ABSTRACTS OF BOND AND FAYETTE COUNTY MARRIAGES FOUND IN MADISON COUNTY, ILLINOIS

The following list of marriages was among the papers of the former Editor, Alenia McCord, turned over to the Society upon her death. The records were copied by Lloyd Bockstruck, a former Fayette County resident, from materials in the John Nowland papers in the Greenville Public Library and have not been compared against the original. These records have never been published through the pages of Fayette Facts. The records begin 1813.

Quoting from Mr. Bockstruck, "Originally marriage licenses and certificates in Bond County were entered in a volume labeled 'County Records', covering the period June, 1817 to March, 1823. In a typed copy of this record in the county courthouse occur two lists: one for marriage licenses granted between March 1817 and January 1821 and another for marriages solemnized from September 1817 through November 1820. Thereafter the entries were made in a separate register. Because the records have been copied at least three times, the chance for errors has been increased proportionately".

Fayette County was not formed until 1821, so many marriages of people living within the current environs of our county would have their marriages filed in Bond or Madison counties.

Information in parenthesis has been added by Mr. Bockstruck and/or Miss McCord.

Family Bible Collection

The records in this article were submitted by ISGS members for inclusion in the society's Family Bible Records collection project. If you would like copies of your family Bible records included, please see the website at www.ilgensoc.org for submission guidelines. Remember the family information presented here is only as accurate as the original records they were extracted from. Handwriting was not always legible. Where the transcriber had difficulty reading the original, comments followed by her initials "KLG" are inserted for clarification. Additional explanatory interpretation may be added. Known details about the Bible's provenance and the name of the submitter are also included.

living with his parents Joseph (born about 1800 in England), Laetitia (born about 1808 in England) and his siblings: John (born about 1838 in England), Martha (born about 1844 in IL) Thomas (born about 1847 in IL )and William (born about 1850 in IL)<sup>123</sup>. Henry was among the earliest to volunteer to serve in the army. He enlisted on 25 Jun 1861 in Company K of the 13th IL Infantry<sup>124</sup>. When he joined the army he was employed as a mason and described as being 5'11" tall with dark hair, blue eyes and a fair complexion<sup>125</sup>. Henry was mustered in for three years as a Private on the same day he enlisted in Caseyville, IL<sup>126</sup>. The 13th IL Infantry saw significant combat while Henry was with the unit, including the actions at Arkansas Post, AR and Chickasaw Bayou, MS as well as the sieges of Vicksburg and Jackson, MS<sup>127</sup>. The severity of active service caught up with Henry. He died in a hospital in Memphis, TN on 21 May 1864<sup>128</sup>. [Note: There is some controversy concerning Henry's exact burial location. The 1956 IL Honor Roll has listings for him in both the Wayne Center Cemetery in Wayne Township and the Oakwood Cemetery in Winfield Township<sup>129</sup>. Headstones for Henry are also in both cemeteries. The headstone in the Wayne Center Cemetery is old and appears contemporary with his death. The headstone in the Oakwood Cemetery is considerably newer and was apparently cut and installed at the same time as similar markers for members of the extended Standidge family buried there. Correspondence with the Wayne Township Clerk confirmed that Henry was buried in the Wayne Center Cemetery<sup>130</sup>. There is no record of a re-internment. The marker in the Oakwood Cemetery is likely a cenotaph.]

More Original Abraham Lincoln Documents Discovered

An interesting story by Andrew Maloney, Sun-Times Springfield Bureau, on May 15, 2012 (last modified on May 18, 2012 10:18PM) was published by the Sun-Times Media, LLC at <http://www.suntimes.com/news/nation/12556164-418/trove-of-original-abraham-lincoln-documents-found-in-japan.html>.

Over 100 original Abraham Lincoln documents were discovered in Japan by researchers from the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Museum and Library. The documents are said to span the period of time from his early professional life in New Salem up to his presidency.

Daniel Stowell is editor of The Papers of Abraham Lincoln, a project of The Abraham Lincoln Presidential Museum and Library in Springfield.

For more information about the project and images of some of the documents, visit the website at: www.papersofabrahamlincoln.org.

Family Bible Collection

The records in this article were submitted by ISGS members for inclusion in the society's family bible collection project. If you would like copies of your family bible records included, please see the website at www.ilgensoc.org for the guidelines for submission. Remember the family information presented here is only as accurate as the original records they were extracted from. Handwriting was not always legible. Where the transcriber had difficulty reading the original, comments followed by her initials "KLG" are inserted for clarification. Additional explanatory interpretation may be added. Known details about the bible's provenance and the name of the submitter are also included.

BAILEY FAMILY BIBLE

Family Places of Residence: Kentucky, 1817;
Dade County Missouri, 1844; and Jackson County, Oregon, 1868-1899.

Submitted by: Edgar H. and Grace H. BAILEY, P.O.
Box 1013, Phoenix, Oregon 97535.

Owned by: Same.

[This bible was in poor repair when we received it. The several pages in the front of the bible are gone so no title page. The births, deaths, and marriages are all mixed up in the pages. ... However my father-in-law was able to get his social security from this record. I was amazed. EHB.]

[There was evidence of many entries made, either in the "right" places or along the margins of several of the pages. Unfortunately I was not able to read most of them. I have entered all that I could decipher from the dim parts of the photocopies. In a few instances they sent information that I could not see and so I assume the problem was that the ink wouldn't photocopy well. I have noted when a date was given by the bible owner, but not seen by my eyes. The reason for alternate spellings is that the owners probably gave the accepted ones, whereas I transcribed what the original spelling appeared to be. klg.]
