Should anything of this kind come up you may feel at liberty to address me for information or advice.

We desire to sincerely thank each one of the relatives who have furnished information or in any way aided in the making of this record.

We make no charge for what we have done in compiling this record, though it has taken many days time and such care, but shall feel fully repaid if it leads to a closer acquaintance of many of the relatives and a stronger friendship between the different members of the family.

It is very important that promptness be observed in reporting corrections on this record or in giving us future information that should be added to the record.

Very sincerely,

Your relative,
