Dear Sir/Madam:

Following up on family genealogy whilst in London this past summer, I copied from the Registers the names of all individuals by the name of Sturch who had died during the period 1837-1874. As you will see, most of these seem to be located in the middle area of England - Oxfordshire, Warwickshire, Worcestershire and a few from London area.

Knowing the difficulties of genealogical research, it seemed a pity to keep this information just for myself, so I pass it on in the event it perhaps may assist someone in the future. I have, of course, retained copy for myself.

You may ~~also~~ know that the General Registry Office in London which used to be known as Somerset House has ~~removed~~ moved many of its records to a new location - St. Katherine's House, Kingsway, from where I obtained the attached information. I am sure you know that everything is indexed and relatively easy to locate a name if you know approximate time period.

Cordially,

(Mrs.) Frances Vose
