OUR TUTTLE TIES

A DIRECTORY OF DESCENDANTS
OF
JOHN TUTTLE AND MALISSA VANDIVER

COMPILED BY NANCY CAROLYN KIRK McINTYRE - 1979

Dedicated to my father, Donald Conway Kirk and to my aunt, Blanche Leone Kirk Counts, whose family stories kindled my interest in the traditions and histories of our ancestors, and prompted me to search out present-day kin.

AUTHORS NOTES

I have used the basic outline to present our ancestors and descendants. This seems to be the most accepted medium and does form family groups.

Some clarification of terms and abbreviations used may be helpful. For instance, "no issue" means "no children"; the abbreviations are: "m" for "married", "b." for "born", and "d." for "died". Cases of more than one marriage I have denoted by placing after the person's name, the name of his/her spouse, preceded by a number showing the sequence in which the marriage occurred. In addition, when children were born of different sets of parents, I have placed a note, in brackets, stating the parents names. This precedes the list of their childrens names. The underlining of a name indicates the name by which the person is best known; the use of quotation marks indicates a nickname.

I would like to thank everyone who filled out and returned their family group sheets. Only by continuing to keep me current of events can our forthcoming genealogy be a complete success. I deeply appreciate the thoughtfulness of the words of encouragement received from those of you who took the extra time to add a personal note in addition to your genealogical contribution. Special thanks to Hattie Tuttle McElvain, Blanche Kirk Counts, Etta Nichols Tuttle, and my father, Donald Conway Kirk, all of whom retain a wealth of family knowledge, and who never seem to tire of my unending questions.

The credit for the artwork and the lettering on the cover sheet goes to Miss Adele Chenoweth Graham. The copy of the picture was reproduced by Mr. C. Dee Wallace; he also does the copy work of all my genealogy pictures and his patience with me is amazing! A great deal of thanks to them both.

Any omissions or errors were not intentional and should be brought to my attention so that the proper correction can be made and not repeated again in future genealogical endeavors.

It has been a warming experience getting acquainted with members of the family who were totally new to me; to become reacquainted with those who through the years I had lost touch, and to add new perspectives to already existing family ties. It is my hope that this directory will help bring us together and promote interest in our family and its history.

AZARIAH TUTTLE JR.

Azariah Tuttle Jr. was born Sept. 7, 1853 in Manti, Utah and was the son of Azariah and Ann Mabbott Tuttle.

He was the sheriff of Emery County, a profession that was followed by many of the early Tuttle men. He broke up and captured the notorious Robbers Roost gang headed by the outlaw Butch Cassidy. He led a posse in a narrow canyon where the bandits were cornered, as he was walking up the middle of the canyon unprotected and a perfect target, he was shot and crippled for life. In 1911 Gov. Spry presented Sheriff Tuttle $2.500 on behalf of the people of Utah for what he did to break up this notorious gang of outlaws. His activities are told in the book "Outlaw Trail" by Charles Kelly and a book published (1973) by Bailey called the Wild Bunch which depicts Butch Cassidy and the outlaws that were in his gang. Sheriff Tuttle was married to Mary Wilkins Tuttle daughter of David and Jane Easton Wilkins and they were married 5 April 1874. David Wilkins was in the Mormon battalion. The children of Mary and Azaruah Tuttle were, Milton- Mabel-Mark- Jane- David- Fannye- Leah- Gladys- William and Thelma-

Azariah Tuttle Sr.

Azariah Tuttle Sr. of Manti, son of Terry Tuttle and Eleanor Mills, was born in New York, April 20th, 1818. His father died when he was nine and he had to work early to support the family. He worked in a printing office and when he was just 15, he was bound out to learn the trade of sparmaker (ship builder) He served four years and nine months.

He joined the Mormon church in December 1837, through hearing Parley Pratt and Elijah Fordham preach. They moved to Missouri in 1838 and were through the persecution in Farr West, Adams County and in Nauvoo. In the fall of 1847, with his wife and two children, he left Nauvoo and went to Winter Quarters intending to come to Utah. They returned to Missouri because of the Indians. In 1852 they started in Bishop Howell's train and arrived in Provo Sept. 15th.

Isaac Morley induced them to come to Manti, where they arrived Oct. 12, 1852. All through the Indian troubles Mr. Tuttle took part, being a member of the Silver Greys. He was a member of the City Council and City Watermaster about twenty years. He was married in New York City, Mar 11, 1838 to Ann, daughter of Thomas and Ann Mabbot, born in Yorkshire England Dec. 2, 1821. Their children were : Leonard- Elizabeth, Luther, Abigail, Mary, Azariah Jr., Horton, John Henry, William and Leonard.

TERRY O. TUTTLE

Terry Tuttle was born 7 March 1790, in Aquebogue, Long Island. He was the son of Luther and Ruth (Terry) Tuttle. Terry married Eleanor Mills of New York City, 15 July 1817 and as he died 30 December 1826, he had only 9 years and 5 months of married life. Because of his early death, very little is known of him, in fact Prof. Tuttle, who published a book in 1968, listing the Tutttles and Tuthills of America could find nothing relative to him until I wrote him giving him the church archive record of the Manti Ward and the information it contained, therefore, it opened up my own line as well as many others. His widow did not remarry, as I visited her grave in Manti. She died 7 Dec. 1877. Their children were, Azariah, John Henry- Elizabeth Jane- Luther Terry. Terry was named for his mother Ruth Terry Tuttle. Her family with the Tutttles were among the 13 original families that founded Long Island, N.Y. It is also rich in descendants of the Mayflower, Ephriam Terry married Ann Collins who decends to Gov. Bradford. Thomas Terry married Anna, daughter of Thomas Rogers of the Mayflower. Ruth's father's name was William Terry born (1715) he descended from Thomas (1658)--to Thomas (1630) to Thomas (1607) I am currently researching the names of their wives as very little is written about them. Curious facts reveal themselves in research, such as there were two Ruth Terry's, both born on the same day, 12 Dec. 1752, one from Southhold the other from Oysterponds (both locals are in Long Island) the Ruth from Southhold (ours) married Luther Tuttle and the Ruth from Oysterponds married Daniel Tuttle.
