We Have a Winner!

For several months at the beginning of the summer, we sold tickets for a chance to win a 36" x 36" quilt made by Katy Houghton (Barbara Edkin's cousin from Sacramento).

We sold about 200 tickets and had the drawing at the FGS Conference held at Ontario August 7-10.

Tracy Bordon is the lucky winner. Since she did not make the September meeting, we kept it a secret until the October general meeting.

Tracy Bordon shows off the quilt she won in our raffle.

Book Review

By Lynette Trainer

The Weekend Genealogist Timesaving techniques for effective research. By Marcia Yannizze Melnyk. (Betterway Books, Cincinnati, OH, 2000. List price: $18.99. ISBN: 1558705465)

Don't have enough time in the day or weekend to do your genealogy? Want to learn how to get better organized and to get the most of your time? This book is for you.

The book starts off with the basics of filling out the family group sheet, pedigree chart, research and correspondence logs. Melnyk explains why it's important to use these forms. She also talks about using and making customized forms and gives several examples: Vital Records Log for both domestic and foreign records, Soundex card and a Surname Overview Form. In the back of the book are forms that you can copy for your own use.

Melnyk talks about utilizing research facilities such as The National Archives, State Archives, State Libraries, State Vital Records, and the State Historical Society. One hint is to make a binder containing information such as hours, parking, local restaurants, flyers about points of interest for the family while you do research, cost of coping, blank forms for transcribing records for the research facility.

This book is packed full of helpful hints on how to get the most genealogy information for the least amount of time. This is a must for your genealogy library.

ports, diaries and letters, etc. Your person might not have written any letters or diaries but he/she may be mentioned in those of someone else. "Scottish Highland Surnames: More than Meets the Eye" was the final lecture of the day by George Sanford. This lecture is very hard to report on because he used so many examples that I didn't write them down. In essence, when working with Highland names you need to rely very heavily on oral history traditions. The names have to be taken in social context. In addition to surnames (once required) they also used nicknames and patronymics. Records were spotty; the people were illiterate and seemed to be at war most of the time. You need to understand naming customs, translating both forenames and surnames from Gaelic to English, and the phenomenon of shifting surnames. You will need to do a thorough job of your homework to determine where they were in Scotland plus the customs of the area.

Our final two lectures were given on our last afternoon at sea while sailing to St John, NB. David's final lecture was "Beyond the Death Record: Utilizing Cemetery Records & Other Resources in Your Research." The usual suspects were discussed in this lecture; funeral home records, church records, newspaper records, home sources and vital records. In New England the town clerk kept vital records from the earliest times while other areas have varying start dates. Just a couple of hints about vital records, if you find a card file with vital records (or any kind of record) but sure to copy both sides of the card. Also, in New England, if the town clerk is unwilling to let you look at his/her books you can go to the public library and ask for the Annual Report that had to be filed. Our final lecture was given by George. It was entitled "Using Diaries, Letters, and Account Books: Genealogical Goldmines and Where to Find Them." Many letters and diaries are in private hands but can also be found in manuscript collections, historical and genealogical libraries and other repositories. Some (many) have been published and many have not. People in all walks of life kept diaries. Look for letter, diaries and account books in the area where your ancestor lived. Her/she may not have kept one but a neighbor may have who mentioned all that was going on in town including what your ancestor was up to. Account books were kept by storekeepers, doctors, lawyers and other professional who collected money from customers, patients, clients, etc. George told of finding a doctor's account book in the town of his ancestors in which the doctor had charged $3 for the birth of a child that was the only record that he had ever found for that person's birth.

The cruise was very enjoyable, the company great and the lectures stimulating. I am sure that Jane Lindsey of CGS is busy planning another one for next year. Put it on your agenda - you won't be sorry.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Rich to Celebrate Golden Wedding

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Rich of 424 Thirteenth street will be celebrated at a reception tomorrow night in Memorial hall, which will be attended by 150 old friends and relatives of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Rich were married in Emporia, Kansas, January 14, 1878. Rich in the early days engaged in government surveying in Kansas and Oklahoma, and had many engagements with Indians. Later he became a locomotive engineer, and for years was employed by the Santa Fe. He is now retired. Rich is 75 and Mrs. Rich is 69. Both enjoy good health considering their advance years.

Among those who will attend the anniversary tomorrow night will be many who attended the 30th wedding anniversary of the couple in Fresno 20 years ago. An impromptu program from among those to attend the event has been arranged, and a light supper will be served. Mr. and Mrs. Rich have one son, Robert V. Rich, also a Santa Fe engineer, with whom they reside. Rich is an expert fisherman and puts in much of his time at the sport.

Research tip for Switzerland: The "Swiss hold voting and citizenship rights to specific towns, and they often maintain those rights for generations. When a family member moves to a different community, the home-place bonds often remain, with vital and other court records entered into the former town's register. The prevalence of this citizenship custom offers a potential bonanza for genealogists, since certain surnames may have long associations with certain towns, stretching back many centuries."
