Dear Mrs Lowry;

4 April 1964

My letter to you of 30 March, last brought an amazingly rapid response which has been transcribed and copies of this information are being forwarded to yourself, Mr Bennett and to a Mrs Adam French, who it is believed may be interested in the HOUSTON connections.

Also in filing the originals of the enclosed copies, it was found that a Mrs William Ross Brown just might be interested in the BROYLES connection. Some of her catalogued material has a Jemima BROYLES who married a Joseph Brown in 1781 in Tennessee ( son of Joseph and Mary PORTER BROWN ) ancestors of the four time Governor of Georgia ( Joseph Emerson BROWN ). This may be of the same lineage as the Adam BROYLES of Culpeper County, Virginia ancestry - to Washington County, Virginia at the close of the RW. Joseph and ~~Mrs~~ Jemima Broyles Brown were the parents of Mackey Brown, who was the father of Joseph Emerson BROWN.

It is realized that none of this may be of interest to you, but the information is supplied in an attempt to point up the ease with which such a method of filing can be of assistance to others, when properly catalogued.

Also enclosed is a copy of the material with which Mr. Bennett supplied us upon receipt of his copy of our letter to you of 30 March, last.

Sincerely

Earl R. Brown

Lowry, R.                      S.
Correspondent tells us that there is a letter in the family dated 5 May 1958 wherein he states that he can remember his father telling a story of five Lowry brothers having been shipwrecked off the North American coast on their way from Scotland to this country. It is not known at this time who they were or how many survived. According to the story though, there were survivors, but the number was not known to RSL -- perhaps all of them. Supposedly they became widely scattered upon landing in this country.

While Bathing In A Mill Pond Near Yorkville, C. Harry Stevens, E. M. Nichols and J. F. Lindsay Were Drowned

Charlotte Observer.

Yorkville, S. C. – May 3 – Cadets Harry Stevens, E. M. Nichols and J. Frank Lindsay of the King's Mountain Military Academy, were drowned this afternoon about 3 o'clock. The tragedy occurred while the boys were bathing in Black's pond, two miles west of Yorkville.

Immediately upon hearing the news the Observer correspondent hurried to the scene and found Drs. Walker, White, McDowell and Barrow, assisted by dozens of anxious citizens, trying to resuscitate the unfortunate young men. From eye-witnesses the details of the tragedy were gathered as follows: There were 19 cadets in the bathing party and only a few of them were able to swim.

The pond is a shallow sheet with a deep channel in the centre. Stevens, who was a strong, vigorous young fellow, ventured to wade across, heedless of warnings. He stepped beyond his depth and began to flounder. Nichols and Lindsay, neither of whom could swim, plunged to his rescue and all went down together, Mr. Fred Black, the miller, and Cadet Marsh Marrow of Gastonia, both good swimmers, went to the aid of the three drowning boys and became entangled in the death trap to such an extent that they barely escaped with their lives. Although much exhausted, they continued their efforts until they recovered the bodies of Stevens and Nichols by diving. This was after the bodies had been down about 20 minutes. The body of Lindsay could not be found until the pond had been partially drained. It was at least an hour after the boys had gone to the bottom before the doctors arrived and all four reached the top within a few minutes of each other. In the meantime, however, acting by directions of his mother, who had a previous experience, Mr. Fred Black had already succeeded in getting the drowned men pretty well relieved of water. The doctors devoted their efforts to restoring respiration and worked two hours without success. One of the doctors thought he detected a slight heart action, but was not certain.

Dr. Walker opened a vein in Stevens arm and got a flow of blood, but it was black and showed no sign of oxygen.

Cadet Lindsay was the eldest son of Capt. J. R. Lindsay of Yorkville, Cadet Nichols was the only son of Mr. T. J. Nichols, a prominent farmer who lives near the place, and Cadet Stevens was a brother of Mr. John T. Stevens, a leading merchant of Kershaw . S. C.

14. Thomas<sup>3</sup> Lowery (Thomas<sup>2</sup>, James<sup>1</sup>) was born Abt. 1799 in Lincoln County, North Carolina. He married (1) Mary. He married (2) Mary "Polly" Abt. 1823. She was born Abt. 1799, and died October 05, 1868. Thomas and Mary are buried at Antioch Baptist Church, Cherokee Co, SC.

- 26 ii. Dobbins Lowery.

T. H. Lowery and W. B. Lowery ) Executors of Wm Lowery Decd ) Vs )		Petitions to sell land for assets
D. B. Lowery, Luvisa Lowery, ) Hugh Borders and wife Ellen, ) Gus Hardin and Wife Hettie, ) Jno. Bell and wife Mary and ) Hethern Hamrick )

The plaintiffs show the court,

1st That their testator died a resident of Cleveland County, N.C. in 1886 leaving a last will and testament duly rendered in Book "B" of Wills pp 298 & 299 of Clerks office of said County and appointing the plaintiffs therein his executors and said plaintiffs duly qualified as executors on April 5th 1886 and at once entered upon the discharge of their duties as such.

2nd That for the purpose of paying the debts of their testator and satisfying the specific legacies set forth in the will of their testator the plaintiffs in the year 1888 under regular proceedings had in this court sold 37 acres of land and with the proceeds of said land sale discharged all the indebtedness of their testator and paid off all the legacies excepting the sum of about $50.00 with interest still there as a balance of legacy to the defendant Mary Bell wife of Jno. Bell.

3rd That there is no personal estate belonging to this testators estate and that the amount of the unpaid legacy with interest at this time is about $80.00

4th That at the time of Wm Lowery's death he was seized and possessed of 18 ½ acres of land lying in No 3 Township, Cleveland County adjoining lands of D. B. Lowery, S. B. Turner, et. al. and said land is subject to the payment of testators specific legacies.

4th That in order that plaintiffs may convey out the provisions of their testator will and finish paying the legacy therein mentioned it will be necessary to sell the land described in paragraph 3 above for assets.

5th Defendant Levice Lowery is the widow of Wm Lowery and out of his devises: Elen Borders, D. B. Lowery and the plaintiffs are children of said Wm Lowery and Mary Bell, Hettie Hardin and Hethern Hamrick are grandchildren of said Wm Lowery; Hugh Borders, Gus Hardin & Jno. Bell are the husbands respectively of Ellen Borders, Hattie Hamrick and Jno. Bell [sic.. should be Mary Bell].

6th Mary Bell is an infant having J. C. Byers as her guardian and a necessary party defendant.

Wherefore plaintiffs plea for an order to sell the land described in paragraph 3 above at such time and upon such terms as the court may direct to the end that the plaintiffs may our of the proceeds carry out the will of their testator and plaintiffs ask for the appointment of a guardian for infant Mary Bell.

Robt L. Rayburn, Atty for defendants

I, W. A. Hamrick, of aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First. My Executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second. My will and desire is that my Executor, as aforesaid, shall sell all of my property, real, personal and mixed, within a reasonable time after my death, at public or private sale as may appear to be the best interest of my estate, and I hereby delegate to my said Executor the right to execute, a deed or deeds in fee simple to the purchaser or purchasers of the real estate. It is my desire further that my heir-at-law at the same time make sale of the 29¼-acre tract of land which I purchased from J. C. Byers and wife on Feb 10th, 1877, (See record of Deeds of Cleveland County Book "M", page 368) and which was deeded to "Martha M. Hamrick, wife of W. A. Hamrick, and the heirs-at-law of W. A. Hamrick", and that the funds derived from such sale be placed in the hands of my said Executor to be distributed by him, in connection with other funds received from sale of property hereinabove set forth, among my heirs-at-law as hereinafter set forth.

Third. I hereby give and bequeath to my daughter Hettie Hardin, wife of J. A. Hardin, Three Hundred ($300.00) Dollars in addition to the sum of One Hundred ($100) Dollars which I have heretofore advanced to her. Should my heirs-at-law fail to refuse to sell the 29¼-acre tract and place the funds in the hands of my Executor for distribution as set forth in paragraph two above, then my said Executor shall appoint three discreet men, who are not related by blood or marriage to any of the parties in interest, who shall value said tract of land and designate the value of the distributive share of said Hettie Hardin therein. My said Executor shall then pay her from other funds in his hands a sufficient sum to supplement the value of her interest in said tract, making her total share equal Three Hundred ($300) Dollars.

Forth. I give and bequeath to my daughter Mary Bell, wife of John Bell, One ($1.00) Dollar.

Fifth. I give and devise to my daughters Bertie Hendrick wife of Pink Hendrick, and Maggie Hamrick (single) Fifty ($50) Dollars each to make them equal with my daughters Hetherly Richardson and Eve Dover and my son James F. Hamrick to whom I have heretofore advanced Fifty ($50) Dollars each.

Sixth. I give and devise my daughters Hetherly Richardson, wife of Albert Richardson, Evie Dover, wife of Carlyle Dover, Bertie Hendrick, wife of Pink Hendrick, and Maggie Hamrick, and my son James F. Hamrick the remainder of the funds that may be in the hands of my said Executor from whatsoever sources received the same to be equally divided among them. Should any of the above legates die before the distribution of my said estate,, then the issue of such legatee or legates shall receive the share to which such legatee was entitled, and should any legatee die without issue, the legacy of such person shall be equally divided among the surviving legates named in paragraph sixth hereof and the issue of such as may be dead, the issue in such case to receive the share to which the parent would have been entitled had he or she been living at the time.

Mr. Thomas Hill Lowery, one of the county's most highly esteemed citizens, died Friday morning at 3 o'clock, following a long illness during which time he has suffered much and sought the best medical aid but it proved all in vain. Mr. Lowery was 72 years of age and was a highly respected citizen and many friends learned of his death with great sorrow. He was born in Cleveland County and was a loyal, noble Christian gentleman and took a great interest in the community in which he abided. In his home he was a dutiful and loving father and husband and in his church and community he was a leader for the higher things of life.

In 1876 Mr. Lowery was married to Rebecca Hogue and to this union were born five children: Billie, Jesse, Mrs. Forrest Austell, Mrs. Fields Young and Miss Kathleen. Mr. Lowery was a farmer all of his life until forced to retire on account of ill health. He was a progressive farmer and always had an abundance and was a very liberal man. Two years ago he built an attractive home at Patterson Springs in order to be close to his sons with whom he was a partner in the mercantile business of T. H. Lowery & Co.

The funeral services were conducted Sunday a.m. at 11 o'clock by Rev. John W. Suttle, who was assisted by Rev. J. C. Keeter and the interment took place at Suplhur Springs Methodist Church beside his deceased daughter. In early boyhood he poined the New Hope Baptist Church and was a deacon until he moved his membership to the Patterson Springs Baptist Church where he was a deacon for eight years. The choir of the First Baptist Church rendered several appropriate selections and an abundance of beautiful flowers covered the newly made grave. A great crowd of friends and relatives assembled at Suplhur Springs to pay their past respects to his noble life.

The pall bearers were Messrs. M. R. Biggers, Frank Hoyle, Sam Roberts, Claude McSwain, Solon Roberts and Will Gladden.

“- Capt. F. Dilling of King’s Mountain was in town Wednesday and while here made arrangements with the hotel to furnish a royal dinner to the survivors of Co. H. 49 Regiment sometime this winter. The Captain is anxious to have each one there and if each will kindly leave their name with Capt. W. L. Stowe and state whether or not they can come he will appreciate it. He must know how many dinners to order. If you know any one who belonged to this company tell them of it and state that they will never have a better time than as the guest of Captain Ferno Dilling. The dinner will be in Gastonia as it is more central.”

If you're like me, you look for tidbits about you family in many areas. One area that I have enjoyed looking through is located at our Archives/Library in the vertical files, where volunteers have cut out and placed newspaper clippings in files under topics, headings and subjects. If you have not looked through those files, you are missing out on some very interesting day-to-day information about your ancestors and their community's.

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely under the leadership of Mr. A. J. Williams. The attendance has been small due to weather conditions and the epidemic of influenza, still there has been a great deal of interest shown in the weekly program gotten up by the teachers and also in the teachers meeting each Tuesday night which is lead by Miss Ollie Mae Putnam.

Sunday was the regular preaching day and our pastor Rev. J. W. Suttle preached a very forceful sermon from a text found in the fourteenth chapter of Exodus, "Go Forward." Mr. Suttle earnestly beseeches us that we go forward to do greater and nobler things in the future than we have done in the past.

Mrs. Hamrick the young peoples leader of the W. M. U. association was a most welcomed visitor in our community. She was present at the preaching service and gave a very interest ing address in behalf of the young peoples work. We sincerely hope that Mrs. Hamrick will be with us again in the near future.

Mrs. John Wacaster was a most welcomed visitor in our community Sunday afternoon.

During the Christmas holidays Mrs. Gertrude Street gave a party at her home honoring the college students of our neighborhood who were spending their vacation at home. The guests gathered in the living room where they played a number of games and did several stunts, among which one was especially enjoyed. Mr. Archie Parker and Miss Ola Lee Glascoe were given two suitcases filled with various articles of clothing, jewels and cosmetics and told to walk a given distance, dress, walk back, undress, and neatly pack their suitcases, seeing which one could finish first. This was very funny and brought forth all the stored laughs. After two hours of fun and enjoyment Miss Street served delicious refreshments and the guests went home happy and grateful to Miss Street for the good time she had given them.

Mr. Archie Parker has returned to Wake Forest to take up his work after a very enjoyable holiday at home.

Mr. William Hughes has returned to college to take up his studies after spending a very enjoyable holiday with his parents Mr. and Mr. D. B. Hoyle.

Master Hilton Putnam has returned from an extended visit to friends and relatives in Mississippi and Alabama.

Misses Faye and Ola Mae Glascoe spent several days at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Street.

Miss Flora Hamrick of Grover is visiting in the home of her brother Mr. Lloyd Hamrick.

The friends of Miss Margaret Belle and Mr. Cecil Humphries are congratulating them because of their happy marriage which took place at Gaffney, S. C. Miss Belle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Belle and is a very congenial young lady and is loved by all who know her because of her interest in the boys and girls of our community and her never tiring devotion for her mother. Cecil is known to all of us as a friend and a good old stand by in all worthy undertakings. We wish for them a long and happy life together.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Poston have been confined to their beds with influenza. Mrs. Poston shows slight improvement but it is not hoped that any improvement would be lasting for Mr. Poston because of his condition before the attack of influenza came.

Mrs. Belle Elliott has been sick for some time. We sincerely hope that Mrs. Elliott will soon be out again.

Mrs. Jane Lemons has been sick for some time.

The condition of Mr. W. R. Putnam remains about the same.

Family HISTORY OF BELPRE, OHIO - C.E.DICKINSON, D.D.

MARIETTA, OHIO - 1920

Truman and Stephen Guthrie each recieved a share in the Ohio Co. lands from their father, Joseph Guthrie, of Washington, Conn. They journeyed most of the way to Pittsburgh on foot and by river to Marietta, where they arrived July 3, 1788.

Truman cleared about half an acre near Mound Cemetery (probably the one in Marietta), enclosing it with a brush fence; he sowed about a peck of wheat he had brought from Pa. - said to have been the first sown in Ohio. During the following year they went back to Conn.

In 1791, they returned to Newbury, (Ash Co., Ohio), Stephen with his wife and infant dau., Laura, in company with Eleazer Curtis and family. Later Truman married Elizabeth, dau. of Col. Isreal Stone, of Belpre, taking his wife home in a canoe.

p.80

In 1795, when Belpre Twp. was organized, Stephen Guthrie was appointed Justice of the peace, by the governor.

NOTE: Stephen Guthrie was an early land owner in this area on the Muskingum-Morgan Co. line and was involved in the manufacturing of salt.--SYL
