

Weber family

Johan Henrich Weber of Tulpehocken Township

by Marlene F. Weaver Leber*

Johan Henrich "Henry" Weber was born on May 28, 1735, in Hochstadt, Germany, and died April 10, 1815, in Tulpehocken Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania. He was seventy-nine years old, and was buried in row 16, grave #3 in the old section of St. John's (Host) Cemetery in Tulpehocken Township. A regular tombstone and a military-erected tombstone mark his burial location.

On September 26, 1749, Henry arrived in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the ship Dragon that set sail from Amsterdam. According to a 1912 newspaper article, Henry came to America with two brothers.

Henry served during the Revolutionary War as Captain of the 6th Co., 6th Battalion, Berks County, Pennsylvania, Militia. He enrolled on May 17, 1777, and served under Col. Henry Spyker. In 1909, the U.S. Government erected a tombstone after recognizing his services in the Revolutionary War.

On May 16, 1763, when Henry was age 27, he married Anna Elisabetha "Elisabeth" Filbert, daughter of Johann Samuel Filbert (1710-1786) and Maria Suzanna (1704-1771), in Bern Township, Berks County, by the Rev. John Casper Stoever.

Elisabeth was born December 6, 1741, and christened on December 7, 1741, in Christ Church of the Little Tulpehocken, Bernville, Pennsylvania. Her witness for the christening was Anna Elisabeth Kraft. She died December 9, 1813, in Berks County, at the age of 72. Elisabeth is also buried in St. John's (Host) Cemetery in row 16, grave #2.

In 1770, Henry purchased a farm of over 100 acres in Tulpehocken Township where he lived until his death in 1815. Henry was both a farmer and a carpenter. In 1788, he operated the business Weber and Gerhardt. The 1792 tax list for Tulpehocken Township lists Henry Weber as a joiner. His estate inventory dated May 8, 1815, includes both carpenter and joiner tools. Of his sons, only Peter was primarily a farmer. The other four sons worked in the woodworking trade.

After Henry died, his farm was passed down to his son, Peter, and then his grandson, Elias. About 1900, after 130 years, it passed out of the Weber family.

Von 7 Söhnen und 5 Töchtern wurden ihm geboren 99 Enkel, 188 Urenkel, und 5 Ur-Urenkel. Seine ganze Nachkommenschaft, was von ihm, und bey seinem Leben von seinem Geschlecht, geboren worden ist, belauft sich auf 309.

Bei seiner Beerdigung wurde eine Rede gehalten über die Worte aus der Offenbarung Johannes, Capitel 14, Vers 12 und 13. Sie ist Geduld der Heiligen, &c.

Leichenlied: Meine Sorgen, Angst und Plagen laufen mit der Zeit zu End, &c.

CHRISTIAN WEBER

Was born in Earl Township, Lancaster County in the State of Pennsylvania, the 25th of December (on Christmas Day) after the old style, in the year 1731. He entered into matrimony the 30th of September 1749, with Magdalena Ruth, and 55 years long with her he lived in marriage, and 16 years in widowhood. He was a member of the Mennonite Congregation, and a sincere believer of his faith. (It is wished that his descendants followed him in it.) His sickness was age and weakness. He died the 13th of February 1820; and reached an age of 88 years, 5 weeks and 2 days. His wife had born him 8 sons and 9 daughters. From 7 sons and 5 daughters were born to him 99 grandchildren, 188 great grandchildren, and 5 great-great grandchildren. All his descendants, which from him, and during his life from his seed, were born, totaled 309.

At his burial a sermon was preached on the words of the Revelation of John, Chapter 14, versus 12 and 13. "Here is the patience of the saints, etc."

Burial hymn: "My sorrows, cares and plagues run their course with time, etc."
