NATIONAL ARCHIVES-PITTSFIELD REGION & THE BERKSHIRE ATHENAEUM MAJOR RESOURCES FOR GENEALOGISTS

By Priscilla A. Chatfield 44 Adams road, Easton, CT 06612

e-mail: pchatfield@delnet.com

Pittsfield, Massachusetts is the location of major resources for genealogists. These resources include the National Archives-Pittsfield Region and The Berkshire Athenaeum, which is located three and a half miles away from the Archives in Pittsfield's business district. In close proximity to the Athenaeum are The Central Berkshire Registry Of Deeds, The Berkshire County Registry Of Probate, and The Berkshire County Court House. These combined resources provide access to both national and local records and collections.

The National Archives-Pittsfield Region records are on microfilm. There are microfilm copies of the Federal population census schedules, taken every ten years, for all states from 1790 to 1920. Almost all the 1890 schedules were destroyed by fire in 1921. There are Soundex indexes to the 1880, 1900 and 1920 censuses along with a partial Soundex index for 21 states to the 1910 census. Also available are printed bound indexes for the US census records including the early years.

There are copies of military service, pension, and bounty land warrant records issued to Revolutionary War soldiers and veterans, which cover all states and include name indexes. There are also indexes to compiled military service records of volunteer soldiers who served between 1784 and 1901 and other indexes and records concerning the U.S. Army enlistments, the 54th Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry, Mexican War veterans, and World War I draft registration for New York and all New England states except Vermont.

An index to New England naturalization petitions, 1791-1906, is available. Also, an index for the District of Massachusetts naturalization petitions and records of the U.S. District Court, 1906-1966, and the U.S. Circuit Court, 1906-1911. Finally, there are other petitions and naturalization records of the above mentioned Massachusetts courts for 1906-1929.

Available are copies of ship manifests of passengers into the ports of Boston (1820-1943), New York (1820-1957), and Philadelphia (1800-1882). Records of miscellaneous other Atlantic and Gulf ports are found and manifests of passengers arriving in the St. Albans, Vermont District through Canadian Pacific and Atlantic ports, 1895-1954. Records for other smaller New England ports are available.

There are numerous other record groups of interest also useful for genealogical research including microfilm concerning Native Americans and Black history research.

The hours are Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday 8 to 4, Wednesday 8 AM to 9 PM. The address is 10 Conte Drive, Pittsfield, MA 01201-8230. Phone: (413) 445-6885.
