Pike County Democrat, Friday, March 19, 1897, part 2, page 1, column 4.

Mr. and Mrs. E.R. Motley were Barry callers on Tuesday.

Miss Mabel Hall visited friends in town Saturday and Sunday.

John Losh and his father attended the Westlake sale the first of the week.

W.H. Gragg was in town Monday evening. Several of his family are afflicted with whooping cough.

Drs. McKinney and Burt [] performed an operation upon one of Wm. Moyer's children, tapping him for dropsy.

Henry Hall was laid up for several days of last week with a stiff neck, which was very painful for a time.

J.R. Blen []linger, one of our barbers, was unable to be at his place of business on Tuesday on account of sickness.

Thomas Potter, Jr., is soon to leave us. He is going to Morgan county, where he has engaged for the coming summer.

The Eldara Barry telephone fails to work when you need it, as a general thing. It goes by spells and is often misspelled.

P.A. Moyer's school closed on Friday last and Parvin is now at his ease, taking life as it comes, with no care of the morrow.

It is rumored that we are to have a new meat shop in Eldara in the near future conducted by one of our enterprising young men.

Mrs. Erta Phebus, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Eldara and vicinity, returned to her home in St. Louis on Saturday.

Miss Lucy Potter came in Wednesday from Kansas City, where she has been engaged for some time past as a nurse in one of the leading hospitals.

Miss Anna Wampler, our primary teacher, was unable to take charge of her school for several days this week and last on account of sickness. Miss Hoskins filled the vacancy.

Dr. E.R. Motley came in from Keokuk Wednesday evening, where he has been attending school for the past three years. He brings with him a sheepskin and degree of M.D., and very high recommendations from the faculty of the college.

An interesting sermon was preached by Rev. Booth at the Christian church last Sunday. Rev. Booth preaches in a very attractive and interesting manner and holds his audience in a very

MORE ON THE HENRY KNOWLES FAMILY

The Henry Knowles family either did not settle in Adams County or came to the area and did not stay. This was confirmed by a check of the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index, Illinois State Genealogical Society, www.cyberdriveillinois.com/departments/archives/. The following marriages for the Knowles children were found.

Knowles to Jared H. Smith	Henry County	17 Aug 1864
