County, and an 1881 History of Buchanan County, and some 1905-1926 school annuals. Other books acquired: The History of Central City; William Hickey Family and Descendents, 1849-1990, compiled and donated by Nina Hickey; Diehl, Deal, Dill, and Dale Families of America, Vol.1, Diehl Families of York and Adams County, Pennsylvania, donated by the Rose Brewer family. The Taylor Publishing Company has given us the following county history books: Fillmore County, Minnesota; Jackson County, Iowa; and Appanoose County, Iowa.

We would like to expand our society, and enlarge our pool of volunteers. If you have a few hours a week to spare, come join us. You meet the most interesting people, and at the same time, you can do your own family research. Filing of the probates has been on hold during our efforts to put out the history book, but we will be back on track again soon. Contact any of the officers if you would like to help.

The following is a partial list of names and probate numbers that have been indexed to date, with the earliest ones dating from 1850:

DEATHS

HOVEY-In this city, on Friday, Dec. 24th, Adele M., eldest child and only daughter of Elijah A. and Rhoda S. Hovey, aged 11 years, 6 months and 12 days.

MAIN-Died at Independence, December 24th, 1869, Mrs. A.E. Main, aged 33 years.

OBITUARIES TAKEN FROM THE "QUASQUETONIAN"

JOSIAH HAMMOND WALTON-was born in Ohio, Nov. 22, 1820, and died in Liberty township, Buchanan County, Iowa, April 26th, 1901. He was married to Maria Cunningham, July 8th, 1841, and came to Iowa in 1849. They were the parents of nine children, two of whom died in youth. They first settled in Linn county, afterwards removing to this county where the wife and mother died in February 1884. Mr. Walton was united in marriage with Mrs. Eliza Kimball, of this place, October 6th, 1885, and for fifteen years they have shared each others joys and sorrows, and enjoyed the comforts of a happy christian home. Most faithfully has his aged companion cared for him and cheered him even down to the valley of death. Mr. Walton was a good christian man and a member of the M.E. church of Quasqueton. His ever willing testimony is still fresh in our memory. His home was the scene of many a happy gathering where he welcomed all with his cordiality. His kindness and good nature will never be forgotten. His children, all except two, were with him during his late illness and all that tender love could do was done, but we must say farewell to him who upon earth we loved to meet, for he has gone to be forever with the Lord. The funeral services were conducted at the residence by Rev. Jesse Smith, pastor of the M.E. church, the M.E. quartet furnishing choice music. And the funeral cortege made it's way to Spring Grove cemetery where the remains were laid to rest.

MORRIS TODD-was born in Monroe Co. N.Y. on December 31, 1827. Died at his home in Quasqueton on Wednesday 13. Funeral services were held in the M.E. church Thursday, Rev. Fickle officiating. The remains were interred in the Quasquaton cemetery. When 21 years of age Mr. Todd moved to Port Sanlack, Michigan, and in June 1851 he and Clara Finlayson were married. To them were born seven children, all of whom are living within the county except two. Mrs. Carrie Cunningham is living in Portland, Oregon and Mrs. Mary Hopkins is in Alaska. Those in this county are Albert Todd, of Independence, Howard Todd, of Cono, and Allen Todd, who is at home. Mrs Emma Shillinglaw, of Rowley, Mrs. Jessie Lynch, of Independence. Of the children all were present at the funeral save those from abroad who could not come, owing to the great distance. Deceased was one of our pioneers and a prominent man in the county. Twice was he elected to the office of County Supervisor and also held the office of Assesor for several years. He was known to us all for his kindly ways and straightforward business methods. To all with whom he met came the glad word, the words that cheer. In his home he was a good father and husband and his presence will be missed there so long as time shall last. Of a rugged, hardy nature, such as our pioneers and all of us are proud of, his time on earth lengthened to nearly the three quarters of a century mark, and his sun-down life was marked by kindness of wife and children and comfortable surroundings, the reward of industry and the proper use of the time given to

The following are two obituaries of dear members who passed this past year. We will miss them both and all the work they did for us.

Florence Llewella (First)Gross was born Sep. 24, 1926 on a farm in Hazel Green Township near Ryan, Iowa, the daughter of Matthias and Maude Pratt First. She attended the local schools and graduated from Dundee High School with the class of 1945.

Florence was united in marriage to Alfred W. Gross on Jan. 26, 1947 at Manchester, Iowa. To this union were born three children: Darryle, Valerie and Dennis. They moved to Key West, Flor. where Alfred was stationed with the Navy and later moved to New London, Conn. They moved to the Lamont area in 1961 after Alfred retired from the Navy. Florence was a member of St Peter's Lutheran Church at Lamont, the Lamont American Legion Auxiliary, was working part time at the Lamont Library, was very active in the Buchanan and Delaware County Genealogical Societies, and was actively helping get ready for the statewide sesquicentennial.

Florence entered into her rest on Tues, Sep. 26, 1995 at the Delaware County Memorial Hospital in Manchester following a short illness. She was 69 years of age.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her son Dennis in 1986, and her husband Alfred in 1992. She is survived by her son Darryle and his wife Rose of Indianapolis, Ind.; one daughter Valerie Hockey of Muskogee, Okla.; twelve grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren, two sisters, Ruth Francois of Oelwein and Donna Staton of Cedar Rapids; several nieces and nephews, many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held in St Peter's Lutheran Church at Lamont. Interment is in Campton-Oak Hill Cemetery at Lamont.

Elizabeth (Diehl)McSweeney, 81, of Roseville, Minn, and formerly of Independence, died Tues, Oct. 3, 1995, at the Presbyterian Home in Roseville, Minn, following a long illness.

Elizabeth was born Jan. 17, 1914, on a farm north of Fairbank, the daughter of Benjamin W. and Edla J. (Oline)Diehl. She graduated from the Oelwein High School in 1932, and Mounds Midway School of Nursing in St Paul, Minn, in 1935. She was employed as a Registered Nurse in St Paul, Minn. until 1940, at which time she moved to Independence and became employed with People's Memorial Hospital in Independence. She served as superintendent of People's Memorial Hosp. from 1942 through 1947. On Aug. 12, 1944, she married Vincent G. (V.G.) McSweeney. He died on Jan. 29, 1985. In 1993, Elizabeth moved to the St Paul, Minn. area to be near her daughter, due to declining health. She was active in the Independence community for many years, serving with the Girl Scouts, the Knights of Columbus, the Buchanan County Red Cross, Buchanan County Board of Health, and the American Cancer Society. She was the secretary-treasurer for the St. John's Cemetery Assoc. for 30 years, a member of Catholic Daughters of the America's, and the Buchanan County Genealogical Society. In 1981, the Independence Chamber of Commerce presented her with the Outstanding Resident of the Year, in recognition of outstanding service to the community.

Survivors include her daughter and son-in-law, Mary Ann and Gary Johnson of Inver Grove Heights, Minn; and two grandsons, Philip and Steven Johnson of Inver Grove Heights, Minn. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, V.G.McSweeney; a brother, Glenn Diehl; and a half sister, Gladys Ehler.

Burial was in St. John's Cemetery. Memorials may be direct to St. John's Catholic Church, Independence, or to the Buchanan County Genealogical Society, P.O.Box 4; Independence, Iowa 50644-0004.

OBITS FROM THE PAST

MRS. ELIZABETH FREEMAN

Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman died at her home in this city Monday about midnight.

Elizabeth Armstrong was born in Ohio August 18, 1818. When a child her parents moved to New York state, where she was married to Isaac G. Freeman. In 1854 the couple removed to Buchanan county, and settled on the farm, five miles east of this city, which still remains in the family, and where Mr. Freeman died twenty years ago. Mrs. Freeman had always enjoyed the most rugged health until last fall, when the infirmities of age first began to seriously tell upon her. She traveled a great deal, and was always active, both mentally and physically. About four weeks ago it was found that the end was approaching, and she sank gradually into the silent sleep. Eight living children mourn the loss of a loving mother, P.G., William D., and I.E., of this city; George P., of Mason City; Charles, of Montana; Mrs. R.C. House and Mrs. Lillian Voght, of Denver, Col., and Mrs. Harriet F. Wright, of Manitou, Col. Mrs. Freeman joined the Baptist church in her youth, and had always since been a faithful member of that denomination. The funeral occurred this afternoon; interment at the Wilson cemetery.

ROY ISAAC BALCOM

Roy Isaac Balcom died at the home of his father, C.H. Balcom, near Staples, Minn., November 10, 1908. He was born near Jesup August 25, 1888.

The funeral services was held at the home Wednesday at 2 o'clock p. m. then, with his brother and wife to accompany the remains, he was laid to rest Saturday morning beside his mother in the Jesup cemetery, where a few of the relatives and friends gathered to perform the last sad rite. Prayer was offered at the grave by the Presbyterian minister of Jesup.

He was converted, baptised and was ready and willing to go when his Savior called. He leaves a bereaved father, stepmother, three brothers, two sisters and two grandmothers, besides many other friends to mourn his loss, also his aunt, Mrs. N.A. Randall, near Otterville.

Wedding Bells...

Select marriage records from the Independence Bulletin Journal,
November 2, 1939.

Daut - Hood

Miss Theresa Louise Daut and Mr. A. J. (Bert) Hood, city, announce their marriage on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 25, 1939, at 3 o'clock at the Presbyterian parsonage in Muscatine, the Rev. Henry Schnider, pastor, officiating. Accompanying the couple were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Friedman, city, the latter a sister of the bride. A wedding dinner followed in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Glenn Ashton, in that city, Dr. W. Daut, the bride's brother, Muscatine, also being present. Mr. and Mrs. Hood later returned to Independence and are to occupy the Hood home, 700 East Main, where they will be "at home" after Nov. 15.

By this marriage a well known local couple have been wedded. The bride, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Daut, Muscatine, is a graduate of the Bellevue hospital school for nurses in that city, and since has been engaged in that profession, for several years on the staff of the People's Hospital here. Mr. Hood is a well known retired farmer, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Hood, was born, grew up, and has made his home all of his life in this county, and for a number of years in this city.

Sayles - Slaughter

Rev. R. B. Sires, pastor of the Linden Methodist Church, Waterloo, read the single ring ceremony Saturday p.m., Oct. 28, 1939, at 5 o'clock in the parsonage, uniting in marriage Miss Lois Sayles, of Jesup, and Dale Slaughter, of Decorah. They were attended by the bride's sister, Mrs. Clarence Cook, and the groom's brother, Wayne Slaughter. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Sayles of Rowley. She graduated from the Rowley High School and for the past 3 1/2 years has been employed as a waitress in the Wood's cafe. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Slaughter, Independence, a graduate of Independence High School, and is now a bookkeeper for the Durey Oil Co. at Decorah. The bridal party enjoyed a wedding dinner at Neeley's Cupboard, Waterloo. Mr. and Mrs. Slaughter left later for Decorah, where they will make their home.
