During the 1970 the Morgan County Gazette published the heretofore unpublished marriage records of Morgan County, Indiana as found in Book A in the office of the clerk of the courts.

This series is set forth with the maiden name of the bride listed first rather than that of the groom. I have tried to alphabetize them as correctly as possible. The bride's name is listed first, followed by that of the groom, the date listed on the marriage return as the date of marriage, and the name of the official performing the marriage ceremony.

Many abbreviations are found following the name of the official who performed the marriage. Among those found throughout the records are: J.P. for Justice of the Peace; O.P. which I interpret as Ordained Preacher; M.G. undoubtedly Minister of the Gospel; E.C.C., believed to represent an Elder in the Christian Church; A.J. for Associate Judge, and John Mathews solemnized a few marriages and affixed the abbreviation P.J. He as a Probate Judge.

These records are transcribed from Marriage Record Book "A" in the office of the Clerk of Morgan County. Marriage Record "A" contains those licenses issued from April 22, 1822 through May 24, 1842. The issuing clerk from 1822 through March, 1829 was George H. Beeler; from April, 1829 until April, 1833, George A. Phelps; and from that date through the remainder of Book A, H. R. Stevens.

A fire in 1876 damaged the record book and the entry does not always appear complete, we designate such by "no return" or "return unsigned."

Perhaps the following notice pasted in the front of this book will help to explain some of the missing material and uncompleted returns:

"I, Jeff. K. Scott, appointed by the Board of County Commissioners at their special August term, 1876, to superintend the copying of such of the Records and Books of the Auditor's and Clerk's offices of said county as were damaged by fire on the morning of the 21st of March, 1876, but remain in condition to be copied, do hereby certify that the entries in this record are full, true and complete, as copied from the original marriage Records from April 22, 1822. to March 24, 1842 of the Morgan Circuit Court and belonging to the Clerk's Office of said Court, which was damaged by said fire, and copied under my directions, by Miss Fannie E. Mills, and compared by me. Witness my hand at Martinsville, Indiana, this 18 day of Nov., 1876 (signed) Jeff. K. Scott, Superintendent.

There also appears written on this notice the following comment, written in red ink, and enclosed by parenthesis: (This Book not finished by Order of County Commissioners. Nov. 18, 1876.)

I wish to thank Mr. Eddis Johnson for suppling me with a complete copy of the license published in the Gazette. To Judge Noble K. Littell for publishing the early marriage records in the Gazette. Also, Mrs. Alma Fraker, Becky Giddens, Rhonda Weaver for their help and encouragement with cross-indexing these marriage records and also my genealogy research.
