

Historical Sketch

by Glenn and Margaret Stephens Heck

We owe much gratitude to M. L. Clark, Jr. and the late John Clayton Daniel for the 1997 survey of the Cedar Grove United Methodist Church and Cemetery. They spent many hours on this hallowed ground carefully recording names, dates of birth, and passing of so many of our ancestors who are at rest in this sacred soil. Those of us who are descendants of those buried in Cedar Grove Cemetery cherish our connections with and memories of these precious souls.

The Cedar Grove community is located in southwest Laurens County at the crossing of U.S. 441 and Georgia Highway 46, about 25 miles south from Dublin, Georgia.

In "History of Laurens County Vol I 1807-1941" by Bertha Shepard Hart, she wrote, "Midway between the Scotland and Telfair roads in Burch's District, is the little community of Cedar Grove, consisting of a few homes, two stores, and three school buildings grouped around a little white church.

"One looks for a cedar bordered avenue but not a cedar is to be seen. 'Twas thus the name originated: Some half century ago a wealthy church-loving man, Cornelius Clark, wanted a church built in his community. He chose a spot where cedar trees were growing in a graveyard and decided that the church should be built here and named Cedar Grove. But his choice met with opposition from neighbors who wanted it nearer the center of the community. B. L. and Lamar Lowery offered to build the church if placed on the present site. Mr. Clark consented to their choice of location, but insisted that the church carry the name he had chosen, Cedar Grove. This building was burned; a log church was built and it was burned. Later, Osford's Mill sawed the lumber and David and Warren Pope built the house now in use."

The church was organized by Cornelius Morgan Clark, Sam Harrelson, B. L. Lowery and Mrs. Mary Pharis. It was dedicated on May 4, 1886.

Driving east on Hwy 46 from its intersection with U.S. 441, turn right on Hwy 126, the road to Alamo. After a short distance, Sudie Pearle Jones Road crosses Hwy 126. Turn left. The church is on the right and the cemetery is across the street.

Through the years the church has been renovated and upgraded. In the late 50s and early 60s the church began to grow. Four Sunday School rooms and two restrooms were added and the ceiling was lowered. Gas heat and new windows were added. In the late 60s a social hall was added to the outside of the church.

M. L. Clark, Jr. and John Clayton Daniel are descendents of Cornelius Morgan Clark, one of the church's founding fathers. In the 1997 Homecoming booklet, M. L. remembers, "My earliest memories of Cedar Grove United Methodist Church was attending Sunday School and going to Mr. Gay's Singing School during summer vacations. I still remember the interior of the building with its high ceiling and the row of posts down the center aisle. Wires were strung up with sheets on them to section off the Sunday School classes. The altar and pulpit were of a simple but beautiful design and I can imagine the painstaking care that went into its building.

"Another memory I have is the Sunday sings that were held there and at other churches in the county. There was always a large crowd on these occasions and dinner on the grounds was a special treat. My grandfather was an avid singer and loved the old hymns and gospel music."

The Cedar Grove Cemetery has been well maintained over the years and each year it becomes the final resting place for many of the descendents of the early church members.

Carl Clifford Peavy & Gessie Valma Porter Bible

In the possession of Helen S. Hudson hshudson@alltel.net

At a used book sale this Bible was pointed out to me and since it pertained to a family in the Central Georgia area, I purchased it hoping to find its family.

I did not find a copyright date but on the page titled Explanatory Note New York City 1913 is noted. Since the couple married December 20, 1920 according to the recorded information, it may have been a gift to the bride or part of her trousseau. If this is part of your family, please contact me. The inside pages are in perfect shape but the outside cover edges are broken.

The family information pages contains places for the marriage, births, other marriages, deaths and military services. There are only notations in the original marriage page, births and death pages.

This certifies that Carl Clifford Peavy and Gessie Velma Porter were united in Holy Matrimony on the 12 day of December in the year of our Lord 1920 at Lilly Georgia by Minister Not Listed

Deaths

Carl Clifford Peavy Died Dec. 6, 1954

Lena Gwendolyn Peavy Died February 11th 1924

According to the Georgia Death Index, Carl C Peavy who died 06 Dec 1954 at the age of 54 years, in Irwin County, Georgia while living in Irwin County, Georgia.

Carl's World War I Draft Registration Cards, 1917-1918, listed him as being a farmer and working for E. J. Peavy and lists his father as next of kin. The 1900 Federal Census for Dooly County, Georgia lists his parents as Eula and James Peavy. He has 4 siblings, Minnie Lou, Della May, Florence, James the baby and an aunt Della living with the family at this time. It also gives Carl's birth date as May 1891.

Gessie married Archie W. Weaver after Carl's death. She died 14 Nov 1970 at the age of 68 years in Irwin County, Georgia while living in Irwin County, Georgia. According to information that I found she was the daughter of James Uriah Porter and Annie Eliza Murray, Dooly County, Georgia.
