PREFACE

This history of David Roe of Flushing, Long Island, and some of his descendants had its inception about twenty years ago, when the compiler sought information relating to the lineage of his mother's grandfather, Charles Roe, who died near South Bend, Ind., Aug. 18, 1838. Before the lineage was clearly established a number of clues were investigated and considerable material relating to the early history of the Roe families in America was secured. As there was no history of the Flushing Roes and their descendants in print it seemed desirable to extend the scope of the investigation and to prepare an account of this branch of the family for publication. To this end public records have been examined and information from members of the family, now widely scattered, has been secured. In preparing the history for publication it has been decided to limit this edition to the first six generations. It is hoped that a second edition will be issued in the not distant future which will include not only the later history of the family, but also additional information relating to the first six generations. All persons having additional information, or corrections, are earnestly requested to communicate with the compiler.

In this connection attention is called to the fact that a history of the descendants of John Roe of Brookhaven, Long Island, is in preparation. Members of this branch of the Roe family are invited to send copies of their records to the undersigned so that the history, when published, may be reliable and as complete as possible.

To the many correspondents who have manifested their interest in this family record the compiler wishes to express his appreciation for their cooperation.

DAVID ROE AND DESCENDANTS

1 DAVID¹ ROE,* immigrant ancestor of one branch of the Roe family in the United States of America, was an early settler at Flushing, Long Island, where he is mentioned in the tax or "rate list" of 1675. Owing to the destruction of the Flushing land records by fire in 1789, the year in which he became a resident of the town is unknown, but it was probably about 1666. His wife Mary was living in 1698, when the New York Provincial Census was taken, but she is not mentioned in his will, dated Dec. 26, 1702. He was a carpenter and farmer. He was among the well-to-do citizens of Flushing, owning lands, farm stock, carpenter's tools, and two slaves, "Sam" and "Hannah." He died before July 12, 1707, when his will was proved.

Children:

- i Elizabeth,² b. about 1668; m. about 1688, Samuel Tatem of Flushing. They had four children. She d. Dec. 4, 1699, according to the records of the Society of Friends. He m. (2) Mary Southwick, Dec. 13, 1701.
- 2 ii Nathaniel, b. about 1670; m. (1) Elizabeth ———; m. (2) Mercy (———) Price.
- 3 iii John, b. about 1672; m. (1) ———; m. (2) Grace (———) Ward.
- iv Mary, b. about 1677; she was single in 1698, when the census was taken, but m. before Dec. 26, 1702, ——— Smith, according to her father's will.

2 NATHANIEL² ROE (David¹), born about 1670, probably at Flushing, N. Y.; married (1) about 1694, Elizabeth ———; after her death he married (2) Mercy (———) Price, a widow, whose daughter Susanna became the wife of his son William.

Nathaniel Roe inherited all of his father's lands in Flushing and he probably added to his holdings by purchase. His will, dated May 25, 1726, proved Aug. 2, 1738, mentions his wife Mercy, his five sons and his wife's

*He was probably a brother of John Roe of Brookhaven, Long Island, who also named his sons John and Nathaniel and daughters Elizabeth and Mary. A history of the John Roe branch of the family is in preparation. Attention is also called to the fact that a revised and enlarged edition of the history of the David Roe line may be published. See Preface for further information.

THE ROE FAMILY IN AMERICA

daughter Susan or Susanna Price. His children were probably all by his first wife.

Children born in Flushing:

- 4 i David, b. about 1695; m. Deborah ———.
- 5 ii Nathaniel, b. about 1702; m. Mary ———.
- 6 iii William, b. about 1705; m. Susanna Price.
- iv John, b. about 1709; living in 1726, when his father made his will.
- 7 v Benjamin, b. about 1712; m. Ruth Miller.

✓ 3 JOHN² ROE (David¹), born about 1672, probably at Flushing, N. Y.; he bought land in Gloucester County, N. J., Oct. 1, 1696, and another tract, Oct. 5, 1696; removed to New Jersey before March 1, 1697-8, when he is mentioned as a resident of Gloucester County. Apr. 2, 1710, when his wife Grace was baptized in the First Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia, she is called "Grace Roe wife of John of Cohanzy," from which it appears that he then resided in Salem County, N. J. He returned to Gloucester Township, Gloucester Co., N. J., before Aug. 10, 1711, when his will was made. He died before Oct. 9, 1711, when the inventory of his personal estate was taken.

The name of John Roe's first wife* is unknown. His second wife was Grace (———) Ward, widow of William Ward of Upton, Gloucester County, N. J. The second marriage took place between Sept. 1, 1702 and Apr. 2, 1710. The widow of John Roe lived in Evesham Township, Burlington County, N. J., for a number of years, but returned to Gloucester County before her death. She died intestate before Jan. 25, 1758, the date of her probate.

Children mentioned in John Roe's will:

- 7 8 i John, b. about 1694; m. Elizabeth Siex (Sikes or Sykes?).
- ii Benjamin.
 - iii Deborah.
 - iv Susanna.
 - v Uriah.
 - 9 vi Henry, b. 1705; m. Hannah Cheesman.

*John Roe, in his will, Aug. 10, 1711, named his "trusty friend John Hedger" as one of his executors. David Roe, son of John Roe, in his will, Feb. 14, 1783, appoints his "Trusty Friend and Relation John Hedger" as one of his executors. The John Hedger mentioned by David Roe appears to have been a grandson of the John Hedger who was living in 1711. There was a Hedger family at Flushing at an early date. These records seem to indicate that one of John Roe's wives was a Hedger or related to the Hedger family.

14 JOHN¹ ROE (David¹ Nathaniel² David³), born, presumably, about 1727, at Flushing, N.Y.; married Grietje Stryt; resided in Goshen Township, Orange County, N.Y., for many years. He died after Apr. 15, 1794, when he is mentioned in a letter from Susanna Roe, wife of Capt. Nathaniel Roe, to her sister Abigail Haviland. No authoritative list of all of John Roe's children has been found. The following list is tentative.

Children:

- 35 i Ezekiel, b. ———; m. Mary Budd.
- ii Solomon, b. ———; committed suicide, Oct. 7, 1800, in New York City. He left a note from which it appears that his mother was then living. He was probably a bachelor.

✓ 20 WILLIAM¹ ROE (John² John² David³), born about 1739, at Hempstead or Oyster Bay, Long Island; married Mary Feke,⁴ daughter of Charles and Catherine (Tillear or Tilley) Feke, of Oyster Bay (mar. lic. Mar. 24, 1764). She was born Oct. 20, 1743. William Roe was a "cordwainer" (shoemaker) and resided in Lattingtown, Oyster Bay Township, for a number of years. He was a patriot during the Revolution and was compelled to leave his home after the British secured possession of Long Island. He came from Stamford, Conn., in 1782, under a flag of truce, to remove his family, according to the military records. He is mentioned as a sergeant in the early days of the Revolution. He was captured Dec. 11, 1782, by the Hessians and probably remained a prisoner until the close of the war.

In 1788 he was living near Maysville, Ky., as appears from a petition signed by him and others in that year. His name is found in the land records of Mason County, Kentucky, in subsequent years. He was living there as late as Apr. 20, 1811, when he bought some land. The records do not mention the sale of this land and there is no record of the settlement of his estate in Mason County probate or land records. His wife Mary was, apparently, living in 1810, when the census was taken.

⁴This family name is spelled Feake, Feke, Feeks, etc., in various records.
