PREFACE

OCCGS REFERENCE ONLY

A very ancient authority has declared that it "is not good for man to be alone," and for all ages since that primitive era, the search has been unceasing by each individual man to find his mate.

This universal "Race for a wife" was not stopped, perhaps not even checked by the process of emigration. The boys went on courting the girls in the Western woods, even as they used to do, and their fathers before them had done, in their far-off Eastern or Southern homes. Hence it came to pass, even after many years had passed, that the Clerk of the Court was called on for a "marriage license," and the services of the Squire or parson were had in requisition, and the log-cabin beneath the shadow of the beeches was the center of a gay and joyous festal scene, in the shape of a wedding. The young people of Randolph County were no exception to the General Rule in this respect. So the record of marriages, as kept in the Clerk's office, begins at the very first, and keeps an equal step through the many years, with the ceaseless whirl and turmoil of business and of pleasure.

That record, though faithful and true, doubtless, for the most part, to the facts of marriage, at any rate to the number seeking marriage in the county, yet fails to show the whole number of the residents of the county who, in those early years, took unto themselves wives of the daughters of the land.

One couple came on horseback, the bride stuck her fiding whip into the ground on reaching the place of their destination, and it stands there yet (1881) now grown a giant tree, to commemorate their early arrival.

The first license for marriage issued in Randolph County was to Jacob Wright and Sally Wright, February 1, 1819, they were married February 2nd., 1819 by Rev. John Gibson, M.E. Minister. The second marriage was that of Absalom Gray and Margery Cox dated June 7, 1819. Their marriage took place June 10, 1819 by John Wright a Justice of the Peace.

The third marriage was June 21, 1819 by Ephraim Bowen Justice of the Peace and was solemnized Aug. 3, 1819 six weeks after the license was issued.

The number of marriages per year are as follows:

In 1819	there were	12	marriage licenses	issued
In 1820	"	10	"	"
In 1821	"	10	"	"
In 1822	"	8	"	"
In 1823	"	23	"	"
In 1824	"	17	"	"
In 1825	"	25	"	"
In 1826	"	15	"	"
In 1827	"	30	"	"
In 1828	"	27	"	"
In 1829	"	24	"	"
In 1830	"	39	"	"
In 1831	"	32	"	"

Up until April 1832 there were 16 licenses issued

In the sixty two years of marriage licenses issued by the County Clerk of Randolph County, 8,687 couples wanted to be joined in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony.

Who and how many of this immense multitude remained in 1881 and how many remained in Randolph County was undetermined, or how many had removed to other regions of our widespread land, How many have gone to that clime where they "Neither marry nor are given in marriage, "waiting in patient resignation of the hour when they shall be summoned to join the pale nations of the dead are known only to Him who dwells in the light of the Omniscience.

This statement of the marriage licenses does not embrace those who were married in "Quaker Meeking;" and that is, in this County, where, almost from the very beginning there have been six or eight "Preparative Meetings of Friends" in constant and prosperous existence, must have been a considerable number.

The whole number of marriages cannot fall far short of ten thousand in 1881.
