CONDOLENCES

ORANGE COUNTY CALIFORNIA
GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

The Society was saddened to learn of the death of Elmer R. Johnson on August 8 in Brookings, South Dakota. He leaves his wife of one year, our long-time member Vera (Peteram) Woolbert. Both he and Vera were widowed when they met at the 60th reunion of alumni of South Dakota State College where they had been classmates together. They were married in July, 1995 and shared an interest in genealogy, being one of the few, if not the only, participants in last year's trip to Salt Lake City who attended as a couple.

THINGS WEBSTER LEFT OUT

Modern dictionaries don't usually contain definitions of confusing and/or obsolete words and abbreviations sought by frustrated genealogists.

Not to be found are the meanings of old occupations, explanations of the various ailments that afflicted and killed our ancestors nor the the geographical, foreign, historical, legal, relational, religious, colloquial, monetary and ethnic terms found in old records.

A solution may be at hand with the publication of "A to Zax: A Comprehensive Dictionary for Genealogists and Historians, 3rd edition, Hearthside Press, 5735A Telegraph Rd., Alexandria, VA 22303, for $17.95 postpaid. Or, you may order by calling 703-960-0086.
