Old Setter's Talk

[Much of the beginning is missing. The article picks up where it is complete.]

... and on the many fields where they served, won for them high praise in circles both military and civil. The Iowa troops have been heroes among heroes. The people who loved their whole country could not give enough. Patriotism thrilled and vibrated and pulsated through every heart. The farm, the work shop, the office, the pulpit, the bar, the bench, [t]he college, the school, every calling [o]ffered its best men, their lives and [f]ortunes, in defence of the govern[m]ent, honor and unity. Party lines were for a time ignored. All joined hands in a common cause repeating the oath of

America's soldier statesman, "By the great eternal, the Union must and shall be preserved."

Guthrie county was behind no county [in] the state in the exhibition of [pa]triotism. In every call it responded [w]ith its best men, some of whom went _rty never to return. The record of [th]e county is a noble one. It furnished [t]wo full companies, Company C 4th. [I]owa Infantry. Company I, 29th. Iowa [I]nfantry, besides numerous men for other Iowa regiments. Company C. 4th Iowa, was organized in July 1861, and [m]ustered into the United States service [o]n the 8th of August in response to [th]e first call for 300,000 men. Company [I.] 29th Infantry, was organized in [Au]gust 1862

FIRST BATTERY.

No words can describe the good done, the lives saved, and last hours made easy by the host of noble women of Iowa, of whom would take a volumne to speak. Every county, every town, every neighborhood in the state had these true heroes, whose praise can never be fully known till the final rendering of all accounts of deeds done in the body. The contributions of sanitary fairs during the war were enormous, and to this must be added the work of the the noble women of Iowa, whose heroic sacrifices should have the undying gratitude of the people. Military Discharges

The following is an index to the first three of ten books of military discharge records in the Recorder's office at the Guthrie County courthouse. Generally these include discharge, autopsy report, performed service, promotion, transfer, award to beneficiary, discharge from the draft, certificate of service, statement of service, marriage status, branch of service or death with discharges preponderant.

They are nearly in chronological filing order. One of the books had several blank pages at the back that were used in later years. This index is through filings in the fall of 1945. You may not find more than in this index or a lot more including physical description, awards, campaigns, amount due and paid upon discharge, previous occupation and occupation qualified for after discharge.
