"Warning out of Town"

WARNINGS.---The custom of "warning out of town" prevailed throughout the Province. When a person not an inhabitant came to town to reside, sometimes only for an extended visit, the person into whose family or tenement he came, was required to give notice to the Selectmen, of the name of the person or persons, the place he came from, his pecuniary circumstances and the time he came to town. Knowing these facts, the town authorities would in their discretion let them remain or order them to be warned out of town. The object of this was to prevent their gaining a settlement and becoming a public charge. No regard was paid to age, character or sex so far as the notice of coming was concerned; but in the warning, or "cutting out," a discretion was used.

There was a formality in the process of "warning out of town" which will appear in the following example.

"Middlesex, ss.

To Mr. Joseph Howe, Jr., Constable for the Town of Marlborough, in said County;

GREYED:

In his Majesty's name you are hereby required forthwith to warn the several persons hereafter mentioned, forthwith to depart out of the town of Marlborough, viz., Abraham Carly and Susanna his wife, and their children, viz., Mary, Moses, Joel, Martha and Job; David Flint; Amariah Knight and Jane his wife; Mrs. Abigail Arbutnot, and Martha Parmenter. And to make inquiry into their circumstances, and from whence they last came to this town:

Hereof fail not, and make return of this warrant, with your doings thereon, as soon as may be, unto the Select-men."

Dated, etc., and signed by all the Selectmen, and the report of Joseph Howe, Jr.
