The first son was named for his Father's Father
The second son was named for his Mother's Father
The third son was named for his Father
The fourth son was named for his Father's oldest Brother
The fifth son was named for his Mother's oldest Brother

The first daughter was named for her Mother's Mother
The second daughter was named for her Father's Mother
The third daughter was named for her Mother
The fourth daughter was named for her Mother's oldest Sister
The fifth daughter was named for her Father's oldest Sister

After the first five sons and daughters many families passed on the names of the childrens aunts and uncles as well as aunts and uncles of the parents. Grandfather's Brother will have a namesake too, in a large family. Then, of coarse, you must also account for the Dear Friend and the Neighbor, and the Doctor AND the Indian Chief.
