Smith County, Mississippi and its Families 1833-2003

The Smith County Genealogical Society announces that the eagerly anticipated publication, "Smith County, Mississippi and Its Families, 1833-2003" is in final stages for printing and should be available by October or November of this year. Project Committee Chairman, Charlotte Webb says that the book will be hardbound edition and include over 550 individual family and military veteran histories as well as writeups for 22 communities, businesses, and organizations and 25 churches and schools.

Webb says that it is important that family and county history be preserved before being lost, and it was with this intent that this undertaking was done. People with ties now or in the past to Smith County contributed in their own words family histories, many with photos, for today's researcher as well as future generations. She says the Society is grateful for those who did take the time and contribute to this effort. Genealogy is now one of the most popular past times in the country as people want to know more about their ancestry and family heritage. Smith County was one of the major areas settled and inhabited by families coming out of the Carolinas to Georgia to Alabama and on into Mississippi. Many families later made the move on west to Louisiana and Texas. This book will help many researchers looking at families that were part of this time in our country's expansion.

Pre-orders are now being accepted by the Smith County Genealogical Society for this book. Cost is $40.00 + $5.00 Shipping per book. Payment can be sent by check or money order to: Smith County Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 356, Raleigh, MS 39153. Be sure to indicate that the payment is a pre-order for the "Smith County, Mississippi and Its Families, 1833-2003" publication. Shipment will be made on a first
