

PARROTT FAMILY TREE

by
Jimmie Norris Parrott

Descendants of Henry VIII Tudor

Generation No. 1

1. Henry VIII Tudor.

Notes for Henry VIII Tudor:

Henry Tudor succeeded to the Throne of England in 1509.

John Tudor Perrot was the illegitimate son of King Henry VIII and Mary Berkeley (Perrot).

Child of Henry VIII Tudor is:

2. i. John Tudor Perrott.

Generation No. 2

2. John Tudor Perrott (Henry VIII Tudor). He married Sybil Jones.

Notes for John Tudor Perrott:

Generations 1 through 7 lack confirmation.

Sir John Perrott was the illegitimate son of King Henry VIII and Mary Berkeley (Perrott).

The Magna Charter Dames Pedigree of Emily Ingram Cade shows that Sir John Perrott had a son, Sir Thomas Perrott. Also another brother, Sir Owen Perrott. From these brothers a number of Colonial families are descended.

Lineage of Sir John Perrott, Lord Deputy of Ireland, of Castle Carew and Haroldstone, Co. Pembroke, Wales. This lineage recorded in County Hereford, England.

John attended Gray's Inn in London.

Perrott of Yestington and Haroldstone, Co. Pembroke, Wales

The Name PERROT - came with William the Conqueror

Child of John Perrott and Sybil Jones is:

3. i. John Quaker Perrott.

Generation No. 3

3. John Quaker Perrott (John Tudor, Henry VIII Tudor). He married Prunella Unknown.

saw. He cut and kept sharpened the saw teen on the end of the cylindrical saws.

The saw was inserted in the heavy mandrel and locked in with the long pointed wedge. The mandrel was connected to the machine. When the power was turned on, the saw rotated rapidly, cutting through the hard shell held in place by the operator with his tong. The button blanks were ejected from the saw by the wooden mallet of the corresponding size.

Button blanks were then sent to factories where they were polished and made into the finished "pearl buttons." There were three button factories located in Newport and at the peak of the button boom, there were 200 button cutters working in Newport. This flourishing business lasted for about 40 years until the advent of plastic buttons ended the demand for the "pearl button".

Notes for John Quaker Perrott:

From the Dictionary of National Biography: John Perrot d, 1665, born in Ireland, possibly descended from Sir John Perrot.

Another source, "Friends Intelligence", 1909, pg. 675 records "John Perrott was probably born near Waterford Ireland and it has been stated he was the illegitimate son of Sir John Perrott (died 1592) who was an illegitimate son of King Henry VIII". It is thought that John Perrot in Nanesmond County, Virginia, was the Quaker and son of Sir John and was the same John Perrot of Paraketo Point. It is more than probable that he returned to Ireland during the 1650s, embraced the Quaker faith, and after his troublesome time in Ireland, England, and Rome, returned to Nanesmond County.

Child of John Perrott and Prunella Unknown is:

4. i. Robert Perrott.

Generation No. 4

4. Robert Perrott (John Quaker. John Tudor, Henry VIII Tudor). He married Unknown.

Notes for Robert Perrott:

In 1635 John of Paraketo Point and a number of other Parrotts who had arrived in Virginia by this time may have been grown sons of John of Paraketo Point; Richard of Middlesex; William and Francis of Maryland; and Robert who is thought to have lived in Westmoreland and whose descendents are later in Gloucester and Northumberland counties in Virginia. (from the Dictionary of National Biography)

Child of Robert Perrott and Unknown is:

5. i. Lawrence Sr. Parrott.

Generation No. 5

5. Lawrence Sr. Parrott (Robert Perrott, John Quaker, John Tudor, Henry VIII Tudor). He married Unknown.

Note for Lawrence Sr. Parrott:

Those who received land patents and headrights in Virginia:

Lawrence Parrott received 150 acres in Kingston Parrish, Gloster (Gloucester Co., Va.) in 1678 and again received land patent ca. 1690.

Lawrence Parrott named as having 340 acres in Gloucester Rent Rolls, in Kingston Parrish, in 1704.

Also named as having land in Gloucester County, 1704 was Michael Parrott, 100 acres. This Michael, said in some notes, no proof, to have been the son of Robert Parrott.

Child of Lawrence Parrott and Unknown is:

6. i. Lawrence Jr. Parrott.

Generation No. 6

6. Lawrence Jr. Parrott (Lawrence Sr., Robert Perrott, John Quaker, John Tudor, Henry VIII Tudor). He married Mary Howson.

Thomas Nance was a farmer of Bird Township. He was born in Cape Girardeau County, MO, in 1849, the youngest of fifteen children born to Thomas Nance and his wife. Thomas was a farmer of North Carolina, and 1846 came to Missouri, bought land and improved it; he also bought land in Butler County, Mo., and in March 1861, came to Jackson County, AR, moving to Cache Township in 1866, and then to Independence County, where he bought land near Fairview, which he made his home till his death in August, 1874. His wife died when our subject was an infant. Grandfather Nance died at the age of one hundred fifteen, in North Carolina; the grandmother died in the same state, at the age of one hundred and fourteen. The subject of this sketch was raised on the farm, receiving his education in the subscription schools of Missouri. In 1861, he came to Jackson County, and aided in clearing and improving the home farm. In September, 1864, in Jackson County, he enlisted in Capt. Steen's company, and was with Gen. Price on his raid through Missouri. He was in the battles of Pilot Knob and Kansas City, returning home in 1865, and engaged in farming. In August 1866, he married Sarah Cheshire, of Jackson County, daughter of Jonathan and Nancy (Seiner) Cheshier, natives of North Carolina, and early settlers of Jackson County. Both died some years ago.

After his marriage, Mr. Nance settled on Black River, this township, and later moved to Tuckerman and engaged in farming. His excellent wife died in October, 1877, leaving three children: George W (married and residing in Lawrence County), Mollie (now Mrs. Parrott, of this county) and Savannah (at home). In 1881, Mr. Nance married Rebecca Goodman, of Tennessee, whose father was one of the early settlers of this county. Both her parents are dead. Mr. Nance has resided on his present place since 1880. He owns a good farm of eighty acres, forty acres of which are under cultivation. He is a Democrat and active in politics, being now county coroner; was bailiff of Bird Township two years, also deputy sheriff for two years, and has always taken an interest in school matters, and all enterprises for the good of his county aiding liberally in such matters. He is a member of the Masonic order, belonging to Kirkpatrick Lodge No. 192 at Tuckerman, and was Senior Deacon in 1888. He is also a member of Jacksonport Chapter, and a member of the Eastern Star order, as is his wife. They are both members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Perry Parrott's mother was Louella Majors. Formerly Louella Parrott. Maiden name – Louella Rainey.

Two aunts of Perry Parrott were Mrs. Harry Ponder and Mrs. Roe Tims.

The following appeared in a local newspaper:

PERRY PARROTT VICTIM OF FEUD—Former Citizen of Tuckerman is killed at Marked Tree by Man Who Shot Him Years Ago. —Perry Parrott aged about 35 years, was shot and killed near Marked Tree Monday evening at 7 o'clock by a man named Greene, ending a feud that existed between the two several years. The body will be brought to Tuckerman, the home of Parrott, and burial will take place tomorrow. Parrott was son of Mrs. John Majors of Tuckerman. Mrs. Majors, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Harry Ponder, and Mrs. Roe Tims, an aunt of the dead man, left immediately for Marked Tree after learning of the killing, and will accompany the body to Tuckerman.

The shooting of Parrott was said to have been the result of trouble that started between Greene and Parrott several years ago. About a year ago Greene shot Parrott with a pistol, three bullets taking effect, but the wounds were not serious. It was said that Parrott and Greene lately had renewed their troubles and that they met in the road Monday evening about 7 o'clock. Greene was said to have opened fire and emptied his gun in the body of Parrott, all six shots taking effect, death resulting instantly.

Parrott was born and reared in Bird township. He was married and leaves a wife and two small sons. It is said that Greene is under arrest at Marked Tree.
