FOUNTAIN COUNTY, INDIANA
MARRIAGE RECORDS

BOOK I
1826-1839

Compiled by:
Miriam Luke

PREFACE

This book contains the first marriages which were recorded in Fountain County, Indiana. Fountain County was formed in 1826. The marriages were copied from MARRIAGE RECORDS OF FOUNTAIN COUNTY, BOOK I 1826-1839, which is in the County Clerk's Office, Fountain County Courthouse, Covington, Indiana 47932. You may obtain certified copies of the individual marriages by writing to that office.

The dates given are the actual marriage dates unless noted otherwise. In a few cases the marriage date was not stated so the date which the license was issued or the date the marriage was recorded is used in this book. The marriages are listed as they were recorded and are not always chronological. The various ministers and J. P.'s would record the marriages which they had performed on their sometimes infrequent trips to Covington and the Clerk's office. The marriages which they then recorded had sometimes occurred weeks, perhaps even months, before.

In a few cases it is noted on the marriage record that the parents gave their consent for the marriage. Occasionally the father's name was given. We have indicated this by including the father's name in parenthesis.

There were no pages numbered 177 and 178. There were two sets of pages numbered 337 and 338. We have indicated the second of these by placing a "b" after 337 and 338 in the index.

One entry was inadvertently omitted: Page 272; 4 May 1837; George Isler to Emily Taylor.

Miss Luke intends to publish more records of Fountain County. She is presently working on the earliest will and land records. She is also planning to compile the second book of marriages. Questions regarding Fountain County records may be addressed to Miss Miriam Luke, 505 Fourth Street, Covington, Indiana 47932.

This volume was typed and mimeographed by Lowell M. Volkel.
