Mr. Yarrow was born Jan. 12, 1956 in Glendale, Calif., to John H. "Jack" and Marceline "Marce" Hardin Yarrow.

He was raised in the Los Angeles area and graduated in 1975 from Glendora High School, where he was on the football and wrestling teams. After graduation he joined the U.S. Navy. He was stationed in Guam, Crete and Fort Hueneme, Calif. before his discharge in May 1979.

On June 18, 1979, he married Rebecca Cochran in Coeur d'Alene. His wife was in the U.S. Navy, and they were stationed at Whidbey Island, Wash., where their daughters were born. He worked in fiberglassing and construction.

The family moved to Walla Walla 11 years ago after a tour of duty in Monterey, Calif. He attended Walla Walla Community College and became a welder. For a time he worked for Blaze King.

Mr. Yarrow was diagnosed with cancer in 1988, and from that time until his death, he was able to work only intermittently.

His greatest joy was raising his daughters, sharing with them his love of the outdoors, fishing and camping. He also enjoyed boats and boating his two dogs, Chompers and Snooker, and four cats and a rabbit. He attended the Central Christian Church.

He is survived by his wife at home; two daughters, Paige and Alex; at home; his mother of Sunnyvale, Calif.; one brother, Stephen Yarrow of Watsonville, Calif.; one niece; one nephew; and one great-nephew.

He was preceded in death by his father in 1975, and his father-in-law G. Allen Cochran in 1989.
