STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,

Cleveland County

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT.

A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Fannie Neal deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by

M. C. Neal the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Fannie Neal, was proven by the oath and examination of Miles H. Ware and J. H. Ward the subscribing witness thereto: who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deposes and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of

Fannie Neal that the said Fannie Neal

in the presence of this deponent subscribed her name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 2nd day of Sept. 1907

And the Deponent Further Saith, That the said Fannie Neal

the testatrix aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said

Fannie Neal was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.
