RUSSIAN EMBASSY RECORDS

by Wyn Welton

In the spring of 1980 the Archives of Canada acquired 100 boxes of Canadian Immigration records which had been sent to New York when the Russian Embassy closed its consulate in 1922.

For thousands of Canadians of Armenian, Doukhobor, Esthonian, Finnish, Georgian, Jewish, Latvian, Lithuanian, Mennonite, Polish, Russian and Ukrainian origins a rich new source of genealogical material is available.

Information available includes: places of origin, dates of arrival in Canada, education, names of next of kin, ownership of property, and value of estates left behind.

I have been keeping in touch with Myron Moaryk of the Ethnic Archives Section of the PAC. He is responsible for indexing this collection and developing a finding aid. Because of the personal and confidential nature of the material in this collection, the PAC has not yet developed a policy in respect to researchers. However, Mr. Moaryk indicates that they are now in a position to reply to written inquiries whether or not particular names appear in the preliminary nominal lists created to date. Strong evidence of family relationship is required.

I suggest a copy of your pedigree or a photostat of a certificate should be sent along with your letter of inquiry.

Write to: M. Moaryk, Russian Archives Program, Ethnic Archives Section, Manuscript Division, Public Archives of Canada, 395 Wellington St., Ottawa, ON, K1A 0N3

The Irish Shewfelts
Anne Baines #229

At the 1993 AGS conference in Red Deer the entertainment at the closing banquet was provided by a delightful group of Irish dancers dressed in beautifully hand embroidered outfits. The lady who announced the dances, presumably a mother or a teacher, was a Ms. Shewfelt. Anyone who is familiar with the name Shewfelt knows that it is German in origin. How did the Shewfelts become Irish?

It is likely that anyone in North America with the surname Shewfelt (Zufelt, Schufelt, etc) is a descendent of Johann Georg Zufelt who, at age 50 with his wife and children, emigrated from Germany to New York with the Palatinates in 1709. He was born at Hasselbach, Hessen, Germany in 1659. His wife was Anna Catherine Zaam. Some of their descendants ended up in Ontario.

About 1850 in Kincardine Township, Bruce County, Ontario some of the Shewfelts married Irish girls who came to Canada in the 1840's. On the 1871 census it is interesting to note that several of the Shewfelts were listed as German, their wives Irish and all their children Irish. Following are extracts of some of these families taken from the 1871 Ontario Census, Kincardine Twp., Bruce County District 27, Sub District E:

There are other examples, such as the James Shewfelt family on page fifty-six that illustrate this point. There are also examples where the children follow the father's German origin.

Grandfather, Peter Thomas Shewfelt, is the Peter Thom. listed on page 32. He was one of the Shewfelts that celebrated St. Patrick's day faithfully. A letter written by Grandfather on the 20th March 1939 begins:

I received your card on St. Patrick's Day and many thanks for.
Remember me of St. Patrick day and Old Ireland forever.

Mom, a daughter of Peter Thomas, grew up thinking she was Irish. It wasn't until she was in her twenties that someone confused her by telling her she wasn't Irish, but Pennsylvania Dutch. After that when she was asked about her origins she said she was either Irish or Dutch, but wasn't sure which.

So it was that the Shewfelts changed from being German to Irish!

DON'T FORGET ABOUT LATERAL LINES

contributed by Anne Baines (A.G.S. #229)

A recent letter contained a reminder of the importance of not only searching for direct ancestors but also for seeking out children of these ancestors. Smith and Gardner in their book "Genealogical Research in England and Wales Vol 1." (page 14) say:

As the research proceeds, every effort should be made to find the complete family in each generation. In haste to extend pedigrees back to as early a date as possible, many sometimes fail to do this.

About 1833 third great-grandfather, John Cook, came to Nicol Township, Wellington Co., Ontario from Thornbury, Gloucester, England. He had been married to Jane Pick on Dec. 28, 1825 at Tortworth, Gloucester, England. However his marriage record did not contain his parents names, nor did his death record, obituary, or will. The only clue as to the name of his father was the 1851 census which showed there was an elderly man by the name of William Cook living with the John Cook family. This did not support the belief of descendents that John's father was also John.

The parish records for Thornbury area contain many John Cooks - including those with father John and those with father William. It seemed like there would be no way of knowing which christening was for the correct John Cook.

John had a brother, Robert, who came from England and settled on the next farm to John. He was there on each census record next to the John Cooks - first with wife, Margaret, and later with wife, Mary. A Cook history mentioned that his first wife died and he then married Mary Blinco, widow of Wm. Stockford. This information was noted but as he was not a direct ancestor, nothing was verified.

When the "Index to the Wellington County Marriage Register" came out, Robert's second marriage was there. Mr. Wm. Britnell looked up the original entry and it arrived in the mail containing the names of Robert's parents - William & Ann Cook. These parents, of course, were also John's parents pushing back one more generation.

A similar situation occurred earlier in the search for the birthplace of great-grandfather, John Murray, in Scotland. John was, perhaps, a stubborn fellow. On the 1871 census for Pictou county, N.S., the census taker noted that John would not give the requested information. His marriage record contained only "Scotland" as his place of birth and no other record was more specific. However, one of his sons (not a direct-line ancestor) was more specific on his marriage certificate and listed his father's birthplace as "Sutherlandshire, Scotland" and this was enough of a clue to find John's birth in Brora, ClyneParish, Sutherland, Scotland.

Research time spent on brothers and sisters of direct-line ancestors can turn out to be very valuable and is sometimes the only source for information about direct line ancestors.

DEAR GENIE

"Dear Genie" welcomes letters from readers, outlining their genealogical problems. Selected letters will be printed, with Genie's advice. For personal replies, please include a SASE (stamped self-addressed envelope). Letters must be signed. Confidentiality will be maintained, if requested. Please address letters: "Dear Genie" c/o The Alberta Genealogical Society, P. O. Box 12015, Edmonton, Alberta T5J 3L2.

Dear Readers: Please refer to my column in the last issue of Relatively Speaking for the letters from Mrs. Marie Donovan of Mossleigh, Alberta. She referred to a book called 'Falmouth, a New England Township', by John Duncanson of Sarnia, Ontario. The following letter was received from A.G.S. member Jack Layton:

"Just a note to advise you that John Duncanson is no longer in Sarnia, Ontario. Since his retirement his permanent address is Dyke Road, Falmouth, Hants Co., N.S. B0P 1L0. It was not clear in the latest Relatively Speaking if you were aware of this.

"Mr. Duncanson is one of a number of volunteers in Nova Scotia who are willing to aid researchers with advice about their particular areas of the province. He spends his winters in Florida but should be back at his research into the history of the Newport Township soon. His book is long out of print, unfortunately."

Thank you very much for this information -- I was not aware that Mr. Duncanson had retired. I will see that Mrs. Donovan is made aware of it, too. The next letter contains a request for Mr. Duncanson's address so your letter arrived just in time. Thanks again.

(Signed) Sincerely, Genie

Dear Genie: I am interested in the book mentioned by Mrs. Marie E. Donovan (Spr. '83, Relatively Speaking) entitled 'Falmouth, a New England Township'. I would like to correspond with the author, John Duncanson of Sarnia, Ontario. Could you please send me his address?

Another question perhaps; do you know of any pre 1900 phone or address directories for London, or area - held anywhere in Alberta?
(Signed) Sincerely, Lynda Fawcett

Dear Lynda: Please see the above answer to your question about Mr. Duncanson's address. To answer your other question, I am presuming you want London, England. I have looked through our Genealogical Resources Book under the heading "Rutherford Library". If you have access to this book, check page 195 -- the book by Charles W.F. Goss, The London Directories, 1677-1855 may help although it may be too far back for you. In the DA section, there are many books on London, too many to list. You could probably have your local library order the Goss book for you on interlibrary loan. You would have to go to the Rutherford Library yourself to see if they have any directories if the Goss book does not contain what you want.

I do not know anywhere else in Alberta that may have them. If it is London, Ontario you want, I do not know anywhere that might have them.
(Signed) Sincerely, Genie.

Readers: If anyone knows where London phone books or directories pre 1900 may be found in Alberta, please let Genie know.

TELEPHONE DIRECTORIES OR TRADE DIRECTORIES?

Several of our readers have noted a mis-print in our article "Great-Great-Grandfather's Bookshop", by Penny Christensen, in the last issue of "Relatively Speaking". The word 'telephone' was inadvertently substituted for 'trade' in describing the type of directory used.

We thank them for sending us their comments.

WEST DUCHESS CEMETERY - NW35-20-15-W4

reported by Joyce McCune, AGS#1203
Cemetery Recording Co-ordinator, Brooks Branch

This cemetery was previously reported in Relatively Speaking, Vol. 3, p. 3 only as North side of road alongside railway tracks between Duchess and Rosemary Brooks Branch member Heather Miyauchi (AGS#176) recorded this cemetery when there were two grave markers. They are still there but cannot be deciphered now.

Rosemary, Alberta history book "Rosemary, Land of Promise" has a map listing some of the burials in this cemetery.

Names of others people buried here were given by Mrs. Ed. Scheuermann, formerly of the Duchess area, now in the Brooks Nursing Home. Other residents and old-timers agree with her memories.

HERGET, Baby Boy
Wiebe, Helen, age 17, ca 1930 of a kidney infection.

KLAUTT, Baby
ANGERMAN (sp?), Baby Boy, died of diphtheria, age 15 mos. Parents were German immigrants who lived across the railway tracks in a sod house.
GUCHY, Mrs., lived across the Red Deer River.

There must have been nine graves at one time. More information may be contained in the records of the Lutheran Church. According to the history book one Clarence Slack was moved to New York.

CEMETERY east of Rosemary in the old West Duchess area (beside the C.P.R. tracks)

1. Clarence Slack was buried here, but the body was exhumed and relocated in New York. (See Robert Slack Story).

2. unmarked adult grave.

3. unmarked child grave.

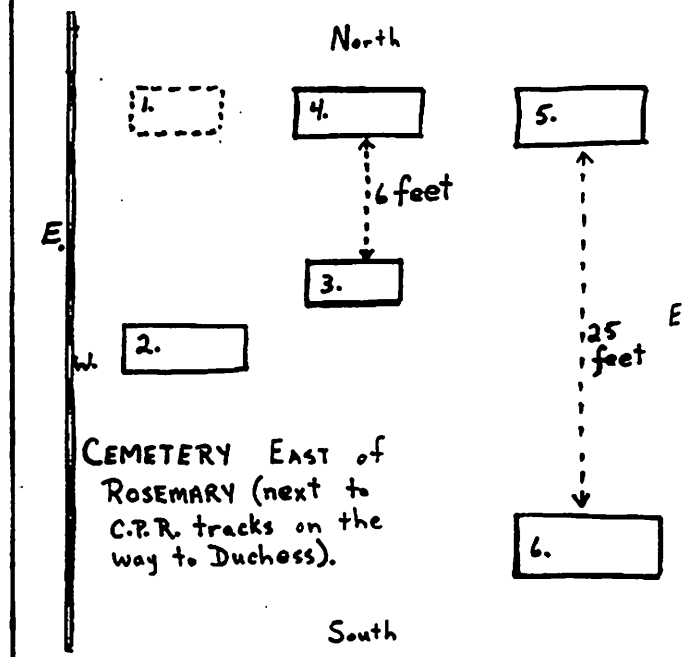

4. Margaret Glaum born 19 Dec. 1881; died 4 May, 1924 (Mother).

5. Walter Lind born 22 Feb. 1917; died 8 Jan. 1922.

6. adult grave, or at least it is a full-sized enclosure.

Known to have been buried here in this cemetery:

- Martha Peters killed when her horse bolted 7 Apr. 1926, born: 1911.
- Helena Wiebe (teenager) adopted daughter of Jacob Jacob and Anna Wiebe.

in Search Eight. Going through the cause of death column for the many William Jones there is only one which might fit (though a few had the cause of death unknown). His cause of death was "shot". This happened the July before the 1850 census and so could not possibly be the right one. Checking through the place of birth column, only one William was born in Canada. He died of lung inflammation in Pennsylvania the May before the 1870 census. So William may not have died conveniently the year before a census or he may be in those records that are yet incomplete.

This index is a wonderful help for locating ancestors in the US. However, the manual from Salt Lake points out that it is not perfect. The Genealogical Department has done an extensive study and finds an overall error rate of 19%. The type of errors found sound very familiar: names missed on the index, typographical errors, transposition errors, transcription errors, people appearing twice on a search, and inconsistent format. Most genealogists are used to these types of errors and have learned to work around them. It always helps to have uncommon surnames as well.

Although there are errors in the index, it is most extensive and could be very valuable. As an article in the Church News (April 22, 1984) states: "New index can help bring you to your census."

information.

1980: Mr. Sullivan contacted the Glenbow Museum in Calgary who provided him with newspaper clippings of Harrell's father's death but could not help further with the location of Harrell himself. They suggested contacting the AGS for further research.

1982: Mr. Sullivan wrote to the AGS for help in locating Harrell B. Pearson or his family. In 1984 he located Harrell B. Pearson, Jr.

About Mr. Sullivan who is a historian, not a genealogist, a quotation at the end of a copy of an article he had written on the Confederate States Marine Corps for the Southern Partisan in the spring of 1984 tells of his interest:

David Sullivan, who has been preoccupied with the Confederate States Marine Corps for as long as he can remember, says he is an unabashed Southerner, even though he makes his home in Massachusetts.

GHOSTLY ADDRESSES

LETTERS TO

Read in your issues about "Ghostly Addresses". In the Acadia Electoral District in 1911 there was a Post Office established by the name of "REIST".

It was established by my great-grandfather, Elias B. Reist, who moved there from Michigan to homestead. Many of my family came along, thus the office was named after their family, and was operated in their home until their 1922 move to Oregon.

The location given is 13-31-10-W4. It moved later to SW 36-31-10-W4, and still later to SE 14-32-10-W4, prior to closing in 1948.

Editor's Note: Our resident specialist in matters in this area of Alberta, Hugh Greenslade, reports the community of "Reist" to be located about 25 miles east of the town of Hanna, north and north-west of Antelope Lake.

rest and instead, pursue my husband's mother's line. A splendid idea. I quickly traced his Grandfather and Grandmother Owen in the Shrewsbury area. Now for the GREAT'S. To my utter dismay, what do you think I discovered? You are quite right. Both the Greatgrandmothers were, before marriage, JONES. Eliza Jones and Maria Jones and so far I have not been able to connect these two, which leaves me little option but to continue searching along not one but THREE separate Jones lines.

I have rashly promised the Edmonton Branch I will bake a large cake in the shape of Wales the day his Welsh grandfather is finally found. A large piece to anyone with information leading to his discovery. HELP! HELP!! HELP!!! But you must admit: My husband is truly a JONES BOY.

FAMILY RESEARCH PROJECT

Submitted by Linda Whitford - A.G.S. #2015
Yellowknife, N.W.T.

In conjunction with Family Week and the Metis Celebration of Families, an extensive research project is underway to record the genealogy and history of the Metis Families in the Northwest Territories. The main objective of this project is to record the antecedents and descendants of the Laferte and Bouvier families including those related by marriage.

As this involves countless surnames from various ethnic backgrounds and countries, the research is not limited to those currently residing in the Northwest Territories or even Canada. A partial surname list follows this text and anyone who knows of, or suspects a connection to any of these families, or would just like to have further information on the project can contact:

ARCHIVES GET HOME...

(from Edmonton Journal May 7, 1988)

OTTAWA - The federal government has chosen a home for the deteriorating and overcrowded National Archives, says Communications Minister Flora MacDonald. The new permanent headquarters of the archives will be moved to the existing West Memorial Building, a government-owned structure near Parliament Hill and close to the archives' present location in a building shared with the National Library. A permanent storage facility for the archives will be built somewhere in the Ottawa area in the near future.

NOTE: The census said, "The above are all the Halfbreeds in the Peace River District who have a fix place of abode".

Our search at St. Catherine's House had looked hopeless, as there was no space on the tables for the huge books. I spotted a chair, sat on it, and Claudia brought me the books, and while I looked at #1, she got #2, she took back #2 while I looked in #3, and we did speedy research. Much thanks again to Claudia for her help in the whole two weeks.

Dear Readers:

In the issue before last of Relatively Speaking, I had included a letter from Veronica Clark of Essex, England who was looking for her father George Hanson or Hansen who had been an airman in W.W.2 and stationed at Biggin Hill, in Kent. She is not sure whether he was in the RAF or the RCAF. In the last issue, I included information from Dave Nixon, a member from Fort McMurray, about a Memorial Book in the Commonwealth Training Museum in Brandon, Manitoba that might help. Now I have a letter from Salli Dyson, a member who lives in Richmond, Surrey, England with further information which may help this lady. I will print her whole letter as it has other useful information in it. Thanks, Salli.

"Genie"

Dear Genie:

I read with interest your column in the May 1988 issue of "Relatively Speaking" regarding RAF and RCAF research. I sent a copy of the column to a friend of mine who specializes in RAF records and will do searches for a fee, but has offered to help in the first instance. Her name and address are: Miss Eunice Wilson, 143 Harbord St., London, SW6 6PN, England.

I quote from her reply: "I MAY be able to help - stress MAY - with RAF and RCAF research - I could at least (for a see and 2 IRC's) tell them what and where to look. If they want serious research there is a fee, but if I put them on the right track maybe they can go on on their own." This is a very generous offer from an extremely busy lady.

You might also like to know that I am running an index of Missing Live Persons for the Society of Genealogists and I have added the name of George Hanson to the index and will let you know if I receive any details. If any of your readers would like to submit entries of missing persons, I'd be happy to have them but please, could you put the information on 3" X 5" slips or cards for me?

Sincerely,
Salli Dyson, A.G.S. #1299

NEWSPAPER

HINTS

77. Keep a record of hints received from others for places to search
78. Keep a record of the resources you have searched--how extensive, and what you have still to look at
79. Make copies of all letters you write
80. Don't ask for too much at one time
81. If Aunt Mary or Uncle Bob thinks you are crazy, be subtle or artful in how you approach them--they will talk if you make them forget you are working on a family history
82. If someone says he/she doesn't know anything, engage him/her in conversation and see what develops.
