Transcribed and Abstracted by Amelia Martin and Janice Eddleman

Samuel Edmondson was born in Tennessee in 1808, but was taken to Georgia by his father Thomas Edmondson when he was a boy.<sup>1</sup> He lived there until 1832 when he settled at Crawford Court House.<sup>2</sup> Mr. Edmondson moved to Van Buren when the court was moved there. In 1840 he came from Van Buren to Fort Smith, cut the trees from his lot and built a house at the corner of Fourth and B Streets.<sup>3</sup> His second wife was Ann Manning and he had at least three sons: Rev. James Edmondson, who was a Missionary Baptist preacher<sup>4</sup>; T. W. Edmondson, who was a partner in the firm of Wood, Edmondson & Britt, Star Grocery House<sup>5</sup> and Col. Samuel M.

Edmondson who like his father became a Sebastian County Justice of the Peace<sup>6</sup>. The elder Samuel Edmondson died of cholera on October 4, 1866.<sup>7</sup>

Mr. Edmondson first became a Justice of the Peace about 1840 when Matthew Moore who was then the Justice of the Peace moved to Sugar Loaf.<sup>8</sup> He was to serve in that capacity and as a "practitioner at law in Fort Smith for over thirty years,"<sup>9</sup> earning himself the nickname of "Old Ginger."<sup>10</sup> When the first election for county officers was held from Sebastian County on January 27, 1851, Edmondson was elected as one of the commissioners to select a county seat.<sup>11</sup> These

Samuel Edmondson's Grave marker in Section 3, Row 3, Calvary Cemetery, Fort Smith, also serves as marker for the following children of Sam and Ann:

John M., b. Oct. 17, 1849, d. Jan. 24, 1851
Hannah, b. May 12, 1851, d. April 12, 1859
Francis B., b. Dec. 1, 1851, d. April 22, 1858

The grave of Ann Edmondson, born August 15, 1827, died July 31, 1898, wife of Sam Edmondson, is marked with a separate marker in Section 3 behind Sam's marker.

commissioners met at Jenny Lind in May of 1851 and "located the seat of justice on forty acres of land lying in Section 12, Township 6 north, Range 31 west, and donated by Reuben Coker for that purpose. They also named the place Greenwood."<sup>12</sup> He also served Sebastian County as a member of the Arkansas House of Representatives in both the Tenth (1854-1855) and Eleventh (1856-1857) State Legislatures.<sup>13</sup>

In spite of his long record of service to the courts, Edmondson was not without legal problems of his own. According to Goodspeed, "On the 19th of February, 1848, Jesse Merritt, a pardoned convict, was killed at Fort Smith by Samuel Edmondson. Some difficulty existed between the parties, and in the morning they met and quarreled, and about 3 o'clock P.M. Merritt walked into Edmondson's office to see Esquire Hudspeth, and after getting through with his business, and being in the act of leaving, Edmondson fired at him from the outside through the back door of the office. The ball entered his right breast, and came out under the right shoulder-blade. Merritt fell upon the floor, uttered one short groan, and was dead. Edmondson fled, and went to the residence of Maj. Elias Rector, about two miles from town, where he sent for the sheriff. He was afterward tried for the murder and acquitted."<sup>14</sup>

The following information was abstracted from Samuel Edmondson's Justice of the Peace Docket dated in the front of the book 1860-1861. However, the entries are dated from September 8, 1859, to June 28, 1861. It should be noted that the role of the early justices of the peace was considerably different from that of today. They heard some civil and criminal cases then as well as the more modern role of performing marriages and acting as a county legislature. It is also important to realize that a justice's docket is not the court minutes; it is rather like today's diary or calendar.

The docket was loaned, for copying, to the Fort Smith Historical Society by Mr. George A. Toney of Little Rock, Arkansas. It is a ledger book, with several different handwritings and formats, which contains marriages and cases covering nonpayment of debts, stray animals, violent crimes including one case of child abuse and cases of runaway slaves. Most cases appear to have been heard without the assistance of an attorney. With a few exceptions herein noted, all of the entries were signed by Justice of the Peace Edmondson. Costs and fees are listed at the end of each case document with the fees for the Justice of the Peace ranging from fifty cents to three dollars and fifty cents and the witnesses getting about fifty cents.

(Editor's Note: A question mark indicates that there was a question about what was written directly before the mark.)

State of Arkansas vs Geo. R. Marshall. On this 5th day of February 1860 comes Zachariah Taylor and having filed before me his complaint in writing and upon oath, stating that said George R. Marshall, on or about the 4th day of February 1860, did feloniously steal, take and carry away one chopping axe, of the value of one dollar and seventy-five cents from said Taylor at said time and place, and pray that a warrant may be issued for the arrest of said George R. Marshall. Whereupon a warrant is issued, directed to the constable of Upper Township, commanding him to arrest said George R. Marshall and to bring him before me without delay. 5th day of February 1860. On this day comes the said George R. Marshall in custody of the constable and thereupon I proceeded to examine the complainant and witness in regard to said charge, the testimony of whom was reduced to writing and sworn to and subscribed by them. Whereupon being of opinion that the defendant is guilty as charged and the offense being bailable, it is ordered that the defendant enter into recognizance with sufficient security to the State in the sum of $300, conditional for his appearance at the next circuit court to answer said charge and said defendant not entering into such recognizance. powder, did then shoot me, the said Nellis, in the abdomen with the intent to kill and murder me without any provocation whatever. I am fully satisfied that I cannot recover from the wounds inflicted. I believe that I must soon die. I make these declarations with the solemnity of impending dissolution and know that I cannot recover. When the difficulty occurred, I was going up toward the Indian in a peaceable manner, and told him he ought not to have his pistol out in that manner, throwing it round; that it might go off and kill some one, and just as I reached out my hand to take hold of the pistol, and was in the act of taking hold of it, he pulled the trigger and fired at me. I believe in the final accountability of all persons to the Creator and I have made these declarations with a full sense of that accountability, and under as solemn obligations as if under oath. And now on this 9th day of August 1860 comes the said defendant Arch Stand in custody of J.M. Wheeler as constable and thereupon I proceeded to examine H.S. On this 18th day of September 1860 comes Thomas Barnes and made his declaration under oath in writing stating he was shot on 18 Sept. 1860 on the north side of the Arkansas River opposite the steamboat landing in the city of Fort Smith (illegible) well within the Cherokee Nation by John Bonge(?) about one half inch below the right nipple and at the same time and place he was cut by a knife in the hands of James Bonge in the side of the neck, at the time he received the wounds his brother William Barnes had in his possession a large sum of money (perhaps from the weight of it) and from his own knowledge of counting the same, there was on or about One Thousand Dollars. Being well acquainted with the parties, I am of the opinion that their aim was to attack me before they could attack William Barnes believing that they dreaded me worse than him. They had good reason to believe that William Barnes had the above named amount of money in his possession and he verily believed that the attack was made for the purpose of robbing him of the said sum of money, or at least it looks reasonable to him that such was their intention as they knew that he had the above amount on money in his possession at the camp meeting ground in the Cherokee Nation on Thursday last. Continued on Page 101.

And thereupon comes Wm. Barnes as witness, who being duly sworn by me, on his oath says that on the evening of the 18th Sept. 1860 he was attacked by James Bonge and Moses Edwards on the North side of the Arkansas River, near the ferry landing, opposite Ft. Smith, in the Cherokee Nation, at which time James Bonge seized him with violence whilst on his horse by the arm, at which time the said Moses Edwards stabbed him in the back, at which time they pulled him off his horse and on rising up, not seeing my own horse, I jumped on another horse and rode a short distance in the Nation, and then returned and crossed the river to Fort Smith. From the time that I was pulled off my horse, I never saw my saddle bages containing the money belonging to Peter Mankins which I had in possession at the time containing on or about one thousand dollars in gold and silver which money belonged to said Peter Mankins, the said saddle bags and money given into (See page 102.)

My possession by said Mankins four or five days ago, during which time I had possession of the same most of the time. I have been in the habit of trading for and carrying money for said Mankin for several years. I do know that James Bonge knew that I had the money belonging to Mankins for he asked me and I told him so. It looks reasonable to me that the aforesaid attack was made on me and my brother, Thomas Barnes, for the purpose of robbing me of the above named amount of money. From the wounds inflicted on me, I have reason to believe that I may never recover and I make this statement knowing that I am in my proper mind as much as I ever was. I state that my brother and myself are both Cherokee Indians and that James Bonge and Moses Edwards are both Cherokee Indians and that Pete Mankins is a White Man and a citizen of the State of Arkansas.

And thereupon comes B.W. Alberty and in his oath says, that on the evening of the 18th of Sept 1860, I was on the north bank of the Arkansas River opposite Fort Smith in the Cherokee Nation. Whilst there I saw Ridle Benge who told me that Moses Edwards had in his possession the horse and saddle bags that I was inquiring for. He told me this when I inquired if he had seen Wm. Barnes horse and saddle bags on the bar. He asked me my reasons for asking him these questions and I replied that Wm. Barnes had lost a horse and a pair of saddle bags containing one thousand to fifteen hundred dollars in gold and that I was in search of them. He replied, you need not hunt for them because Moses Edwards has got the horse and saddle bags and run off with them. I was requested by Peter Mankin to hunt for them. Ridle Benge told me that another of the boys, John Benge or James Benge were near him, Ridle Benge, at the time of the shooting. He said that the horse that Wm. Barnes had with the saddle bags on ran towards him and he caught the horse. Moses Edwards ran to him, jerked the horse loose from him, jumped on him and ran off with him, and had the saddle bags on the horse. I asked him if he knew that to be Wm. Barnes horse. He said he did. I called on Carter Daniels as a witness to know if he would swear to that, he said he would. I said, if so I would go back and tell Mr. Mankin what had become of his saddle bags, which I did, and we quit hunting for the same. I consider Riddle Benge to be a clever, responsible man. Thomas and William Barnes are both Cherokee, also Moses Edwards, James & John Benge are all Cherokee. Peter Mankin is a white man. Signed: B.W. Alberty. Thereupon comes John Barnes & on his oath swears that he is the father of Thomas & William Barnes and that he knows these to be natives of the Cherokee Nation.

ORANGE COUNTY CALIFORNIA
GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

Compiled by Lois N. Miller
1018 Sunset Drive
Fayetteville, Arkansas 72701

To the best of my ability and knowledge, these obituaries are complete for the year 1995.

The hand written data on each obituary indicates the day of the week, section and page, and date of the newspaper.
