"Collonsay June 14th 1841

Sir, Yours of the 1st Ult. did not arrive here until the 6th prior to which I proceeded according to Mr. Muns' orders, and delivered schedules to all the householders in the Island not knowing your wishes - and I thought proper to finish the work upon the days following which I hope you will find correct.

"Collonsay looked over the enumeration schedules and desired me to send them direct to you as in former cases.

"When you are settling with others you'll please remit me for the work. I am with much respect, Sir, your very humble servant Alexr. McNeill, parish schoolmaster" - sent to " J Maclaurin Esq, Sheriff Subt. of Argyle"

Both schedules were certified 10 June 1841 by Daniel McNeill, Enumerator and approved by Alexr. McNeill "person appointed by Sheriff or Provost to divide the Parish" on 14 June 1841, being accepted on 21 June by J Maclaurin, "Sheriff Subt." with "Note: Alexr. McNeill is an Enumerator only and the schedule has not been signed by the Divider. I however consider it to be perfectly accurate."

The schedules for the entire parish of Jura and Colonsay were signed for on 17 June 1841 by "Alexr. Kennedy, Minister of Jura and Collonsay", subject to "Note - the remaining schedules being 6 & 7 and which comprehend the distant island of Collonsay and Oronsay were not attested by the clergyman who lives in the Island of Jura but I have examined them and consider them to be perfectly accurate - Maclaurin, Sheriff Subt. of Argyllshire"

Note: the above information and the census information were transcribed by Kevin Byrne, Colonsay Hotel, Argyll PA61 7YP in September and October 1997; no attempt has been made to change spellings etc. It is thought to be accurate but detailed entries should be checked against the original documents. This transcribed information is intended for private research and is not for publication. The PEI Genealogical Society has obtained permission to publish these records. Information on Colonsay and Oronsay emigration will be welcomed by Kevin Byrne. Email: hotel@premier.co.uk

Laughter is the best medicine

A young man was travelling at an excessive speed through a small town and was pulled over and arrested by a police officer.

The officer took him to jail and put him in a cell. The officer said, "Consider yourself a lucky man, the Chief is at his daughter's wedding and should come back in a good mood."

The young man replied from the cell, "I doubt it... I'm the groom!"

Young students in the name of Science Actual excerpts from science test papers of young students.
Benjamin Franklin produced electricity by rubbing cats backwards.

A magnet is something you find crawling all over a dead cat.

The cuckoo bird does not lay his own eggs.

To collect fumes of sulphur, hold a deacon over a flame in a test tube.

A circle is a line which meets its other end without ending.

Parallel lines never meet, unless you bend one or both of them.

Dumb Laws:

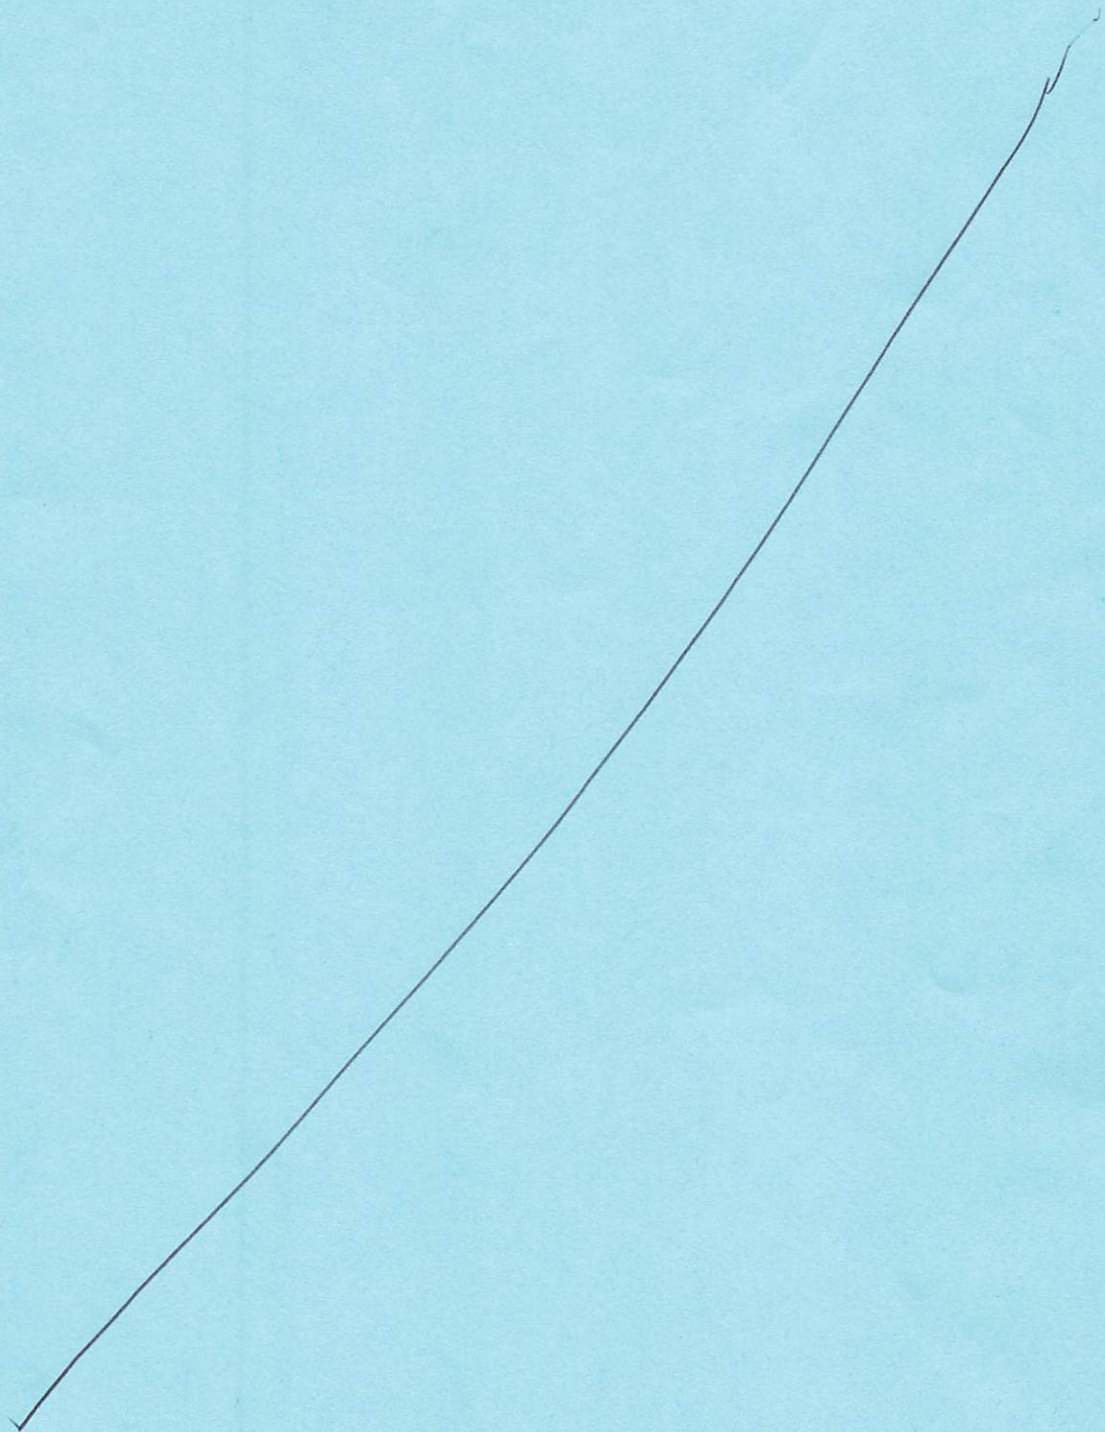

* In Alabama, it is illegal for a driver to be blindfolded while operating a vehicle. The same state also stipulates that dominoes may not be played on Sunday.

* In Connecticut, the police can stop you for bicycling over 65 miles per hour.

* Nebraska state laws stipulate that it is illegal to go whale fishing. (Think about that for a second.)

* In Tennessee, another landlocked state, you may not shoot any game from a moving automobile other than whales.

CENSUS 30th March 1851

Parish of Jura and Collonsay (part of), District of Islay and Jura, County of Argyll. Remarks of the Minister of the Parish: "Since last census about 80 persons emigrated from the parish of Colonsay to Upper Canada, and four families removed to different parts of Scotland. One family consisting of 7 persons came to reside in it - Lachlan McKenzie, Minister of Jura & Colonsay."

Enumeration District No. 8 "So much of the Parish of Collonsay as lies North East of the road leading from the Quay at Scallasaig to the house of Killoran and of an imaginaig line running from that South of the Houses of Bentuaidh to the sea on the north side of the island."

District No. 8 includes: 49 Separate Occupiers in 49 inhabited houses with 127 males and 150 females, a total of 277 persons. The enumerator was Alexr. McNeill, who witnessed on 2 April and submitted the returns to Dugald Taylor on 10 April; the latter witnessed it on 11 April and it was accepted by "Archd. Campbell Jura JP" the same day.

Enumeration District No. 9 "So much of the Parish of Collonsay as is bounded by a line from Killoran house to the Sea, and by the lake South of Killoran house and a line extending from the West end of it along the ridge of the Hill to the Sea."

District No. 9 includes: 62 Separate Occupiers in 61 inhabited houses with 195 males and 180 females, a total of 375 persons. The total includes 9 males not "enumerated as inmates of any dwelling house" but believed to have slept "in barns, sheds or the like." Those that were enumerated included 4 males only temporary resident and excluded 1 male and 1 female who were absent but "usually dwell in the district". The enumerator was Donald Downie, who witnessed on 1 April and submitted the returns to Dugald Taylor on 4 April; the latter witnessed it on 5 April and it was accepted by "Archd. Campbell Jura JP" on 8 April.

Enumeration District No. 10 "All the parish of Colonsay that is South of the Church leading along the range of hills on the coast of Sclsaig to the sea on the west coast & also including Oransay Isl."

District No. 10 includes: 32 Separate Occupiers in 32 inhabited houses with 88 males and 97 females, a total of 185 persons. The enumerator was John McNeill, who witnessed on 31 March and submitted the returns to Dugald Taylor on 4 April; the latter witnessed it on 5 April and it was accepted by "Archd. Campbell Jura JP" on 8 April.

Therefore, total houses: 142; males: 410; females: 427; population: 837; families: 143

Since 1841 Census, the recorded population had fallen by 72 females and 70 males, but this can be corrected to an actual loss of 71 females and 82 males by allowance for transients. The number of families had fallen by 28 and the number of occupied houses had fallen by 27; no houses were recorded as "unoccupied" in either census.

Note: the above information and the census information were transcribed by Kevin Byrne, Colonsay Hotel, Argyll PA61 7YP in September and October 1997; no attempt has been made to change significant spellings etc. It is thought to be accurate but detailed entries should be checked against the original documents. This transcribed information is intended for private research and is not for publication. Information on Colonsay and Oransay emigration will be welcomed by Kevin Byrne. Email: hotel@premier.co.uk

Notes on change between 1841 and 1851 census figures.

1841 figures Total houses: 169; males: 480; females: 499; population: 979; families: 171

1851 figures Total houses: 142; males: 410; females: 427; population: 837; families: 143

Since the 1841 Census, the recorded population had fallen by 72 females and 70 males, but this can be corrected to an actual loss of 71 females (down 14%) and 82 males (down 17%) by allowance for transients.

The number of families had fallen by 28 (down 16%) and the number of occupied houses had fallen by 27; no houses were recorded as "unoccupied" in either census. The above broadly confirms the "Remarks of the Minister of the Parish", viz: "Since last census about 80 persons emigrated from the parish of Colonsay to Upper Canada, and four families removed to different parts of Scotland. One family consisting of 7 persons came to reside in it - Lachlan McKenzie, Minister of Jura & Colonsay." It is possible to identify those persons who appear in the 1841 census, but not in the 1851 returns; some are known to have died (O.P.R. and Graveyards inscriptions) but the balance must include the emigrants mentioned by the minister. It is also possible to identify "new" persons in Colonsay in 1851, 10 years of age or more, who should include the "family of 7 persons."

GREAT TRUTHS ABOUT LIFE THAT LITTLE CHILDREN HAVE LEARNED:

1. No matter how hard you try, you can't baptize cats.
2. When your Mom is mad at your Dad, don't let her brush your hair.
3. If your sister hits you, don't hit her back. They always catch the second person.
4. Never ask your 3 year old brother to hold a tomato.
5. You can't trust dogs to watch your food.
6. Don't sneeze when someone is cutting your hair.
7. Never hold a Dust-Buster and a cat at the same time.
8. You can't hide a piece of broccoli in a glass of milk
9. Don't wear polka-dot underwear under white shorts.
10. The best place to be when you're sad is Grandpa's lap.

More Dumb Laws

In Alabama, it is illegal for a driver to be blindfolded while operating a vehicle. The same state also stipulates that dominoes may not be played on Sunday.

In Connecticut, the police can stop you for bicycling over 65 miles per hour.

In Florida, a special law prohibits unmarried women from parachuting on Sunday or she shall risk arrest, fine, and/or jailing. Apparently married women are free to parachute seven days a week.

In Massachusetts, tomatoes may not be used in the production of clam chowder. (We take our clam chowder seriously here in Massachusetts! But do we need a state law?)

Patriot 18 Jan. 1899

A friend of The Patriot sends us the following from Vernon River Bridge: The ship Polly arrived here in August, 1803, with about 600 emigrants from the Highlands of Scotland. They spread themselves near the French Village Belfast. These settlers were brought out by the Earl of Selkirk, who remained with them for nearly two months. A little more than a year afterwards he paid them a visit and was satisfied with his plans, Rev. Dr. McGregor visited the Island in 1806 and several times up to 1819. The first place of worship was built at Pt. Prim in 1825, through the influence of Dr. McAulay. Dr. McGregor's first sermon in Belfast was on the Laodicean Church, the second on the Prodigal Son and the third on Phi. 111, 13-14 all in Gaelic. Rev. John McLennan arrived there in September, 1823. He was a native of Ross shire. After nearly thirty years of faithful service he left Belfast for his native land and died in Kilchrenan on the 11th February, 1852. His successor was Rev. Alex. McKay, who was inducted on the 23rd of August, 1855. On the 25th of May, 1859, Mr. McKay left for Salt Springs, N.S. On the 31st of August, 1859, Rev. A. McLean came to Belfast, and left for Hopewell on August 14th, 1877, after 18 years service. Rev. A. S. Stewart came on the 25th of March, 1879, and left in January, 1887. His successor, Rev. A. McLean Sinclair, was inducted on the 16th May, 1888

Patriot 28 Oct 1871

Died: In this city, after a few weeks of severe suffering, of heart disease, on Wednesday night, the 25th inst., James Nutting Fraser, Esq., M.D., in the 44th year of his age, fifth son of the late Rev. Donald A. Fraser. Dr. Fraser came to this Island, a few years since, from St. John's, Newfoundland, and has been practising his profession ever since. He was a kind, quiet, unassuming man, and in life was much respected, and his death is greatly regretted. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn their loss, but his gain.

Genealogy: According to the dictionary genealogy is:

1. A record/account of the descent of a family, group or person from an ancestor/ancestors; a family tree.
2. Direct descent from a progenitor; lineage or pedigree.
3. The study or investigation of ancestry and family histories.

To me, however, genealogy is a whole lot more than those three dry sentences. It is finding my roots, my family, and my home. It is seeing my grandparents as a young couple in a census record with their two baby girls; children who I know will be dead within the year. It is seeing my mother as a one-month-old child. It is seeing my great grandfathers signature on Civil War records and knowing that he and others like him must have gone through hell.

It is even finding the skeletons in the closets or the black sheep of the family. It is finding that my family went through some terrible times, but also knowing that they survived.

It is seeing in my minds eye the care worn faces of all of those who went, have gone on before me.

It is listening to old stories told by our elders and passing those precious stories down. It is writing down those stories and facts for our children and their children. It is finding cousins I had not seen or heard from in fifty years. It is finding new cousins and new friends, people who have come to mean so very much to me.

It is the realization of how important family is.

It is the realization of how important it is to honor those ancestors who came before us. But most of all, it is the sharing of information with others who like me love the research. It is not just dusty records or words. It is not only sharing the excitement of finding a new ancestor, but also sharing the frustrations of not being able to find what you are looking for. It is the bouncing of ideas back and forth of theories of what might be and commiserating with another when that theory falls through, which it often does.

It is being able to say Look! Look what I have found! and knowing that your excitement will be shared and understood. It is being able ask a question on a mailing list, knowing that what you are asking may be dumb but knowing that you will not be treated with disrespect. It is people who give of their time and their energies to help you. It is people who volunteer their time and energies to do lookups on the various county web pages. It is people who volunteer their time and energies for the various historical and genealogical societies. It is people who give of their time to transcribe old documents and microfilm, and who share that knowledge, whether it is through books sold by historical and genealogical societies or on web pages. It is people who go through old cemeteries and take the time to write down those who are buried there and share that knowledge gladly.

It is people who share old photographs, old letters and their old family stories, not expecting anything back other than a thank you and the knowledge that they have helped another in their family quest.

It is people who go above and beyond what is asked of them because they love genealogy. They love the fun of it, the frustrations of it and the excitement of it. It is also the knowledge that you are passing down something of worth; that you are leaving behind a little something of yourself.

It is knowing that through all of your research you may have made a difference, however small it may be.

That is a little of what genealogy means to me. Author: Unknown

Islanders in the 1818 Census of Cape Breton, Part Three

By Linda Jean Nicholson MacKenzie

This is the third and final part of Islanders in the 1818 Census of Cape Breton.

In 1935, the Public Archives of Nova Scotia published "Holland's Description of Cape Breton Island and Other Documents". This book was number two in a series and was compiled by Archivist, D.C. Harvey.

Appendix A in this publication contains the nominal census rolls of Cape Breton taken in 1811. Much like the 1798 census of Prince Edward Island, this census has minimal information regarding the inhabitants. Appendix B contains the 1818 census rolls of Cape Breton. The information collected by the census takers during this census was more in-depth than the 1811 census. Questions included name, age, time on the Island, country, country of parents, situation, trade, married or single, and number of children.

There were fourteen separate areas enumerated in the census of 1818: Ship Harbour Gut of Canso; North End of the Gut Canso; From Balhache's Point in the gut of Canso to Grand Judique; District of Port Hood; Broad Cove; Margarie - Broad Cove; District of Cheticamp; South end of the Gut of Canso; Lower Settlement River; District of Louisbourg; Cabarouse Bay; Division of Baddeck; District of Little Bras D'or, and St. Andrews. D.C. Harvey comments in his introduction to the Appendices that, "Both returns are incomplete, particularly in regard to settlement on the east coast of Cape Breton Island, including the new capital of Sydney."

Islanders or children of Islanders are enumerated in six of the fourteen areas recorded in this census, with seventy-nine such entries. While it would be space saving to list only those recorded as having been born on P.E.I. or whose parents were born on P.E.I., it would be an injustice to those desiring to utilize this information for research. Neighbors not listing P.E.I. in their entries could potentially be the father, brother, uncle or cousin of those who do. Thus, we are printing the complete census for the six areas in which Islanders are found.

Strays in the 1891 Census of Prince Edward Island

by William M. Glen CG(C)

The completion of the computerization of the 1891 census of Prince Edward Island allows the examination of the birthplaces of the residents of the Province. These birth places cover the world!

The total number of individuals recorded in the surviving portions of the census was 105,921 (Lots 21 and 22 did not survive). All but 63 individuals have their place of birth recorded. As one might expect, the majority (91.1%) of residents were born in P.E.I.

The 9,407 individuals born elsewhere (also known as 'strays') are the focus of this article. The majority of these strays (5,017) were born outside of North America, with the British Isles being the origin of most. The birthplaces were recorded as: Scotland 2,001; Ireland 1,768; England 1,095; Wales 12; the Isle of Man 3; the Channel Islands of Jersey 4 and Guernsey 2.

Other European origins were: France 14; Italy 11; Germany 7; Sweden 7; Gibraltar 3; Belgium 3; Norway 3; Denmark 1; Helligoland 1 and Russia 1.

Other parts of the world also show the variation in origins: Bermuda 11; the West Indies 9; Australia 7; New Zealand 4; Palestine 4; South America 3; Malta 2; the East Indies 2; Barbados 2; India 2; Jamaica 1; Arabia 1; Africa 1; Basque (part of Spain?) 1 and Demerara 1.

Unfortunately most of these places of birth are not specific to the community of origin. A sampling of some of those which were are John Percy Eckstadt from Cologne, France (should it be Germany?); George A. McDonald born in Montevideo, Uruguay; Maud Warburton from Assam, India and Sarah Finley born in Glasgow, Scotland.

A number of these individuals were born at sea: Robert Heaney, Frank H.C. McDonald, David Bethune, Hugh McPherson, Christine Smith, Alexander McLeod and Elizabeth Glover.

Other Canadian Provinces and the United States were the origin for the other 4,383 individuals. The Canadian birth places were: Nova Scotia 1,691; Cape Breton 230; New Brunswick 1,029; Newfoundland 555; Quebec 146; Ontario 70; Magdalene Islands 32; Labrador 8; Canada 5; Manitoba 3 and British Columbia 2.

The United States was the birth place of 598 individuals, most of whom did not give their state of origin. A few, however, did: Massachusetts 41; Montana 17; New York 6; California 5; Maine 2 and Dakota Territory 1. Some gave the city of their birth. John C. Gidley born in Baltimore, Maryland; Frederick Robertson born in Chicago, Illinois and 38 individuals born in Boston, Massachusetts (i.e. Katie Butler, Minnie Wright, Gordon C. Parkman and Hattie McKay).

Two new publications are now available from the Prince Edward Island Genealogical Society, Inc. which contain a listing of individuals recorded in the 1891 census of Prince Edward Island who were born outside of the Province. For ordering information, please refer to page 28 of this newsletter.

Islanders Away

Summer in the City

by Linda Jean Nicholson

In the Summer of 1894, there were 1,358 marriages registered in Boston, Massachusetts during the months of June, July and August. Twenty percent (279) of these marriages included at least one spouse born in the Maritime Provinces or Newfoundland. Thirty nine of these marriages included at least one Islander. Considering this sampling is for one quarter of one year and is representative of Boston proper only, the high number of maritimers is evidence of the great migration to the "Boston States".

We owe a debt of gratitude to Robert for his work in reading and transcribing this most difficult piece of early Malpeque - New London history. If our readers have conflicting dates on any of the people presented here we would appreciate hearing from you. Let us know what information you have and where you got it so we can evaluate the accuracy of Rev. Dr. Keir's listing.

GENEALOGY:

Births and deaths and marriages
To search, revise, review
To verify each pedigree,
Consolidate what's true.

It's helpful to add places,
With full details of birth.
To trace how people move about,
Inheriting the earth.

A thought provoking enterprise
For folk of every station,
Who care to trace the hand of God
And marvel at creation.

by Judge John R. Matheson and copied from Tree Tracer, Prince George Genealogical Club, January/February 1994.

Seen in the same publication:
NAMES: For nearly three centuries, half of all English names were Elizabeth, Mary, Anne, John, William and Thomas. [Editors note: No wonder we need a good numbering and recording system to keep our ancestors in order!]

Does anyone have pictures of these men in their uniform or other memorabilia of the period? A picture would be of particular interest. Anyone with information on these men or the exploits of the force itself please contact:

YOUR HELP WILL BE MUCH APPRECIATED

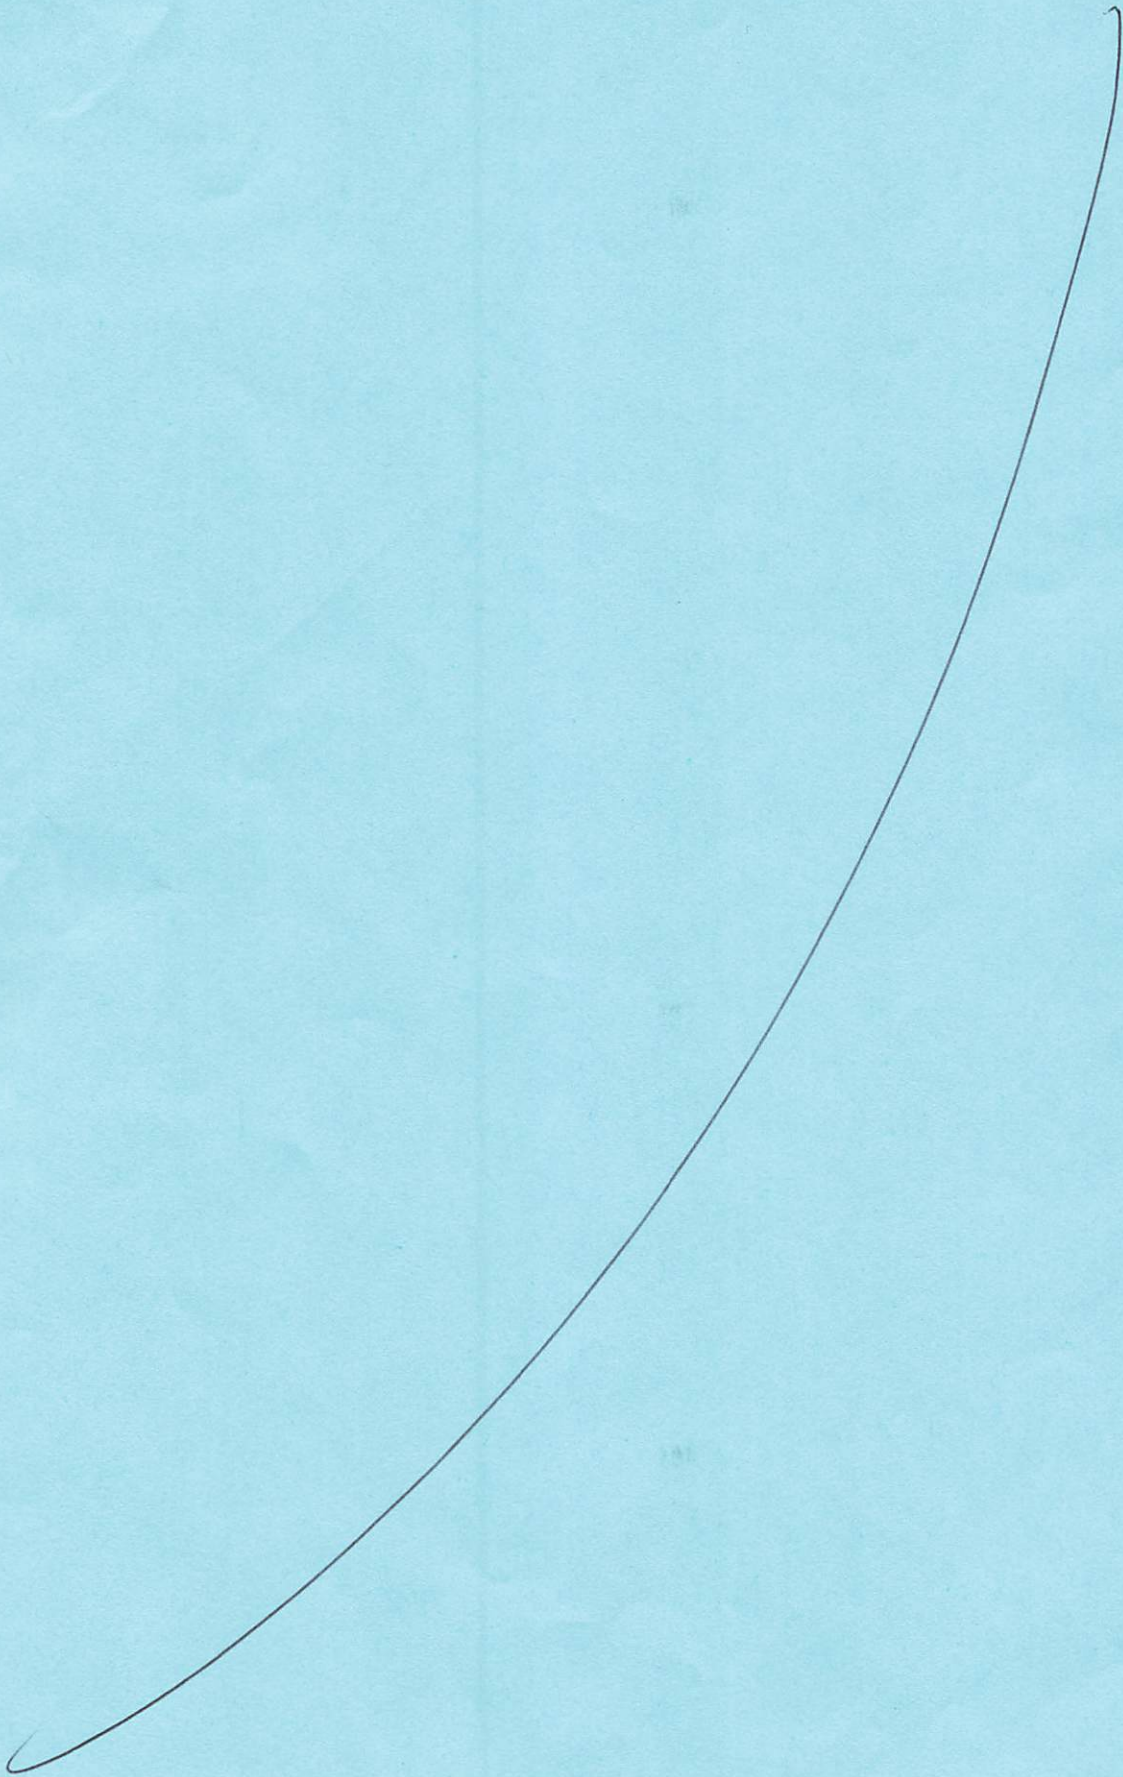

Member Murray Lusher has compiled a large list of words commonly used in Scottish records and now considered archaic. Here are some of the terms used to date contracts and the date they actually represent. CANDLEMAS which is February 2nd, LADY DAY being March 25th, WHITSUNDAY being May 15th, LAMMAS which is August 1st, MICHELMAS being September 29th and MARTINMAS or November 11th.

Rob Milson ~~176 Street, Edmonton, Alberta, T5T 0N3~~ advises that birth, marriage and death notices from the "Edmonton Journal" newspaper for the years 1904, 1905 and 1906 are now available. Each yearly set includes an index of names as well as the original or paraphrased extract. These notices include many references to births, marriages and deaths in all parts of Canada with the exception of Edmonton proper which is contained in the Clandigger publication of AGS. $5.00 for each year desired ($5.00 US if ordering from USA)

JOHN BRECKEN (B) and MARGARET LEAH DE ST. CROIX (S) were married on 19 June 1826 with Thomas Heath Haviland, Esq. of Spring Park and Ralph Brecken, merchant of Charlottetown as witnesses. The marriage was recorded on 26 March 1833 under the marriage act of 1832. As far as can be determined Robert Hodgson and John Brecken were the only two people who took advantage of the special act to have their marriages registered in the books of St. Paul's Church.

This ends, at least for now, our transcriptions from the marriage records of St. Paul's Anglican Church.

It should be noted that in 1827 Rev. L. C. Jenkins recorded 13 baptisms in the marriage records. These could easily be overlooked if a researcher did not look at both marriage and baptismal records.

With the coming of Rev. Jenkins witnesses to marriages, described as those present, began to be recorded. These were often officials of the church but in some instances were obviously relatives of the contracting couple.

ANOTHER GENERATION OF THE BISHOP FAMILY FOUND IN THE RECORDS OF PEI

For a number of years now while researching the James BISHOP family of Prince Edward Island, I have been convinced that there was one more generation on the Island than I had at first thought. Several very obvious clues led me to this belief.

First, my g.g.grandfather, James BISHOP of Lot 64 in Murray Harbour, PEI. m. 30 Dec 1834 to Eleanor ROBERTSON is shown in the 1841 PEI Census as having been born in England. Yet, in the 1881 Census he had living with him and his family a sister, Mary Ann BISHOP, who is shown as having been born in PEI. Although I have never been able to find her birth certificate or her christening date in the PEI records, it stands to reason that their parents must have also lived in PEI. This BISHOP family then would have arrived in PEI sometime between James BISHOP's birth in England ca1811 and his sister birth in PEI ca1819.

Second, in the will of the same James BISHOP in which he leaves his farm to his grandson, John BISHOP, James states that his grandson will be responsible for taking care of "my said Sister Mary Ann BISHOP" "and the said Mary Ann BISHOP shall have the full use and control of the North West bedroom during her life"

Third, I was told by an elderly second cousin of mine living in Rhode Island that his grandfather William BISHOP, first son of James BISHOP and Eleanor ROBERTSON above had first cousins named BISHOP in PEI. If true, this would mean that James BISHOP had another brother(s) in PEI. I decided to look at other BISHOP families to see if I could find any such relationship.

The 1841 Census shows that there are two (2) James BISHOP families on Lot 64. One record shows that three people were born in England and the other record that one person was born in England. All other people in each household were born in PEI. Only the name of the head of the family is shown in the 1842 Census. The age breakdown in the census shows that one family is decidedly younger than the other.

In the 1861 Census there are also 2 James BISHOP families, but now one of them uses the term "Snr" after his name. Having found many of the births or christening records of the children of James BISHOP (hereafter known as James BISHOP, Jnr.) and Eleanor ROBERTSON, I have proven to my satisfaction that they are my g.g.grandparents and that they are the younger family in both the 1841 and 1861 Census.

I find in the James BISHOP, Snr. census records of 1841 and 1861 a female listed whose age corresponds with the Mary Ann BISHOP listed in the 1881 Census of James BISHOP, Jnr. In the 1881 Census James BISHOP, Snr. is no longer shown. As stated above in his will (proved 13 October 1890) James BISHOP, Jnr., names Mary Ann BISHOP as his sister.

When I first began researching in PEI all records were hard to come by. But over the years as more and more records have become available I was able to put together a family which I thought could be James BISHOP, Snr. and his wife Mary. This family consisted of John BISHOP, bpt. 18 Aug 1823, Warwick BISHOP b. 6 Mar 1826 and Thomas BISHOP, b. 28 Aug 1829. I would add James BISHOP Jnr., b. ca1811 in England and Mary Ann BISHOP b. ca1819 in PEI. On the 1841 Census record of James BISHOP, Snr., 3 people were listed as having been born in England. The third person born in England is probably the male between the ages of 16 and 45.

Checking out the third clue I had, that James BISHOP and Eleanor ROBERTSON children had first cousins in PEI I researched the name of John W. BISHOP, given to me by my second cousin. I found a copy of "History of Worcester and It's People, 1919 Worcester, Massachusetts in which it states that John Wilson BISHOP was the son of William BISHOP and Sarah HOOPER of White Sands, Prince Edward Island, Canada. It also said William's father had come from Plymouth, England around 1818. That would fit my assumption of when the James BISHOP, Snr. family had come to the Island.

While in PEI in May 1994 I discovered in a Land Conveyance, registered 27 Sept 1850, an agreement between James BISHOP (Snr) and his wife Mary to William BISHOP, their son. As part of the agreement between the parents and their son William two acres of land are set aside for James and Mary's daughter, Mary Ann BISHOP, "...to have and to hold the said two Acres of land for her support so long as she shall continue single....". In the house which they were erecting at that time on the property there was for Mary Ann "a room in it as long as she stays on the place."

There is a 1841 Census record for a William BISHOP, Farmer, Lot 64 which shows 1 person as having been born in England and 3 in PEI. This is probably the young family of William BISHOP and Sarah HOOPER shown above.

By 1857 William BISHOP and Sarah HOOPER and their family of nine children have left PEI for Lonsdale, Rhode Island.

In 1861 the James BISHOP, Snr. family is shown for the last time and has listed 2 people born in England and 1 in PEI. The two older people are in the plus sixty category and I conclude are James BISHOP, Snr and his wife, Mary. The age of the female between 21 and 45 would lead us to believe that this is Mary Ann BISHOP born ca1819. In the 1881 census Mary Ann is shown in the household of James BISHOP, Jnr. who is now listed as a widower.

The preponderance of evidence leads me to believe that William and James Bishop, Jnr. were brothers and that their parents were James BISHOP, Snr. and Mary. Each brother in his time is shown providing for their sister Mary Ann Bishop.

Note: There could possibly be one more son in this family. As stated above, in the 1841 Census there were 3 people in the James BISHOP, Snr. household born in England. At that time both James BISHOP, Jnr and William BISHOP have been married for a few years, have already started their own families and were both shown in the 1841 Census.

Family of James B. BISHOP, Snr

1. James BISHOP, Farmer, and his wife Mary _____ came to Prince Edward Island between 1811 and 1819 probably from Plymouth, England. They were shown in both the PEI 1841 and the 1861 Census as living on Lot 64, White Sands, Murray Harbour. A Land Conveyance between James and Mary BISHOP and their son, William is shown in Liber 62, Folio 84, 1850.

was actually pronounced "Sickles," it is just possible that Dembo was once a slave of a member of the New York Sickles family of Dutch origin. A Zachariah Sickles was granted land in Charlottetown 11 Oct. 1780, and sold it a week later (17 Oct.) This transaction opens the door for speculation, since many New York Sickleses were slave owners. Ship captain and merchant David Higgins may have owned slaves named Sickles while living in P.E.I. Could Zachariah have sold Dembo to David Higgins? The first time Dembo appears linked by name to William Creed is less than a month after Creed's marriage to Higgins's widow Elizabeth (Prince). The Rhode Island census of 1782 lists one black in Creed's Providence household. there is no conclusive evidence that this person was Dembo, but if not, where did that slave go? There are no records of slaves owned by Creed or his first wife, Mary. Several people connected with Creed, however, were tied to the slave trade, including Simon Potter of Bristol, R.I., a well-known slave importer. Job Prince, Sr., father of Elizabeth (Prince) (Higgins) Creed, was captain of at least one slaver, and her brother Job Jr., also a ship captain, had ample opportunity to do likewise.

William Creed, Dembo's only documented master, immigrated probably from Limerick or Cork, Ireland, ca. 1772. He appears in the Rhode Island census of 1774, in Providence. with a wife and three children, only one of whom was born there. On 6 August 1783 Mary Creed, apparently William's first wife, filed a complaint with the Providence Town Council (RH Council Recs., 5:239), asserting that she "as a wife hath lived with the said William about seventeen years last past and by him hath had five children which are living, three of which were born in the said

Islanders in Massachusetts: the 1870 U.S. Census

Part One

Compiled by Robert Pierce

I started this project, like most others, looking for cousins who were part of the great migration from PEI to the "New England States" in the post 1850 period. It occurred to me that it would probably be an easy task to simply compile a database from census records of everyone who gave PEI as their place of birth. It turned out to be not quite so simple. There were many more Islanders than I ever dreamed in Massachusetts alone. To complicate matters, some of the census takers recorded the place of birth as simply "British Province". Hence the "BP" in the Place of Birth column in the following extract. This list contains only the names of the main person in a household who gave PEI or BP as his or her place of birth. My main database lists all others in the household associated with or listed as a relative of the main person. In the case of a married woman, the census does not list her maiden name. In all, I estimate there are 5,000 names in the database. Anyone desiring a complete family list for a particular name may contact me by E-mail at pierce@cycor.ca or Robert Pierce, 385 Hunter Avenue, Summerside, PEI, Canada C1N 5T1, Tel. (902) 436-6423. ENJOY!

Died (continued)

Mrs. John Townshend, the subject of this sketch, was born at the White Hill, St. Mungo Parish, Dumfrieshire, Scotland, on the 20th day of May, 1800. Her maiden name was Agnes Bell, daughter of John Bell and Mary Johnson Bell, of White Hill. She came to this country when 19 years of age in the brig Jessie, Captain Fife. Shortly after her arrival she was married to the late John Townshend, of Amherst, N.S. She became the mother of ten children, five of whom survive her. Possessed of a sound constitution and vigorous mind, her life was spent in industry, in promoting the welfare of those entrusted to her care as mother, and in cultivating the principles of good will towards all with whom she was brought into contact as a neighbor. While her intellect remained clear to the very last, her memory of scenes and incidents associated with her early life was strikingly vivid. She loved to talk about the old country; about the old country; about the good minister, the Rev. Mr. Jamieson, under whose earnest preaching she was induced to join the Presbyterian Church; and of the many ways in which the Great Shepherd Himself had kindly led her from youth onward to old age. She distinctly recollected having seen Robbie Burns' widow. She cherished with tender regard the recollection of the friends of her childhood. Quite recently she got a friend to write a letter for her to her cousin, John Bell Irving, Esq., of Lockerby, White Hill, Dumfries, from whom she promptly received a most kindly reply – one which she prized most highly, as he is about the only near relative now living whom she left behind in dear old Scotland. She lived the life of a sincere and humble Christian, and died trusting in the merits of a crucified Savior.

From The Examiner, 22 May 1880, page 3:

At Little River, on the 4th inst., Joseph H. Dingwell, second son of Captain John Dingwell, in the 39th year of his age, leaving a wife and five children to mourn their irreparable loss.

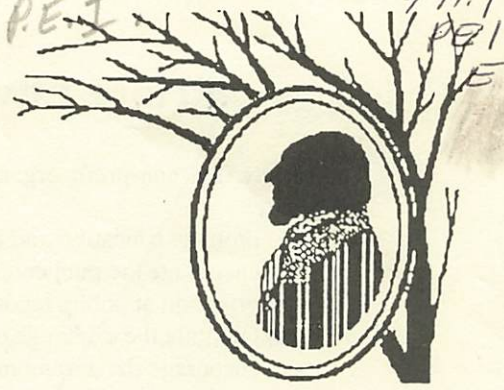

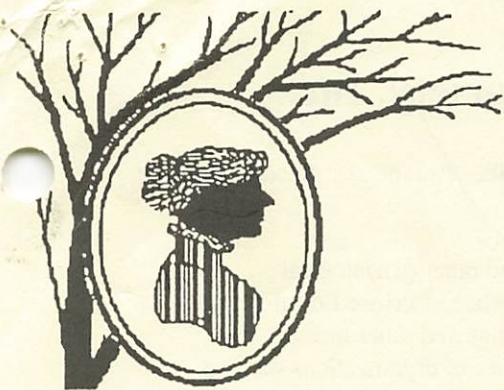

At Murray Harbor Road, on the 8th ult., after a painful illness of six days, which he bore with Christian resignation to the Divine Will, Mr. Donald McRae, in the 74th year of his age. He leaves one son and three daughters, and a large number of relatives and friends to mourn their irreparable loss.

From The Daily Patriot, 17 October 1901:
[Submitted by member, Barbara Fitzmaurice.]

In the death of John McKenzie, Sunday, October 6th, Little Sands lost its oldest resident. The deceased who was in the 87th year of his age, emigrated to P.E. Island from Garloch County, Argyle, Scotland in the year 1841. He first settled with his parents in Pinette, P.E.I.; from whence he went to sea, chiefly coasting, - sometimes sailing master for others, and at times master and owner which gave him the title: "Captain John" by which he was afterwards known. After spending about 18 years seafaring he purchased a farm in Little Sands, where he lived for 48 years, an upright, honest Christian, in the best of friendship with all who knew him. Little Sands together with the adjacent settlements, High Bank and White Sands, pronounced by visitors the most beautiful section of P.E. Island, with nine miles of a straight road without a hollow, with beautiful farms sloping gently towards the shore, beautiful farm buildings, from any of them in all that distance the blue waters of the Strait of Northumberland is in full view, east and west as far as the eye can reach; always dotted during navigation with the sails of different crafts, and smoke of steamers, sailing hither and thither. Living in such a place he was always reminded in his sea life, and in his old age was fond of giving his judgement on the probabilities of wind and weather. He was a firm believer in the merits of Jesus as his ransom, and a member of the Presbyterian Church. Those who witnessed his last moments were remembered of the Scripture "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace." He was buried on Wednesday, Oct. 9th, in his family plot in Little Sands Cemetery. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Stewart of Wood Islands. He leaves two sons and four daughters to mourn their loss. They are all married but one daughter.

Death by Unnatural Causes, Part One

by William M. Glen, CG(C)

In February 1870, John McIntosh was misbehaving in school and, as was the norm of the time, he was struck by the teacher. Later that month he died of meningitis. An inquest into his death was held. The jury decided his death was caused by the teacher's action.

On October 10th 1884, Captain Stewart McDonald requested that several of his crew climb the foremast of his schooner to do some repairs. The crew refused, stating it was too dangerous. Captain McDonald decided to prove them wrong. Unfortunately, the crew had better judgment than the Captain, as he fell from the mast and was killed!

In September 1901, Charles Llewellyn fell asleep on the train. When he awoke, the train was stationary. He gathered up his belongings, opened the door and stepped out. The train had stopped on a wharf and the door opened on the waterside. Charles fell into the water and drowned!

Donald Taylor died during the winter of 1890/91. He was an old man and was too weak to leave his house. He died when his food ran out.

Inquests were held whenever a death appeared unnatural or was not preceded by medical attention. The procedure was for the coroner to choose a jury of (usually) twelve 'good and lawful' men of the area. The jury examined the body, heard witnesses evidence and pronounced the cause of death. Some inquests were very simple - an unknown body was found washed up on the beach, the cause of death was drowning! Others contained testimony by dozens of witnesses. It is these inquests that are the most interesting. The details of what the witness was doing or saw gives a unique insight into the time. In 1846, Margaret Doirant drowned while washing clothes in a brook. The Campbells of Rice Point still spoke Gaelic in 1862 and cows were being grazed in Charlottetown graveyards in 1861!

There were a variety of causes of death including suicides, poisonings, accidents and even being struck by lightning! The 'immodest use of spirituous liquor' was a contributing factor in many deaths. Not surprising, the most common cause of death was drowning (32%). Many of these deaths were a result of falling through the ice in spring or fall. Donald McCormack died of exposure after diving through the ice to save his horse in March 1897.

R.G. (Record Group) 6 at the Public Archives and Records Office of Prince Edward Island includes 1,128 surviving inquests between 1789 and 1935. It is this source that has been used to compile the following list. The documentation contained in these files varies. Some contain a single sheet of paper while others are inches thick. You never know what you may find. Did you know that when William Millman was hung for the murder of Mary Tuplin, an inquest was held into the cause of his death? Well, his death was unnatural. Wasn't it?

Newspapers

As genealogists, we commonly utilize newspapers as a resource for locating vital records. While finding a death notice or obituary may supply us with a previously unknown date or location, newspapers can offer much more than vital statistics. Articles published in newspapers dealing with local history or past events assist in setting the stage of the world in which our ancestors lived. Editorial Committee member, Linda Harding, has spent many years studying Island newspapers and has submitted copies of articles with historical significance for publication in this newsletter. In the next several issues of our newsletter, we will be re...

Providence, Rhode Island July 26, 1822

Dear Brother:

Rhodes Gardiner returns to the Island by whom I take this opportunity of writing, you will have the pleasure of receiving his wife, who goes with him, he has been to New York, he returned last April, he was sick there sometime in the Hospital, but has perfectly recovered. You will receive in a letter to Mr. Davies, which I write with this, many little things, which I here omit for the sake of brevity. How do you get on in business, is there anything doing on the Island? I hope you are now capable of inflicting and writing me a letter. If you are not I am really ashamed for you, but I trust any suspicious that I may entertain on that subject may be unfounded. You are to me bound by the nearest and dearest ties of nature. I am your elder brother and should be your advisor, therefore, I hope and trust that anything which may fall from me will strictly observed. Your future prospects and happiness is a concern to me, which while you conduct yourself as you ought, as far as I am able I will always give you my assistance. George, let me entreat you above all things, to acquire knowledge and learning, for they must be the basis of your future fortune, let not one moment escape without making some good use of it, examine and commence with yourself and say why you catch yourself idle "what am I now doing" that will be a benefit to me; Observe Dr. Franklin's maxims, and advice and you will be sure to prosper in the world. Read history and make yourself acquainted with the customers, manners, government, etc. etc. of the people of the world, and of which Prince Edward Island forms so small a part. You may have occasion to travel, and it is my desire you should in proper season. You will then make but a poor figure if you do not store yourself with necessary knowledge: As soon as I can get once settled in my business, which I hope fortune will soon bring about, so that we may be enabled to do something that will make us independent, and afford us a genteel living, I should then wish you to visit this country for various reasons: You must consider that you are now entering upon the most interesting, conspicuous and arduous scenes of the theatre of the world, therefore, the part must be well acted or you will be hissed. Be careful and circumspect in all your actions, for principally upon your behavior, virtues and abilities your

Islanders in the 1818 Census of Cape Breton, Part One

By Linda Jean Nicholson

In 1935, the Public Archives of Nova Scotia published "Holland's Description of Cape Breton Island and Other Documents". This book was number two in a series and was compiled by Archivist, D.C. Harvey.

Appendix A in this publication contains the nominal census rolls of Cape Breton taken in 1811. Much like the 1798 census of Prince Edward Island, this census has minimal information regarding the inhabitants. Appendix B contains the 1818 census rolls of Cape Breton. The information collected by the census takers during this census was more in-depth than the 1811 census. Questions included name, age, time on the Island, country, country of parents, situation, trade, married or single, and number of children.

There were fourteen separate areas enumerated in the census of 1818: Ship Harbour Gut of Canso; North End of the Gut Canso; From Balhache's Point in the gut of Canso to Grand Judique; District of Port Hood; Broad Cove; Margarie - Broad Cove; District of Cheticamp; South end of the Gut of Canso; Lower Settlement River; District of Louisbourg; Cabarouse Bay; Division of Baddeck; District of Little Bras D'or; and St. Andrews. D.C. Harvey comments in his introduction to the Appendices that, "Both returns are incomplete, particularly in regard to settlement on the east coast of Cape Breton Island, including the new capital of Sydney."

Islanders or children of Islanders are enumerated in six of the fourteen areas recorded in this census, with seventy-nine such entries. While it would be space saving to list only those recorded as having been born on P.E.I. or whose parents were born on P.E.I., it would be an injustice to those desiring to utilize this information for research. Neighbors not listing P.E.I. in their entries could potentially be the father, brother, uncle or cousin of those who do. Thus, we are printing the complete census for the six areas in which Islanders are found.

Islanders in the 1818 Census of Cape Breton, Part Three

By Linda Jean Nicholson MacKenzie

This is the third and final part of Islanders in the 1818 Census of Cape Breton.

In 1935, the Public Archives of Nova Scotia published "Holland's Description of Cape Breton Island and Other Documents". This book was number two in a series and was compiled by Archivist, D.C. Harvey.

Appendix A in this publication contains the nominal census rolls of Cape Breton taken in 1811. Much like the 1798 census of Prince Edward Island, this census has minimal information regarding the inhabitants. Appendix B contains the 1818 census rolls of Cape Breton. The information collected by the census takers during this census was more in-depth than the 1811 census. Questions included name, age, time on the Island, country, country of parents, situation, trade, married or single, and number of children.

There were fourteen separate areas enumerated in the census of 1818: Ship Harbour Gut of Canso; North End of the Gut Canso; From Balhache's Point in the gut of Canso to Grand Judique; District of Port Hood; Broad Cove; Margarie - Broad Cove; District of Cheticamp; South end of the Gut of Canso; Lower Settlement River; District of Louisbourg; Cabarouse Bay; Division of Baddeck; District of Little Bras D'or; and St. Andrews. D.C. Harvey comments in his introduction to the Appendices that, "Both returns are incomplete, particularly in regard to settlement on the east coast of Cape Breton Island, including the new capital of Sydney."

Islanders or children of Islanders are enumerated in six of the fourteen areas recorded in this census, with seventy-nine such entries. While it would be space saving to list only those recorded as having been born on P.E.I. or whose parents were born on P.E.I., it would be an injustice to those desiring to utilize this information for research. Neighbors not listing P.E.I. in their entries could potentially be the father, brother, uncle or cousin of those who do. Thus, we are printing the complete census for the six areas in which Islanders are found.
