NORTH CAROLINA
THE McCUBBINS COLLECTION

To the uninitiated the McCubbins collection may appear unimposing and not likely to give him the answer he needs, unless, he supposes, he lived within throwing distance of the Rowan Public Library where the original manuscripts are housed.

The Rowan Public Library is located in Salisbury, North Carolina, where in 1956 the Genealogical Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints filmed this collection. It is a large collection and is comprised of some 76 rolls of microfilm. Since collections such as this are not cataloged in detail, it is necessary to do a little exploring on your own to get the full use of the materials. Not every item in such a collection can be listed in the card catalog. As an example, there is no mention of some very good maps on Part 61. There is one map in particular that is entitled "Maps of German Settlers." On Part 76 there are a number of church records, histories, etc., and indexes to graveyards.

Although the originals are physically confined within the bounds of Rowan county, they contain information on people who lived in various places throughout the state of North Carolina with a small amount of information about persons who lived in other states.

The information was originally collected and compiled by Mrs. Mamie McCubbins. The collection is arranged for the most part by family surnames. This arrangement was effected under the direction of the Rowan Public Library.

Each grouping of materials by surname also contains data about other inter-married families. This situation is aided by the presence of a cross-reference guide. For example, a cross-reference entry may read, Reid - see Brown. No page numbers are given but at least it is known that the surname Reid is involved by inter-marriage among the records of Brown families.

Not only does this collection serve as a general finding aid, or surname index leading to various localities, but it also contains various church records, tombstone inscriptions and maps, court minutes, etc.

If you have North Carolina ancestry, it is recommended that this collection be explored. (If you do not have access to it, your Editor will be glad to search the microfilmed copy for you.)

CORRECTION:

In the second paragraph, the second sentence should read: "It has been entitled WILLS AND ADMINISTRATIONS OF LAWRENCE COUNTY, ARKANSAS, 1816-1834, because of the entry in the volume in 1819 of wills which had been proven in 1816, 1817, and 1818."

When the first two volumes of the series, GENEALOGICAL RECORDS OF NORTHEAST ARKANSAS, covering the periods 1816-1830 and 1830-1838, were compiled, Lawrence County officials reported that the early will and probate records were lost. However, the record of wills and letters of administration, bound as PROBATE AND WILL 1817-1834, has since been located.

This volume contains abstracts of the records found in this volume. It has been entitled WILLS AND ADMINISTRATIONS OF LAWRENCE COUNTY, ARKANSAS, 1816-1817, because of the entry in the volume in 1819 of wills which had been proven in 1816, 1817, and 1818. Internal evidence indicates that the volume was originally designated PROBATE BOOK B. The early Settlement Record, containing copies of the settlements and inventories reported by administrators, has not been found.
