CLAY

A short sketch of the Zion Church just west of Xenia, Illinois, compiled in 1933 by Angie Walker.

In the year 1862 Rev. John Holstlaw came as a minister of the gospel into this neighborhood, preaching at the dwelling houses of J. A. Holman, Elijah Holman and others. A series of meetings was held at the home of Elijah Holman in the fall of 1862, conducted by Rev. Holstlaw, assisted by Rev. James Lackey. Then on October 11, 1863, an organization was formed by Rev. G. W. Jordan at the home of Robert Walker with the following members: William Brownfield, Mary A. Brownfield, Elijah Holman, J. W. Martin, Jr., Robert Walker, Nancy J. Walker, C. A. Brownfield, S. C. Brownfield, Julia Booth, Nancy Martin, Martha A. Gilliard, Frances A. Warren, Martha Holman, Mary C. Rutler, Ruth J. Holstlaw.

Note: Ruth J. Holstlaw was a daughter of Rev. John Holstlaw, and was the last living member of the congregation, her death occurring in 1937.
