CEMETERY INSCRIPTIONS

In the summer of 1981 my husband and I went to West Brome, Quebec in search of a Vermont Durkee family, known to have settled in Quebec. We stopped in Cowansville to do a little shopping and when we returned to our Motor Home a lady was waiting for us. She had seen our sign "DURKEE FAMILY RESEARCH" and excitedly told us that she knew a Durkee and would lead us to her home. This was most fortunate for us as the woman concerned had been the widow of Willis G. Durkee but had remarried and with her name no longer Durkee it was unlikely that we would have found her.

We were warmly received by Mrs. Bays and were delighted to find that Willis Durkee was indeed a descendant of the very family we were looking for. After a fruitful evening of genealogical exchange and a night parked in the Bay's yard Mrs. Bays suggested that before we left we should visit the local cemetery where 3 generations of Durkees were buried. She instructed us how to find the cemetery and then suggested that we solicit the aid of the caretaker Mr. Wendell W. Scott who lived near the cemetery. We found Mr. Scott and he willingly accompanied us to the cemetery. He first showed us the Durkee graves and told us about the family. After pointing out the near-by round red barn, renowned in the area, he began to tell us about the cemetery and its inhabitants.

The first burial was that of James Pettes in 1833 on his own farm and over the years the area became known as the Pettes cemetery as more of the family were buried there. In 1916 the cemetery was deeded to the Church of the Ascension and additional lots were laid out.

It seemed as though Mr. Scott was personally acquainted with many of the inhabitants of the cemetery and indeed he is, as six generations of his own family are buried there. (Mr. Scott's grandmother was Sophonia (Pettes) Scott.) He went on to tell us that he mows the grass, mends the stones and otherwise maintains a personal interest in the welfare of the cemetery.

After thanking Mr. Scott for his kindness we bade him farewell and went on our way. Someway I could not get Mr. Scott out of my mind. I thought of all the knowledge about these early settlers that was in his mind. Who would record it? Would it die with him and be lost forever? I decided to write him an appeal to record this valuable information for posterity and promised him if he did I would see that it was published and copies placed in the Quebec Archives and other suitable repositories.

For a whole year I heard nothing. I found out later that due to the Canadian Postal strike my card did not even reach him until December. Then finally in July came a letter and charts of the cemetery with extensive family information, especially on the Pettes and Scott families.

I am pleased to be able to keep my promise to Mr. Scott with this publication of his material.

THE GILMAN FAMILY MONUMENT

In the eastern annex of the Pettes Cemetery stands the Gilman Family Monument, a remembrance to a cemetery no longer in existence. Highway #139 from the Canadian-American border passes through Sutton, West Brome and about one and a half miles north of West Brome meets the highway leading from Cowansville to Brome Lake (Knowlton). This intersection is known as Gilman's Corner. The family cemetery was quite close to that intersection. The surrounding area was farm land but had large deposits of gravel.

Many years ago a contractor bought the farm to use the gravel for highway construction. After large quantities of gravel were excavated the cemetery seemed to be standing on a pedestal. After proper legal action was taken, the ground was dug up and whatever was found was buried in the Pettes Cemetery and a monument erected recording all the available tombstone inscriptions. The last burial in the Gilman Cemetery was recorded in 1880.

Inscriptions on the monument follow:

GENEALOGY OF THE GILMAN FAMILY

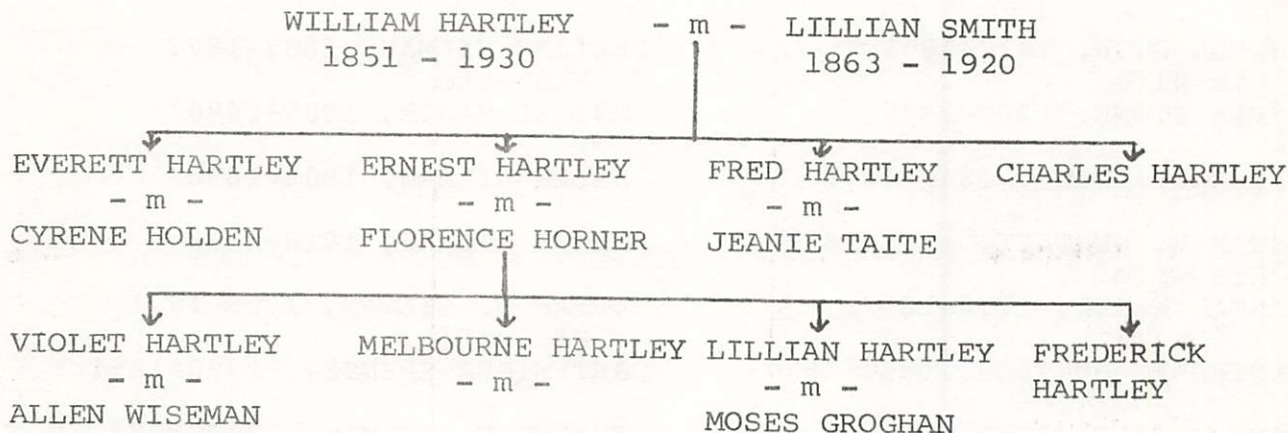

From "Contribution to the History of the Eastern Townships" by Cyrus Brown, Published 1866.

In 1802 Dudley Gilman from Canaan, New Hampshire, settled in West Brome. He lived here only eight years but during that time with the aid of his sons he cleared much of this lot. After this he moved eastward to the lot now (1866) owned by his son, E. P. Gilman.

He left nine children, six sons and three daughters but now (1866) only U. S. and E. P. Gilman are living in Brome.

E. P. Gilman has been Justice of the Peace for a long time and is generally known as Esquire Gilman.
