

BULLARD AND ALLIED FAMILIES

by
EDGAR J. BULLARD

Detroit, Michigan 1930

LATHROP

221

The surname Lothrop or Lathrop is derived from the parish of Louthorpe. Thorp means village; so the name literally signifies "low village". The surname is on record in Yorkshire, where it has been common from 1216.

The Lathrop family is among the oldest of the Colonial families who settled in New England for expressing and living according to their honest religious convictions, and they secured immunity from further persecution only on their promise to leave the country.

Reverend John Lathrop, the American ancestor of this family, was baptized in Elton, Yorkshire, England, December 20, 1584, and died November 8, 1653. He was one of those who suffered imprisonment for ministering to a nonconforming congregation. His wife, with her large family of children, petitioned in person for his release, but died 1633, before he was liberated. He was curate in Egerton, Kent, England, and removed to London in 1624, where he became the 2nd pastor of the first Congregational Church, St. Southwark. He and forty-three members of his church were imprisoned by order of the Archbishop Laud, April 29, 1632, because they practiced the (new) teaching of the New Testament. Upon promising to leave the country they were released.

Reverend Lathrop came to New England to Massachusetts. He was admitted a freeman of Plymouth colony, 1636-37, and two years later removed, with a large part of the membership of his church, to Barnstable. He was a man of great piety and energy, and did much to further the secular, as well as the spiritual, welfare of the Colony.

He married (first) in England, October 10, 1610, Hannah House, daughter of Rev. John House (and Alice _____ House), rector of Westwell in Kent. He married (second) about 1635, Ann, daughter of William and Elizabeth (Paine) Hammond of Levenham, County of Suffolk, England.

Reverend John and Ann (Hammond) Lathrop, were the parents of six children born in New England. His children by his first wife born in England were as follows:

1. Jane, born in England. Baptized in her father's church in Egerton, County of Kent, September 29, 1614; came to America 1634. Married in Scituate to Samuel Fuller II, April 8, 1635 "ye 4th day of the weeke" by Captain Miles Standish of Plymouth.
- 2 & 3 died young
4. Barbara baptized in Egerton, England, October 31, 1619, and married July 19, 1638 to John Emerson at Duxbury by Captain Miles Standish.
5. Thomas born in England, married Sarah Larned Ewer, daughter of William Larned and widow of Thomas Ewer.
6. Samuel, born in England, married (1) November 28, 1644 Elizabeth Scudder; married (2nd) Abigail Doane, daughter of John Doane of Plymouth, in 1690.
7. Joseph, born in England, married Mary Ansell, Dec. 11, 1650.
8. Benjamin, born in England.

REVEREND JOHN LOTHROPPE

John L. Lathroppe was baptized in Etton (Elton), Yorkshire, December 20, 1584. He was educated at Queen's College, Cambridge, where he was matriculated in 1601 and received his B.A. in 1605 and his M.A. in 1609.

Authentic records next locate him in Egerton, 48 miles Southeast from London, in the Lower Half Hundred of Calehill, Lathe of Scray, County of Kent, as Curate of the parish Church there. To this living he was admitted about 1611 by the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul. Our baptismal records show that he was there in the Fall of 1614, and the last report of his family there, was in the Fall of 1619. It was probably his first and only parish charge as a minister of the Anglican Church. The Church in which he officiated was an ancient structure standing on the summit of a rounded hill and could be seen from a great distance.

Here Mr. Lothroppe labored faithfully as long as his judgment could approve the ritual and government of the Anglican Church. But when he could no longer do this, we find him conscientiously renouncing its orders and asserting the right of still fulfilling a ministry to which his heart and conscience had called him.

He left Egerton in 1623 and the next year he was called to succeed the Rev. Henry Jacob, an Independent Minister. Rev. Jacob's Church was situated on Union Street, Southwark, and from the burial lot attached to it, was still later known as the Deadman's Place.

His wife, Hannah Howse Lothroppe, died while he was in the old link prison in Newgate for his religious beliefs.

He had eight children by Hannah Howse Lothroppe and six children by Anna Hammond---Lothroppe.

taken from Lo-Lathrop Family

the Rev. E. B. Huntington, A.M.
New Bedford, Connecticut, 1884

HARTFORD TIMES QUERY B 7710-6-25-55 FEN Lathrop Family - B. E. Huntington

LOTHROP OR LOWTHROPPE

"The Ancestry of Frederic Rockwell Gladstone Sanborn."
R 929-2 S 198-1 v.1 by him V.1.1928
p.84

I. John Lowthroppe of Cherry Burton, County Kent, England, a parish about four miles from the original "City" of London, was early in the sixteenth century a man of extended landed assets. In the 37th year of Henry VIII (1546) he appears on Yorkshire subsidy assessed at twice as much as any other member of the parish. His son was

II. Robert Lowthroppe, who succeeded to his father's estate and died 1558. His wife was Ellen _____ and their eldest son was

III. Thomas Lowthroppe (3rd wife Jane, 1st wife Elizabeth (widow) Clark.) married as his second wife Maria Salte, who died at Elton in 1588. His first wife had died in 1574. The fourth child of Thomas and Maria was the

IV. Rev. John Lothroppe, as he wrote his name. He was baptized at Elton, December 20, 1584. He entered Queen's College, Cambridge, in 1601, and received his A.B. in 1605 and his A.M. in 1609. He married Hannah Lowse of Eastwell, County Kent. He was curate in Edgerton, Kent, in 1611, and in 1623 he espoused the cause of independence in Religion. In 1624 he succeeded the Rev. Henry Jacob at Southwark in London and became the minister of the first Congregational Church in England. He was later persecuted and imprisoned, and was released to leave the country.

He came to Boston September 18, 1634 in the "Griffin" with his children and 34 of his church members. He moved from place to place, among them Plymouth, Barnstable and to Scituate, September 27, 1634. He was made a freeman in 1637 and died at Barnstable, November 8, 1653. His daughter

V. Jane Lothrop was baptised at Egerton, Kent, England, September 29, 1614 and died 1658/60. She married Samuel Fuller II son of capt Joseph Lothrop b in Eng in 1634 and 1702 - to America 1634 with father m. Mary Ansell Dec 13, 1650

probally bet Lambeth
gone down of Joseph & Mary and son Eliza beth 13 Sept 1659 m. r house Fuller 29 Dec 1680
to Thomas Fuller, son of Lt. Samuel & Mary Fuller

THE OLD CHURCH OF ST. MARTIN'S, LOWELL, MASS.

A
Genealogical Memoir
OF THE
LO-LATHROP FAMILY
IN THIS COUNTRY,
EMBRACING THE DESCENDANTS,

AS FAR AS KNOWN,

BY THE REV. JOHN LOTHROP, OF SCHULTZ AND BARNSTABLE, MASS. AND MARK LATHROP, OF SALEM AND BRIDGEWATER, MASS.

THE FIRST GENERATION OF DESCENDANTS OF OTHER NAMES

REV. E. B. HUNTINGTON, A.M.

See page 40

MRS. JULIA M. HUNTINGTON,
BRIDGEFIELD, CONN.
1884.

00000

Copyright, 1884,
By JULIA M. HUNTINGTON
Reprinted 1971

WILLIAM L. LUTHER
PO BOX 8000
MOBILE, ALA.

Jan of H 3076

NOTE:

The Rev. Mr. Huntington's Genealogy of the Lothrop-Lathrop Family was substantially ready for the press in 1872-1873, the materials having been collected long before. The panic of 1873 and his untimely death in 1877 caused delays in the publication. The manuscript needed revision, there were corrections and additions to be made. Had the author lived, it is hardly possible there should have been no mistakes in such a work, and with him passed away all knowledge of many of the references and authorities which he used, and some of the errors were thus placed beyond correction.

In August, 1882, a friend, though overladen with business cares, kindly offered to see the work through the press, but without being able to give it any thorough editorial revision. Much new material has been added, a voluminous correspondence has been entered into, many corrections, made necessary by an illegible manuscript and other causes, have been made, and the publication has thus been unavoidably delayed until now.

Many acknowledgments should be made for kindly aid given by those who were interested in the work. To name them all would be impossible, to omit any would be invidious, and only the general thanks of a grateful heart can now be tendered.

BROOKFIELD, CONN.,

JULY 13, 1884.

JULIA M. HUNTINGTON.

JOHN LOWTHROPPE OF LOWTHORPE

Our pedigree of that branch of the old Lowthorpe family which had its earliest known English seat in Lowthorpe, wapentake of Dickerling, East Riding of Yorkshire, must begin in John Lowthorpe, gr-grandfather, to Rev. John Lothrop, the American pioneer. Early in the sixteenth century he was living in Cherry Burton, a parish about four miles from Lowthorpe. He was, though belonging to a junior branch of the family, a gentleman of quite extensive landed estates both in Cherry Burton and in various other parts of the county. In the 27th year of Henry VIII (1545), he appears on a Yorkshire subsidy roll, assessed twice as much as any other inhabitants of the parish. Of his parentage and of the names of his brothers and sisters, if he had any, we shall probably be unable to find the record, the only parish registers having disappeared. No record of baptisms before 1567, none of burials before 1564, and none of marriages before 1562, now remain.

This John Lowthorpe left the son Robert whose record we are able to give, and also three daughters whose families are mentioned, though their own names are not designated in the will of the son. Whether there were still other children we may never be able to learn.

1. JOHN

Cherry Burton.

Robert succeeded to the estates of his father in Cherry Burton, and during his lifetime made considerable additions to them. He had married Ellen ———, who survived him fourteen years and at her death left a will, which supplies for us the names of some of her descendants which, but for this will, might not have reached us. The names preserved to us in this will are the eldest son Thomas, and his children Robert, Elizabeth, and Isabel, and Robert's wife, Alice Clarke; her son Lawrence, and his wife Elizabeth and their children, Edward and Agnes; his daughter Margaret, the wife of Robert Hodgson, and her own sister Margaret. Her sons were the executors of her will.

Mr. Robert Lothroppe died in 1558. His will, bearing date, North Burton (Wharfedale), July 16, 1558, was proved at York, Oct. 20, 1558, and makes the following bequests. It will be seen that the later will of his widow, as reported above, confirms the list of his children as given in the will below. This will is thus fully reported as best setting before us the condition and social position of this representative of the Lothrop family more than three centuries ago.

2. WILL OF ROBERT LOWTHROPPE OF CHERRY BURTON.

1. To ye blessed sacrament of ye altar for forgotten tithes, &c.
2. To poor people at his burial, 4 marks, by executors.

2. To ye church of "Sherburnton," 6s. 8d.
4. To son John all lands and tenements in St. Dalton and all freehold lands and titles; the lands in Burton purchased of Richard Fensle and Marmaduke Whytinger; and in default of issue from him, the reversion of the foregoing to be unto son Lawrence and his heirs.
5. To son Thomas all lands and their appurtenances in Wadhinton.
6. To daughter Margaret a marriage in Beverlaine, in the Tenore of Christopher Mers. If she fall of issue this also to go to son Lawrence.
7. To wife Ellen, during widowhood, and then to son Thomas all leases and terms of years of his two "fermeills" in Burton and Rainchorpe. If she should marry or die the leases to remain in Thomas and his executors and heirs. The said Ellen and Thomas are to agree "with must and drink and house-room" in said "fermeill" in Burton all the rest of the children to their several marriages.
8. To daughter Margaret, 40 marks.
9. To son John, a gray stoned horse.
10. To son Thomas, an smilke gelding, dapple gray.
11. To son Lawrence, a bright bay gelding.
12. To daughter Margaret, a bearded O-s cow, in consideration of one I sold which my father gave to her. Also a bed, a table, two chairs, two trunks and a form with a great with cover, two looking-glasses, two lavers, two handstiches, twelve pieces of pewter, and "y<sup>e</sup> best" (best) y<sup>e</sup> came from Beverlaine.
13. To "every of my grandchildren, 4d."
14. To "every of my sister's children, 3d."
15. To my three sisters, every of them, 6s. 8d.
16. To John Swinburne, John Pickering, William Foles, Robert Burton, Gavin and Henry Mason—my servants, every of them, half a quarter of barley, three bushels.
17. To Catherine Shadlock, maid servant, half a quarter of barley and a bundle of wheat.
18. Elizabeth Thornton and Isobel Coke, maid servants; either of them a mess two bushels of barley.
19. To ye township of St. Dalton, 6s. 8d.
20. To children of William Barre, every of them, 3d.
21. To William and John, sons of Henry Seventy, 7d. each.
22. To Alison Simson and Henry Hynes, 4d.
23. To Robert Binks, 4d.
24. To every of my three sons a bound scape and goat.
25. To Richard Ebbton, a quarter of barley.
26. To Robert Heywood, Robert Wilson, William Burns, Robert Paterson, and John Thomson, 20s.
27. To Thomas Jervis, 6s. 8d.
28. To Mr. John Erlefield, leg., supervisor of this will, 70s.
29. To son Thomas, two draught horses—a black and bay horse—and fourtin (40) weathers such as he will choose.
30. To son John, a cow "such as daughter Margaret will appoint," and a couple "stotes gying at Harzwell such as he choose."

31. To son Lawrence, two stotes.
32. To daughter Margaret, two whies gying at Harzwell.
33. "To y<sup>e</sup> Prests," 20s.
34. To y<sup>e</sup> Clerk, 12d.
35. To William Burns, "my bockskin doublet."
36. To Robert Johnson, "my violet jacket."
37. To Simon Naves, "my second best violet jacket."
38. To son Thomas, a "jack" (mask of mail), "hill" (hülle ar), steel cap, and pair of spurs.
39. To wife Ellen, son John, son Thomas, son Lawrence, and daughter Margaret, the rest of the estate, and all of them are appointed executors.

ROBERT

Cherry Burton.

3. Thomas, born in Cherry Burton and married (1) Elizabeth (widow) Clark, who was buried in Eton, July 29, 1574. He married (2) Mary, who was buried in Eton, Jan. 6, 1586; and (3) Jane, who after his death became the wife of — Cippendale.

He married in Eton, Harthun wapentake, East Riding, Yorkshire, about 1574, and here he died in 1606, having made his will Oct. 3, 1606, which was proved in the following January. The several legacies specified in this will are printed in full. It will be noticed that neither of the sons who were educated is named in the will.

WILL OF THOMAS OF CHERRY BURTON.

1. Jane, my wife, leave for 12 ye. for all of my younger children whom I give unto her with these legacies.
2. Richard, my sonne, if he die, then to my sonne Mark, and if he be not of age XXI, my will is to be a tutor unto him.
3. Jane, my wife, and Lawrence, my sonne, lease of Westwood, here in territories of Southrough.
4. Robert—three kye gatts in Eton.
5. Markes, Lawrence, Joseph, and Bartholomew—meety of lease of Eton pke or Cuite pke.
6. Bartholomew, pte Freehold lands called Temple wood.
7. Robert—best horse.
8. Isobel Barwe, my daughter, one cowe.
9. Katherine Aket, my daughter, one cowe.
10. Wm. Wyham, Thom. Wyham, and Jayne Wyham, children to my daughter Audrie Wyham, one cowe among them.
11. Robert—my best bound wythe.
12. Robert, all my freehold land in St. Dalton and Wadhinton.
13. Jane, Anne, Isobel, and Elizabeth Aket, daughters of Wm. Aket, my son, to have each of them, one cowe.
14. Piers of Eton, 12<sup>d</sup>.
15. The rest to Jane, my wife, Richard, Lawrence, Markes, Joseph, Bartholomew.

mew, my sons, and Margaret, Lucy, and Jane Lowthrop, my daughters whom I make executors.

Witness: Thos. Cardener, Alexander Lyon, Henry Feoby.

Proved, Jan. 11, 1698-97.

4. JOHN, whose lands in South Dalton on his decease, having no children, came to his elder brother Thomas.

5. LAWRENCE. The will of his mother (1551) makes bequests to his wife Elizabeth and to his two children, Edward and Anne.

6. MARGARET, who according to her mother's will (1572) was the wife of Robert Hodgson. The will also gives the names of three of her daughters—Ellene, Jane, and Elizabeth.

3. THOMAS.

Essex, Yorkshire.

7. BROTHER, born in Cherry Burton, married, Jan. 27, 1607-8, Anne Pattison. He received from his father's will both lands and tenements in South Dalton and Waddington, the first in the wapentake of Harthill, and the second in that of Howdenshire, both in the East Riding of Yorkshire.

8. CATHARINE, married June 12, 1607, William Akett, of Lecknfeld, Harthill wapentake, East Riding of Yorkshire, who is named in the will of her brother Thomas, then rector of Dungle, Essex. In her father's will her children are named: Jane, Anne, Isabella, and Elizabeth Akett.

9. ANNE, who is reputed in her father's will as the wife of a Workman. Her children are named in the will as: William, Thomas, and Agnes, and the family name is spelled Wykam.

10. ELIZABETH, married, Feb. 13, 1607-8, Thomas Howard.

11. ANNE, baptized at Eton, Feb. 13, 1608-9, and died young.

12. ISABELLA, baptized at Eton, July 2, 1610.

13. MARGARET, baptized at Eton, Oct. 21, 1612, and died, Nov. 12, 1672.

14. ANNE, baptized at Eton, April 22, 1614.

3d Wife.

15. ANNE, baptized at Eton, July 29, 1616.

16. MARY, who is named in her brother Thomas' will, Oct. 20, 1629, as the wife of John Gallant.

17. THOMAS, baptized at Eton, Oct. 14, 1620, and was admitted to Queen's College, Cambridge, under George Mountaine as his tutor, June 20, 1640, and took his Bachelor's degree in 1641. He married Elizabeth ———, and in his will, which bears date Oct. 20, 1629, and which was proved in Chancery Court, London, May 8, 1629, he names as legatee his wife Elizabeth, and makes the following bequests: to eldest daughter Alice, when she shall come of age, to second daughter Jane, his Willies estate, Tillingham, Essex Co.; to his third daughter Elizabeth, land in Allhoron, Essex Co.; to his youngest daughter Mary, the Vales cap land and Neale Field, Southminster, Essex; to his brothers John and William; to William Akett, of Lecknfeld, his brother-in-law; to his sister Mary, wife of John Gallant, and to several servants.

N. 18. JOHN, baptized in Eton, Dec. 20, 1381, and became the pioneer and founder of the LOTHROP-LATHROP family in America. His record and that of his descendants immediately follow this record of the English Lowthrops.

19. WILLIAM, baptized May 24, 1387, and is named in his brother Thomas' will, Oct. 20, 1629.

3d Wife.

20. MARGARET, baptized in Eton, Feb. 13, 1389-1.

21. ISABELLA, baptized in Eton, Sept. 29, 1395.

22. LUCY, baptized in Eton, Jan. 4, 1395-4, and married June 16, 1612, Ralph Cursey.

23. RICHARD, baptized in Eton, Oct. 12, 1395, and married Dorothy Lawdon. He settled in Cherry Burton, where his will was made Feb. 6, 1640-1, and where his wife died in 1645. He left two sons, Thomas of Cherry Burton, and Richard of North Cave, near Cherry Burton, who died unmarried in 1650; and a Mary, a posthumous daughter. In his will dated Feb. 6, 1640-1, and proved June, 1641, he remembers the poor of Cherry Burton of Bishop's Barton, of Eton, and of Leconfield, the Church of Cherry Burton; his eldest son Thomas, when of age, his unborn child, if it ever has any issue; his wife Dorothy; his mother, Jane Cypendell; his father's son Richard; his brother Joseph, and his son Thomas; his brother Bartholomew; his sister Mary Garmond and her daughter Elizabeth; and to John, son of William Lowthrop.

The will of Dorothy Lowthrop, widow of this Richard, dated May 15, 1641, and proved May 9, 1645, names as legatees, son Thomas, son Richard, daughter Mary, another Jane Brown, mother Jane Cypendell or dark, brothers, sister Lowson, brother Lawrence Lowthrop and his children; and his brother Bartholomew Lowthrop.

24. MARY, baptized in Eton, Sept. 27, 1397. Mr. Somerby in his work proposed for Mr. Morley before mentioned, says of this Mary: "She was during the lifetime of Walter de Lowesly (a March lord), whom he died about the year 1390." His children were Elizabeth, Mark, Edmund, and Edward, etc.

It would have greatly simplified my record of the American Lowthrops if I had not been found another reason for this Mark. His will was brought to light in London just in season to save the perpetuation of the error in our American record.

Before his death he had removed to North Cave, near Cherry Burton, in Harthill wapentake, Hunsley Division, Yorkshire, where he probably had never married. His will bears date North Cave, January, 1638-40, and was admitted to probate in London April 17, 1638. He names as his only legatee, his brother Bartholomew, brother William, Margaret Bateman, sister Lucy, and sister John. He also made his brother Bartholomew his executor and residuary legatee.

Of course the above will disproves of the supposition which for years misled my search, that this Mark Lowthrop was the pioneer who settled in Bridgewater, Mass., and whose descendants I have not been able to connect with the family of the Rev. John.

25. LAWRENCE, baptized in Eton, Aug. 29, 1599, and is mentioned in the will of his nephew Richard, 1679, as the father of three children. He was, in 1641, one of the witnesses to his brother Richard's will.

26. JANE, baptized in Eton, March 14, 1600-1.

27. JOWAN, baptized in Eton, Dec. 31, 1602. He and his son Thomas are mentioned in the will of his nephew Richard.

28. BARNHOLMEW, baptized in Eton, March 1, 1604-5, and named in the will of his brother Richard, 1641, and nephew Richard, 1679.

Of the places named in these wills and pedigrees, all are very near to Lowthorpe, Bridlington, and Naggerton being in the same wapentake; Cherry Burton, North Cave, &c. Dalton, and Eton in Hartill wapentake, Waskinton in Howdenshire wapentake.

III.

REV. JOHN—THE PIONEER.

REV. JOHN, THE PIONEER

JOHN LATHROP, for this is the form in which he wrote his name, deserves, in this work, a much more complete biography than our sources of information will furnish. Of printed materials towards such a biography, we have but very few, and these very meagre. Neal's "History of the Puritans", Gov. Winthrop's "Journal", Morton's "New-England Memorial", a "Biographical Sketch" written by Rev. John Lathrop, D.D., of Boston, for his kinsman of the Lathrop blood, Rev. Abiel Holmes, D.D., of Charleston, and that brief but just sketch in Dr. Sprague's "Annals of the American Pulpit," and Mr. Otis' quite exhaustive collections printed in the Yarmouth paper, will exhaust the list. A few gleanings from English records, before his immigration to America, and a few from American records after that date, must complete the story as we are now able to tell it.

Baptized, as our English record shows, in Eton, Yorkshire, England, that he was educated, not in Oxford as Dr. Lathrop's sketch supposes, but in Queen's College, Cambridge, where he was matriculated in 1607, graduated B.A. in 1609, and M.A. in 1610.

Authentic records next locate him in Epsom, 48 miles south-west from London, in the Lower-Half Hundred of Cuckoo, Lathes of Surrey, County of Kent, as curate of the parish church there. To this living he was admitted about 1611 by the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul. Two English records, already given, show that he was there in the fall of 1613, and that before his family there in the fall of 1615. It was probably his first and only parish charge as a minister of the Gospel church. To this time as curate minister we have no record except the church in which he officiated was an ancient structure, standing on the summit of a round hill and well known from a great distance. The site was very beautiful as well as healthy.

SECOND GENERATION.

KEY. JOHN.

Barnstable, Mass.

2. JANE, born in England and baptized in her father's church in Egerton, County of Kent, Sept. 29, 1614. She came with her father to America in 1634, and was married in Scituate, April 8, 1633, "ye 4th day of the weeke," by Capt. Miles Standish, of Plymouth, to Samuel Fuller. This marriage was solemnized at the house of Mr. James Cutsmore. Mr. Fuller was a son of Edward Fuller and his wife Ann, who had come over in the Mayflower with his parents, and who, as Savage informs us, "outlived the hardships" of that immigration. Both the father and mother died the first winter, and Samuel was left in the care of his uncle Samuel, who had also come over in the Mayflower, and who proved to be one of the most valuable members of that primitive community, and memorable as the first physician who came to New England to settle. He died Oct. 31, 1688, one of the last survivors of the Mayflower. They had nine children:

Hannah Fuller, who married, Jan. 1, 1638, Nicholas Bonham.

Samuel Fuller, "son of my son Samuel Fuller," baptized Feb. 11, 1637-8, and married Anna, daughter of Capt. Matthew Fuller.

Elizabeth Fuller, married — Taylor.

Sarah Fuller, born in Scituate and baptized in Barnstable, Aug. 1, 1641, and died young.

Mary Fuller, born in Barnstable, and baptized June 16, 1641, and married Nov. 18, 1678, Joseph Williams, son of John of Haverhill, who was born April 18, 1647.

Thomas Fuller, born May 15, 1639.

Sarah Fuller, born Dec. 14, 1654, and married — Crow.

John Fuller,

A child, born Feb. 8, 1658, and died 15 days later, as Savage says, "one of the latest Mayflowers."

3. ANNE, baptized in Egerton, England, May 12, 1618, and married April 30, 1617.

4. JOHN, baptized in Egerton, England, Feb. 22, 1617-18. This child probably died before the family came to America; certainly before the birth of the second John in 1644-5.

5. HANNAH, baptized in Egerton, England, Oct. 21, 1619, and married, July 19, 1638, John Emerson. Her father's record of this marriage is: "My son Emerson and my daughter Barbara married at Duxbury by Captain Standish."

That they settled at least for a time in Scituate is shown in this record in Mr. Lothrop's own hand: "One Link's share by a law of a tric in ye citing down of the tree, March 6, and buried in the way by John Emerson's house near Goodman's Blackbridge, March 10, 1637."

see #8 20m

Mr. Savage supposes this John Emerson may have been of Ipswich, Massachusetts, and that John, who came over in the ship Abigail, 1635. He is entered on the ship list as a baker, age 29, and as Mr. Coffin supposed, the son also of a John Emerson.

6. THOMAS, born in England, and probably in Epsiton, about 1621, as we infer from his own deposition, taken April 4, 1701, in which he states that he is "about 80 years of age." The will of his father designates him as his eldest son, which is proof that the John who was baptized in 1617-18 was not living. The probability is that his birth succeeded the withdrawal of his father from the surage of the parish church in Epsiton, Kent, where the older children were recorded. At least this is certain, that the baptism of his older sister is the last baptism at Epsiton found on the copy of the baptisms which the father made.

At the age of about thirteen he came with his father to Solvate, at which place we find this first record regarding him in this country: "My son Thomas Lathropp joined May 4, 1637."

This was his admission to the church in Solvate, from which he removed with his father to Barnstable, in 1639, where he soon gained distinction among the pioneers of the new town.

The second record we find is in Barnstable, as follows: "My sons Thomas and brother Larnett's daughter, widow Ewer, were married in the Bay (Boston Dec. 11, 1639)." The "daughter" above referred to, was Sarah, daughter of William Larned, and widow of Thomas Ewer.

Elizabeth, a daughter of this Sarah Ewer by her former husband, was baptized April 9, 1641, and was married, as we learn from a third record from the same land as the above, to Thomas Blossom, June 18, 1643, "at my sons Thomas his house," the Thomas Blossom above having been born in Leyden about 1626.

In 1641 Thomas Lathrop is reported as land surveyor at Barnstable, and in 1642 as one liable to bear arms.

He became quite a large landholder and an enterprising business man. He was enrolled as freeman June 3, 1654. He served the town in several offices, indicating his standing as in honor among his fellow townsmen. His death took place in 1707.

7. SAMUEL, born in England, and came with his father to Solvate in 1634, thence to Barnstable, where he married, Nov. 18, 1644, Elizabeth Scudder, who had been dismissed from the church in Boston Nov. 10, 1644, to remove her church relation to that in Barnstable. She is reported in Savage as a sister to that John Scudder who was in Barnstable in 1640. He had made the acquaintance of Miss Scudder in Boston, where he commenced his business life as house builder, afterwards combining with this extensive farming operations. Their marriage was recorded by his father on the Barnstable Church Register as follows: "My son Samuel & Elizabeth Scudder married at my house by Mr. Freeman, Nov. 28, 1644."

They settled in Barnstable, where his house stood next that of John Scudder,

He is reported, in 1643, as one of the five Lathrops at Barnstable liable to bear arms.

In 1648 he removed to New London, Connecticut, then called Pequot. We now find Mr. Lathrop mentioned in two letters from Governor Winthrop to his son John, Jr., at Pequot. In one of these, bearing date Aug. 14, 1648, on the subject of obtaining a minister for the settlement, he writes: "Your neighbour Lathrop cannot sit at me (as I expected) to advise about it," etc.

His home lot in the new plantation was the third in order from that of John Winthrop, Jr., Esq., and his name is one of the first eighteen to whom were assigned lands on the east side of the "great river" of Pequot, and for these the lots were drawn on the 17th and 21st of January, 1648-9.

Almost at once Mr. Lathrop is assigned by his new townsmen to places of responsibility and honor. The General Court of the State, in May, 1649, organized a local court at Pequot, having for its judges John Winthrop, Esq., Samuel Lathrop, and Thomas Minor, giving them power to sit in the trial of all causes between the inhabitants in which the differences were under forty shillings.

In 1650 he appears with fifteen other townsmen in town meeting "to arrange a system of co-operation with Mr. Winthrop in establishing a mill to grind corn."

He received a large grant of land, also, on the west side of the Pequot river north of the settlement. It was about five miles up the river at a place called Nantuxnick. A farm of 200 acres at this place remained in the family until 1735, when it was sold by his grandson Nathaniel, after settling all claims for 2,200 pounds.

The "cattle marks" were recorded before 1650. When, in 1657, Unkas, routed by the Narragansetts, had been chased into the fort at the head of the Niantick and was there besieged, Lieut. James Avery, Mr. Brewster, Samuel Lathrop and others, well armed, succeeded in throwing themselves into the fort and aided in the defence.

He sold his town homestead in 1681 to the Rev. Gershom Bulkeley. This house stood beyond the bridge over the mill brook, on east side of highway toward Mohegan, "probably where now (1832) stands the Italian House."

In 1679 is recorded a contract of Mr. Lathrop for building the Second Church in New London.

He removed to Norwich in 1698. Miss Caulkins in history of Norwich says, "after the first thirty-eight proprietors the next inhabitants who came in as granters of the town are John Elderkin and Samuel Lathrop." A house lot was first granted to John Elderkin, who, finding it too far from his business, had it conveyed to Samuel Lathrop.

Mr. Lathrop appears to have erected a house on the town street before 1670, which from that time became his home. The house built by Dr. Daniel Lathrop, his great grandson, about 1743, probably stands upon the same site—now Mrs. Gilman's.

The house lot of about seven acres on which he settled, covered mainly that hill side enclosed by the streets and lanes, as now, which lies south of the present residence of Daniel W. Coit, Esq., and extending down to the present

Main street. He added during his life time successive tracts of land amounting to about four hundred acres.

The town records of that time are very imperfect, but we find Samuel Lathrop recorded as "Constable" in 1622 and 1623, and as "Townman" in 1625—dignified local offices in those days.

After the death of his first wife, of which no record is preserved, he married in 1626, in Plymouth, Mass., a maiden lady, Abigail, the daughter of Deacon John Doane of Plymouth. She was born January 29, 1612, and lived until 1724, Mr. Lathrop having died February 29, 1706. The following notice of the second Mrs. Lathrop is found in Miss Caulkins' history of Norwich: "In her hundredth birthday a large audience assembled at her house, and a sermon was preached by the pastor of the church. At this time she retained in a great degree the intelligence and vivacity of her earlier years. At the time of her decease the descendants of her husband amounted to 365."

Mr. Lathrop left a munificent will, proved in 1701.

9. Joseph, born in England, probably in Lambeth, London, in 1624. He probably also came over to America with his father in 1624. The first record known to the author regarding him in this country is that of his marriage—the first Lathrop marriage recorded by his father in the registers of the Barnstable church.

—Joseph, Lathrop and Mary, Ansell were of whose he was (brother Thomas Hinkley) Dec. 11, 1630." He settled and lived in Barnstable, where his name on the local records show him to have been an enterprising and honored man. He was a deputy for the town in the general court of the State for fifteen years, and for twenty-one years acted as one of the selectmen of the town. On the organization of the county he was appointed register of the probate court, and recorded in 1666 the first deed put on record in the county. The court had appointed him in 1658 to keep the ordinary of the town. He was admitted freeman, June 8, 1634. In 1664 we find him an acting constable, and in 1667 a receiver of excise. That he was also in the military line is shown by the titles of lieutenant and captain which successively mark his name.

Mr. Freeman, in his history of Cape Cod County, speaks of him as a "conspicuous member of the Council of War in 1676." He also reports Lieut. Joseph Lathrop and his brother Barnabas Lathrop as commissioned to hold select courts in Barnstable in 1678, and names both of these leaders among the agents for the settlement of Rippovan.

His standing is well further shown in a letter from Capt. William Bassett written from Cape, in September, 1682, to Gov. Thomas Hockley, reporting his skirmishes with the Eastern Indians. At the close of this report the captain presents his own and his lieutenants' services to the Governor, Esq. Lathrop, and Mr. Bassett. We know enough of that day to be assured that none but a prominent and public man would be thus complimented.

Mr. Lathrop probably had no collegiate education, yet he must have been a well educated man—probably with a legal education. His will bears date Oct. 9, 1706, and was proved Apr. 8, 1707, between which dates his death, of which no record is preserved, must have occurred.

He names in his will as heirs, his four sons, Samuel, Barnabas, Hope, to whom he left the homestead, and Thomas; and his two daughters, Mary Dimes and Elizabeth Fuller.

In the inventory of his estate are reported 27 volumes of law books, and 42 volumes of classics and sermon books, the inventory amounting to £3216. One other item of the inventory—"three acres,"—shows that it belonged to an age past now beyond recall.

10. BARNABAS, born in England, and brought over in 1624, to Boston. He married in Barnstable, Martha —, and settled in Charlestown, Mass., where he was a man of note, holding the office of first selectman in 1683.

Goodwife Martha Lathrop was admitted to the church in Charlestown in the year 1660.

11. BARNABAS, "Barnabas, son of John Lathrop," as his father made it in the baptismal record, baptized at Scituate, Mass., June 6, 1636, and married (1) Dec. 1, 1658, Susanna Clark, daughter of Thomas and Susanna (King) Clarke of Plymouth, granddaughter of the Thomas Clarke who was the mate of the Mayflower. She died, as her headstone shows, Sept. 28, 1687, at 22. (2) Wid. Abigail Dodson, who died Dec. 21, 1715, at 72. The church records report that she was "dismissed from the 1st church in Boston, and removed here, Feb. 22, 1706-7." She died, as the church records show, in Boston, Dec. 21, 1715, at 72 years of age. He was also a school man. He became the first judge of probate in Barnstable on the organization of the court, having his brother Joseph as clerk. Was Deputy from 1675 to 1682, Judge of Common Pleas 1682, and the same year appointed counsellor with Governor Hockley, Governor Bradford, and John Walley, to represent New Plymouth at Boston, under the new charter. Died Oct. 26, 1715. On his headstone his title is Esq. The inscriptions on these three stones in the old burying lot near the county jail in Barnstable are as distinct as when first cut. In his will, dated June 8, 1712, and probated Nov. 27, 1715, he names the following legacies, with the relation ship indicated: his wife Abigail; his only son Barnabas; his grandson Barnabas, the "only son of my son John, deceased"; grandson John, son of "my son Nathaniel, deceased"; his brother John and two sisters, Abigail Clark and Bathsheba Marsh; his daughter-in-law, Elizabeth Crocker; his grandson, Joseph Lewis, son of Thomas Lewis; and "my seven children now remaining; my knowenon Bethya Hinkley, now dwelling with me, my six daughters, Abigail Sturges, Susanna Shortell, Bathsheba Freeman, Anna Lewis, Sarah Swift, and Thankful Hodge; and Bethya Clapham—who is my daughter-in-law."

12. "A child born in Scituate, July 30, 1638, and died the same day."

13. AMOXIL, baptized in Barnstable, Nov. 2, 1639, O. S., "the first record since our coming to Barnstable, Oct. 11, 1639." She married Oct. 2, 1657, James, son of Thomas Clark and Susanna, daughter of widow Susanna King. They settled in Plymouth, in which place the father had come in the ship Ana, in 1622.

14. BATHSHEBA, as spelled in the records made by her father, baptized in Barnstable, Feb. 27, 1641, and married Alexander Marsh. She was probably his second wife. They lived in Braintree, Mass., where his will was made Mar. 19, 1687, and he died March 7, 1688. His will calls his wife Bathsheba, whose death, Jan. 8, 1722, age 85, is certified by her gravestone in the Dorchester burying lot. Their children were:

John Marsh, a minor at the date of his father's will, 1697.

Rachel Marsh.

Phoebe Marsh.

Ann Marsh, who became the wife of Samuel French, of Braintree, Mass., and had a family of 8 children: Samuel, born Nov. 17, 1699; Samuel the second, Hannah, Mary, Alexander, Josiah, Nathaniel, and Benjamin.

His widow's will, whose former husband is said to have been John Fuller, bears date Oct. 7, 1728, and is recorded in Book V, p. 262. It was proved Oct. 10, 1728, and names as legatee: son Benjamin, the heirs of son John Fuller, deceased, grandson John Lathrop, daughter Rebecca Pryor, daughter Hannah Welch, and daughter Phoebe Thacher. Executor, son-in-law, Eliska Thacher.

Hannah was the second wife of Dr. John, son of Matthew Fuller, and by him had a daughter Bethia, Dec., 1687; John, born Oct., 1689, and Holmes Sept. 8, 1694. These names will make the names in the will intelligible.

14. JOHN, born in Barnstable, Mass., Feb. 9, 1644, and married Jan. 2, 1671-2, at Plymouth, Mass., Mary, probably daughter of James and Mary (Thames) Cook of Scituate, where she was born Dec. 2, 1652. His name on the marriage record is Laythrop, and she is called Mary Colgrain. He married (2) Dec. 9, 1693, Hannah, widow of Dr. John Fuller. He died Sept. 18, 1727, at 11 o'clock a. m., and is recorded as 83 years old, on the Barnstable church records.

On Mr. Otis' authority we know that he was a man of note among the seafaring men of the coast in that early day, sailing as captain in command of his own vessel. On the New Haven, Conn., records is found this evidence of his seamanship.

"These certify I received on board of yr Swan, John Lathrop, Mr. 8 bills, pork, 4s bush, wheat of Sam'l Hemingway of New Haven, for use of Capt. Eliska Hatchinson of Boston; and she promises to deliver yr same on paying freight 1s. 6d. per ton, and 6d. bush. Apr. 1, 1697. Jos. Lathrop."

His will, Book IV, p. 467, dated Mar. 2, 1726-7, and probated Feb. 9, 1727-8, names as his legatee his wife Hannah, son John's son Joseph, the children of his daughter Mary Howland, and those of his daughter Elizabeth Lewis, and his sons, Barnabas and Benjamin. His son Barnabas and his wife Hannah are executors.

15. — "A man child of John Lathrop dying immediately after it was borne, buried Jan. 23, 1646."

John Lathrop, 1672, at Swinney, was admitted an inhabitant of the second rank. If this is the person so admitted, he probably did not remain there long, since his children are all recorded in Barnstable.

THIRD GENERATION.

are also named: Mary Hinckley, Abigail Hinckley, Nancy Hinckley, who in her will names also a brother, Job Hinckley.

7. SAMUEL.

SENIOR, FREE.

21. JOHN, baptized in Boston, Dec. 7, 1645; married Dec. 13, 1669, Ruth Hays, daughter of Robert. He and his sister Elizabeth were married at the same time by Commissioner Daniel Wetherell, and the record appears among the other records of the Commissioner's Court. The next year we find him called to Wallingford, as the following vote on record shows:

"Sept. 10, 1672. Vote to send for Jm. Lathrop to come and conclude arrangements for building the mill."

By some marvel of dispatch which we could hardly look for in those early days, within three days' time he had already entered on the work of building the mill. The only explanation of it seems to have been in the pressing necessities of the new town, which would not allow them to wait even for the usual settlement of the terms on which the mill should be built, as the following record will suggest:

"Sept. 12, 1672. Vote that if Jm. Lathrop goes on with all speed and completes his mill which he hath begun—leaving all agreement to a convenient time—the town grants him his 30 acres."

That grant covered the site of the mill. To it were added two other pieces, one of 44 acres—probably to it, and one of 10 acres upland. The town also remits his tax for building the mill.

In 1692, the entire control of the mill was put into his hands. His heirs sold the property in 1721, but to this day the measure is called the "Lathrop Lot." He died, as the Wallingford records show, Aug. 25, 1699, Aged 44. Ruth, his widow, in Feb. 19, 1699-90, drew the No. 1, in the distribution of that date. The inventory of his estate was presented to probate May 18, 1698, and is recorded in Book No. 2, of the New Haven probate records, and is so termed: "John Lathrop, late of Wallingford."

22. ELIZABETH, born in March, 1668, and married (Feb. 13, 1692) Isaac, son of Robert Hays of New London, and settled in Wallingford. After his death she married Joseph Thompson of Wallingford, who was a collector of taxes there as late as 1691, and had six children: Elizabeth, Samuel, James, Phoebe, Hannah, and Keturah. Joseph Thompson, who married Hannah Clark, Feb. 1, 1709-10; John Thompson, born Feb. 1, 1693, and married June 23, 1719, Sarah Osburn. They had six children: Abel, Abel 2d, Anna, Maria, Sarah, and Julia. Hannah Thompson, born April 16, 1697.

23. SAMUEL, born in March, 1670, married Hannah Adgate, Nov. 1, 1672, who died Sept. 18, 1695. He then married, Dec. 30, 1697, Mary Edmonson of Norwich. They settled in Norwich where she died Jan. 31, 1727-8, and in Dec. 8, 1721. His rank among the citizens of Norwich is shown in the enrollment of 1720, where his name stands next to the two Denisons, Huntington, their names following those of the three ministers, Lord, Wilcox, and Kirtland. He was a member of the First Church in Norwich.

24. SARAH, born in October, 1672, and married as his second wife, April 21,

1691, Nathaniel, son of Nathaniel Hays of Wallingford, where they settled, and where he died Nov. 31, 1708. He was a carpenter and joiner and blacksmith, and died Feb. 8, 1728, having had four wives. His children by Sarah Lathrop were:

1. Sarah Hays, born in Wallingford, April, 1693.

2. Hester Hays, born in Wallingford, Sept. 16, 1695, and died Oct. 14, 1701.

3. Lois Hays, born in Wallingford, July 28, 1697, and married Samuel Hall.

4. Elizabeth Hays, born in Wallingford, Dec. 28, 1699.

25. MARTIN, born in January, 1657, and married, in 1677, John, son of John Moss, the immigrant of this name, at New Haven, and who became so prominent in the new town of Wallingford. He occupied for his homestead the lot on which the elegant house of Moses Y. Beach stood in 1872, and there the old Miss died at the age of 105 years in 1797. The son died March 21, 1737, and she Sept. 21, 1719. Their children were:

1. Mary Moss, born in Wallingford, Jan. 1, 1677.

2. Esther Moss, born in Wallingford, Jan. 5, 1679.

3. Samuel Moss, born Nov. 18, 1686, and married Dec. 15, 1708, Susanna, daughter of — Hall. He became a prominent man of his town, and a deacon in the church. They had nine children: Theophilus, Martha, Susanna, Samuel, Esther, Isaac, Sarah, Joseph, and Bethiah.

4. John Moss, born Nov. 26, 1692, and married Feb. 25, 1708, Elizabeth Hall, children: Hannah, Elizabeth, Samuel, Joseph, Mary, John, Levi, Eunice, and Thankful.

5. Maria Moss, born Dec. 21, 1694.

6. MARYANN Moss, born July 8, 1698, and married Jan. 24, 1718, (1) Balth. Dick, and (2) Sarah —. By his first wife he had seven children, and by his second ones: Martha, Susanna, David, Abigail, 2 sons, Ruth, Martin, Abigail, Luck, Jonathan, and Sarah.

7. Isaac Moss, born July 8, 1692, and married Dec. 2, 1717, Hannah Hays. Their children were: Jonathan, Hannah, Sarah, Isaac, Lillie, and Wetherell.

8. Mary Moss, born July 23, 1694, and married June 25, 1714, Solomon Hays, and had three children: Martha, Samuel, and Elizabeth. Afterward he married June 14, 1724, Sarah Peck, by whom he also had three.

9. Isaac Moss, born Dec. 31, 1699, and married Sept. —, and had seven children: Nathaniel, Joseph, Lydia, Sarah, Eunice, Asa, and Ruth.

10. Benjamin Moss, born Feb. 10, 1702, and married Abigail —, and had eight children: Abigail, Benjamin, Bannister, Timothy, Abigail, Joseph, Martha, and Rachel.

11. ISABELLA, born in October, 1698, and married April 8, 1698, Rebecca Hill, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth — Hill, who was then stationed at Norwich. Her grandfather was Thomas Hill, Sen., of Hartford. They settled in Norwich.

His rank among his neighbors in 1720, when all the freemen were counted, was next to his brother Samuel. He was a man of worldly thrift, and led a family of enterprising sons, who are said to have planted themselves on some hills within the old blue hills square of Norwich. He died March 25, 1728.

1693, Sarah —. Children, born at or near Fairfield, Connecticut: Abigail, baptized February 17, 1695; Sarah, February 17, 1695; Eunice, October 20, 1695; Nehemiah, baptized March 2, 1698; Edward, born about 1718, married Ester Hull, near Wallingford, New Haven county, Connecticut (see below); Robert; Patience.

Edward (3) Churchill, born about 1718, lived in Greenwich, Connecticut. Married, in Wallingford, New Haven county, 1741, Esther daughter of Abijah Hull (see Hull). Children born in Greenwich, Connecticut: James, born December 25, 1742; John, June 2, 1744, married (first) — Allen, (second) Sarah — (see below); Ester, May 11, 1746; Edward, September 4, 1748; Sarah, about 1750.

John (2) Churchill, born in Greenwich, Connecticut, June 2, 1744, lived in Milford, Connecticut. He died November 15, 1815. Married (first) — Allen, (second) Sarah —, born 1748. Children by first wife, born in Milford, Connecticut: John, August 3, 1770; Sarah, March 30, 1772; Timothy, June 23, 1776; William (4), April 8, 1781, married Keturah (6) Moss (Morse), daughter of David (5) and Eunice Hall Moss (see below); Elias, February 15, 1783. Second wife's children: Hull, born June 17, 1787; Garret D., April 8, 1793.

Moss.—John (1) Moss was with the earliest settlers of the New Haven colony in Connecticut, and signed with the Planters Associates April 4, 1639. He was a member of the first general court, February 18, 1639, corporal 1642, New Haven and Wallingford, July, 1648, June, 1649, September, 1649, August, 1664. He was chosen corporal June 6, 1642. In 1664 came the entry on the town "book": "John Moss being bid to walk the rounds on the Lord's Day, came to the meeting house and stayed there so the service was neglected. He was fined 10 shillings." From a statement that John Moss of Boston was one of the debtors to the estate of James Hayward, in New Haven records, we might infer that he had some connection with the families of the name Morse (Moss) who were settling in that vicinity. At the age of fifty-seven years he was one of the incorporators of that part of New Haven which was set off as Wallingford, where in May, 1678, he was chosen commissioner to marry people. He was elected commissioner from Wallingford eighteen times, serving as deputy also, and for Meriden as well. The only mention of his wife was the seating of the meeting house in New Haven, when Goody Moss was assigned a seat. (John Moss claimed John Charles as his brother-in-law). John Moss died in Wallingford, 1707, and is said to have been one hundred years old. This accords with his own statement of his age in 1670, when he signed as one of the incorporators of Wallingford as being sixty-seven years of age, which makes his birth to have been in 1603-4. Children: John, baptized in New Haven, January 11, 1639; Samuel, born April 4, 1641; Abigail, April 10, 1642; Rev. Joseph, November 6, 1643; Ephraim, November 6, 1645; Mary (2), April 11, 1647, married John (2) Peck, November 3, 1664; Mercy, baptized April 1, 1649; John, born October 12, 1650 (married December 12, 1676, Martin Lathrop, see below); Elizabeth, born October 12, 1652; Hester, June 16, 1654; Isaac, July 1, 1655.

John (2) Moss Jr., son of John Moss, was born in New Haven, Connecticut, October 12, 1650. He was among the first settlers of Wallingford, where he took as active a part in civic affairs as his father had. He married, December 12, 1676, Martha (5), daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Scudder) Lathrop (see Lowthroppe), who was born January, 1657, died September 21, 1719. He died March 31, 1717. His homestead was first known as the Old Moss place, now as the Moses Y. Beach Place, in Wallingford. June 18, 1717, the estate of John (2) Moss, of Wallingford, was administered by his widow Mrs. Martha Moss and his eldest son Samuel Moss, while Mercy and Samuel disposed of the home lot. He owned a farm on Ten Mile Hill, another at Honey Pot, and one at Bushy Hill, in all over five hundred acres.

Lowthroppe.—John (1) Lowthroppe, of Cherry Burton, England, a parish about four miles from London, was, early in the sixteenth century, a gentleman of quite extensive landed assets. In the thirty-seventh year of the reign of Henry VIII, he appears on the Yorkshire subsidy roll assessed twice as much as any other inhabitant of the parish. His son Robert, who married Ellen —, succeeded to his father's estate in Cherry Burton, and died in 1558. His will mentions Thomas, Elizabeth and Isabelle.

Thomas (2), eldest son of Robert and Ellen, Lowthroppe, married (first) Elizabeth (Wood) Clark. She was buried in Eton, England, July 25, 1574. He married (second) Mary, who was buried in Eton, January 6, 1588, and (third) Jane, who died in 1606.

Rev. John (3) Lowthroppe (as he wrote his name), fourth child of Thomas and Mary Lowthroppe, was baptized in Eton, England, December 20, 1584, and became pioneer and founder of a large family of Lothropes in America. He entered Queen's College at Cambridge in 1601, graduated A. B. 1605, and A. M. 1609. He married (first) Hannah Howse, of Eastwell, county Kent, England, marriage license issued in Canterbury, England, from L. Cullerton's Heraldic Office, 25 Cranborn street, London, October 10, 1610. Was curate in Egerton, Kent, 1611, and in 1623 espoused the cause of independence. Next year he succeeded Rev. Henry Jacobs, London, and became minister of the first Congregational Church organized in England, which had been formed under the ministry of Mr. Jacobs, and later prosecuted, in prison, and released to leave the country. He came to America in 1634, with his children and thirty-four of his church, in the "Griffin" to Boston. He with followers moved from place to place—Scituate, Barnstable, etc. Married his second wife, Anne, in Scituate. Made freeman 1637. Died at Barnstable, November 8, 1651.

Samuel (4) Lothrop, son of Rev. John and Hannah, (Howse) Lothroppe, born at ~~Barnstable, Massachusetts, 1602~~. Member of Barnstable company, 1643; in 1654 was a member of Major Simon Willard's expedition against Ninigret. Died in Norwich, Connecticut, February 29, 1700. He married Elizabeth (widow of Thomas Scudder, came from London in ship "James" to Charlestown, 1635), sister of John Scudder, of Boston, November 28, 1644. Their daughter Martha (5) Lothrop, born January, 1657, married John (2) Moss, December 12, 1676. He died September 21, 1791. (See Moss; also "History of Norwich, Connecticut," by F. M. Cullins, p. 217).

Children of John (2) and Martha (5) (Lothrop) Moss: Mercy, born New Haven, January 7, 1677; Ester, January 5, 1678-9; Deacon Samuel, November 10, 1680; John, November 16, 1682; Martha, December 24, 1684; Solomon (3), July 9, 1690, married (first) January 28, 1714, Ruth Peck, who died March 29, 1728, and (second), August 1, 1728, Sarah Fenn (see below); Isaac, born July 6, 1692-3; Mary, July 25, 1694; Israel, December 31, 1696; Benjamin, February 10, 1702.

Solomon (3) Moss, son of John (2) and Martha (5) (Lothrop) Moss, born in Wallingford, July 9, 1690. Married (first), January 28, 1714, Ruth (3) Peck, daughter of Joseph (2) and Ruth (2) (Atkins) Peck, who died March 29, 1728. (See Peck). Married (second) August 1, 1728, Sarah Fenn. He died October 10, 1752.

Peck.—Deacon Paul (1) Peck, born about 1622, immigrant ancestor, with his wife Martha was at Hartford in 1639, and deacon of First Congregational Church many years, and surveyor to town. He died December 23, 1695. Children: Paul, born 1639, married Elizabeth Dwyer; Martha, 1641, married, June 8, 1665, John Cornwell; Elizabeth, born 1643, married ——— Howe, Wallingford; John, born December 22, 1645; Samuel, 1647, married Elizabeth ———; Joseph (2), baptized December 22, 1650, married Ruth Atkins; Sarah, born 1653, married Thomas Clark, Hartford; Hannah, born 1656, married May 12, 1680, John Shepard, Hartford; Mary, born 1662, married John Andrews, Hartford; another daughter, married Joseph Denton; another daughter, married ——— Beach, Wallingford.

Joseph (2) Peck, son of Deacon Paul and Martha Peck, baptized December 22, 1650; was a proprietor of Hartford, Connecticut, later at Windsor. Married Ruth Atkins. He died June 26, 1698. Widow Ruth married (second) John Flaskins, Winsor. Daughter Ruth married Solomon (3) Moss, January 28, 1714. (See Moss).

Children of Solomon (3) Moss by first wife, Ruth Peck: Daniel, born October 12, 1714; David (4), May 15, 1716, married Mindwell Doolittle, October 7, 1737. (See below); Abigail, March 7, 1718; Solomon, October 31, 1719; Ruth, August 3, 1721; Martha, September 10, 1723; Abigail, September 10, 1725. By his second wife, Sarah Fenn: Sarah, born May 2, 1729; Jonathan, February 8, 1731; Abigail; Sarah (5), November 28, 1734.

David (4) Moss, son of Solomon (3) and Ruth (Peck) Moss, was born in Wallingford, May 15, 1716. Married, October 7, 1737, Mindwell (4), daughter of Samuel and Melitabile Doolittle, who was born June 15, 1715. David (4) Moss died May 16, 1766. (See Doolittle).

Doolittle.—Abraham (1) Doolittle, born 1610; sergeant, New Haven, 1640; removed to Wallingford, Connecticut, 1670, as one of first settlers; was one of committee to organize church there. In October, 1675, his house was fortified at public expense. Died August 11, 1690, age seventy years. He married Joane Allen (see Allen).

The will of James (1) Allen, of Kempston, county Bedford, England, dated January 7, 1636, proved January 20, 1637, mentions chil-1728, Samuel Paine, and removed to Pomfret, Connecticut. 4. Ebenezer, August 1, 1687, mentioned below. 5. John, baptized August 7, 1687, probably a twin. 6. Sarah. 7. Jemima, married, December 3, 1713. John Woods. 8. Robert, born December 30, 1697, died young. 9. Robert, December 30, 1698. 10. Jonathan, November 8, 1700.

(III) Ebenezer, son of Joshua Seaver, was born in Roxbury, August 1, 1687, and died May 8, 1773. He married, December 2, 1714, Margaret Heath, who died November 30, 1765. Children: 1. Hannah, born April 24, 1716, married, November 23, 1732, Peter Seaver, son of Shubael Seaver. 2. Sarah, August 13, 1718, married, October 15, 1741, John Newell, of Brookline. 3. Ebenezer, April 26, 1721, mentioned below. 4. Mary, February 11, 1725, estate administered May 26, 1769. 5. Joshua, September 11, 1728, died September 4, 1773. 6. Susannah, August 28, 1740, will proved October 6, 1769.

(IV) Ebenezer (2), son of Ebenezer (1) Seaver, was born at Roxbury, April 26, 1721. His will was proved April 12, 1785. He married (first) November 5, 1755, Mary Weld, who died May 8, 1766. He married (second) Tabitha Davenport, born August 9, 1737, died March 1, 1804, daughter of Ebenezer and Submit Davenport, of Dorchester. Children of first wife: 1. Mary, born September 1, 1756, died November 19, 1763. 2. Hannah, October 30, 1758, married, May 24, 1786, James Lewis, of Roxbury. 3. Jonathan, May 19, 1761, died March 6, 1763. 4. Ebenezer, July 5, 1763, died March 1, 1844. Children by second wife: 5. Margaret, April 18, 1772, died February 20, 1776. 6. Joshua, September 30, 1774, died October 11, 1774. 7. Margaret, October 24, 1775, married, December 11, 1804, Rufus Kelton; died February 25, 1816. 8. Joshua, January 15, 1779, mentioned below.

(V) Joshua, son of Ebenezer (2) Seaver, was born in Roxbury, January 15, 1779, died September 11, 1833. He married, April 6, 1803, Nancy Sumner, who died October 23, 1837, aged fifty-seven years, six months. He was a resident of Jamaica Plain, and prominent in the early history of that town. He kept a grocery store there. He and his wife were for many years members of the Unitarian church. Children: 1. Joshua, born November 15, 1803. 2. Rufus Kelton, October 19, 1804, died October 5, 1805. 3. Ann Tabitha, January 31, 1806. 4. Nathaniel, December 14, 1807, married, March 3, 1833, Ann Jane Codman. 5. John Prince, September 11, 1809, died December, 1864. 6. Robert, February 23, 1812, mentioned below. 7. Seth Sumner, July 10, 1816, died February 21, 1817. 8. William, March 17, 1818. 9. Joseph, December 22, 1819, died March 8, 1821. 10. Joseph, September 7, 1822.

(VI) Robert, son of Joshua Seaver, was born at Jamaica Plain, February 23, 1812, died July 18, 1882. He was a prominent citizen of Jamaica Plain, and conducted the grocery store which his father had established. He married, November 20, 1834, in Boston, Abigail Fairbanks Patch, born in Phillipston, Massachusetts, March 14, 1813, died March 20, 1884. For many years they were active members of Dr. Gray's church. Children: 1. N. Augusta, born January 28, 1836. 2. Ellen, October 21, 1837, married, July 16, 1860, William J. R. Evans (see Evans family). 3. Robert, July 11, 1842. 4. Maria L., September 26, 1842, died January 12, 1899. 5. Theodore, July 17, 1845. 6. Fred, July 27, 1848. 7. Florence, November 4, 1851, died March 28, 1908. 8. Robert, February 21, 1854.

LATHROP

The surname Lathrop or Lathrop is derived from the parish Lowthorpe. Thorpe means village, so the meaning of the word literally is a low village. Lowthorpe is a small parish in the wapentake of Dickering, East Riding of Yorkshire, England, having only about a hundred and fifty inhabitants. Walter de Lowthorpe was elected high sheriff of Yorkshire in 1216 and the name has been common in Yorkshire from that time. Robert and Richard Lowthorpe lived at Whelpsted, Thingoe Hundred, Suffolk, in 1287. A prominent family of Lathrops lived in Staffordshire before 1360. Arms: Sable, an eagle displayed argent. Crest: A Cornish chough proper.

(1) John Lathrop or Lowthorpe, as the name was then spelled, is the first of this ancient family in England to whom the American line can be definitely traced. Early in the sixteenth century he was living in Cherry Burton, a parish about four miles from Lowthorpe. He was, though belonging to a junior branch of the family, a gentleman of quite extensive landed estates both in Cherry Burton and in various other parts of the county. In 1545 his name appears on a subsidy roll, assessed twice as much as any other inhabitant of the parish. Of his parentage and brothers and sisters nothing has been discovered, the early parish records having disappeared. He left a son

Robert, mentioned below, and three daughters whose names are unknown, though their families are mentioned in their brother's will.

(II) Robert Lathrop, son of John Lathrop, succeeded to his father's estates in Cherry Burton and during his lifetime made considerable additions to them. He died in 1553. His will is dated at North Barton (Sherburnton), July 16, 1558, and proved at York, October 20, 1558. He was of course a good Roman Catholic, and left bequests to the church; to various friends and relatives; to wife Ellen; children John, Thomas, Lawrence, Margaret. Children: 1. Thomas, mentioned below. 2. John, died without issue. 3. Lawrence, died before 1572. 4. Margaret, married Robert Hodgson.

(III) Thomas Lathrop, son of Robert Lathrop, was born in Cherry Burton; married Elizabeth Clark, widow, who was buried at Eton, July 29, 1574; married (second) Mary —, who was buried in Eton, January 6, 1588; (third) Jane —, who married after his death — Coppendale. He removed to Eton about 1576 and died in 1606. His will is dated October 5, 1606. Neither of the sons who were educated were legatees in the will. Children of first wife: 1. Robert, married, January 27, 1607-08, Ann Pattison. 2. Catherine, married, June 12, 1607, William Akett, of Leckonfield. 3. Audrey, married — Wickham. 4. Elizabeth, married, February 19, 1587-88, Thomas Rowood. 5. Anne, baptized at Eton, February 13, 1568-69, died young. 6. Isabel, baptized at Eton, July 3, 1570. 7. Martin, baptized at Eton, October 21, 1572, died same year. 8. Andrew, baptized at Eton, April 23, 1574. Children of second wife: 9. Anne, baptized at Eton, July 20, 1576. 10. Mary. 11. Thomas, baptized at Eton, October 14, 1582, graduate of Queen's College, 1604. 12. John, baptized December 20, 1584, mentioned below. 13. William, baptized May 24, 1587. Children of third wife: 14. Margaret, baptized at Eton, February 12, 1590-91. 15. Isabel, baptized September 29, 1592. 16. Lucy, baptized at Eton, January, 1593-94, married, June 16, 1613, Ralph Cawnsley. 17. Richard, baptized October 1, 1595, married Dorothy Lowden and settled in Cherry Burton. 18. Mary, baptized in Eton, September 27, 1597, died in England. 19. Lawrence, baptized August 29, 1599. 20. Jane, baptized March 14, 1600-01. 21. Joseph, baptized December 31, 1602. 22. Bartholomew, baptized March 1, 1604. All these parishes and other places are in the same locality.

(IV) Rev. John Lathrop, a son of Thomas

Lathrop, was born at Eton, Yorkshire, England, and baptized there December 20, 1584. He spelled his name Lotitopp. He was educated in Queen's College, Cambridge, graduating in 1602 with the degree of B. A. and taking his master's degree in 1609. He became curate of the parish church in Eggleston in the Lower Half Hundred of Calchill, Lathe of Servey, county Kent. He was there as early as 1614, probably in 1611 and as late as the fall of 1619, and it was doubtless his first and only parish as minister of the Church of England. When he could no longer subscribe to the creed of that church, he renounced his orders in 1623 and allied himself with the Puritans. In 1624 he was called to succeed Rev. Henry Jacob, an independent minister of the First Independent Church of London, who had resigned to go to Virginia. The worship of this church was illegal and their meetings secret. The church was discovered by a spy named Tomlinson and forty-two made prisoners, eighteen being allowed to escape, April 22, 1632. The Puritan prisoners were consigned to the old Clink prison in Newgate and in the Gatehouse. In the spring of 1634 all were released on bail except Mr. Lathrop. In the quaint language of Nathaniel Morton in the "New England Memorial" (1669) the story of his further stay in England is briefly told: "His wife fell sick, of which sickness she died. He procured liberty of the bishop to visit his wife before her death, and commended her to God by prayer, who soon gave up the ghost. At his return to prison his poor children, being many, required to the bishop at Lambeth, and made known unto him their miserable condition, by reason of their good father's being continued in close durance, who commiserated their condition so far as to grant him liberty who soon after came over into New England." "He came to Boston with part of his flock in the ship, "Griffin," and another sailing in the fall of 1634 and arriving September 18, proceeded to Scituate, where nine pioneers had already located, and prepared the way for others. He was formally chosen pastor January 19, 1634. He married again Anna —, and was granted a farm near the First Herring brook and had shares in the salt marshes. He left his home in Scituate after some disagreement in the church, and with others from Scituate located at Barnstable on Cape Cod, arriving October 11, 1635, bringing with them the crops they had raised in Scituate. Mr. Lathrop fearlessly proclaimed in old and New England the great truth that man is not responsible to his fellowman in matters of faith and conscience. Differences of opinion be tolerated. During the fourteen years that he was pastor of the Barnstable church, such was his influence over the people, that the power of a civil magistrate was not needed to restrain crime. No pastor was ever more beloved by his people, none ever had a greater influence for good. * * * To become a member of his church no applicant was compelled to sign a creed or confession of faith. He retained his freedom, he professed his faith in God, and promised that it should be his constant endeavor to keep His commandments, to live a pure life and to walk in love with his brethren. He stood among the Puritans, a Congregational of the Unitarian denomination, as we now class them. Morton says: "He was a man of humble and broken heart spirit, lively in Dispensation of the Word of God, studious of peace, furnished with godly contentment, willing to spend and be spent for the cause of the Church of Christ." Mr. Lathrop died at Barnstable, November 2, 1655. His will was dated August 10, and proved December 6, 1655, bequeathing to son Thomas, the eldest; to son John, who was in England; son Benjamin, daughters Jane and Barbara; to each of the rest of his children, both his and his wife's. Children: 1. Jane, baptized at Egerton, England, September 29, 1614, married, April 9, 1635 (by Captain Myles Standish), Samuel Fuller, son of Edward who came on the "Mayflower." 2. Anne, baptized in Egerton, May 12, 1616, buried there April 30, 1617. 3. John, baptized in Egerton, February 22, 1617-18, died young. 4. Barbara, baptized October 31, 1619, married John Emerson. 5. Thomas, born in England, prominent citizen at Barnstable. 6. Samuel, mentioned below. 7. Joseph, born 1622, married, December, 1650, Mary Anell. 8. Benjamin, born in England, married Maria —; settled in Charlestown. 9. Barnabas, baptized at Scituate, June 6, 1636; married (first) December 1, 1658, Susanna Clark; (second) Abigail Dodson, widow. 10. Child, born and died July 30, 1638. 11. Abigail, baptized at Barnstable, November 2, 1639, married James Clark. 12. Bathsheba, baptized February 27, 1641, married Alexander Marsh and lived at Braintree. 13. John, born at Barnstable, February 9, 1642, married, January 3, 1671-72, Mary Cobb; (second) December 9, 1675, Hannah Fuller, widow of Dr. John. 14. Son, born and died same day, buried January 25, 1649.

(V) Samuel Lathrop, son of Rev. John Lathrop, was born in England and came with his father to Scituate in 1634. He removed to Barnstable, where he married, November 28, 1644, Elizabeth Scudder, who had been dismissed from the church in Boston, November 10, 1644, to the Barnstable church. They settled in Barnstable, next the house of John Scudder. Samuel was a house builder and farmer. He was on the list of those able to bear arms in 1643. His house lot was the third in order from that of John Winthrop, Esq., and his name is among the first eighteen to whom were assigned lands on the east side of the "great river of Pequot, January, 1649. He was one of the judges of the local court of Pequot, organized in May, 1649, and served on important committees of the town. He assisted in the defence against the Narragansett Indians in the fort at the head of the Nabantick. In 1679 he had the contract to build the Second Church at New London. In 1651 he sold his town house to Rev. Gershom Bulkeley. It stood beyond the bridge over the mill brook, on the east side of the highway toward Nobegon. In 1668 he removed to Norwich, Connecticut, where he was granted a house lot originally granted to John Elderkin. He built a house on the town street before 1670, where he spent the remainder of his days. The house built by Dr. Daniel Lathrop, his great-grandson, probably stands on the same site. He was constable in 1673 and 1682, and townsman in 1685. He married (second) in 1650, in Plymouth, Massachusetts, Abigail Doane, born January 29, 1632, died 1734, aged one hundred and two years, daughter of Deacon John Doane, of Plymouth. "On her one hundredth birthday a large audience assembled at her house, and a sermon was preached by the pastor of the church." Samuel Lathrop died February 20, 1700, leaving a nuncupative will, proved in 1701. Children: 1. John, baptized in Boston, December 7, 1645, married, December 15, 1669, Ruth Royce, daughter of Robert Royce; died August 25, 1688. 2. Elizabeth, March, 1648; married, December 16, 1669, Isaac Royce; (second) Joseph Thompson. 3. Samuel, March, 1650, married (first) November, 1675, Hannah Algate; (second) December 30, 1697, Mary Edgerton, and settled in Norwich; died December 9, 1732. 4. Sarah, October, 1655, married, April 21, 1681, Nathaniel Royce, of Wallingford. 5. Martha, January, 1657, married, 1677, John Moss. 6. Israel, October, 1659, married, April 8, 1685, Rebecca Bliss. 7. Joseph, October, 1661, martioned below. 8. Abigail, May 1665, married, December 9, 1686, John Huntington. 9. Anna, August, 1667, married William Hough; died November 19, 1745.

(VI) Joseph Lathrop, son of Samuel Lathrop, was born October, 1661, and died in Norwich, Connecticut, July 5, 1740. He was a member of the First Church there. He married (first) April 8, 1686, Mary Scudder, who died September 18, 1695. He married (second) February 2, 1695-7, Elizabeth Watrous, born March 22, 1661, died November 29, 1726, daughter of Isaac and Sarah Watrous. He married (third) November 22, 1727, Mrs. Martha Perkins, widow of Deacon Joseph Perkins, of Newent, now Lisbon, then a part of Norwich. Children: 1. Barnabas, born February 4, 1687, died May 25, 1710; married, January 12, 1709-10, Abigail Abell. 2. Joseph, September 18, 1688, mentioned below. 3. Abigail, September 16, 1693, married Jacob Hazen. 4. Mehitable, November 2, 1697, married (first) William Binsnell; (second) October 3, 1722, Captain Thomas Soughton Jr. 5. Samuel, May 23, 1699. 6. Elizabeth, January 17, 1703-04. 7. Sarah, October 18, 1702. 8. Temperance, October 6, 1704. 9. Solomon, December 13, 1706, married, February 6, 1728-29, Mrs. Martha Todd. 10. Ruth, December 11, 1709. 11. Esther, November 17, 1712. 12. Zerviah, April 9, 1718, married, 1730, William Bradford.

(VII) Joseph Lathrop, son of Joseph Lathrop, was born in Norwich, September 18, 1688, married, April 13, 1735, Mary Harris-born. She united with the church in Franklin, then part of Norwich, in 1737. The inventory of his estate "in Norwich and Waterbury" was dated March 1, 1757. Children: 1. Jonathan John Scudder, "eldest son," married, July 27, 1763, Mrs. Priscilla Wood; died March 20, 1780. 2. Barnabas, April 19, 1738, mentioned below. 3. Joseph, June 9, 1740, died young. 4. Zebadiah, "youngest son," died 1783. 5. Mary, "only daughter."

(VIII) Barnabas Lathrop, son of Joseph Lathrop, was born in Norwich, April 19, 1738, and married, July 7, 1757, Sarah Davis. He became a Baptist preacher, and after a somewhat roving life died in New Milford, Connecticut. Children: 1. Joseph, born November 20, 1758. 2. Daniel, October 23, 1760, in Norwich, died July 23, 1761. 3. Sarah, October 20, 1762. 4. Daniel, mentioned below. 5. Rufus, married Debby Ackly and died in South Cairo, New York. 6. Anne.

(IX) Daniel Lathrop, son of Barnabas

Lathrop, was born in Norwich, October 23, 1765, and died in New Milford in 1861. He married (first) Grace Lovvredge, who was born in 1768; (second) Esther Taylor. Children: 1. Lydia, born in Colchester, Connecticut, November 12, 1787, married Andrew Lanson. 2. Daniel, Colchester, February 1, 1790, married, August 15, 1812, Sarah Fisher. 3. Amasa, Colchester, September 30, 1792, married Lucinda Clark; died 1872. 4. Henry, Colchester, June 4, 1794, married Angelina Owens. 5. Barnabas, New Milford, October 29, 1796, married Sarah Ann Driskill. 6. Sally, New Milford, December 20, 1798, married John Mann, of Becket, Massachusetts. 7. Alanson, March 22, 1802, mentioned below. 8. John, April 23, 1804, married (first) Minerva Benlian; (second) Joanna Cook; (third) October 20, 1839, Anna Maria Way; died July 18, 1858. 9. Anna, June 2, 1805, married James Stewart. 10. Laura, November 25, 1808, married Stephen Keeler. 11. Harriet, October 13, 1812, married Wilsey Stewart. 12. Abigail. 13. George, March 17, 1822.

(X) Alanson Lathrop, son of Daniel Lathrop, was born March 22, 1802, and settled in Becket, Massachusetts. He married, January 13, 1825, Hannah Kingsley. They had nine children.

(XI) Lester Lathrop, son of Alvanson Lathrop, was born in Becket, July 7, 1826. He was educated in the public schools of his native town. He learned the trade of tanner and followed it many years. He was also engaged in farming. In politics he was a Republican. He attends the Baptist church. He married, at Middlefield, Massachusetts, November 30, 1848, Eliza Ann Crow, born 1825, daughter of William and Abigail Crow, of Montgomery, Massachusetts. Children: 1. Ada E. 2. Eva, born December 3, 1854, married Fred W. Cross. 3. Etta A., October 2, 1858, married Elmer D. Ballou. 4. William Lester, mentioned below. 5. Alice U., June 3, 1866.

(XII) William Lester Lathrop, son of Lester Lathrop, was born in Middlefield, Massachusetts, September 13, 1860, and was educated in the public schools of Becket and in Clafin Academy. He then learned the trade of brass finisher and worked at it for some three years. He came to Orange, Massachusetts, in 1880, to work for the New Home Sewing Machine Company, and he continued in the employ of that concern for a period of nineteen years, becoming foreman of a department in the works. He displayed unusual skill as a mechanic and great executive ability as

A Roll of Arms

REGISTERED BY THE COMMITTEE ON HERALDRY EIGHTH PART

[Continued from page 120]

996. LAWSON, FRED MITCHELL [son, ESSR, of Pasadena, California].
Arms: Gules, a lion and gules an eagle displayed, either charged on the breast with a cross between also gules on a border silver.
Crest: A lion passant guardant, argent, and gules, an eagle's leg erant, a la puce, gold, argent, silver grasping a heart gules.
Motto: FIDELITY CONSTANCE.
 Granted by the College of Arms 1964.
997. MANN, DR. WILLIAM MARION, of Raleigh, North Carolina.
Arms: Per chevron gold and sable on a chevron ensigned ermine between in chief two lions rampant sable and in base a fleur-de-lis gold two pallets gules each charged with an ermine spot silver.
Crest: On a wreath gold and gules an ermine passant sable supporting with the dexter foreleg a fleur-de-lis gold.
Motto: DEO JUVANTE VINCO.
 Granted by the College of Arms 1964.
998. DALLEY, FRANK JAMES, of Villanova, Pennsylvania, and the other descendants of his gr. gr. grandfather, Thomas Dalley, Esq., of Purves, Surrey, 1772, died at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 1822.
Arms: Barry of four gold and azure, three vesant eagle's wings proper.
Crest: A palm tree supported by an anchor proper.
Motto: DALLEY NOT.
 Granted by the College of Arms 1964.
999. FLANNERY, PAVEN, LT. COL. DARROW, 2nd, of Alexandria, Virginia.
Arms: Gules on a cross silver a lion rampant sable belled gold between four mullets also silver.
Crest: A lion's head couped at the neck silver, raised and armed gold, between four mullets bezels gules.
Motto: LET THE DEED SPEAK.
 Granted by the College of Arms 1964.
1000. ROBERTS, EDWIN GEORGE, of Greenfield, Massachusetts, and Boston, Spain.
Arms: Silver two spears in saltire between in pale two hunting horns arranged and in base a man's leg's heads cabossed gules.
Crest: In front of two spears in saltire a lion's head cabossed gules.
 Granted by the College of Arms 1964.
1001. MANN, JOHN ELMER, of Dodgeville, Alabama.
Arms: Gules, a cross between of wavy gold and sable a cross potent gules.
Crest: A lion's head, a cross potent gules.
Motto: FIDELITY.
 Granted by the College of Arms 1964.

ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS: A Roll of Arms, parts I-VII.

1. WAINWRIGHT, College of Arms M.S. F-13 (Cook's Grants) shows this family using a ram's head. Samuel glass contemporary to this reference shows an eagle.
120. RAWSON, Edward Rawson, sometime Secretary of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, used until about 1680 a typical woman's seal (initials and decorative embellishments). He then adopted an armorial seal of a shield only, charged with an embowed chevron and three towers. By 1673 he had replaced this with a seal showing a full achievement of a plain chevron and three towers, a helm over the shield, and the crest of the Yorkshire family of Rawson, a griffin's head, the helm holding an armlet. At no time did he use the arms of this family, a four-towered castle in perspective, nor can any connection be shown between his family, which can be traced to Dorset, and the Yorkshire Rawsons, nor has any evidence come to light that his known English ancestry used arms. Moreover, the plain chevron and three towers are Hibbourn arms, and it is known that in 1656 the widow Ann Hibbourn, before executing as a will, gave the keys of her deceased husband's desk, for the safe-keeping of the armlets, to Edward Rawson. It is suggested as fairly possible, that this was where Edward Rawson got his first seal, and that when the later one was cut the Rawson crest was added. It should also be noted that no use of an armorial seal by William Hibbourn has come to light. Such usage might solve the vexing question of Edward Rawson's armorial assertions.
100. STOCKMAN, John Stockman, died at Salisbury, Massachusetts, 6 December 1681, was baptised at All Saints in Whiteparish, near Salisbury, Wiltshire. He was the son of Joseph and Ann (Leigh) Stockman, an obscure citizen, in the choir of the Church of Saint Lawrence, Downport, Wiltshire, are found the arms of Stockman impaling those of Leigh of Tetworth. John Stockman married, Salisbury, Massachusetts, 1761, Sarah (Pike) Bradbury, widow of William Bradbury, and daughter of Major Robert and Sarah (Stedens) Pike.
232. SCOTT. There seems good reason to doubt the authenticity of the genealogy set out in the Scott pedigree roll. See: English Genealogy, Anthony Richard Wagner, Richmond Herald, Oxford University Press, London, 1969, pp. 306-7.
114. MACKENZIE. Mrs Mackenzie's third husband was John Ainslie. She married, fourth and last, the Hon. Henry Middleton. Her sister Anne also came to South Carolina, marrying (1) the Hon. Edmund Ainslie, and (2) the Hon. John Murray, 11th D.
102. BECKWITH. George Beckwith was of the Acton branch of the Yorkshire Beckwiths. His arms were quarterly, 1 & 4 in chief, a chevron between three lions' heads raised gules, a crescent (creatively unknown) for difference; 2 & 3 in chief, a lion gules between three mullets slipped azure, a crescent (creatively unknown) for difference. (See illustration B 292a in this portion of A Roll of Arms). Both the crest in the parental arms and the quartering of 1 & 4 of Acton were in difference three and four from those borne by other branches of the family. The quartering crest is of no authority or proven usage by the Beckwiths. The arms registered as B 292 were the property of the Yorkshire Yorkshire Beckwiths, Sir Marmaduke Beckwith, Bt., of the Alborough family, came to Virginia, settling in Richmond County about 1708.

Lathrop

606

Mann

607

Dallett

608

Fleming-Parsons

609

Rojers

610

Mixson

611

Davies

612

Beckwith

392a

EDITOR'S NOTES

Kenneth A. Lockridge discusses Dedham, Mass., records in this fashion:

The Town records are the staple item. . . . Volumes III-VI include funeral, church, town business, elections, special petitions, and tax lists. The tax lists and the vital records (births, marriages, deaths, Records I) must be used with the utmost care. . . . The church records (Records II) give data on membership and discipline. . . . Manuscript town records and land records in the Town Hall, together with miscellaneous deeds, letters and diaries in the Dedham Historical Society, supplement the published records. On the county level, the Suffolk County Probate, Court, and Register of Deeds records in the Courthouse in Boston are more useful. . . . The Court records are scattered; the record first in the possession of the Superior Court may as well as be almost impossible to use, while the Common Pleas and other records of probate are in the possession of agents of the modern Superior Court, who often neglect and store them.

While the above may resemble a paragraph from a guide for genealogists, it is, in fact, evidence of a new emphasis among Colonial historians on the very data that genealogists have been compiling and investigating for years. Those with an interest in Dedham or in this approach to New England history will be rewarded by an examination of Mr. Lockridge's A New England Town, The First Hundred Years (W. W. Norton Company, Inc., 1970).

These are the observations of Philip J. Green, Jr., another Colonial historian, whose most recent work focuses on Andover, Mass.

re: EUNICE LOTHROP
(LO) LATHROP GENEALOGY
Julia M. Huntington
Copyright 1884
Earl Lathrop, Portland, Oregon,
1971 reprint

5th generation
#327 children of Melatiah Lothrop

Eunice, born Nov. 14, 1745, married _____ Nash, died 25 Jan. 1802 in Chenango County, N.Y. Two sons New York City.

4th generation
136 children of Hope Lothrop

Melatiah born Feb. 20, 1714, married probably in Tolland where the record was made, Nov. 15, 1736, Mercy Hatch, daughter of Joseph Hatch, one of the pioneers of Tolland, where she was born, Aug. 23, 1717. A record made by her son, Josiah states that "this family," that of his father Melatiah, "commenced in Connecticut, whence removed in 1755 into Dutchess Co. N.Y., then town of Dover, where they were chiefly brought up." He died 5 Sept. 1787, and his wife whose name in the record of her son is Marsh, was born Aug. 6, 1718, and died in Columbia Co. N.Y. Oct. 16, 1786.

3rd generation
20 children of Joseph Lothrop

Hope, born 15 July, 1671, married 15 Nov. 1696, Elizabeth Lothrop, who was born in Barnstable 15 Nov. 1677, a daughter of Melatiah Lothrop, [19]. They settled first in Barnstable, where he is enrolled among the townsmen in 1695, and where the oldest of their children were born. He subsequently moved to Palmyra, Mass. and still later to Connecticut. He purchased 150 acres of land in Tolland, in 1726, of Daniel Eaton. The deed identifies him as from Palmyra in the county of Barnstable, in his Majesty's province of Massachusetts Bay. Weldo, in his Tolland, records the tradition that he was brother instead of father, to John, also then resident of Tolland. How early he removed with his family, if indeed as a family they ever came to Connecticut, we have no data to show. The tradition is that they resided for years in Hartford, and also that for a time at least they lived in Sharon, Conn. He died Oct. 29, 1736, and she died Feb. 21, 1763.

2nd generation
8 children of Rev. John

Joseph, born in England, probably in Lambeth, London, in 1624. He probably also came over to America with his father in 1634. The first record known to the author regardg him in this country is that of his marriage-the last Lothrop marriage recorded by his father in the registers of the Barnstable Church.

Joseph, cont'd

"Joseph Lothrop and Mary Insall married apace by him (Brother Thomas Hinckley) Dec. 11, 1650." He settled and lived in Barnstable, where his name on the local records show him to have been an enterprising and honored man. He was deputy for the town in the general court of the state for fifteen years, and for twenty-one years served as one of the selectmen of the town. In the organization of the county, he was appointed the register of the probate court, and recorded in 1666 the first dead out on record in the county. The court had appointed him in 1653 to keep the ordinary of the town. He was admitted freeman June 5, 1655. In 1644 we find him as acting constable, and in 1667 a receiver of excise. That he was also in the military line is shown in the titles of lieutenant and captain which successively mark his name.

Mr. Freeman, in his history of Cape Cod County, speaks of him as a "conspicuous member of the Council of War in 1676." He also reports Lieut. Joseph Laythorne and his brother Barnabas Laythorne as commissioned to hold select courts in Barnstable in 1679; and names both of these brothers among the agents for the settlement of Simeon.

His standing is still further shown in a letter from Capt. William Sweet written from Casco, in September, 1679, to Gov. Thomas Hinckley, reporting his skirmishes with the Eastern Indians. At the close of this report the captain presents his own and his lieutenants service to the Governor, Maj. Lothrop and Mr. Russell. We know enough of that day to be assured that none but a prominent and public man would be thus complimented.

Mr. Lothrop probably had no collegiate education, yet he must have been a well educated man--probably with a legal education. His will bears date Oct. 9, 1700, and was proved Apr. 9, 1702, between which dates his death, of which no record is preserved, must have occurred. He names in his will as heirs, his four sons, Samuel, Barnaber, Hope, to whom he left the homestead, and Thomas; and his two daughters, Mary Denes and Elizabeth Fuller.

In the inventory of his estate are reported 27 volumes of law books, and 43 volumes of classics and sermon books, the inventory amounting to $216 pounds. One other item of the inventory--"three negroes,"--shows that it belonged to an age past now beyond recall.

W. H. ...
Rev. John...baptized Etton, Yorkshire, Dec. 20, 1584, he was educated in Queen's College, Cambridge, where he was matriculated in 1601, graduated B.A. in 1605, and M.A. in 1609. Renounced the Church of England, arrived in America Sept. 18, 1634, as recorded in Governor Winthrop's Journal, page 71. "The Griffin and another ship now arriving with about 200 passengers. Mr. Lothrop and Mr. Sims, two godley ministers coming in the same ship."

Chilston's Parish Office #25 Cranborne
St. London England

"First wife of Rev. John Lathrop was Nannah House of Eastwell to Kent
England. Marriage license issued in Canterbury to Kent England,
October 10, 1610"

RECORDS SOCIETY