to a rare degree with mental and personal charm, to know her once was to remember her always. Graceful, vivacious and witty, she was the centre of entertainment wherever she was found, and well-equipped were those who could keep pace with her in sparkling sally or ready repartee.

"A quick perception, a lively wit, a keen sense of the ludicrous made Mrs. Beardsley a fascinating companion, while her warm, sympathetic nature bound to her life-long friends.

"For underneath this lively exterior was the kindly, tender heart, eager to befriend and help, if help were needed. Who shall recount the daily gracious acts scattered along her path, quiet deeds of charity, spontaneous, unblazoned? They are silently recorded in many a grateful heart.

"Of firm, unshaken faith, a devoted wife, a tender mother, a true and loyal friend, henceforth she is ours only in cherished memory.

"Until the day break, and the shadows flee away."

12. JOHN* FARRAR (William, William), of Henrico county, was born (according to a deposition) in 1670. The exact date of his death is not known; but it was before 1739. He married (license dated November 18, 1691) Temperance, widow of Thomas Rattle and daughter of John Brown. In 1693 he joined with his brother Thomas in a deed dividing their lands near Farrar's Island and Varina. It appears from various wills and deeds that he had issue:

27. John Sallow,* 28. Temperance; 29. Mary.

13. WILLIAM* FARRAR (William, William). Very little, on account of the loss of records, is known of him. He was probably the William Farrar who was administrator of William Farrar in February, 1720-21, as shown by the Henrico records. On January 26, 1727, by deed recorded in Henrico county, he sold to Thomas Randolph 666 acres in Henrico county on the north side of James river, known as Farrar's Island, which land was patented by William Farrar, and devised or conveyed by him to his son William Farrar, father to the William Farrar party to this deed. There is no evidence as to the date of his death, nor any contemporary evidence in regard to his marriage. It seems probable that, after the sale of "Farrar's Island," he may have removed to some one of the counties south of James river, possibly the section now Mecklenburg, where a branch of the Farrar family who seem certainly to have been his descendants lived. Notwithstanding all the absence of testimony in regard to this William Farrar, it seems from various reasons certain that he married Judith, daughter of Thomas Jefferson, of Henrico county, who in his will, dated 1731, names his daughter Judith Farrar. Thomas Jefferson married a daughter of Peter Field or Field, of Henrico county, and it is from this source that the names Peter and Field so frequently appear in this branch of the Farrar family. It is not claimed by the compiler of this genealogy that there is positive proof that the issue of William Farrar was as it is given below; but there is great reason to believe it.

Issue: 30. Thomas;¹ 31. George;¹ 32. Peter;¹ 33. Field;¹ 34. Abel, who appears to have served for some years in the French and Indian War as a Lieutenant. In an act for paying militia who had been in active service, passed in 1765 (Acting), there appears, under the head of Chesterfield county, a payment for services in 1760 to George Farrar for balance of Abel Farrar's pay as Lieutenant. This has been assumed to mean that Abel was dead; but in the Journal of the House of Burgesses, November 16, 1764, is an entry of the submission of a claim of Abel Farrar as a Lieutenant in the new recruits for 133 days' service. Abel Farrar, however, may have been killed in the French and Indian War. It has been assumed that he was a son of William Farrar, for he must have been at least twenty years old in 1760, and this would make it impossible for any of the sons of William Farrar to have been his father, as we have record that Thomas was born in 1726, and Peter in 1730.

19. WILLIAM¹ FARRAR (Thomas²), of Goochland county, was born — and died in 1744. He married Sarah —. His will was dated November 14, 1743, and proved June 18, 1744. He bequeaths to his son Thomas his pistols, holsters and sword; to son William, one negro girl; to son Richard, one negro boy; to wife Sarah, during her widowhood or life, two negro girls, and after her death to be divided between his sons Joseph and Perrin. All the rest of his personal estate to his wife Sarah during her life, and at her death to be divided equally between his four sons, William, Richard, Joseph and Perrin, and appoints his sons Thomas and William executors. [His real estate must have been entailed or already conveyed to his children.]

20. JOSEPH¹ FARRAR (Thomas²), of Goochland county, was born — and died in 1749. He married Mary (Royall), widow of Joshua Woodson. His will was dated August 14, and proved November 11, 1749. He bequeaths to his son, Joseph Royall Farrar, the plantation he bought of John Harris; to daughter Lucy Farrar, one negro girl and £100 current money; to daughter Elizabeth, one shilling; to son-in-law [stepson], Joseph Woodson, part of a tract on Willis's river; all rest of his land to his son, Joseph Royall Farrar; to wife Mary, five negroes and seven silver spoons; all rest of estate to son Joseph Royall; but his wife Mary is to have the use of half the stock and household furniture during her life. Wife and sons-in-law [stepsons], John and Joseph Woodson, executors.

21. JOHN SUTTON¹ FARRAR. It appears from various places in the Henrico records that 13. John¹ Farrar had a son named John, and it is evident that his full name was John Sutton. In 1695 Thomas and John Farrar, sons of Colonel William, divided the lands he had bequeathed them (Virginia Magazine, VIII, 427), and in 1727, Thomas had sold his share to Thomas Randolph. There is recorded in Henrico a deed dated February 23, 1728, by which John Sutton Farrar conveys to Thomas Randolph, for £500 current money, a tract of land commonly called Henrico, in the parish and county of Henrico, containing 432 acres, and bounded by James river, the land of John Bolling, jr., the land late in the possession of Thomas Farrar, and by him conveyed to Thomas Randolph, the lands of Robert Bullington, of Thomas and Henry Jordan, and of Martha Cox; which land is part of a tract granted to William Farrar, grandfather of the said John Sutton Farrar, on June 11, 1637. This was evidently the share of 13. John¹ Farrar, which his son John Sutton Farrar was selling. In 1721 John Sutton Farrar was granted administration of the estate of Temperance Farrar, deceased.

John Sutton Farrar married twice. The name of one wife is not known, but the other was Elizabeth Hancock. There was in Henrico county, in Dec., 1742, a suit by Temperance Farrar, by Samuel Hancock her guardian, reciting that her grandmother, Jean Hancock, gave by her will in 1726, a negro to her daughter Elizabeth Hancock, who married John Sutton Farrar, and that John Sutton Farrar died about 1731 possessed of a very considerable real and personal estate, and was intestate, and that Goochland court had granted administration on the estate to Richard Levens, and that Temperance Farrar was the only child of Mrs. Elizabeth Hancock Farrar.

In 1729 Henry Cary was guardian of John Sutton Farrar, son of John Sutton Farrar, deceased.

In 1771 there was a suit by John Sutton Farrar and his wife Susanna, daughter of William Patman, of Henrico county.

His legatees were his daughters Sarah and Rose Tucker (who married, subsequently, Mr. Blackstone, of Maryland), 5,000 pounds tobacco each; an unborn child, 5,000 pounds tobacco; eldest son (whom he does not name) and wife Rose. Appoints Captain (Thomas) Philpot and Mr. Richard Keeper, of Westmoreland, overseers. Mrs. Rose Tucker married (II) Thomas Gerrard, of Westmoreland formerly of Maryland, she was his second wife; and he, on January 28th, 1672, made a deed of gift to the children of Mr. John Tucker, deceased, and of "my now wife, Mrs. Rose Gerrard," viz: John, Gerrard, Sarah and Rose Tucker. On April 24th, 1674, Mrs. Rose Gerrard, widow, made a deed in consideration of a marriage contracted between her eldest daughter, Rose, and William Fitzhugh. Mrs. Gerrard married (III) John Newton, of Westmoreland, prior to May 16th, 1677.

John Newton was living in Westmoreland as early as 1672. In his will, dated August 15th, 1695, and prob. Westmoreland, July 18th, 1697, he is described as of "Lower Morodock, Westmoreland county." He gives his eldest son, John, his lands at Carlton and Camelsforth, York-shire, England; and the house in Hull, "which was my father's"; also gives him land bought of Joseph Laycock; to said son and his four children 1,000 pounds of tobacco each; to son Joseph and his three sons, 1,000 pounds of tobacco each; to son Benjamin and his daughter 1,000 pounds tobacco each; to son Gerrard [Gerrard] Newton 1,000 acres in the freshes of Rappahannock, with a mill and four negroes; to daughter Elizabeth Newton, one half of a tract of 2,150 acres and one negro; to his wife all of his plate for life and then to his daughter; to son Thomas 550 acres and a mill at Tottnakey; to wife, 5,000 pounds tobacco; to son Thomas, four negroes; to wife Rose, various bequests of stocks and negroes, with reversion to children; to grandson John, son of Joseph Newton, 200 acres.

There are recorded in Westmoreland, 1705, depositions of Thomas Newton, aged 31 or thereabouts, "one of the sons of John Newton, the elder, late of Kingston-upon-Hull, master and mariner, and later of Westmoreland county, Virginia," and of "Madam Rose Newton," aged about 30 years, widow of John Newton, Sr., of Kingston, &c.

The will of Rose Newton, widow, was proved in Westmoreland, January 28th, 1712. She gave her son Thomas Newton her lands in Virginia and Maryland and all rents and arrearages for lands left her by her former husband Thomas Gerrard, &c., &c.

Thus it appears that Thomas was omitted in his father's will, and the only child named in his mother's.

This first John Newton, of Westmoreland, was the ancestor (probthe disposal of his Tob^s, next year I am confident if his business hits, he will send you considerable consignments, towards the raising of the ^s and if not, yet will consign you some to pay you reasonable consideration, together with all charges and Disbursements, which if you doubt I will see you satisfied. Mr. George Brent I suppose this year will consign you some Tob^s, and another in our parts did assure me he would send and consign to you ten hh^s his name Mr. Richard Gibson. What service I can do you therein shall not be wanting. In my next which I believe will be by Capt. Norrington, shall be more large, to which I refer you.

Mr. Samuel Hayward,

I hope this will find you in good health, and the pleasant enjoyment of your most dear Brother and very good friend. I suppose ere this you have presented, and I hope receiv'd that small note of mine upon Mr. Cooper. The Country at present affords little news, this Assembly has done so little that I know nothing worth while to write to you about. Your own particular business, I am informed by Robin is a little incumber'd with your brother Lewis, but the particulars I cannot acquaint you with. Robin intends to take a speedy and secure course with him as he tells me, what fair and just service I could do you therein or in

They were the parents of Willoughby Newton, of "Linden," Westmoreland, member of Congress 1843-'5, and grandparents of the gallant Capt. Wm. B. Newton, Fourth Virginia Cavalry, C. S. A., who was killed in a charge at Raccoon Ford, Culpeper county, in 1863.

Wm. Tucker, of London, in a letter dated —, to Jno. Edwards (recorded in Westmoreland), speaks of "my brother John" and "my daughter." The letter is too much mutilated to ascertain positively who is meant; but probably it refers to Jno. Tucker named above.

anything else shall not be wanting. Robin has hitherto, and I believe will prove faithful and diligent in all your concerns and I am assured will approve himself a good servant to so good a master. S^t I have a great mind to try if Olives would not thrive well in the Streights, as far in the Northern Latitude as we are here, some of which sort you might procure in London: Therefore I will desire you to procure for me some of them, with directions how to manage them. And I hope you will furnish yourself with other rarities both for your own and your friends use, having now so pregnant an opportunity.

Mr. William Sherwood,

S^r. In Coll^d Jones his business, pleas to follow the order he has given me p his letter and secure his Tob^s as near as may be according to his direction, first taking out what's your own due in my name p order of Coll^d Jones in what county you please, after that pay Mr. Secretary upon my account of the said Tob^s 2000 lb in Westmoreland county, or where else he shall direct, or you can procure it, and get the remainder to make up 2000 lb Tob^s to be paid to me in Stafford county if possible, or at least in Westmoreland county and contrive to get the Remainder to Coll^d Jones his best advantage, according to direction of his letter. Please also to use your endeavours to procure his claims, expressed in his letter and I dare say he will not be ungrateful, but gently satisfy you.

WILL OF COL. GEORGE ESKRIDGE OF WESTMORELAND CO., VA.

In the name of God I George Eskridge of the county of Westmoreland do make this my Last Will and Testament. In witness I give unto my son Samuel and his heirs forever the house and plantation where I now live containing eight Hundred Acres be the same more or less bounding upon the lands of John Crutcher and Robert Hall and a Ditch made by me to divide this land from another tract I have upon the River and from the Ditch to John King's Creek including a parcel of Land I bought from One Rust. Item I give unto my son William Eskridge and the heirs of his body Lawfully begotten my tract of Land upon the River adjoining the aforesaid tract given to my son Samuel. Item I give to my Loving wife the aforesaid house and plantation and Lands before given to my son Samuel during her natural life—also I give to my said wife all the slaves she brought to me in marriage with their increase and ten other of my slaves during her natural life and after her death, I give the said slaves I had with her in marriage to my Daughter Elizabeth and her heirs forever. I give my land at Machotic commonly called Machotic Quarter in Westmoreland County to my son Robert and his heirs forever. I give unto the four sons of my son George deceased four slaves apiece when they respectively arrive at the age of twenty-one years. I give unto my Daughter Elizabeth and her heirs a tract of land I have at Polrick in Prince William County and all the slaves and stock upon the same. I give to my aforesaid son Samuel and his heirs five hundred acres of land part of a tract at a place called Flatlick in Prince William County to be chosen by him in any One place out the said tract. I give to my son-in-law Willoughby Newton and Sarah his wife and their heirs Eight hundred acres of land part of the said tract at Flatlick. All the rest of the said tract at Flatlick I give to be equally divided among the children of my son George and the daughter of my daughter Margaret Kenner and their heirs. I give to my wife the use of my Machotick land for five years after my decease. I give unto my son Robert and his heirs all my land at the Marsh in Prince William County upon the condition that he pay all my debts I now owe to any person in Whitehaven in Great Britain. I give to my son Samuel ten negroes, to my son Robert sixteen negroes I mean those at my Machotick Quarter. I give five of the ten slaves hereinbefore given to my wife during her life unto my Daughter Elizabeth, the other five I give unto my son Samuel. I give to my son William and the heirs of his body ten slaves to be annexed to the land hereinbefore given to him. It is the will that my loving wife have the use of all my household stuff during her life and also the use of half of the cattle, hogs and horses upon my several plantations in Westmoreland County during her life. All the rest of my estates after my debts paid I give to be equally divided amongst my children now living. I give unto my son-in-law Howson Kenner and his wife and their heirs eight hundred acres of Land part of my Land at the Marsh before given to Robert which the said Howson is already in possession of and also five hundred acres more of the said Land at the Marsh adjoining to that, the rest I give to my son Robert upon the condition before mentioned. I do hereby revoke all former wills by me made and declare this to be my last will. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 27th day of October, 1735. I do appoint my sons Samuel and Robert and my good friend Capt. George Turberville executors of this my will.

(Signed) George Eskridge.

Signed published and declared by the said testator as his last will in presence of us—Edw. Barradall, Saml. Cobbs, Wm. Webb.

Westmoreland. At a Court held for the said County the 25th day of November 1735 this last will and testament of Col. George Eskridge dec'd was presented into Court by Samuel Eskridge, Robert Eskridge and George Turberville, Gent. his executors in the said will named. The said Samuel and Robert made oath thereto and the said Turberville prayed further time to consider thereof and the said will being proved by the oath of Edward Barradall, Gent. who wrote the same and was one of the witnesses also swore that Samuel Cobbs and William Webb the other two witnesses subscribed their names thereto in his sight whereupon the said will is admitted to record (William Eskridge the eldest son and heir at law to the said decedent being present and consenting) upon the motion of the said Executors and their performing what is usual in such cases certificate is granted them for obtaining a Probate thereof in due form.

[Col. George Eskridge, of "Sandy Point," Westmoreland County, was long a prominent lawyer, and was a member of the House of Burgesses for Westmoreland at the sessions of October 1703, April 1706, Oct. 1710, Nov. 1711, Jan. 1712, Oct. 1712, Nov. 1713, Nov. 1714, April 1718, Nov. 1718, Nov. 1720, May 1722, May 1723, May 1726, Feb. 1727-8, May 1730, May 1732, and August 1734. He married first, Rebecca daughter of Samuel and Margaret (Philpot) Bonum of Westmoreland, and secondly Elizabeth daughter of Robert Vauls, of the same county. All of Col. Eskridge's children except his daughter Elizabeth, were of the first marriage. George Eskridge was guardian of Mary Ball, the mother of Washington, from the time she was thirteen years old until she married. Portraits of Col. Eskridge and one of his wives were bequeathed in 1813 by General P. C. Rust to the Va. Historical Society and are now in the portrait collection of the Society. THE RANDOLPHS AND PAYNES BECAME SETTLERS IN WARREN COUNTY

Among the VIRGINIA families who came to WARREN COUNTY, TENNESSEE in the early days were the RAN-DOLPHS and PAYNES.

IRIAM RANDOLPH and KATHAN RAN-DOLPH both appear on the United States Census for Warren County in 1880. SALLY PAYNE was the wife of IRIAM RANDOLPH. They came to Warren County from COOCHLAND CO.
VIRGINIA.

RODHAM KEMMER, who came first to Hawkins County, Tennessee, from deep East Virginia, married MA-LINDA PAYNE in Hawkins County. ROD
KEMMER was related to the MORROW FAMILY to which the old revolutionary soldier, ROBERT MORROW belonged. The MORROW FAMILY was also connected with the WORTLING-TONS, of Warren County, back up in the Shenandoah Valley and Harper's Ferry country in Virginia.

RODHAM KEMMER and his wife MALIN-
DA PAYNE had two daughters: MALIN-
DA KEMMER married ALIX SHIELDS &
ELIZABETH KEMMER married GEORGE
SAVAGE

LORENZO DOW MENCHER OF WARREN COUNTY AND HIS WIFE ANN RORD

LORENZO DOW MENCHER, who was born in Wayne County, Kentucky and whose parents were RICHARD and MARY MENCHER, married ANN RORD who was born in HANKINS COUNTY, TENNESSEE. L. D.
MENCHER and his wife settled in WAR-REN COUNTY. Lorenzo's brother, ELIA MENCHER belonged to the First Tennessee Regiment, under Capt. ADRIAN NORTHCOFF. HOWARD MENCHER, still another brother, had a daughter who married Phillip H. MARSH, of WAR-REN COUNTY.

CAPT. WILLIAM WHITE, REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER OF WARREN COUNTY

CAPT. WILLIAM WHITE was a revolutionary soldier, who died in McMURVILLE in 1816. He may have been a brother of that JOHN WHITE, early settler in this territory for whom WHITE COUN-TY is said to have been named. Mrs.

ELANCH BENTLEY, whose priceless letters are in the files of the writer, says that the wife of WILLIAM WHITE was BATHIA LANE, Capt. WHITE came to McMURVILLE when the town was established, from ROANE COUNTY, and his son WILLIAM WHITE married PAINT
BUCHANAN, from Davidson County.

THE JOSHUA STONE HARRISONS FROM PITTSYLVANIA COUNTY, VIRGINIA

THE JOSHUA STONE HARRISONS of WAR-REN COUNTY, Tennessee, came from the ISLE OF WIGHT BENJAMIN HARRI-SON family of Virginia. ROBERT A.
CAMPBELL, of Richmond, Va., married
SARAH ANN HARRISON, daughter of JOHN STONE HARRISON and his wife JUDITH TURNER. Campbell was a lawyer and a teacher, who died in McMURVILLE in 1854.

JOSHUA STONE HARRISON, father in law of ROBERT A. CAMPBELL was the son of AINSWORTH HARRISON and his wife
DOLEY COLEMAN STONE, of PITTSYLVANIA COUNTY.

AINSWORTH HARRISON was a brother of NATHAN HARRISON, and served in the revolution in North Carolina, though born and raised in Prince George and Charterfield Counties, in Virginia.
JOSHUA STONE came to Pittsylvania Co.
from WESTMORELAND COUNTY, Va.

ASA FAULKNER, of WARREN COUNTY came from North Carolina in 1806.

The HARRIS FAMILY was from Virginia, but some of them lived for awhile in Jefferson County, Tennessee. (See Jefferson County, Tennessee marriage records).

PHILLIP H. MARSH, whose first wife was a daughter of HOWARD MENCHER was from North Carolina and settled in WARREN COUNTY in 1816.

ANSON WOMACK was also from North Carolina and came to WARREN COUNTY in 1810. There are much over a hundred of the WOMACKS who were his descendants, still living in WARREN COUNTY.

ELIHA PEPPER lived to a ripe age & was stubborn as a mule. Pepper was bitterly opposed to building railroads and would not look at a train.

Rev. Rodham Kenner - recommended by the Governor became the 3rd minister. He continued for 18 mos.
and then preached one fortnight for more than 2 years. The Rev. Mr. Kenner appears to have been a rolling stone - passing from parish to parish - and the vestry of St. George were well pleased with his pastor.

Settlement Church at Hermann.

p. 115 Parishes in King Geo. Co.

There have been vestry books beginning in 1779 which show that in 1780 the Rev. Rodham Kenner (an old ex slave) was chosen 3rd minister. In 1785, he resigned and returned to the farm in Georgia.
