Michael lives in the Midlands and comes from the same branch of the Mid Devon Kelland family as my mother's relatives did. Michael does all his charts by longhand and has, with some help from other members and his wife Pat, produced 51 charts for the Mid Devon families and 20 update sheets with an Index of 11 pages; 54 charts and 8 update charts and a 12 page Index for the South Devon families. He has also produced charts for the Kallends, the Somerset and Bristol families and the Pontypridd and Somerset connections. Having an Index is essential and without the three which we have produced for our 15 Kelland Newsletters it would be very difficult to help new researchers or to remember what has already gone in previous Newsletters!

We have a few famous Kellands in our records.

Professor Philip Kelland M.A.F.R.S. Professor of Mathematics at Edinburgh University from 1838 until his death in 1879. Philip was the son of the Revd Philip Kelland B.A Rector of Landcross 1818-47 and married as his second wife Alexandrina Jannette Dondaldson Boswell , a descendent of King Edward III.

Clarence Budington Kelland Lawyer and Author born in July 1881 at Michigan. His father Thomas Kelland was the grandson of John Kelland of Loosbeare and Zeal Monachorum.

Otto Kelland father of one of our Newfoundland members received the Order of Canada in 1994 for his 50 years Civil Service career and his music and song writing, books, prose and poems and the scale models of every kind of Schooner and Dory used by Newfoundland fishermen. Although now 92 Otto is still building his Dories.

There surely can be no other hobby which unites people across the world and in doing so helps to preserve the history of our Nations.

The Kelland Family History Circle would always welcome new members and general enquiries.

I have been cross referencing early IPMs and visitations of many of the old Devon families as part of my research on the early Yeo family. One of the interesting facts I have found is on the Crocker visitations. According to Vivian's Devon Visitations dated 1620, Elizabeth Yeo, daughter of Robert Yeo married Sir John Crocker, who died in 1508. When he died their son John, age 50 years old was the heir to his estates. The IPM for Sir John states that he was seised in fee of the manors of Hemerdon and Bykford and that by charter dated 14 August 22 Henry VII (1507) he enfeoffed thereof to John Basset knight, Thomas Hacche, Roger Greyfield, William Walrond, Edmund Yeo and Edward Yeo, to hold during the life of Isobel daughter of Robert Yeo, for her sole use, as her jointure and whole dower pertaining to her by or after the death of the said John Crocker, knight.

Elizabeth (or Isobel) Yeo could only have been in her early twenties, because the IPM on her grandfather, William, in 1481, names her father Robert as his heir and he was only 26 years old at this time. She could not have been the mother of John Crocker. His mother must have been the daughter of Sir Richard Fortescue.

The feoffees can be identified, Sir John Bassett was married to Honor Greyfield and she was second cousin to Elizabeth Yeo. William Yeo, Elizabeth's grandfather married Ellen Greyfield. Roger Greyfield was Honor's brother. William Walrond was Elizabeth's uncle, his sister Alice married Elizabeth's father Robert Yeo. Edmund Yeo was her uncle and Edward Yeo her brother. Sir John Basset's sister Alice was married to Thomas Hacche.

Sir John Crocker's son John had married an heiress, although he may not have known this at the time of the marriage. Anne Arundell, daughter of Renfrew Arundell (not Jane daughter of Humphrey Arundell as re Vivian's Visitations) inherited many Cornish manors, including the manors of Byename, Stratton, St Mary Wke, St Cleer Colehill, Leskerd Coleshill. She also inherited the manors of Huish, Stowford by Lifton, and Bowerland in Devon. All these manors were passed on by hereditary rights and can be traced through the IPMs of:-

1. John Coleshill who married Emma Hiwis. She was the cousin of Sir John de Blanchminster, and daughter and heir of Sir Richard Hiwis who married Alice daughter of Sir Ralph de Blanchminster and aunt to Sir John.
2. Joan Coleshill, granddaughter of John and Emma, and heiress of all their estates, married Renfrew Arundell. She then married John Nanffan and finally William Houghton. She died in 1497.
3. Sir Edmond Arundell, born 1468, and the heir to his mother's estate. He married Joan daughter of Sir Thomas Walgrave, but died in 1503 when the reversion fell to Anne wife of John Crocker.

However Anne died without issue on the 25th August 1507 and the reversion of the estates fell to Anne Danvers, daughter of John Stradlyng, son of Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Joan and Renfrew Arundell, to John Whittington, son of Elizabeth second daughter of Joan and Renfrew and to Richard Bolles son of Isobel third daughter of Joan by John Nanffan, her second husband.

What is significant is that Anne died eleven days after the charter was agreed for Elizabeth Yeo's dower and jointure. Did Anne die in childbirth? If this was the case then the feoffees would have had access to many lands if she had
