Martin and Margaret Sheets of North Carolina had a large family, many of whom settled in the Miami Valley. Beers' History of Montgomery County, Ohio, (1882), states that David, William and Martin Sheets came from Rowan County, N.Car., in 1795, probably brothers, but no record has been found of William or Martin, Jr.

David Sheets came to Ohio with the Masts and Hoovers about 1802. He returned to North Carolina in 1808, to bring "his aged and infirm parents, Margaret and Martin Sheets to Ohio; they arrived on Apr. 20, 1808, after a trip of about thirty days and resided with him until their death. Martin died Mar. 25, 1810; the mother, Margaret died Nov. 14, 1820." (Court Records). On Apr. 2, 1810, David Sheets, duly sworn, deposeth, "that his mother, Margaret Sheets is very old and infirm and wishes the said David to take out letters of administration on the estate of Martin Sheets, dec'd, his father, as she declines to take upon herself the administration of the estate." The inventory was filed July 12, 1811. (Montgomery County Court Records, Book C. p 83, File No. 235).

David Sheets, born Nov. 5, 1785, died Aug. 12, 1851; married, Aug. 19, 1807, Rebecca Mast, born June 6, 1790, died Sept. 12, 1839, daughter of Capt. David and Nancy (Ware) Mast. (David a son of John Mast, Sr.) They had issue -
