

he died in Wilkes and left no estate. Of this I am certain: No record of this estate can be found in the Ordinary's Office in Wilkes Co., though tax records may refer to Dudley, dec'd. Dudley Reynolds did not have land in Wilkes Co., but Harman, his brother did. The Reynolds problem is unusual. They appear to contact those of Columbia Co.

I find a Harmon Runnalds in the 1785 Taxable Property List in Capt Hagan's Dist., Wilkes Co.: 1 poll, 1 slave, 400 acres in Wilkes Co., 287½ acres Washington Co., GA.

MOORE - Mrs. Louette Vaughn, 3276 Hampton Green Way, Atlanta, GA 30340-4479, 770/938-9497; is seeking information on the HUGH MOORE, JOSEPH MOORE, ROBERT MOORE, PATRICK MOORE, and ALEXANDER MOORE families in Halifax Co., VA between 1752 and 1767. All owned property on the Dan River in the vicinity of Miry Creek, Birch Creek, Toby Creek, and Byrd Creek, southwest of the present day South Boston, VA. How were these families related?

Mrs. Vaughn descends from BURT (BERT) MOORE, b. ca. 1756 in Halifax Co., VA, d. Apr. 23, 1836 in Pickens Dist., SC. Burt m. 1st ca. 1786 Miss BRUCE, dau. of JAMES BRUCE of Pickens Dist., SC; and 2nd Feb. 1, 1797 MARY GLENN, dau. of WILLIAM GLENN of Pickens Dist., SC. According to Burt's pension application filed in SC in 1833 for Revolutionary War Service, he was about 77 years old and was born in Halifax Co., VA, and moved to Spartanburg Dist. of SC as a boy of 8-10 years of age with his father (his name not listed on application). Burt named his oldest son, JOSEPH and his youngest son, HUGHEY. Who was Burt's father?

 BIBLE RECORDS

MATTHEW DUETT THOMASON FAMILY BIBLE RECORD. Submitted by Mrs. Doris Thomason Parker (Mrs. Langdon C. Parker, Jr.), 2618 Wildwood Dr., Montgomery, AL

36111 (1992). This Bible was given by her gg grandfather Matthew to his daughter Caroline Thomason Giddens in 1860. M.D. Thomason was a Methodist minister, and most of the men who performed the marriages and baptisms were also, so was able to consult the Methodist Conference Minutes and find out where the ministers were located when the ceremonies were performed. As noted in the Bible, M.D. Thomason's father was John Thomason, "six years an officer in the Revolutionary War." He does not name his mother, and none of the researchers on this line have been able to prove who she was. Could this minister have given each of his children a Bible with family records, possibly naming his mother? If anyone has one of these Bibles, contact her. Bible published in 1857 by the American Bible Society, New York. Mrs. Parker examined this Bible on April 14, 1987 at the home of Frances Prater Tucker, 3006 17th St., Ensley, Birmingham, AL 35208. Mrs. Tucker descends as follows:

1. Matthew D. Thomason and Delphia Olds.
2. Caroline Allen Thomason and James M. Giddens.
3. Caroline Giddens and Albert Fleming.
4. Annie Mai Fleming and Adrian Prater.
5. Frances Prater and Starke T. Tucker. [Bible in her possession in 1987]
