The Mangrum Family

The oldest proven Mangrum of the family is Isam Green Mangrum born about 1806 in NC (1850 Franklin Co, Ark Cen), Tenn (1880 Logan Co, Ark) or Va according to the source you choose, died in Magazine, Ark and buried at the Old Soldiers Home in Ft. Smith, Ark. His granddaughter, Eva Crumb, says he fought in some wars but didn't know which ones or the dates. I still favor Tenn as the place of his origin and believe he was raised in Maury Co. It is believed that about 1829 or 30 he married Louisa ____? born about 1811 in SC and died about 1851 (she appears on the Franklin Co, Ark 1850 census). The oldest child, James was born 1831 in Miss so Isom Green was in Miss by 1831 and in Ark by 1848 when Isom Green was born. Henry Lonzo Mangrum, according to his daughter Beulah (Mangrum) Cramp said Louisa died (along with a young daughter) while coming down the Mississippi River of Measels. Henry Lonzo's father, Isiah Hamilton had told him this story. The four known children of Isom and Louisa were: (1850 Franklin Co, Ark Census)

-Blackstone analysis #2:

- Frequently, trying to find where a family is in a certain census is a case of proving where it is not. A search of all Blackstones in 1850 AR, SC, MS, MO, LA, TN, AL, & IL did not disclose any new families with a girl Tabatha's age. So, now we have to narrow down the number of possible fathers from the 6 listed in my analysis of 4-12-87: 1) John of 1850 GA, age 38 b. SC, with a daughter, Jane, age 11 b. SC; 2) Zepheniah of 1850 GA, age 47 b. GA, with daughter, Sophronia, age 11 b. GA; 3) Thomas of 1840 GA, who was not in GA 1850; 4) Sarah of 1840 GA, who was not in 1850 GA; 5) Bennington B. of 1840 GA, who was not in 1850 GA; and 6) Frances of 1840 GA, who was not in 1850 GA.
- Sarah Blackstone was 60-70 in 1840; by 1850, she probably had died.
- Frances was 50-60 in 1840, with no young children; she too was gone by 1850.
- Thomas was 15-20 in 1840, with no children.
- Bennington B. had 2 daughters the right age in 1840; he was 20-30. He was not in 1850 GA, but he was there in 1860. I did not find him in any other state in 1850. He is still a possible father of Tabitha, if he moved to AR ca. 1850 and back to GA by 1860. The 1860 Census detail and Poinsett Co AR land records might prove or disprove this.
- Zepheniah was in the 1850 and 1860 Census of GA. To be Tabitha's father, he too had to move to AR by 1854 and back to GA by 1860. AR land records may prove it.
- One new fact may help eliminate Zepheniah as father of Tabitha: In the 1860 Census of Poinsett Co. AR, pg. 538 #39 was J.H. Blackston 24 male b. SC, with his wife Mary 22 b. GA and children, James 2 b. AR and John 3 months b. AR. In the same County, pg 543 #72 was Littleberry Mangrum and #76 were Isaac and Tabitha. If Tabitha was not b. in GA, but in SC by way of GA, then J.H. could be her brother. (Census birth places were often wrong, since data may have come from a child or a neighbor.) Zepheniah had no son, J. age 13-16, but John of 1850 Cobb Co GA did. His wife was Malissa 38b. SC and his older sons were John T. 19 b. SC and James 16 b. SC and, of course, Jane 11 b. SC. So for now, (Tabitha) Jane is most likely to be your Tabitha. The names of the sons of J.H. also substantiate this.
- In 1850 AL, Chambers Co. pg. 314 #690 I found John Blackston 71 b. VA (1779) with wife #2? Mary 50 b. GA and 4 daughters still at home, 3 b. in GA and 1 b. AL in 1839. This is J. Blackston of 1820 GA and probably John, son of Wenefred and grandson of Zackry James.
- In 1850 AL, Tuscaloosa Co. pg. 259 #962 was J.W. Blackstone 40 b. GA with children b. 1832-34 GA and 1836-43 AL. This is not James of 1830 GA, but he could be his son.
- In 1850 TN, Monroe Co. pg. 72 #998 was Argil Blackston 60 b. TN and family, all b. TN. He is not close family to Argyle of GA, but he is bound to be kin.

-Lovell analysis #1:

- Eustacia Lovell b. ca. 1811-15 TN m. ca 1827-32 Maury Co TN? Littleberry Mangrum. The first Census available for TN (1820) listed 15 Lovell(1)s in the following Cos: Sumner (5), Overton (3), Davison (3), Rutherford (1), Williamson (1), Giles (1), and Robertson (1). Of all these, 11 had daughters under 10 (Eustacia's age then). One, George of Giles Co. is reported to be the father of Eustacia. Giles, Sumner, Davison and Rutherford Counties are fairly close to Maury Co.
- In 1830 TN, Gilley Lovell lived in Maury Co. pg. 338, but the daughters were 1-under 5 and 1-5 to 10; none were old enough to be Eustacia. Nearby lived James Mangrum, pg.365, Littleberry, pg.369, Edwin, pg. 386 and William, pg.386. This Littleberry was not the husband of Eustacia, but his uncle b. 1780. All the others were sons of Isham: Edwin was 20 and had 2 small children. William was 24-28 with a wife, but no children. James was only 18-20, but married and the head of his household. In this household was an older brother, age 20-30, possibly Isom Green (Single) and 2 younger brothers ages 10-15. Your Littleberry was 15-16. Also in this house were an older sister, about 30 (or their father's 2nd wife) and three younger women- 2 age 5-10 and 1 age 10-15. It is possible that Littleberry and Eustacia were already married or that she was a domestic in the house.
- In 1840 TN John J., James and William Mangrum headed families in Maury Co, but Edwin and Littleberry were not there. However, in Shelby Co. pg. 230 was a "B" Mangrum. I'll get the Census data later, but I'll bet it was Berry (Littleberry) and Eustacia. There were no Lovells in Maury or Shelby Co. but George W. was in Washington Co. pg. 251.
- In 35,000 TN Marriages, Vol 2, pg. 313, George W. Lovell m. Elizabeth Hunter 16 Dec 1847, Dickson Co. This may be George of 1820 with a 2nd wife or a new one
- Tracewell analysis #1:
  - In Mangrum #3 we find that in 1850 IL, only St. Clair Co. had both Tracewell and Cox families. In looking for the ancestors of Orville Tracewell Cox, it is safe to assume that Tracewell was a maternal name- the maiden name of his mother, a grandmother, or a great grandmother. Orville was b. Feb. 1898 in White Co. AR. a son of William H. Cox b. Jun 1862 IL (both parents b. IL) and Susan _____ b. Oct 1872 AR (both parents b. TN).
  - In a book detailing the 1850 Census of St Clair Co. IL were the following: Artimacy Tracewell was 25 b. Ohio, single, pg. 325x. Edward Tracewell was 52 b. VA. pg. 388, and was possibly the father or uncle of Artimacy. His wife was Margaret 38 b. TN with sons: William R. 11, George 9, Thomas 8, and St. Clair 6, all b. St. Clair Co. IL. Older daughters 15 and 17 were also b. St. Clair Co. So the family was there well before 1840. Several Cox families also lived in St. Clair Co. in 1850. The older ones included Charles 58 b. VA and John A. 40 b. TN. Others were from PA, NY and IL. I found no Tracewells in 1840 IL, but Edward had to be there. In 1830 VA 2 Arnolds and 2 Edwards headed families on pg. 402 Wood Co.(now W. VA.) near the Ohio border and William was on pg. 84, Shenandoah Co. on the boarder next to W. VA. In 1830 OH Benjamin was on pg. 16 Richland Co.(N. Central). In 1820 OH, Elizabeth Tracewell was on pg. 185A Richland Co.
  - In 1820 VA, Ann Tracewell headed a family in Kanawah Co. (near Wood Co.) W. VA. and Darcus headed one in Shenandoah Co. Although I found no Tracewells in 1810. 1800 or 1790 VA. these are not reliable. A search of all other states that existed in 1820, 1800 and 1790 led to no Tracewells.
  - My conclusion is that the Tracewells started in the mountains of W. VA where Edward of 1850 IL was b. ca. 1798. They migrated to Ohio (1820-30) and to IL (1830-50). Edward was still in W. VA in 1830, although his kin, Benjamin, had already gone to OH. Edward may have visited his uncle in OH on his way to IL by 1830-33.

Dear Mr. Bush:

Received your letter with the data and wish to thank you. I also hope you will excuse my not so punctual response as I am undergoing radiation therapy and must admit that it knocks the stuffings out of me at times. I have pretty well put together the information you requested. When I was at work I was either busy or had left the stuff I wanted to copy at home. I still would like to know something of this cousin. Is she a elderly person? I believe that right in Jonesboro Ark today there are probably plenty of descendents of Isham's and Patsy. There should certainly be some Sharps. This Roberta Sloan must be quite young as she says Isham & Martha a like her 4th great grandparents.

I certainly wish that the descendents of Henry Mangum could really put together as to who their progenitor was for sure.

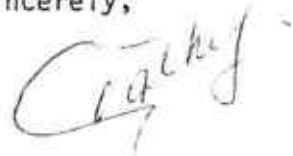

I have been corresponding with a woman in McKinleysville, CA who said that one of her great grandfathers was Henry L. Mangum and he married either an Elizabeth or a Jane. I don't have her charts with me but I will check and make sure and let you know. She is probably another breakoff from this family. I had never considered this Isham Green Mangum mainly because I had never heard of him before but--- one gal doing research for me in Utah had sent some family charts of his. Now that I look at the charts closer it is a chart from Don Stutters so evidently he is putting his data into the Mormon Church. Is he by chance Mormon?

I have as I said located cousins who are either descended from Jeremiah Davis or William Mangrum and Mary Davis. One is in Eads Tennessee and the other is in Tulsa Oklahoma.

Look over the chart and tell me what you think. In some places it keeps going back to one chart mainly because of who is carried over such as Joseph Mangrum or Isham or a William born in 1706. I have a complete book on a John Mangum and his descendents which I purchased from some place in Utah also. I believe they are the Mormon branch of the Mangums.

Must get this in the mail. Do hope to get the charts of your friends real soon and do write again soon.

Sincerely,

MANGRUM/RIDGEWAY FAMILIES, #5

The following is an analysis of #1 through #4 to see what relationships we can infer:

1. Littleberry Mangrum, whose will reference is in the IGI data attached to #4, is probably the Littleberry who came to Maury County, TN, in 1809 (#2, page 2) and may well be the one who married Clara Jordan, 22 JAN 1807 (#2, page 2). For sure, his children, who were alive when his will was written, were George W. C. (if he married in 1849, he was born ca 1829); John J. (if he married in 1839, he was born ca 1819); Moriah, and William D. (if he married 1842, he was born ca 1822). Any daughters named in the will would have been listed in the IGI by their married name. The wife was seldom named in early wills. The eldest son was seldom named in early wills, so Littleberry, born ca 1814 VA/TN, could still be a son of this Littleberry.
2. Henry Mangrum of 1820, TN (#1, page 2), who was in Maury County by 1816 (#2, page 2) and who was born 1770-1790 (by the census data) was probably Henry, born 24 JAN 1773, Surry County, VA (IGI data attached to #4) and the Henry who married Nancy Harrison on 9 FEB 1801, Greensville County, VA. He was a son of William and Mary Mangum of VA. This William may have been the William in the IGI, born 16 May 1736, Surry County. He may be the William, son of James and Mary Mangum, who was christened ca 1746. Henry and Littleberry (above) were probably brothers.
3. We need to prove or disprove that your line is Littleberry, born 1814, VA --- Edwin, born 1775-90, VA or Henry, born 1773, VA or Marthy, born ??? --- Henry, born 1750, VA, or Littleberry of 1809 TN and 1801 VA who married Clara Jordan --- William (Wm), born 1736? and (and Mary?) --- James, born before 1716 and Mary --- John of 1704, VA.
4. The Cox family on #4 lived up near Chicago, but there are too many first names common with your line to not be family.

Dear Rod,

You are the second person to respond to my query in "The Helper". Both wanted information on Mourning Mangum's first husband when I wanted information on her parents. That's the way it goes though.

I'll tell you what little I know about her first husband and if you ever find out what her maiden name was let me know, please.

Mourning's first husband was Richard Mangum. I believe the correct spelling was probably MANGAM. That would be Irish I guess but is almost always spelled MANGUM in the records I have seen.

As far as I know they only had one child, Holly MANGUM who married John WARD 19 March 1801 in Isle of Wight County, VA. They moved to Smith County, TN shortly thereafter.

Richard MANGUM was the son of Henry MANGUM Sr, who was born 1723-1728 VA. He had ten children according to my information, but only eight of them are named in his will abstract.

This information comes primarily from "Wills and Administrations of Isle of Wight County, VA Volumes I, II and III". Henry Sr's wife (at least one of them) was named Constant and he had a brother named Joseph. Their father was probably John MANGUM whose estate was ordered appraised 26 September 1737 and was returned to the court 28 November 1737. This appraisal was signed by Frances MANGUM who I believe was his wife. The will of Richard BENNETT dated 30 March 1720 says grand daughter Frances is wife of John MANGUM. Will of Sarah LANCASTER dated 31 October 1722 says Sarah and Mary MANGUM are daughters of John MANGUM. This paragraph is mostly speculation on my part but someone who knows the MANGUM line should be able to figure it out from the above publications.

Someone who may be able to help is Duveene McDONALD, 1952 Columbine Ct, Golden, CO 80401. She is a distant Cousin of mine and she is descended from Holly MANGUM and John WARD.

I understand that there is a MANGUM BULLETIN published by James L. PARHAM. You can probably reach him through Chaty TUFTS, 9318 13th Place S.E., Everett, WA 98205.

I hope this information helps you more than it confuses you. If I can be of further help just let me know. Good luck. Sincerely,

Kenneth

- Blackstone analysis from Census records, etc:
- From the 1860 Poinsett Co. Census (Mangrum#6), we find that Isaac Mangrum was 22 b. TN. married to Tabitha (Blackstone) 21 b. GA. (b. 1838-9). Their first son (William) Frank was b. AR 1856-7, so his parents were married ca. 1855, probably in Poinsett Co. AR. The Goodspeed's data (Mangrum# 2) said the Mangrums came to Poinsett Co. from TN. in 1854. If Tabitha married at age 17, her parents must have also lived in Poinsett Co. by then. I have not finished searching 1860 AR. for Blackstones, but in 1850, only one family was there (from TN.) but no where near Poinsett Co. A search of MS, AL, & TN 1850 also has produced no families that could be Tabitha's. If they were not in AR, TN, MS, or AL in 1850, then they had to still be in GA. A search of 1850 GA found no Blackstone family with a daughter, Tabitha, but two had girls the right age. (Tabitha might be a middle name.) John Blackstone age 38 b. SC was in Cobb Co. with a daughter, Jane 11, also b. SC. Zepheniah Blackstone 47 b. GA. was in Richmond Co. with a daughter, Sophronia, 11 b. GA. However, this family was still there in 1860. Tabitha Sophronia would be quite a name!
- Richmond Co. GA. seems to be the point of origin of all the GA. Blackstones. In 1850, five of the six Blackstone families were there. In 1840 (the first Census after Tabitha was born,) five heads of households were in Richmond Co: Zepheniah, Thomas, Sarah, James and Argyle all lived in the same area. Three more lived in nearby Columbia Co: Bennington, Frances and James W. I will look at the microfilm to see which ones had a daughter Tabitha's age in 1840 (1-3). Of the eight families in 1840, four were not in the 1850 GA Census: Thomas, Sarah, Bennington and Frances. I did find a Thomas, an Argyle and a B.W. Blackstone in TN 1850 and a J.W. in AL 1850. In 1860 GA. I found Argyle, B.B., James, James W, Thomas and Zepheniah. Still missing were Sarah and Frances. If Frances was indeed female (not misspelled), then either she or Sarah could have been the widowed mother of Tabitha and remarried or died before 1850.
- In 1830 GA. James and Zepheniah headed the only Blackstone families in Richmond Co. And in 1820, J. Blackstone was the only family head. The 1818 Tax List of GA. lists Argyle and James as family heads. GA. wills 1733-1866 lists a Frances Blackstone who d. 1841 in Columbia Co. (Frances of 1840?) In 40,000 GA. Early Marriages, I found that Argyle Blackstone married Sarah Burges 7 Jan 1819 (Sarah of 1840?) and James Blackstone married Rebecca Newman 8 Sep 1818. (Argyle and James were probably brothers.)
- Another James Blackstone married Catherine Harvey 11 Apr 1799. In the GA. D.A.R. Collection Vol. 1. the Will of Zackry James was probated Mar. 8, 1790, named his wife, Mary, sons, a daughter, (widow) Wenefred Blackstone, and her sons, John and James. A later record of 4 Nov 1797 said Winny Blackstone m. Basil Morann. In the 1790 GA. Census Substitutes, Winfred Blackstone received a Headright & Bounty Land Grant 1790-95 in Richmond Co. To receive such a grant, she was possibly a widow of a Revolutionary War soldier. (I will look into this.) The Second GA Land Lottery (1807) lists Argyle Blackstone as having a successful draw in Richmond Co. To get one draw he had to be single, of age and in GA at least three years, or be a minor son of a deceased Revolutionary War Vet.
- Back to the other lead: John Blackstone of 1850 GA. b. SC. Living next to Argyle (b. 1800 GA.) in 1850 Richmond Co. was James 56 b. SC (b. 1794) The 1800 Census of SC lists 2 Blackstones, James and Isam, in Barnwell District. James had a son b. 1790-1800. Barnwell Co. SC is right across the State line from Richmond Co GA. I found no Blackstones in 1790 SC or VA, but in 1790 NC Newbern Dist, Pitt Co. were John Thomas and James Blackston, Sr. Between them they had 12 sons - plenty to be the ancestors of those of SC and some GA.
