The parents of boys who have been flying kites on the old fair grounds should see to it that they are stopped from lighting fires to the tail of their kites after night. The property situated in that part of town is in danger of being burned up by such kids. Death of a Pioneer

James K. Valentine, one of the pioneers of Adair County, died Sunday at 4 p. m. in Casey, at the home of his son Frank, where he has been sick for about two years and was cared for by his sister, Miss Maggie Valentine. Funeral exercises were held at Casey Monday afternoon, and on Tuesday the remains were brought to Fontanelle, when they were taken in charge by the Masonic order, the deceased having joined Fontanelle Lodge, No. 138, A. F. & A. M., in July, 1860. The remains interred with Masonic honors.

The deceased was born in Shelby county, Ohio, Sept. 27, 1832, and was in his seventy third year at the time of his death. In 1836 he moved with his parents to Indiana, and in 1856 located in Adair county, Iowa. He was thrice married, first to Almiretta E. Benedict who died in November 1855, to Miss Ellen Root in 1857, who died in November, 1864, and to Miss Catherine Smith in September, 1866. In 1875 he moved to California and later to what was then Washington territory. His third wife passed to the beyond while they were residents of California. He was sheriff of this county in '62 and '63.

Mr. Valentine was one of the influencial and active business men of Fontanelle in an early day. He built the first store building in town as well as the old Pacific House on the site now occupied by Faurote & Kaemmerer's store. The pioneers recall his personality with pleasant memories and many were in attendance upon his funeral to pay their last tribute of respect to one who had borne the heat and burden of the day. (The Fontanelle Observer, February 23, 1905)

ORIENT TOWNSHIP

Orient township lies in the southern tier of townships of Adair County. The official organization of Orient Township occurred on June 7, 1869, known as Dayton Township at that time, but through petitions to the supervisors, the name was changed shortly after. Some believed it was changed to Orient because the county seat of Summerset, which is Fontanelle, had already been established and since "Orient" meant to the East," they were referring to "East of Summerset."

The first settler in Orient township was Reubon Dillow, who immigrated here from Ohio and entered land in section 26 in July 1860. Nearest neighbors were fifteen miles away. It was necessary to make the difficult trip to either Afton or Winterset for their milling and to get supplies. In 1865, the second settler of Orient township, Rhineheart Schweers, located in Section 16, which is very close to the town of Orient now. Schweersburg was started just west of the present city limits near the railroad. A post office was erected but later moved to Orient.

The ground for the Orient Cemetery was purchased from Judson Morgan in the fall of 1869. It consisted of one acre and cost $25.00. The body of William A. Hoffstatter was the first to be interred there. This is the only cemetery in Orient Township. Orient Cemetery is located on the northern city limits of Orient at the T-intersection on the north end of Broad Street. (A map of Orient Township will be included in the September newsletter.)

Almost geographically in the center of the township is the town of Orient. In January 1879 the railroad reached the point on which the town was laid out in the spring of the same year. Orient was filed for record March 12, 1879 by Charles E. Perkins. Later additions were Colby's Addition (October 21, 1880), Sprague's Addition (April 19, 1882), Brown's Addition (August 9, 1901), Miar's Addition (June 19, 1902) and Wiley's Additions (First: April 27, 1900 and Second April 15, 1910).

Prominent in the history of Orient Township are the following: The Cumberland Rose (the railroad line from Creston to Cumberland), The Mormon Trail, the Blue Grass Industry, Henry A. Wallace birthplace, Arthur "Dazzy" Vance birthplace. (Source: A Collection of Recollections, Orient, Iowa, 1882-1982)
