WE NEED YOUR INPUT: We will gladly print upcoming events such as reunions or regional genealogy meetings and welcome the information. If you have written a book recently and wish to let the members know, please contact the corresponding secretary or president of your group. Any suggestions will be appreciated. I have enjoyed coordinating the March and Nov. newsletters and hope you have found them to be informative and useful in your research.

Sheree Miller

"To be a genealogist takes patience and a willingness to help others. Those not born with these characteristics soon incorporate them into their personalities when the ancestral chase commences."
