NOTES ON THE 42nd INFANTRY REGIMENT C.S.A. AND MEN BURIED AT VALLEY MOUNTAIN

The following information was compiled from the Virginia State Library Confederate Archiers.

Elements of the 42nd Infantry Regiment arrived at Valley Mountain between July 2nd and July 4th, 1861. This force consisted of the following companies; Co. A. B. C. F. H. and K. The size of these companies varied from 187 to 218 men. Upon arrival the companies were split with part of them being stationed near what is now Route 219 between Mace and Linwood on the Gatewood property now owned by a Mr. Galford, while the remainder set up camp about 2 miles away on the Vandevender property. Two other Confederate Regiment were already stationed near this point being encamped on property now owned by Frank Marshall.

Fitzhugh Lee, then a major, was the ranking cavalry officer at this point, Colonel Washington, later killed near Elkwater was also stationed here. Records indicate that death was the result of disease, mostly measles and pneumonia caused in part by the extremely wet weather and exposure. The men were not used to the exposure and terrain as most of them were from farther south where weather extremes were not as great.

"A" company seems to have been hard hit by disease. The following is a list of men from Co. "A" who died here and we must assume were buried on the spot.
